10 And now, behold, the children of Ammon and Moab and mount Seir, whom thou "wouldest not let Israel invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned from them, and destroyed them not;

11 Behold, I say, how they reward us, to come to cast us out of thy possession, which thou hast given us to inherit.

12 O our God, wilt thou not ¹judge them? for we have no might against this great company that cometh against us; neither know we what to do. ²but ³our eyes are upon thee.

13 And all Judah stood before the LORD, with their little ones, their wives, and their children.

14 ¶ Then upon Jahaziel, the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, ⁵came the Spirit of the LORD in the midst of the congregation;

15 And he said, Harken ye, all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, and thou king Jehoshaphat, Thus saith the LORD unto you, ⁶Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but God's.

16 To-morrow go ye down against them: behold, they come up by the ⁷cliff of Ziz; and ye shall find them at the end of the ⁸brook, before the wilderness of Jeruel.

17 ⁹Ye shall not need to fight in this battle: set yourselves, stand ye still, and see the salvation of the LORD with you, O Judah and Jerusalem: fear not, nor be dismayed; for to-morrow go out against them: ¹⁰for the LORD will be with you.

18 And Jehoshaphat ¹¹bowed his head with his face to the ground, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell before the LORD, worshipping the LORD.

19 And the Levites, of the children of the Kohathites, and of the children of the Korhites, stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel with a loud voice on high.

20 ¶ And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; ¹²Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established: believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper.

21 And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto the LORD, ¹³and ¹⁴that should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and to say, ¹⁵Praise the LORD; ¹⁶for his mercy endureth for ever.

22 ¶ And when they began ¹⁷to sing and to praise, ¹⁸the LORD set ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah: and ¹⁹they were smitten: ²⁰

23 For the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of mount Seir, utterly to slay and destroy them. and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped ¹to destroy another.

24 And when Judah came toward the watch tower in the wilderness, they looked unto the multitude, and, behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and ²none escaped.

25 And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance both riches with the dead bodies, and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away: and they were three days in gathering of the spoil, it was so much.

26 ¶ And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of ³Berachah; for there they blessed the LORD: therefore the name of the same place was called, The valley of Berachah, unto this day.

27 Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in the ⁴forefront of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy; for the LORD had ⁵made them to rejoice over their enemies.

28 And they came to Jerusalem with psalteries and harps and trumpets unto the house of the LORD.

29 And ⁶the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries, when they had heard that the LORD fought against the enemies of Israel.

30 So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet, for his ⁷God gave him rest round about.

31 ¶ And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. ⁸he was thirty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shihhi.

32 And he walked in the way of Asa his father, and departed not from it, doing that ⁹which was right in the sight of the LORD.

33 Howbeit ¹⁰the high places were not taken away: for as yet the people had not ¹¹prepared their hearts unto the God of their fathers.

34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, behold, they are written in the ¹²book of Jehu the son of Hanani, ¹³who ¹⁴is mentioned in the book of the kings of Israel.

35 ¶ And after this ¹⁵did Jehoshaphat king of Judah join himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, who did very wickedly:

36 ¹ And he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish: and they made the ships in Ezion-gaber.

37 Then Eliezer the son of Dodavah of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, Because thou hast joined thyself with Ahaziah, the LORD hath broken thy works. And the ships were broken, that they were not able to go ² to Tarshish.

CHAPTER 21.

¹ Jehoram, succeeding Jehoshaphat slayeth his brethren. ⁵ His wicked reign. ¹² The prophecy of Elijah against him. ¹⁸ His incurable disease.

NOW ¹ Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And Jehoram his son ² reigned in his stead.

2 And he had brethren the sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah: all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel.

3 And their father gave them great gifts of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fenced cities in Judah: but the kingdom gave he to ⁴ Jehoram; because he was the firstborn.

4 Now when Jehoram was risen up to the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself, and slew all his brethren with the sword, and divers also of the princes of Israel.

5 ¹ ¹ Jehoram was thirty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

6 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, like as did the house of Ahab: for he had the daughter of ² Ahab to wife: and he wrought that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD.

7 Howbeit the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a ³ light to him and to his ⁴ sons for ever.

8 ¹ ¹ In his days the Edomites revolted from under the ² dominion of Judah, and made themselves a king.

9 Then Jehoram went forth with his princes, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him in, and the captains of the chariots.

10 So the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. The same time also did Labnah revolt from under his hand: because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers.

11 Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to ³ commit fornication, and compelled Judah thereto.

him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah, 13 But hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast ¹ made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to ² go a whoring, like to the ³ whoredoms of the house of Ahab, and also hast ⁴ slain thy brethren of thy father's house, which were better than thyself.

14 Behold, with ⁵ a great plague will the LORD smite thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy goods:

15 And thou ⁶ shalt have great sickness by ⁷ disease of thy bowels, until thy bowels fall out by reason of the sickness day by day.

16 ¹ Moreover the LORD ² stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians, that were near the Ethiopians:

17 And they came up into Judah, and brake into it, and ³ carried away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and ⁴ his sons also, and his wives; so that there was never a son left him, save ⁵ Jehozabab, the youngest of his sons.

18 ¹ ¹ And after all this the LORD ² smote him ³ in his bowels with an incurable disease.

19 And it came to pass, that in process of time, after the end of two years, his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness: so he died of sore diseases. And his people made no burning for him, like ⁴ the burning of his fathers.

20 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years, and departed ⁵ without being desired. Howbeit they buried him in the city of David, but not in the sepulchres of the kings.

CHAPTER 22.

¹ Athaliah succeeding reigneth wickedly. ⁵ She is slain by Joash 10 Athaliah, destroying all the seed royal, save Joash, usurpeth the kingdom.

AND the inhabitants of Jerusalem ¹ made ² Athaliah his youngest son king in his stead for the band of men that came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the ³ eldest. So Athaliah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned.

2 ¹ Forty and two years old was Athaliah when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was ² Athaliah the daughter of Omri.

3 He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab for his mother was his counsellor to do wickedly.

4 Wherefore he did evil in the sight of the LORD like the house of Ahab: for they were his counsellors after the death of his father to his destruction.

5 ¶ He walked also after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead, and the Syrians smote Joram. 6 And he returned to be healed in Jezreel because of the wounds which were given him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And Azariah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab at Jezreel, because he was sick.

7 And the destruction of Ahaziah was of God by coming to Joram: for when he was come, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.

8 And it came to pass, that, when Jehu was executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brethren of Ahaziah, that ministered to Ahaziah, he slew them.

9 And he sought Ahaziah, and they caught him, (for he was hid in Samaria,) and brought him to Jehu: and when they had slain him, they buried him: Because, said they, he is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart. So the house of Ahaziah had no power to keep still the kingdom.

10 ¶ But when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal of the house of Judah.

11 But Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stolo him from among the king's sons that were slain, and put him and his nurse in a bedchamber. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest, (for she was the sister of Ahaziah,) hid him from Athaliah, so that she slew him not.

12 And he was with them hid in the house of God six years: and Athaliah reigned over the land.

Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adah, and Elshaphat the son of Zichri, into covenant with him.

2 And they went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the chief of the fathers of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

3 And all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said unto them, Behold, the king's son shall reign, as the LORD hath said of the sons of David.

4 This is the thing that ye shall do; A third part of you entering on the sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be porters of the doors;

5 And a third part shall be at the king's house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation: and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD.

6 But let none come into the house of the LORD, save the priests, and they that minister of the Levites; they shall go in, for they are holy: but all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD.

7 And the Levites shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whosoever else cometh into the house, he shall be put to death: but be ye with the king when he cometh in, and when he goeth out.

8 So the Levites and all Judah did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest had commanded, and took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that were to go out on the sabbath: for Jehoiada the priest dismissed not the courses.

9 Moreover Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been king David's, which were in the house of God.

10 And he set all the people, every man having his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and the temple, by the king round about.

11 Then they brought out the king's son, and put upon him the crown, and gave him the testimony, and made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, God save the king.

12 ¶ Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of the LORD:

13 And she looked, and, behold, the king stood at his pillar at the entering in, and the princes and the trumpets by the king; and all the people of the land rejoiced, and sounded with trumpets, also the singers with instruments of music; and such as taught to sing praise. Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, ¹Treason, Treason.

14 Then Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds that were set over the host, and said unto them, Have her forth of the ranges, and whoso followeth her, let him be slain with the sword. For the priest said, Slay her not in the house of the LORD.

15 So they laid hands on her; and when she was come to the entering of the horse gate by the king's house, they slew her there.

16 ¶ And Jehoiada made a covenant between him, and between all the people, and between the king, that they should be of the LORD's people.

17 Then all the people went to the house of Baal, and brake it down, and brake his altars and his images in pieces, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.

18 Also Jehoiada appointed the officers of the house of the LORD by the hand of the priests the Levites, whom David had distributed in the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, as it was ordained by David.

19 And he set the porters at the gates of the house of the LORD, that none which was unclean in any thing should enter in.

20 And he took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the house of the LORD: and they came through the high gate into the king's house, and set the king upon the throne of the kingdom.

21 And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet, after that they had slain Athaliah with the sword.

2 And Joash ¹did that which was right in the sight of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest.

3 And Jehoiada took for him two wives; and he begat sons and daughters.

4 ¶ And it came to pass after this, that Joash was minded ¹to repair the house of the LORD.

5 And he gathered together the priests, and the Levites, and said to them, Go out unto the cities of Judah, and gather of all Israel money to repair the house of your God from year to year, and see that ye hasten the matter. Howbeit the Levites hastened it not.

6 And the king called for Jehoiada the chief, and said unto him, Why hast thou not required of the Levites to bring in out of Judah and out of Jerusalem the collection, according to the commandment of Moses the servant of the LORD, and of the congregation of Israel, for the tabernacle of witness?

7 For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up the house of God; and also all the dedicated things of the house of the LORD did they bestow upon Baalim.

8 And at the king's commandment they made a chest, and set it without at the gate of the house of the LORD.

9 And they made a proclamation through Judah, and Jerusalem, to bring in to the LORD the collection that Moses the servant of God laid upon Israel in the wilderness.

10 And all the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end.

11 Now it came to pass, that at what time the chest was brought unto the king's office by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to his place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance.

12 And the king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the LORD, and also such as wrought iron and brass to mend the house of the LORD.

13 So the workmen wrought, and the work was perfected by them, and they set the house of God in his state, and strengthened it.

14 And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, whereof were made vessels for the house of the LORD, even vessels to minister, and ¹to offer withal, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada.

15 ¶ But Jehoiada waxed old, and was full of days when he died; an hundred and thirty years old was he when he died.

16 And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both toward God, and toward his house.

17 Now after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah, and made obeisance to the king. Then the king hearkened unto them.

18 And they left the house of the LORD God of their fathers, and served ^agroves and idols: and ^awrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their trespass.

19 Yet he ^asent prophets to them, to bring them again unto the LORD; and they testified against them: but they would not give ear.

20 And ^athe Spirit of God ^acame upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, which stood above the people, and said unto them, Thus saith God, ^aWhy transgress ye the commandments of the LORD, that ye cannot prosper? ^abecause ye have forsaken the LORD, he hath also forsaken you.

21 And they conspired against him, and ^astoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of the LORD.

22 Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son. And when he died, he said, The LORD look upon it, and require it.

23 ¶ And it came to pass ^aat the end of the year, that ^athe host of Syria came up against him; and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of ^aDamascus.

24 For the army of the Syrians ^acame with a small company of men, and the LORD ^adelivered a very great host unto their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. So they ^aexecuted judgment against Joash.

25 And when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great diseases,) ^ahis own servants conspired against him for the blood of the ^asons of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him on this bed, and he died: and they hurried him in the city of David, but they buried him not in the sepulchres of the kings.

26 And these are they that conspired against him; ²Zabab the son of Shimmeath an Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of ³Shumrath a Moabitess.

27 ¶ Now concerning his sons, and the greatness of ^athe burdens laid upon him, and the ^areparing of the house of God, behold, they are written in the ^astory of the book of the kings. ^bAnd Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 25.

1 Amaziah becometh to reign well. 11 He overthroweth the Edomites. 14 He arrieth the rods of Edom. 17 He overthroweth Joash to his overthrow.

AMAZIAH ^awas twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoadan of Jerusalem.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, ^abut not with a perfect heart.

3 ¶ ^aNow it came to pass, when the kingdom was ^aestablished to him, that he slew his servants that had killed the king his father.

4 But he slew not their children, but did as it is written in the law in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, ^aThe fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin.

5 ¶ Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together, and made them captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them ^afrom twenty years old and above, and found them three hundred thousand choice men, able to go forth to war, that could handle spear and shield.

6 He hired also an hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel for an hundred talents of silver.

7 But there came a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee; for the LORD is not with Israel, to wit, with all the children of Ephraim.

8 But if thou wilt go, do not be strong for the battle; God shall make thee fall before the enemy: for God hath ^apower to help, and to cast down.

9 And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the ^aarmy of Israel? And the man of God answered, ^aThe LORD is able to give thee much more than this.

10 Then Amaziah separated them, to ret, the army that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go home again: wherefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in great anger.

11 ¶ And Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and went to the valley of salt, and smote of the children of Seir ten thousand.

12 And other ten thousand left alive did the children of Judah carry away captive, and brought them unto the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, that they all were broken in pieces.

13 ¶ But the soldiers of the army which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto Beth-horon, and smote three thousand of them, and took much spoil.

14 ¶ Now it came to pass, after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense unto them.

15 Wherefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent unto him a prophet, which said unto him, Why hast thou sought after the gods of the people, which could not deliver their own people out of thine hand?

16 And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that the king said unto him, Art thou made of the king's counsel? forbear; why shouldst thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbore, and said, I know that God hath determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done thus, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel.

17 ¶ Then Amaziah king of Judah took advice, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehohaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us see one another in the face.

18 And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle.

19 Thou sayest, Lo, thou hast smitten the Edomites; and thine heart lifteth thee up to boast: abide now at home; why shouldst thou meddle to thine hurt, that thou shouldst fall, even thou, and Judah with thee?

20 But Amaziah would not hear; for

"it came of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they sought after the gods of Edom.

21 So Joash the king of Israel went up; and they saw one another in the face, both he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Beth-shemesh, which belongeth to Judah.

22 And Judah was put to the worse before Israel, and they fled every man to his tent.

23 And Joash the king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Jehohaz, at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, four hundred cubits.

24 And he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obededom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

25 ¶ And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Joash son of Jehohaz king of Israel fifteen years.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, first and last, behold, are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel?

27 ¶ Now after the time that Amaziah did turn away from following the LORD, they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish: but they sent to Lachish after him, and slew him there.

28 And they brought him upon horses, and buried him with his fathers in the city of Judah.

CHAPTER 26.

1 Uzziah succeeding, and reigning well in the days of Zechariah, prospereth. 18 Wazung proud, 19 immoderately the priest's offer, and is written with leprosy. 22 He dieth, and Jotham succeedeth him.

THEN all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the room of his father Amaziah.

2 He built Eloth, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

3 Sixteen years old was Uzziah when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.

4 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah did.

5 And he sought God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding¹ in the visions of God. and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him to prosper.

6 And he went forth and ^bwarred against the Philistines, and brake down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jahneh, and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities ^aabout Ashdod, and among the Philistines.

7 And God helped him against ^cthe Philistines, and against the Arahians that dwell in Gur-baal, and the Mehumims.

8 And the Ammonites ^dgave gifts to Uzziah: and his name ^espread abroad even to the entering in of Egypt; for he strengthened ^fhimself exceedingly.

9 Moreover Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the ^gcorner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the turning of the wall, and ^hfortified them.

10 Also he built towers in the desert, and ⁱdigged many wells: for he had much cattle, both in the low country, and in the plains: husbandmen ^jalso, and vine dressers in the mountains, and in ^kCarmel: for he loved ^lhusbandry.

11 Moreover Uzziah had an host of fighting men, that went out to war by bands, according to the number of their account by the hand of Jehoi the scribe and Maaseiah the ruler, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains.

12 The whole number of the chief of the fathers of the mighty men of valour were two thousand and six hundred.

13 And under their hand ^mwas an army, three hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy.

14 And Uzziah prepared for them throughout all the host shields, and spears, and helmets, and habergeons, and bows, and ⁿslings to cast stones.

15 And he made in Jerusalem on-gines, invented by cunning men, to be on the towers and upon the bulwarks, to shoot arrows and great stones withal. And his name ^ospread far abroad; for he was marvellously helped, till he was strong.

16 ¶ But ^pwhen he was strong, his heart was ^qlifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the LORD his God, and ^rwent into the temple of the LORD to burn incense upon the altar of incense.

17 And ^sAzariah the priest went in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the LORD, that were valiant men:

18 And they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, It ^tappeareth leaveth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the LORD, but to the ^a“priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespasssed; neither shall it be for thine honour from the LORD God.

19 Then Uzziah was wroth, and ^bhad a censor in his hand to burn incense: and while he was wroth with the priests, ^cthe leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, from beside the incense altar.

20 And Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked upon him, and, beheld, ^dhe was leproous in his forehead, and they thrust him out from thence; yea, himself ^ehasted also to go out, because the LORD had smitten him.

21 ^fAnd Uzziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a ^gseveral^h house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD, and Jotham his son ⁱwas over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

22 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, did ^jIsaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, write 23 ^kSo Uzziah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the burial which ^lbelonged to the kings; for they said, He is a leper: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 27.

JOTHAM ^mwas twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also ⁿwas Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok.

2 And he did ^othat which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah did: howbeit he entered not into the temple of the LORD. And ^p“the people did yet corruptly.

3 He built the high gate of the house of the LORD, and on the wall of ^q“Ophel he built much.

4 Moreover he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built castles and towers.

5 ¶ He fought also with the king of the Ammonites, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year an hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. ^r“So much did the children of Ammon pay unto him, both the second year, and the third.

6 So Jotham became mighty, because he prepared his ways before the LORD his God.

7 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

8 He was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.

9 ¶ And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David; and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 28.

1 Ahaz reigning very wickedly is greatly afflicted by the Syrians. 22 In his distress he groweth more idolatrous. 26 He dying, Hezekiah succeeds him.

AHAZ was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; but he did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD, like David his father.

2 For he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made also molten images for Baalim.

3 Moreover he burnt incense in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burnt his children in the fire, after the abominations of the heathen whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

4 He sacrificed also and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

5 Wherefore the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria, and they smote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who smote him with a great slaughter.

6 ¶ For Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah an hundred and twenty thousand men in one day, which were all valiant men; because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers.

7 And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the governor of the house, and Elkanah that was next to the king.

8 And the children of Israel carried away captive of their brethren two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

9 But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded; and he went out before the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold,

"because the LORD God of your fathers was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage that reacheth up unto heaven.

10 And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for bondmen and bondwomen unto you: but are there not with you, even with you, sins against the LORD your God?

11 Now hear me therefore, and deliver the captives again, which ye have taken captive of your brethren. for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you

12 Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them that came from the war, 13 And said unto them, Ye shall not bring in the captives hither: for whicase we have offended against the LORD already, ye intend to add more to our sins and to our trespass; for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel.

14 So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation.

15 And the men which were expressed by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm trees, to their brethren: then they returned to Samaria.

16 ¶ At that time did king Ahaz send unto the kings of Assyria to help him.

17 For again the Edomites had come and smitten Judah, and carried away captives.

18 The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the low country, and of the south of Judah, and had taken Beth-shemesh, and Ajalon, and Gederoth, and Shocho with the villages thereof, and Timnah with the villages thereof, Gimzo also and the villages thereof: and they dwelt there.

19 For the LORD brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel; for he made Judah naked, and transgressed sore against the LORD.

20 And Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria came unto him, and distressed him, but strengthened him not.

21 For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house of the LORD, and out of the house of the king, and of the princes, and gave it unto the king of Assyria: but he helped him not.

22 ¶ And in the time of his distress did he trespass yet more against the LORD: this is that king Ahas.

23 For ^{he} sacrificed unto the gods of Damascus, which smote him: and he said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, therefore will I sacrifice to them, that they may help me. But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel.

24 And Ahas gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, and shut up the doors of the house of the LORD, and he made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem.

25 And in every several city of Judah he made high places ^{to} burn incense unto other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD God of his fathers.

26 ¶ Now the rest of his acts and of all his ways, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

27 And Ahas slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem: but they brought him not into the sepulchres of the kings of Israel: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done.

3 ¶ He in the first year of his reign, in the first month, ^{opened} the doors of the house of the LORD, and repaired them.

4 And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the east street,

5 And said unto them, Hear me, ye Levites, ^{sanctify} now yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy place.

7 ^a Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy place unto the God of Israel.

8 Wherefore the ^b wrath of the LORD was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he hath delivered them to ^c trouble, to astonishment, and to ^d hussing, as ye see with your eyes.

9 For, lo, ^e our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives ^f are in captivity for this.

10 Now ^g it is in mine heart to make ^h a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that his fierce wrath may turn away from us.

11 My sons, ⁱ be not now negligent: for the LORD hath ^j chosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and that ye should minister unto him, and ^k burn incense.

12 ¶ Then the Levites arose, Maliath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites: and of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehalelei: and of the Gershonites; Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah:

13 And of the sons of Elizaphan; Shumri, and Jeiel: and of the sons of Asaph; Zechariah, and Mattaniah:

14 And of the sons of Heman; Jehiel, and Shimei: and of the sons of Jeduthun; Shemaiah, and Uzziel.

15 And they gathered their brethren, and ^l sanctified themselves, and came, according to the commandment of the king, ^m by the words of the LORD, ⁿ to cleanse the house of the LORD.

16 And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD, to cleanse ^o it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took ^p it, to carry ^q it out abroad into the brook Kidron.

17 Now they began on the first ^r day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of the LORD: so they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days; and in the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.

18 Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the shewbread table, with all the vessels thereof.

19 Moreover all the vessels, which king Ahas in his reign did ^s cast away in his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and, behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.

20 ¶ Then Hezekiah the king rose early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

21 And they brought seven bullocks and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he goats, for a sin offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah. And he commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the altar of the LORD.

22 So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar: likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar.

23 And they brought forth the he goats for the sin offering before the king and the congregation; and they laid their hands upon them:

24 And the priests killed them, and they made reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, to make an atonement for all Israel. for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel.

25 And he set the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, and of Gnd the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet: for so was the commandment of the LORD by his prophets.

26 And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.

27 And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering upon the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the song of the LORD began also with the trumpets, and with the instruments ordained by David king of Israel.

28 And all the congregation worshipped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded: and all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

29 And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all that were present with him bowed themselves, and worshipped.

30 Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise unto the LORD with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

31 Then Hezekiah answered and said,

Now ye have consecrated yourselves unto the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank offerings; and as many as were of a free heart burnt offerings.

32 And the number of the burnt offerings, which the congregation brought, was threescore and ten bullocks, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD.

33 And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep.

34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt offerings: wherefore their brethren the Levites did help them, till the work was ended, and until the other priests had sanctified themselves. for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests.

35 And also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings, and the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order.

36 And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people. for the thing was done suddenly.

CHAPTER 30.

1 Hezekiah proclaimed a solemn passover 13 The assembly destroy the altars of idolatry 27 The princes and Levites bless the people

AND Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manassah, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel.

2 For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the passover in the second month.

3 For they could not keep it at that time, because the priests had not sanctified themselves sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem.

4 And the thing pleased the king and all the congregation.

5 So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not done it of a long time in such sort as it was written.

6 So the posts went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, "turn again unto the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you, that are escaped out of the hand of the kings of Assyria.

7 And be not ye "like your fathers, and like your brethren, which trespassed against the LORD God of their fathers, who therefore gave them up to desolation, as ye see.

8 Now "be ye not "stiffnecked, as your fathers were, but "yield yourselves unto the LORD, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever: and servo the LORD your God, "that the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you.

9 For if ye turn again unto the LORD, your brethren and your children shall find "compassion before them that lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land. for the LORD your God is "merciful and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye "return unto him.

10 So the posts passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh even unto Zebulun: but "they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them.

11 Nevertheless "divers of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem.

12 Also in Judah "the hand of God was to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, "by the word of the LORD.

13 ¶ And there assembled at Jerusalem much people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation.

14 And they arose and took away the "altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the brook Kidron.

15 Then they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the second month: and the priests and the Levites were "ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought in the burnt offerings into the house of the LORD.

16 And they stood in "their place after their manner, according to the law of Moses the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood, which they received of the hand of the Levites.

17 For there were many in the congregation that were not sanctified: "therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the passovers for every one that was not clean, to sanctify them unto the LORD.

18 For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim, and Manasseh, Is-sachar, and Zobulun, had not cleansed themselves, "yet did they eat the passover otherwise than it was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good LORD pardon every one. "Thou "preparest his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary.

20 And the LORD hearkened to Hezekiah, and healed the people.

21 And the children of Israel that were "present at Jerusalem, kept "the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness: and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with "loud instruments unto the LORD.

22 And Hezekiah spake "comfortably unto all the Levites "that taught the good knowledge of the LORD: and they did eat throughout the feast seven days, offering peace offerings, and "making confession to the LORD God of their fathers.

23 And the whole assembly took counsel to keep "other seven days: and they kept "other seven days with gladness.

24 For Hezekiah king of Judah "did "give to the congregation a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep; and the princes gave to the congregation a thousand bullocks and ten thousand sheep: and a great number of priests "sanctified themselves.

25 And all the congregation of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the congregation "that came out of Israel, and the strangers that came out of the land of Israel, and that dwelt in Judah, rejoiced.

26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem: for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem.

27 ¶ Then the priests the Levites arose and "blessed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to "his holy dwelling place, even unto heaven.

CHAPTER 31.

1 The people forward in doing holiness 5 The offerings and tithes 11 Hezekiah appointed of the tithes 20 His mercy

NOW when all this was finished, all Israel that were "present went out to the cities of Judah, and "brake the "images in pieces, and cut down the groves, and threw down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, "until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities.

2 ¶ And Hezekiah appointed ^athe courses of the priests and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, the priests and Levites ^bfor burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the tents of the LORD.

3 He appointed also the king's portion of his substance for the burnt offerings, to wit, for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in the law of the LORD.

4 Moreover he commanded the people that dwelt in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might be encouraged in the law of the LORD.

5 ¶ And as soon as the commandment came abroad, the children of Israel brought in abundance ^athe firstfruits of corn, wine, and oil, and ^bhoney, and of all the increase of the field; and the tithe of all things brought they in abundantly.

6 And concerning the children of Israel and Judah, that dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of holy things which were consecrated unto the LORD their God, and laid them ^bby heaps.

7 In this third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month.

8 And when Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD, and his people Israel.

9 Then Hezekiah questioned with the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.

10 And Azariah the chief priest of the house of Zadok answered him, and said, "Since the people began to bring their offerings into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat, and have left plenty: for the LORD hath blessed his people; and that which is left is this great store."

11 ¶ Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare ^achambers in the house of the LORD; and they prepared them.

12 And brought in the offerings and the tithes and the dedicated things faithfully: ^aover which Conaniah the Levite was ruler, and Shimei his brother was the next.

13 And Jehiel, and Azariah, and Nathath, and Asahel, and Jormoth, and Jorabab, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, were overseers ^aunder the hand of Conaniah and Shimei his brother, at the command-

14 And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the porter toward the east, was over the freewill offerings of God, to distribute the oblations of the LORD, and the most holy things.

15 And ^anext him were Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and Sheamiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the cities of the priests, in their ^aset office, to give to their brethren by courses, as well to the great as to the small:

16 Beside their genealogy of males from three years old and upward, even unto every one that entered into the house of the LORD, his daily portion for their service in their charges according to their courses;

17 Both to the genealogy of the priests, by the house of their fathers, and the Levites ^afrom twenty years old and upward, in their charges by their courses;

18 And to the genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation: for in their ^aset office they sanctified themselves in holiness:

19 Also of the sons of Aaron the priests, which were in ^athe fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every several city, the men that were ^aexpressed by name, to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all that were reckoned by genealogies among the Levites.

20 ¶ And thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah, and ^awrought that which was good and right and truth before the LORD his God.

21 And in every work that he began in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandment to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

CHAPTER 32.

¹ Sennacherib invading Judah, Hezekiah fortified himself, and encouraged his people. ²¹ An army I destroyeth the host of the Assyrians. ²⁴ Hezekiah praying in his sickness God quick him a sign of recovery. ²⁷ His wealth and works.

AFTER these things, and the establishment thereof, Sennacherib king of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fenced cities, and thought ^ato win them for himself.

2 And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that ^ahe was purposed to fight against Jerusalem,

3 He took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of the fountains which were without the city: and they did help him

4 So there was gathered much people together, who stopped all the fountains, and the brook that ¹ran through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come, and find much water?

5 Also ²he strengthened himself, and huilt up all the wall that was broken, and raised ³it up to the towers, and another wall without, and repaired ⁴Millo in the city of David, and made ⁵darts and shields in abundance.

6 And he set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the street of the gate of the city, and ⁷spake comfortably to them, saying,

7 ⁸Be strong and courageous, ⁹be not afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that ¹⁰is with him: for ¹¹there be more with us than with him:

8 With him ¹²is an ¹³arm of flesh; but ¹⁴with us ¹⁵is the LORD our God to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people ¹⁶rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

9 ¹⁷¶ After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem, (but he ¹⁸himself ¹⁹laid siege against Lachish, and all his ²⁰power with him,) unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah that ²¹were at Jerusalem, saying,

10 Thus saith Sennacherib king of Assyria, Whereon do ye trust, that ye abide ¹¹in the siege in Jerusalem?

11 Doth not Hezekiah persuade you to give over yourselves to die by famine and by thirst, saying, ¹²The LORD our God shall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

12 Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it?

13 Know ye not what I and my fathers have done unto all the people of ¹⁴other lands? ¹⁵were the gods of the nations of those lands any ways able to deliver their lands out of mine hand?

14 Who ¹⁶was there among all the gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of mine hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of mine hand?

15 Now therefore ¹⁷let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you on this manner, neither yet believe him: for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of mine hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much less shall your God deliver you out of mine hand?

16 And his servants spake yet more against the LORD God, and against his servant Hezekiah.

17 ¹¶ He wrote also letters to rail on the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, ²As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of mine hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of mine hand.

18 ³¶ Then they cried with a loud voice in the Jews' speech unto the people of Jerusalem ⁴that were on the wall, to affright them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city.

19 And they spake against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth, ⁵which were the work of the hands of man.

20 ⁶¶ And for this cause Hezekiah the king, and ⁷the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz, prayed and cried to heaven.

21 ⁸¶ And the LORD sent an angel, which cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come unto the house of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels ⁹slew him there with the sword.

22 Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all other, and guided them on every side.

23 And many brought gifts unto the LORD to Jerusalem, and ¹presented to Hezekiah king of Judah: so that he was ²magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.

24 ³¶ In those days Hezekiah was sick to the death, and prayed unto the LORD: and he spake unto him, and he ⁴gave him a sign.

25 But Hezekiah ⁵rendered not again according to the benefit ⁶done unto him; for ⁷his heart was lifted up; ⁸therefore there was wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem.

26 ⁹¶ Notwithstanding Hezekiah humbled himself for ¹⁰the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD came not upon them ¹¹in the days of Hezekiah.

27 ¹²¶ And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honour; and he made himself treasures for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of ¹³pleasant jewels;

28 Storehouses also for the increase of corn, and wine, and oil; and stalls for all manner of beasts, and cotes for flocks.

29 Moreover he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance: for "God had given him substance very much.

30 "This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper watercourse of Gihon, and brought it straight down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works.

31 ¶ Howbeit in the business of the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who "sent unto him to enquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him, to "try him, that he might know all that was in his heart.

32 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his "goodness, behold, they are written in "the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the "book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

33 "And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the "chiefest of the sepulchres of the sons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him "honour at his death. And Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

MANASSEH "was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem:

2 But did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, like unto the "abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

3 ¶ For "he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had "broken down, and he reared up altars for Baalim, and "mado groves, and worshipped "all the host of heaven, and served them.

idol which he had made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David, and to Solomon his son, "In "this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever:

8 "Neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from out of the land which I have appointed for your fathers; so that they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses.

9 So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, and to do worse than the heathen, whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 And the LORD spake to Manasseh and to his people: but they would not hearken.

11 ¶ "Wherefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the thorns, and "bound him with "fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

12 And when he was in affliction, he besought the LORD his God, and "humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers, 13 And prayed unto him: and he was "intreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh "knew that the LORD he was God.

14 Now after this he built a wall without the city of David, on the west side of "Gihon, in the valley, even to the entering in at the fish gate, and compassed "about "Ophel, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah.

15 And he took away "the strange gods, and the idol out of the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city.

16 And he repaired the altar of the LORD, and sacrificed thereon peace offerings and "thank offerings, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel.

17 "Nevertheless the people did sacrifice still in the high places, yet unto the LORD their God only.

18 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer unto his God, and the words of "the seers that spake to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel.

19 His prayer also, and how God was intreated of him, and all his sins, and his trespass, and the places wherein he built high places, and set up groves and graven images, before he was humbled: behold, they are written among the sayings of ²the seers.

20 ¶ So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they hurried him in his own house: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

21 ¶ Amon was two and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned two years in Jerusalem.

22 But he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as did Manasseh his father: for Amon sacrificed unto all the carved images, which Manasseh his father had made, and served them;

23 And humbled not himself before the LORD, ^{as} Manasseh his father had humbled himself; but Amon ^{trespassed} more and more.

24 And his servants conspired against him, and slew him in his own house.

25 ¶ But the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

1 Josiah's good reign. 3 He did destroy idolatry. 8 He tooketh order for the repair of the temple. 14 Josiah sendeth to Balaiah in quest of the Lord. 23 Balaiah prophesieth the destruction of Jerusalem. 29 Josiah reneweth the covenant with God.

JOSIAH ^{was} eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty years.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither to the right hand, nor to the left.

3 ¶ For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to ^{seek} after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began ^{to} purge Judah and Jerusalem ^{from} the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images.

4 And they brake down the altars of Baalim in his presence; and the ^{images}, that were on high above them, he cut down; and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images, he brake in pieces, and made dust of them, ^{and} strowed ^{it} upon the ^{graves} of them that had sacrificed unto them.

5 And he ^{burnt} the bones of the priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

6 And so did he in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, with their ¹mattocks round about.

7 And when he had broken down the altars and the groves, and had ^{beaten} the graven images ^{into} powder, and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

8 ¶ Now ⁱⁿ the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God.

9 And when they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered ^{the} money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the doors had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin; and they returned to Jerusalem.

10 And they put ^{it} in the hand of the workmen that had the oversight of the house of the LORD, and they gave it to the workmen that wrought in the house of the LORD, to repair and amend the house:

11 Even to the artificers and builders gave they ^{it}, to buy hewn stone, and timber for couplings, and ^{to} floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed.

12 And the men did the work faithfully: and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to set ^{it} forward; and other of the Levites, all that could skill of instruments of musick.

13 Also they were over the bearers of hurdens, and were overseers of all that wrought the work in any manner of service: ^{and} of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and porters.

14 ¶ And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest ^{found} a book of the law of the LORD ^{given} by Moses.

15 And Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan.

16 And Shaphan carried the book to the king, and brought the king word back again, saying, All that was committed ^{to} thy servants, they do ^{it}.

17 And they have ^{gathered} together the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and to the hand of the workmen.

19 Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath given me a book. And Shaphan read it before the king.

19 And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the law, that he rent his clothes.

20 And the king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king's, saying, 21 Go, enquire of the LORD for me, and for them that are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do after all that is written in this book.

22 And Hilkiah, and they that the king had appointed, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the college) and they spake to her to that effect.

23 ¶ And she answered them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell ye the man that sent you to me, 24 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah.

25 Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall not be quenched.

26 And as for the king of Judah, who sent you to enquire of the LORD, so shall ye say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel concerning the words which thou hast heard;

27 Because thine heart was tender, and thou didst humble thyself before God, when thou heardest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thyself before me, and didst rend thy clothes, and weep before me; I have even heard thee also, saith the LORD.

28 Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, neither shall 29 ¶ Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

30 And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, great and small; and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of the LORD.

31 And the king stood in his place, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant which are written in this book.

32 And he caused all that were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand to it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

33 And Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the children of Israel, and made all that were present in Israel to serve, even to serve the LORD their God. And all his days they departed not from following the LORD, the God of their fathers.

CHAPTER 35.

1 Josiah keepeth a most solemn passover 20 H., provoking Pharaoh-necho, is slain at Megiddo. 25 Lamentations for Josiah.

MOREOVER Josiah kept a passover unto the LORD in Jerusalem, and they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month.

2 And he set the priests in their charges, and encouraged them to the service of the house of the LORD.

3 And said unto the Levites that taught all Israel, which were holy unto the LORD, Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel did build; it shall not be a burden upon your shoulders; serve now the LORD your God, and his people Israel.

4 And prepare yourselves by the houses of your fathers, after your courses, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomon his son.

5 And stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the families of the fathers of your brethren the people, and after the division of the families of the Levites.

6 So kill the passover, and "sanctify yourselves, and prepare your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses

7 And Josiah "gave³ to the people, of the flock, lambs and kids, all for the passover offerings, for all that were present, to the number of thirtv thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of the king's substance.

8 And his princes "gave willingly unto the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave unto the priests for the passover offerings two thousand and six hundred small cattle, and three hundred oxen.

9 Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nathaneel, his brethren, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, chief of the Levites, "gave unto the Levites for passover offerings five thousand small cattle, and five hundred oxen.

10 So the service was prepared, and the priests "stood in their place, and the Levites in their courses, according to the king's commandment.

11 And they killed the passover, and the priests "sprinkled the blood from their hands, and the Levites "flayed them.

12 And they removed the burnt offerings, that they might give according to the divisions of the families of the people, to offer unto the LORD, as it is written "in the book of Moses And so did they with the oxen 13 And they "roasted the passover with fire according to the ordinance: but the other holy offerings "sod they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and "divided them speedily among all the people.

14 And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests: because the priests the sons of Aaron were busied in offering of burnt offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron.

15 And the singers the sons of Asaph were in their "place, according to the "commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the porters "waited at every gate; they might not depart from their service; for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.

16 So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of king Josiah.

17 And the children of Israel that were "present kept the passover at that time, and the feast of "unleavened bread seven days.

18 And "there was no passover like to that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did all the kings of Israel keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept.

20 ¶ "After all this, when Josiah had prepared the "temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Charchemish by Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him.

21 But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against "the house wherewith I have war: for God commanded me to make haste: forbear thee from meddling with God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not.

22 Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but "disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Necho from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo.

23 And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore "wounded.

24 "His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried "in one of the sepulchres of his fathers. And "all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

25 ¶ And Jeremiah "lamented for Josiah and "all the singing men and the singing women spake of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, "and made them an ordinance in Israel: and, behold, they are written in the lamentations.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his "goodness, according to that which was written in the law of the LORD, 27 And his deeds, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

THEN "the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's stead in Jerusalem.

2 Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

3 And the king of Egypt put him down at Jerusalem, and condemned the land in an hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

4 And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and turned his name to Jehoakim. And Necho took Jehoahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.

5 ¶ Jehoakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem; and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God.

6 Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon.

7 Nebuchadnezzar also carried of the vessels of the house of the LORD to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon.

8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was written in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah: and Jehoachin his son reigned in his stead.

9 ¶ Jehoachin was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.

10 And when the year was expired, king Nebuchadnezzar sent, and brought him to Babylon, with the goodly vessels of the house of the LORD, and made Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.

his neck, and hardened his heart from turning unto the LORD God of Israel.

14 ¶ Moreover all the chief of the priests, and the people, transgressed very much after all the abominations of the heathen; and polluted the house of the LORD which he had hallowed in Jerusalem.

15 And the LORD God of their fathers sent to them by his messenger, rising up betimes, and sending; because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling place:

16 But they mocked the messenger of God, and despised his word, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the LORD arose against his people, till there was no remedy.

17 Therefore he is ought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man, or him that stooped for age: he gave them all into his hand.

20 And them that had escaped from the sword carried he away to Babylon; where they were servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia:

21 To fulfil the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths, for as long as she lay desolate she kept sabbath, to fulfil threescore and ten years.

22 ¶ Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying, 23 Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, All the kingdoms of the earth hath the LORD God of heaven given me; and he hath charged me to build him an house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Who is there among you of all his people? The LORD his God be with him, and let him go up.

CHAPTER 1.

1 The proclamation of Cyrus for the building of the temple 5 The people provide for the return 7 Cyrus restoreth the vessels of the temple to Sheshbazzar

NOW in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,

2 Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The LORD God of heaven hath given me, all the kingdoms of the earth; and he hath charged me to build him an house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah.

3 Who is there among you of all his people? his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel, (he is the God,) which is in Jerusalem.

4 And whosoever remaineth in any place where he sojourneth, let the men of his place help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, beside the freewill offering for the house of God that is in Jerusalem.

5 ¶ Then rose up the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, with all them whose spirit God had raised, to go up to build the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem.

6 And all they that were about them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things, beside all that was willingly offered.

7 ¶ Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house of his gods;

8 Even those did Cyrus king of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them unto Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah.

9 And this is the number of them: thirty chargers of gold, a thousand chargers of silver, nine and twenty knives, 58 All the ⁶Nethinims, and the children of ⁷Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.

 59 And these were they which went up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsa, Cherub, Addan, and Immer: but they could not shew their father's house, and their seed, whether they were of Israel:
 60 The children of Delaiah, the children of Tolnah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred fifty and two.
 61 ¶ And of the children of the priests: the children of Habaiah, the children of Koz, the children of Barzillai; which took a wife of the daughters of ⁸Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called after their name:
 62 These sought then register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but they were not found: ⁹therefore ¹⁰we were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood.
 63 And the ¹¹Tirshatha said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with ¹²Urim and with Thummim.

 66 Their horses were seven hundred thirty and six; their mules, two hundred forty and five;
 67 Their camels, four hundred thirty and five; their asses, six thousand seven hundred and twenty.
 68 ¶ And some of the chief of the fathers, when they came to the house of the LORD which is at Jerusalem, offered freely for the house of God to set it up in his place:

69 They gave after their ability unto the treasure of the work threescore and one thousand drams of gold, and five thousand pound of silver, and one hundred priests' garments.

70 So the priests, and the Levites, and some of the people, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims, dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

CHAPTER 3.

1 The altar is set up & Offerings frequented. 2 Workmen prepared. 3 The foundations of the temple are laid in great joy and mourning.

AND when the seventh month was come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem.

2 Then stood up Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is written in the law of Moses the man of God.

3 And they set the altar upon his bases; for fear was upon them because of the people of those countries: and they offered burnt offerings thereon unto the LORD, even burnt offerings morning and evening.

4 They kept also the feast of tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the custom, as the duty of every day required;

5 And afterward offered the continual burnt offering, both of the new moons, and of all the set feasts of the LORD that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a freewill offering unto the LORD.

6 From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt offerings unto the LORD. But the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not yet laid.

7 They gave money also unto the masons, and to the carpenters; and meat, and drink, and oil, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea of Joppa, according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

8 Now in the second year of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the house of the LORD.

9 Then stood Jeshua with his sons and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, together, to set forward the workmen in the house of God: the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brethren the Levites.

10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise the LORD, after the ordinance of David king of Israel.

11 And they sang together by course in praising and giving thanks unto the LORD; because he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

12 But many of the priests and Levites and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men, that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy:

13 So that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

CHAPTER 4.

1 The adversaries, being not accepted in the building of the temple with the Jews, endeavour to hinder it.

2 Their letter to Artaxerxes. 3 The decree of Artaxerxes. 4 The building is hindered.

NOW when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded the temple unto the LORD God of Israel; 2 Then they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and said unto them, Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye do; and we do sacrifice unto him since the days of Assurim king of Assyria, which brought us up hither.

3 But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said unto them, Ye have nothing to do with us to build an house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the LORD God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us.

4 Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building,

5 And hired counsellors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

6 And in the reign of ¹Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they unto him an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

7 ¶ And in the days of Artaxerxes wrote ²Bushlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their ³companions, unto Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the writing of the letter was written in the Syrian tongue, and interpreted in the Syrian tongue.

8 Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king in this sort:

9 Then wrote Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their ³companions; ⁴the Dinaites, the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Susanchites, the Dehavites, and the Elamites,

10 ¶ And the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Assanaper had over, and set in the cities of Samaria, and the rest that are on this side the river, and ⁵at such a time.

11 ¶ This is the copy of the letter that they sent unto him, even unto Artaxerxes the king; Thy servants the men on this side the river, and at such a time.

12 Be it known unto the king, that the Jews which came up from thee to us are come unto Jerusalem, building the rebellious and the bad city, and have ⁶set up the walls thereof, and ⁷joined the foundations.

13 Be it known now unto the king, that if this city be builded, and the walls set up again, then will they not ⁸pay ⁹toll, tribute, and custom, and so thou shalt endamage the ¹⁰revenue of the kings.

14 Now because ⁷we have maintenance from the king's palace, and it was not meet for us to see the king's dishonour, therefore have we sent and certified the king;

15 That search may be made in the book of the records of thy fathers: so shalt thou find in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful unto kings and provinces, and that they have ⁶moved sedition ⁷within the same of old time: for which cause was this city destroyed.

16 We certify the king that, if this city be builded again, and the walls thereof set up, by this means thou

17 ¶ Then sent the king an answer unto Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their ²companions that dwell in Samaria, and unto the rest beyond the river, Peace, and at such a time.

18 The letter which ye sent unto us hath been plainly read before me.

19 And ⁵I commanded, and senesh hath been made, and it is found that this city of old time hath ⁶made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made therein.

20 There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, which have ⁷ruled over all countries ⁸beyond the river; and toll, tribute, and custom, was paid unto them.

21 ¶ Givo ye now commandment to cause these men to cease, and that this city be not builded, until another commandment shall be given from me.

22 Take heed now that ye fail not to do this: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings?

23 ¶ Now when the copy of king Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem unto the Jews, and made them to cease ²by force and power.

24 Then ceased the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem. So it ceased unto the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Zerubbabel and Joshua set forward the building of the temple. 3 Tatnai and Shethar-bozrai could not hinder the Jews. 6 Their letter to Darius.

¶ THEN the prophets, ⁷Haggai the prophet, and ⁸Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied unto the Jews that were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, even unto them.

2 Then rose up ⁴Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem: and with them were the prophets of God helping them.

3 ¶ At the same time came to them ⁵Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shethar-bozrai, and their companions, and said thus unto them, Who hath commanded you to build this house, and to make up this wall?

4 ¶ Then said we unto them after this manner, What are the names of the men ¹that make this building?

5 But ²the oye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, that they could not cause them to cease, till the matter came to Darius: and then they returned ^{an} answer by letter concerning this matter.

6 ¶ The copy of the letter that Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shethar-boznai, ^{and} his companions the Apharsachites, which were on this side the river, sent unto Darius the king:

7 They sent a letter unto him, ¹ where in was written thus; Unto Darius the king, all peace.

8 Be it known unto the king, that we went into the province of Judea, to the house of the great God, which is builded with ⁴ great stones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work goeth fast on, and prospereth in their hands.

9 Then asked we those elders, and said unto them thus, ⁶ Who commanded you to build this house, and to make up these walls?

10 We asked their names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the men that were the chief of them.

11 And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was builded these many years ago, which a great king of Israel builded ⁹ and set up.

12 But ¹ after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven unto wrath, he gave them into the hand of ² Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon.

13 But in the first year of ¹ Cyrus the king of Babylon the same king Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God.

14 And ² the vessels also of gold and silver of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto one, ³ whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made ⁴ governor;

15 And said unto him, Take these vessels, go, carry them into the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be builded in his place.

16 Then came the same Sheshbazzar, and ¹ laid the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem. and since that time even until now hath it been in building and ² yet it is not finished.

17 Now therefore, if it seem good to the king, ¹ let there be search made in the king's treasure house, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so, that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

CHAPTER 6.

¹ Darius maketh a new decree for advancing the building. 13 By the help of the enemies, and the directions of the prophets, the temple is finished. 18 Prayers of the dedication, 19 and of the passover.

THEN Darius the king made a decree, ² and search was made in the house of the ³ rolls, where the treasures were ⁴ laid up in Babylon.

2 And there was found at ⁵ Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of the Medes, a roll, and therein was a record thus written:

3 In the first year of Cyrus the king the same Cyrus the king made a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, Let the house be builded, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations thereof be strongly laid; the height thereof threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof threescore cubits;

4 ¹ With three rows of great stones, and a row of new timber: and let the expences be given out of the king's house:

5 And also let ² the golden and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought unto Babylon, be restored, and ³ brought again unto the temple which is at Jerusalem, every one to his place, and place them in the house of God.

6 ⁴ Now therefore, Tatnai, governor beyond the river, Shethar-boznai, and ⁵ your companions the Apharsachites, which are beyond the river, be ye far from thence:

7 Let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in his place.

8 Moreover ⁶ I make a decree what ye shall do to the elders of these Jews for the building of this house of God: that of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the river, forthwith expences be given unto these men, that they be not ⁷ hindered.

9 And that which they have need of, both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs, for the burnt offerings of the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the appointment of the priests which are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail:

10 ^bThat they may offer sacrifices of sweet savours unto the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king, and of his sons.

11 Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and being set up, let him be hanged thereon; and let his house be made a dunghill for this.

12 And the God that hath caused his name to dwell there destroy all kings and people, that shall put to their hand to alter and to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it be done with speed.

13 ¶ Then Tatnai, governor on this side the river, Shethar-boznai, and their companions, according to that which Darius the king had sent, so they did speedily.

14 And the elders of the Jews builded, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they builded, and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the commandment of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia.

15 And this house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king.

16 ¶ And the children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of God with joy.

17 And offered at the dedication of this house of God an hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve he goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.

18 And they set the priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God, which is at Jerusalem; as it is written in the book of Moses.

19 And the children of the captivity kept the passover upon the fourteenth day of the first month.

20 For the priests and the Levites were purified together, all of them were pure, and killed the passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves.

CHAPTER 7.

1 Ezra goeth up to Jerusalem. 11 The gracious commission of Artaxerxes to Ezra. 21 Ezra bleisseth God for his favour

NOW after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah,

2 The son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,

3 The son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth,

4 The son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki,

5 The son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest:

6 This Ezra went up from Babylon; and he was a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given: and the king granted him all his request, according to the hand of the LORD his God upon him.

7 And there went up some of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims, unto Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king.

8 And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king.

9 For upon the first day of the first month began he to go up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him.

10 For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach in Israel statutes and judgments.

11 ¶ Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, even a scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his statutes to Israel.

12 Artaxerxes, king of kings, unto Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect peace, and at such a time.

13 I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and of his priests and Levites, in my realm, which are minded of their own freewill to go up to Jerusalem, go with thee.

14 Forasmuch as thou art sent ¹of the king, and of his ²seven counsellors, (¹) enquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of thy God which is in thine hand;

15 And to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counsellors have freely offered unto the God of Israel, whose habitation is in Jerusalem,

16 And all the silver and gold that thou canst find in all the province of Babylon, with the freewill offering of the people, and of the priests, ³offering willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem:

17 That thou mayest buy speedily with this money bullocks, rams, lambs, with their ⁴meat offerings and their drink offerings, and ⁵offer them upon the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem.

18 And whatsoever shall seem good to thee, and to thy brethren, to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, that do after the will of your God.

19 The vessels also that are given thee for the service of the house of thy God, those deliver thou before the God of Jerusalem.

20 And whatsoever more shall be needful for the house of thy God, which thou shalt have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the king's treasure house.

21 And I, even I Artaxerxes the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers which are beyond the river, that whatsoever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done speedily, 22 Unto an hundred talents of silver, and to an hundred ³measures of wheat, and to an hundred baths of wine, and to an hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much.

23 Whatsoever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be diligently done for the house of the God of heaven: for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons?

CHAPTER 8.

1 The companions of Ezra 15 He sendeth in Iddo for ministers for the temple 21 He keeps th a fast 24 He committeth the treasures to the custody of the priests 25 From Achaia they come to Jerusalem 26 The commission is delivered

THESE are now the chief of their fathers, and this is the genealogy of them that went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of Artaxerxes the king.

2 Of the sons of Phinehas; Gershom; of the sons of Ithamar; Daniel: of the sons of David; ³Hattush.

3 Of the sons of Shechamah, of the sons of ⁴Pharosh; Zechariah: and with him were reckoned by genealogy of the males an hundred and fifty

4 Of the sons of Pahath-moab; Elihoenai the son of Zerahiah, and with him two hundred males.

5 Of the sons of Shechaniah; the son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males.

6 Of the sons also of Adin; Ebed the son of Jonathai, and with him fifty males.

7 And of the sons of Elam; ¹Jeshaiah the son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males.

8 And of the sons of Shephatiah; Zebadiah the son of Michael, and with him fourscore males.

9 Of the sons of Joab; Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen males.

10 And of the sons of Shelomith; the son of Josphiah, and with him an hundred and threescore males.

11 And of the sons of Bebai; Zechariah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight males.

12 And of the sons of Azgad; Johanan ²the son of Hakatan, and with him an hundred and ten males.

13 And of the last sons of Adonikam, whose names are these, Elphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, and with them threescore males.

14 Of the sons also of Bigvai; Uthai, and Zabbud, and with them seventy males.

15 ¶ And I gathered them together to the river that runneth to Ahava, and there abode we in tents three days: and I viewed the people, and the priests, and found there none of the sons of Levi.

16 Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, men of understanding.

17 And I sent them with commandment unto Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia, and I told them what they should say unto Iddo, and to his brethren the Nethinims, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring unto us ministers for the house of our God.

18 And by the good hand of our God upon us they brought us a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen;

19 And Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiiah of the sons of Merari, his brethren and their sons, twenty;

20 Also of the Netuinims, whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinims: all of them were expressed by name.

21 ¶ Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river of Ahava, that we might afflict ourselves before our God, to seek of him a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance.

22 For "I was ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, "The hand of our God is upon all them for good that seek him; but his power and his wrath is against all them that forsake him."

23 So we fasted and besought our God for this: and he was intreated of us.

24 ¶ Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them.

25 And weighed unto them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering of the house of our God, which the king, and his counsellors, and his lords, and all Israel there present, had offered:

26 I even weighed unto their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels an hundred talents, and of gold an hundred talents;

27 Also twenty basons of gold, of a thousand drams; and two vessels of fine copper, precious as gold.

28 And I said unto them, Ye are holy unto the LORD; tho vessels are holy also; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering unto the LORD God of your fathers.

29 Watch ye, and keep them, until ye weigh them before the chief of the priests and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD.

30 So took the priests and the Levites the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem unto the house of our God.

31 ¶ Then we departed from the river of Abava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go unto Jerusalem, and the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and of such as lay in wait by the way.

32 And we came to Jerusalem, and abode there three days.

33 ¶ Now on the fourth day was the silver and the gold and the vessels weighed in the house of our God by the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them was Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, Levites;

34 By number and by weight of every one: and all the weight was written at that time.

35 Also the children of those that had been carried away, which were come out of the captivity, offered burnt offerings unto the God of Israel, twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he goats for a sin offering: all this was a burnt offering unto the LORD.

36 ¶ And they delivered the king's commissions unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors on this side the river: and they furthered the people, and the house of God.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Ezra mourned for the affliction of the people with strangers. 8 He pruned unto God.

NOW when these things were done, the princes came to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the people of the lands, doing according to their abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

2 For they have taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons: so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of those lands: yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass.

3 And when I heard this thing, I rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down astonished.

4 Then were assembled unto me every one that trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away; and I sat astonished until the evening sacrifice.

5 ¶ And at the evening sacrifice I arose up from my heaviness; and having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands unto the Lord my God,

6 And said, O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our trespass is grown up unto the heavens.

7 Since the days of our fathers have we been in a great trespass unto this day; and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to confusion of face, as it is this day.

8 And now for a little space grace hath been shewed from the Lord our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage.

9 ¶ For we were bondmen; yet our God hath not forsaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and to repair the desolations thereof, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

10 And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandments,

11 Which thou hast commanded thy servants the prophets, saying, The land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land with the filthiness of the people of the lands, with their abominations, which have filled it

13 And after all that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great trespass, seeing that thou our God hast punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such deliverance as this;

14 Should we again break thy commandments, and join in affinity with the people of these abominations? wouldest not thou be angry with us till thou hadst consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor escaping?

15 O Lord God of Israel, thou art righteous: for we remain yet escaped, as it is this day: behold, we are before thee in our trespasses; for we cannot stand before thee because of this.

CHAPTER 10.

1 Shechaniah encourageth Ezra to reform the strange marriages. 2 Ezra mourning assembles the people. 3 The people repent, and promise amendment. 4 The care to perform it. 5 The names of them which had married strange wives.

NOW when Ezra had prayed, and when he had confessed, weeping and casting himself down before the house of God, there assembled unto him out of Israel a very great congregation of men and women and children: for the people wept very sore.

2 And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra, We have trespassed against our God, and have taken strange wives of the people of the land: yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this thing.

3 Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law.

4 Arise; for this matter belongeth unto thee: we also will be with thee: be of good courage, and do it.

5 Then arose Ezra, and made the chief priests, the Levites, and all Israel, to swear that they should do according to this word. And they swore.

6 ¶ Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Johanan the son of Eliashib: and when he came thither, he did eat no bread, nor drink water: for he mourned because of the transgression of them that had been carried away.

7 And they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together unto Jerusalem;

8 And that whosoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of those that had been carried away.

9 ¶ Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month; and all the people sat in the street of the house of God, trembling because of this matter, and for the great rain.

10 And Ezra the priest stood up, and said unto them, Ye have transgressed, and have taken strange wives, to increase the trespass of Israel.

11 Now therefore make confession unto the Lord God of your fathers, and do his pleasure: and separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives.

12 Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As thou hast said, so must we do.

13 But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand without, neither is this a work of one day or two: for we are many that have transgressed in this thing.

14 Let now our rulers of all the congregation stand, and let all them which have taken strange wives in our cities come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges thereof, until the fierce wrath of our God for this matter be turned from us.

15 ¶ Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah were employed about this matter and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them.

16 And the children of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain chief of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and all of them by their names, were separated, and sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter.

17 And they made an end with all the men that had taken strange wives by the first day of the first month.

18 ¶ And among the sons of the priests there were found that had

THE BOOK OF NEHEMIAH.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Nehemiah, understanding by Hanani the misery of Jerusalem, mourneth, fasteth, and prayeth. 8 His prayer.

THE words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. And it came to pass in the month Chisleu, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace,

2 That Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

3 And they said unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and the gates thereof are burned with fire.

4 ¶ And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven,

5 And said, I beseech thee, O LORD God of heaven, the great and terrible God, "that keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments:

6 Let thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: both I and my father's house have sinned.

7 "We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses.

8 Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, 'If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations:

9 "But if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them; though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there.

10 "Now these are thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong hand.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Artaxerxes sendeth Nehemiah with letters and commission to Jerusalem. 12 He telleth the ruins of the wall. 17 He inviteth the Jews to build in despite of the enemies.

AND it came to pass in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him: and I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been before him in his presence.

2 Wherefore the king said unto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid,

3 And said unto the king, *Let the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lieth waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire?

4 Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I prayed to the God of heaven.

5 And I said unto the king, If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it.

6 And the king said unto me, (the queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time.

7 Moreover I said unto the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over till I come into Judah;

8 And a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which appertaineth to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, according to the good hand of my God upon me.

9 ¶ Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me.

10 When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel.

11 So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days.

12 ¶ And I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem: neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon.

13 And I went out by night by the gate of the valley, even before the dragon well, and to the dung port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire.

14 Then I went on to the gate of the fountain, and to the king's pool, but there was no place for the least that was under me to pass.

15 Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the gate of the valley, and so returned.

16 And the rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that did the work.

17 ¶ Then said I unto them, Ye see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burned with fire: come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach.

18 Then I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also the king's words that he had spoken unto me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for this good work.

19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that ye do? will ye rebel against the king?

20 Then answered I them, and said unto them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: but ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 4.

1 While the enemies ^a are off, Nehemiah prayeth and continueth the work. 7 He setteth a watch. 13 He armeth the labourers, 19 and giveth military precepts.

BUT it came to pass, ^a that when Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews.

2 And he spake before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these feeble Jews? will they fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burned?

3 Now ^b Tobiah the Ammonite ^c was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall.

4 ^d Hear, O our God; for we are ^e despised: and ^f turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity:

5 And ^g cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

6 So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work.

7 ^h But it came to pass, that ⁱ when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem ^j were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth.

8 And ^k conspired all of them, to go together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and ^l to hinder it.

9 Nevertheless ^m we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them.

10 And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall.

formeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and ¹emptied. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the LORD. ²And the people did according to this promise.

¹⁴ ¶ Moreover from the time that I was appointed to his their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year ¹even unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not ²eaten the bread of the governor.

¹⁵ But the former governors that had been before me were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, beside forty shekels of silver; yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but ²so did not I, because of the ³fear of God.

¹⁶ Yea, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work.

¹⁷ Moreover there were ¹at my table an hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, beside those that came unto us from among the heathen that are about us.

¹⁸ Now that ¹which was prepared for me daily was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this ²required not I the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people.

¹⁹ ¶ Think upon me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

CHAPTER 6.

¹ Sanballat practiseth by craft, by rumour, by direct prophecies, to terrify Nehemiah. ¹⁵ The work is finished to the terror of the enemies. ¹⁷ Secret intelligence passeth between the enemies and the nobles of Judah.

NOW it came to pass, ¹when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and ²Gashmu the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; (³though at that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates;)

² That Sanballat and Gashmu ¹sent unto me, saying, Come, let us meet together in some one of the villages in the plain of ²Ono. But they ³thought to do me mischief.

³ And I sent messengers unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you?

⁴ Yet they sent unto me four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner.

⁵ Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me in like manner the fifth time with an open letter in his hand;

⁶ Wherein was written, It is reported among the heathen, and ²Gashmu saith it, that thou and the Jews think to rebel: for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be their king, according to these words.

⁷ And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together.

⁸ Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thine own heart.

⁹ For they all made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands.

¹⁰ Afterward I came unto the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabeel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night will they come to slay thee.

¹¹ And I said, Should such a man as I flee? and who is there, that, being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in.

¹² And, lo, I perceived that God had not sent him; but that ¹he pronounced this prophecy against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

¹³ Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me.

¹⁴ ¶ My God, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and on the ¹prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.

¹⁵ ¶ So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and two days

¹⁶ And it came to pass, that ¹when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes: for ²they perceived that this work was wrought of our God.

¹⁷ ¶ Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah ¹sent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them.

18 For there were many in Judah sworn unto him, because he was the son in law of Shechamiah the son of Arah; and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah.

19 Also they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

CHAPTER 7.

1 Nehemiah committeth the charge of Jerusalem to Hanani and Hananiah. 5 A register of the genealogy of them which came at the first out of Babylon, 9 of the people, 33 of the priests, 42 of the Levites, 46 of the Nethinims, 87 of Solomon's servants, 88 and of the priests which could not find their pedigree. 70 Their oblations

NOW it came to pass, when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the porters and the singers and the Levites were appointed,

2 That I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler of the palace, charge over Jerusalem: for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many.

3 And I said unto them, Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand by, let them shut the doors, and bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one in his watch, and every one to be over against his house.

4 Now the city was large and great; but the people were few therein, and the houses were not builded.

5 ¶ And my God put into mine heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. And I found a register of the genealogy of them which came up at the first, and found written therein,

6 These are the children of the province, that went up out of the captivity, of those that had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and came again to Jerusalem and to Judah, every one unto his city;

64 These sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but it was not found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood.

65 And ^athe Tirshatha said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with Urim and Thummin.

66 ¶ The whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore,

67 Beside their manservants and their maidservants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and they had two hundred forty and five singing men and singing women

68 Their horses, seven hundred thirty and six: their mules, two hundred forty and five:

69 Their camels, four hundred thirty and five: six thousand seven hundred and twenty asses.

70 ¶ And ^asome of the chief of the fathers gave unto the work. ^bThe Tirshatha gave to the treasure a thousand drams of gold, fifty basons, five hundred and thirty priests' garments, 71 And ^asome of the chief of the fathers gave to the treasure of the work ^ctwenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand and two hundred pound of silver.

72 And ^athat which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand pound of silver, and threescore and seven priests' garments.

73 So the priests, and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and ^asome of the people, and the Nethinims, and all Israel, dwelt in their cities: ^band when the seventh month came, the children of Israel were in their cities.

CHAPTER 8.

¹ The religious manner of reading and hearing the law. ² They comfort the people. ³ The forwardness of them to hear and be instructed.

AND all ^athe people gathered themselves together as one man into the street that was ^bbefore the water gate; and they spake unto Ezra the ^cscribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel.

2 And Ezra the priest brought ^dthe law before the congregation both of men and women, and all ^ethat could hear with understanding, ^fupon the first day of the seventh month.

3 And he read therein before the street that was before the water gate ^gfrom the morning until midday, before the men and the women, and those that could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law.

4 And Ezra the scribe stood upon a ¹pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattathiah, and Shema, and Ananiah, and Urijah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedajah, and Mishael, and Malchiah, and Hashum, and Hashhadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

5 And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people stood up:

6 And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. And all the people answered, Amen, Amen, with lifting up their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

7 Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaniah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law: and the people stood in their place.

8 So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading.

9 ¶ And Nehemiah, which is the Tirshatha, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, "This day is holy unto the LORD your God; mourn not, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law.

10 Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our LORD: neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the LORD is your strength.

11 So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy: neither be ye grieved.

12 And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared unto them.

13 ¶ And on the second day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even to understand the words of the law.

14 And they found written in the law which the LORD had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month:

15 And that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth unto the mount, and fetch olive branches, and pine branches, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written.

16 ¶ So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the streets of the water gate, and in the street of the gate of Ephraim.

17 And all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths: for since the days of Jeshua the son of Nun unto that day had not the children of Israel done so. And there was very great gladness.

18 Also "day by day, from the first day unto the last day, he read in the book of the law of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly, according unto the manner.

CHAPTER 9

1 A solemn fast, and repentance of the people
A confession of God's goodness, &c

NOW in the twenty and fourth day of this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackclothes, and earth upon them.

2 And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers.

3 And they stood up in their place, and read in the book of the law of the LORD their God one fourth part of the day; and another fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the LORD their God.

4 ¶ Then stood up upon the stairs, of the Levites, Jeshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and cried with a loud voice unto the LORD their God.

5 Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabaniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, Stand up and bless the LORD your God for ever and ever: and blessed be thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise.

6 "Thou, even thou, art LORD alone; thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee.

7 Thou art the LORD the God, who didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of Abraham; and foundest his heart faithful before thee, and madest a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Gargashites, to give it, I say, to his seed, and hast performed thy words; for thou art righteous:

9 And didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest their cry by the Red sea;

10 And shewedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they dealt proudly against them. So didst thou get thee a name, as it is this day.

11 And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou threwest into the deeps, as a stone into the mighty waters.

12 Moreover thou leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go.

13 Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them right judgments, and true laws, good statutes and commandments:

14 And madest known unto them thy holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant:

15 And gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should go in to possess the land which thou hadst sworn to give them.

16 But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments, 17 And refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not.

18 Yea, when they had made thee a molten calf, and said, This is thy God that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations;

19 Yet thou in thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go.

20 Thou gavest also thy good spirit to instruct them, and withholdest not thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst.

21 Yea, forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing; their clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not.

22 Moreover thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of Shihon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.

23 Their children also multipliedst thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.

24 So the children went in and possessed the land, and thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them as they would.

25 And they took strong cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, wells digged, vineyards, and oliveyards, and fruit trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness.

26 Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind their backs, and slew thy prophets which testified against them to turn them to thee, and they wrought great provocations.

27 Therefore thou deliveredst them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and according to thy manifold mercies thou gavest them saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.

28 But after they had rest, they did evil again before thee: therefore ledest thou them in the land of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies;

29 And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law, yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, ("which if a man do, he shall live in them;") and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear.

30 Yet many years didst thou² forbear them, and testifiedst³ against them by thy spirit⁴ in⁵ thy prophets, yet would they not give ear. "therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands.

31 Nevertheless for thy great mercies' sake "thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God.

32 Now therefore, our God, the great,
the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant and mercy, lot not all the¹ trouble seem little before thee, "that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people,
"since the time of the kings of Assyria unto this day.

33 Howbeit¹ thou art just in all that is brought upon us: for thou hast done right, but² we have done wickedly.

34 Neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them.

35 For they have "not served thee in their kingdom, and in thy great goodness that thou gavest them, and in the large and fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from their wicked works.

36 Behold, "we are servants this day, and for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers to eat the fruit thereof and the good thereof, behold, we are servants in it.

37 And "it yieldeth much increase unto the kings whom thou hast set over us because of our sins: also they have "dominion over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.

38 And because of all this we² make a sure covenant, and write it, and our princes, Levites, and priests, seal unto it.

8 Moreover the Levites: Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah, ^a which was over ^b the thanksgiving, he and his brethren.

9 Also Bakbukiah and Umi, their brethren, were over against them in the watches.

10 ¶ And Jeshua begat Joiakim, Joiakim also begat Eliashib, and Eliashib begat Joiada, 11 And Joiada begat Jonathan, and Jonathan begat Jaddua.

12 And in the days of Joiakim were priests, the chief of the fathers: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah;

13 Of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan;

14 Of Melicu, Jonathan; of Shebana, Joseph;

15 Of Harim, Adna; of Meremoth, Helkai;

16 Of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam;

17 Of Abijah, Zichri; of Miniamin, of Moaddiah, Piltai;

18 Of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shebana, Jehonathan;

19 And of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedai, Uzzi;

20 Of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber;

21 Of Hilkuah, Hashabiah; of Jedai, Nethaneel.

22 ¶ The Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, were recorded chief of the fathers: also the priests, to the reign of Darius the Persian.

23 The sons of Levi, the chief of the fathers, were written in the book of the ^a chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib.

24 And the chief of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherobiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brethren over against them, to praise and to give thanks, ^a according to the commandment of David the man of God, ^b ward over against ward.

25 Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were porters keeping the ward at the ^a thresholds of the gates.

26 These were in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah ^a the governor, and of Ezra the priest, ^b the scribe.

27 ¶ And at ^a the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, ^b both with thanksgivings, and with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps.

28 And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of Netophath;

29 Also from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth: for the singers had builded them villages round about Jerusalem.

30 And the priests and the Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall.

31 Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks, whereof ^bone went on the right hand upon the wall ^ctoward the dung gate:

32 And after them went Hoshaiiah, and half of the princes of Judah, 33 And Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam, 34 Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah,

35 And certain of the priests' sons ^dwith trumpets; namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shomaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph:

36 And his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azareel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with ^ethe musical instruments of David the man of God, and Ezra the scribe before them.

37 ^aAnd at the fountain gate, which was over against them, they went up by ^bthe stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto ^cthe water gate eastward.

38 ^dAnd the other company of them that gave thanks went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond ^ethe tower of the furnaces even unto ^fthe broad wall;

39 ^aAnd from above the gate of Ephraim, and above ^bthe old gate, and above ^cthe fish gate, ^dand the tower of Hananeel, and the tower of Meah, even unto ^ethe sheep gate: and they stood still in ^fthe prison gate.

40 So stood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me:

41 And the priests; Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Ehoenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets;

42 And Maaseiah, and Shomaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jethanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, 43 Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced: for God had made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

44 ¶ And at that time were some appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions ²of the law for the priests and Levites: ³for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites ⁴that waited.

45 And both the singers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, ^aaccording to the commandment of David, ^band of Solomon his son.

46 For in the days of David ^aand Asaph of old there were chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God.

47 And all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, every day his portion: ^aand they ^bsanctified holy things unto the Levites; ^cand the Levites sanctified them unto the children of Aaron.

CHAPTER 13.

¹ Upon the reading of the law separation is made from the mixed multitude ² And Nehemiah cleanness the chambers. 10 He reformed the officers in the house of God. 15 The violation of the sabbath, 23 and the marriage with strange wives.

ON that day ^athey ^bread in the book of Moses in the ^caudience of the people; and therein was found written, ^dthat the Ammonites and the Moabites should not come into the congregation of God for ever;

2 Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but ^ehired Balaam against them, that he should curse them: ^fhowbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing.

3 Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, ^athat they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

4 ¶ And before this, ^bthat they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude, ^chaving the oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, ^dwas allied unto Tobiah:

5 And he had prepared for him a great chamber, ^awhere aforetime they laid the meat offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oil, ^bwhich ^cwas commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; and the offerings of the priests.

6 But in all this time was not I at Jerusalem: "for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon came I unto the king, and after certain days obtained I leave of the king:

7 And I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that Elashib did for Tobiah, in "preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God.

8 And it grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber.

9 Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers: and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meat offering and the frankincense.

10 ¶ And I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them: for the Levites and the singers, that did the work, were fled every one to his field.

11 Then I contended I with the rulers, and said, "Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their place.

12 ¶ Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn and the new wine and the oil unto the treasures.

13 ¶ And I made treasurers over the treasures, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedajah: and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah: for they were counted faithful, and their office was to distribute unto their brethren.

14 Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the offices thereof.

15 ¶ In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine presses on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals.

16 There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.

17 Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day?

18 Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath.

19 And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day.

20 So the merchants and sellers of all kind of ware lodged without Jerusalem once or twice.

21 Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath.

22 And I commanded the Levites that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath day. Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of thy mercy.

23 ¶ In those days also saw I Jews that had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab:

24 And their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language of each people.

25 And I contended with them, and cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters unto your sons, or for yourselves.

26 Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no king like him, who was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless even him did outlandish women cause to sin.

27 Shall we then hearken unto you to do all this great evil, to transgress against our God in marrying strange wives?

CHAPTER 1.

¹ Ahasuerus maketh royal feast. ¹⁰ Vashti refuseth to come. ¹³ Ahasuerus, by the counsel of Memucan, maketh the decrees of men's sovereignty.

NOW it came to pass in the days of ^aAhasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned, from India even unto Ethiopia, over an hundred and seven and twenty provinces:)

² That in those days, when the king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan the palace,

⁴ When he shewed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honour of his excellent majesty many days, even an hundred and fourscore days.

⁶ Where were white, green, and blue, hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: the beds were of gold and silver, upon a pavement of red, and blue, and white, and black, marble.

⁷ And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and royal wine in abundance, according to the state of the king.

⁸ And the drinking was according to the law; none did compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure.

⁹ Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.

¹¹ To bring Vashti the queen before the king with the crown royal, to shew the people and the princes her beauty: for she was fair to look on.

¹² But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment: by his chamberlains: therefore was the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him.

¹³ Then the king said to the wise men, which knew the times, (for so was the king's manner toward all that knew law and judgment:

¹⁷ For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, That king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.

¹⁹ If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, that it be not altered, That Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus: and let the king give her royal estate unto another that is better than she.

²⁰ And when the king's decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all his empire, (for it is great,) all the wives shall give to their husbands honour, both to great and small.

²¹ And the saying pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to the word of Memucan:

that every man should "bear rule in his own house, and 'that it should be published according to the language of every people.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Out of the choice of virgins a queen is to be chosen.
5 Mordecai the nursing father of Esther. 8 Esther is preferred by Hegai. 12 The manner of purification, and going in to the king. 13 Esther is made queen. 21 Mordecai, discovering a treason, is rewarded in the chronicles.

AFTER these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus was appeased, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her.

2 Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, Let there be fair young virgins sought for the king:

3 And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, unto the custody of "Hegai the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their things for purification be given them.

4 And let the maiden which pleaseth the king be queen instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king; and he did so.

5 ¶ Now in Shushan the palace there was a certain Jew, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjaminite;

6 "Who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captivity which had been carried away with "Jecooniah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away.

7 And he "brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, "his uncle's daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the maid was "fair and beautiful; whom Mordecai, when her father and mother were dead, took for his own daughter.

8 ¶ So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were "gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.

9 And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her "things for purification, with "such things as belonged to her, and "seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and "he preferred her and her maids unto the best place of the house of the women.

11 And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women's house, to know how Esther did, and what should become of her.

12 ¶ Now when every maid's turn was come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with other things for the purifying of the women;)

13 Then thus came every maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king's house.

14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name.

15 ¶ Now when the turn of Esther, "the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her.

16 So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and "favour "in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti.

18 Then the king "made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he made a release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of the king.

19 And when the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai sat "in the king's gate.

20 "Esther had not yet shewed her kindred nor her people; as Mordecai had charged her: for Esther did the commandment of Mordecai, like as when she was brought up with him.

21 ¶ In those days, while Mordecai sat in the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, "Bigthan and Teresh, of those which kept ¹the door, were wroth, and sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

22 And the thing was known to Mordecai, ²who told it unto Esther the queen; and Esther certified the king thereof in Mordecai's name.

23 And when inquisition was made of the matter, it was found out; therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in ³the book of the chronicles before the king.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Haman, advanced by the king, and despised by Mordecai, seeketh revenge upon all the Jews. 3 He obtaineth a decree to put the Jews to death

AFTER these things did king Ahasuerus promote Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes that were with him.

2 And all the king's servants, that were ¹in the king's gate, bowed, and revered Haman: for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai ²bowed not, nor did him reverence.

3 Then the king's servants, which were in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transgressest thou the king's commandment?

4 Now it came to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's matters would stand; for he had told them that he was a Jew.

5 And when Haman saw that Mordecai ²bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman ³full of wrath.

6 And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman ⁴sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai.

7 ¶ In the first month, that is, the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar.

8 ¶ And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and ¹their laws are diverse from all people; neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not ²for the king's profit to suffer them.

9 If it please the king, let it be written ³that they may be destroyed: and

I will ²pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasures.

10 And the king ³took ⁴his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' ⁵enemy.

11 And the king said unto Haman, The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee.

12 Then were the king's ⁴scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province ⁵according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; ⁶in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the king's ring.

13 And the letters were ¹sent by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, ²in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and ³to take the spoil of them for a prey.

14 ⁴The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, that they should be ready against that day.

15 The posts went out, being hastened by the king's commandment, and the decree was given in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman sat down to drink; but ⁵the city Shushan was perplexed.

CHAPTER 4.

1 The great mourning of Mordecai and the Jews. 4 Esther, understanding it, sheweth to Mordecai, who sheweth the cause, and adviseth her to undertake the suit. 10 She is threatened by Mordecai. 12 She undertaketh the suit.

WHEN Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai ²rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth ³with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and ⁴cried with a loud and a bitter cry;

2 And came even before the king's gate: for none might enter into the king's gate clothed with sackcloth.

3 And in every province, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and ⁵many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

4 ¶ So Esther's maids and her chamberlains came and told it her. Then was the queen exceedingly grieved; and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away his sackcloth from him: but he received it not.

5 Then called Esther for Hatach, one of the king's chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Mordecai, to know what it was, and why it was.

6 So Hatach went forth to Mordecai, unto the street of the city, which was before the king's gate.

7 And Mordecai told him of all that had happened unto him, and of "the sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasures for the Jews, to destroy them.

8 Also he gave him "the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to shew it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him for her people.

9 And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

10 ¶ Again Esther spake unto Hatach, and gave him commandment unto Mordecai;

11 All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into "the inner court, who is not called, "there is one law of his to put him to death, except such "to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days.

12 And they told to Mordecai Esther's words.

13 Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the king's house, more than all the Jews.

14 For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?

15 ¶ Then Esther bade them return Mordecai this answer,

16 Go, gather together all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink "three days, night or day: I

CHAPTER 5.

1 Esther obtaineth the grace of the golden sceptre, and inviteth the king and Haman to a banquet. 8 She inviteth them to another banquet the next day. 9 Haman repenteth at the contempt of Mordecai. 14 He buildeth a gallows for him.

NOW it came to pass "on the third day, that Esther put on her royal apparel, and stood in "the inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house.

2 And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that "she obtained favour in his sight; and "the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre.

3 Then said the king unto her, What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? "It shall be even given thee to the half of the kingdom.

4 And Esther answered, If it seem good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him.

5 Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

6 ¶ And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, "What is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed.

7 Then answered Esther, and said, My petition and my request is,

8 If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and "to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do to morrow as the king hath said.

9 ¶ Then went Haman forth that day joyful and with a glad heart: but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, "that he stood not up, nor moved for him, he was full of indignation against Mordecai.

10 Nevertheless Haman "refrained himself: and when he came home, he sent and "called for his friends, and Zeresh his wife.

11 And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and ^athe multitude of his children, and ^aall the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had ^aadvanced him above the princes and servants of the king.

12 Haman said moreover, Yea, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and to morrow am I invited unto her also with the king.

13 Yet all this availeth me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate.

14 ¶ Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him, Let a gallows ^bbe made of fifty cubits high, and to morrow ^cspeak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused ^dthe gallows to be made.

CHAPTER 6.

¹ Ahasuerus, reading in the chronicles of the good secrets done by Mordecai, taketh care for his reward. ⁴ Haman unware giveth counsel that he might do him honour. ¹³ His friends tell him of his final destiny.

ON that night ^acould not the king sleep, and he commanded to bring ^athe book of records of the chronicles; and they were read before the king.

2 And it was found written, that Mordecai had told ^aof Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the ^adoor, who sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

3 And the king said, What honour and dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this? Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, There is nothing done for him.

4 ¶ And the king said, Who is in the court? Now Haman was come into the outward court of the king's house, ^ato speak unto the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.

5 And the king's servants said unto him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come in.

6 So Haman came in. And the king said unto him, What shall be done unto the man ^awhom the king delighteth to honour? Now Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honour more than to myself?

7 And Haman answered the king, For the man ^awhom the king delighteth to honour,

10 Then the king said to Haman, Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, that sitteth at the king's gate: ^dlet nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken.

11 Then took Haman the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

12 ¶ And Mordecai came again to the king's gate. But Haman ^ehasted to his house mourning, ^fand having his head covered.

13 And Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his friends every thing that had befallen him. Then said his wise men and Zeresh his wife unto him, If Mordecai ^abe of the seed of the Jew, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not prevail against him, but shalt surely fall before him.

14 And while they were yet talking with him, came the king's chamberlains, and hasted to bring Haman unto ^athe banquet that Esther had prepared.

CHAPTER 7.

¹ Esther maketh suit for her own life and her people. ⁵ She accuseth Haman. ⁷ The king causeth Haman to be hanged on his own gallows.

SO the king and Haman came ^ato banquet with Esther the queen.

2 And the king said again unto Esther on the second day ^aat the banquet of wine, What ^ais thy petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee: and what ^ais thy request? and it shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom.

3 Then Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request:

4 For we are ^asold, I and my people, ^bto be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not countervail the king's damage.

5 ¶ Then the king Ahasuerus answered and said unto Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is he, that durst presume in his heart to do so?

6 And Esther said, The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen.

7 ¶ And the king arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath went into the palace garden: and Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king.

8 Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen upon the bed whereon Esther was. Then said the king, Will he force the queen also before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face.

9 And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, Behold also, the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman. Then the king said, Hang him thereon.

10 So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

CHAPTER 8.

ON that day did the king Ahasuerus give the house of Haman the Jews' enemy unto Esther the queen. And Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was unto her.

2 And the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.

3 ¶ And Esther spake yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and besought him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews.

4 Then the king held out the golden sceptre toward Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king,

5 And said, If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews which are in all the king's provinces:

6 For how can I endure to see the evil that shall come unto my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?

7 ¶ Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he laid his hand upon the Jews.

8 Write ye also for the Jews, as it liketh you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring: for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, may no man reverse.

9 Then were the king's scribes called at that time in the third month, that is, the month Sivan, on the three and twentieth day thereof; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded unto the Jews, and to the lieutenants, and the deputies, and rulers of the provinces which are from India unto Ethiopia, an hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language.

10 And he wrote in the king Ahasuerus' name, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by posts on horseback, and riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries.

11 Wherein the king granted the Jews which were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, both little ones and women, and to take the spoil of them for a prey.

12 Upon one day in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar.

13 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

14 So the posts that rode upon mules and camels went out, being hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment. And the decree was given at Shushan the palace.

15 ¶ And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple: and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad.

16 The Jews had light, and gladness, and joy, and honour.

17 And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day. And many of the people of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews fell upon them.

CHAPTER 9.

1 The Jews slay their enemies, with the ten sons of Haman. 2 The Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt; and no man could withstand them; for the fear of them fell upon all people.

NOW in the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule over them that hated them;)

2 The Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt; and no man could withstand them; for the fear of them fell upon all people.

3 And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants, and the deputies, and officers of the king, helped the Jews; because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them.

4 For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Mordecai waxed greater and greater.

5 Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they would unto those that hated them.

6 And in Shushan the palace the Jews slew and destroyed five hundred men.

7 And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha,

8 And Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha,

9 And Parmasatha, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vajezatha,

10 The ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews, slew they; but on the spoil laid they not their hand.

11 On that day the number of those that were slain in Shushan the palace was brought before the king.

12 ¶ And the king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee; or what is thy request further? and it shall be done.

13 Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do to morrow also according unto this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows.

14 And the king commanded it so to be done; and the decree was given at Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons.

15 For the Jews that were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men at Shushan; but on the prey they laid not their hand.

16 But the other Jews that were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand, but they laid not their hands on the prey.

17 On the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day of the same rested they, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

18 But the Jews that were at Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

19 Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwelt in the unwalled towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another.

20 ¶ And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far,

21 To establish this among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly,

22 As the days wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day: that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor.

23 And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them ;

24 Because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, ^bhad devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, to ^cconsume them, and to destroy them ;

25 But ^awhen ^aEsther came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should ^creturn upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

26 Wherefore they called these days Purim after the name of ^bPur. Therefore for all the words of ^athis letter, and of ^athat which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them,

27 The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as ^ajoined themselves unto them, so as it should not ^afail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their ^aappointed time every year ;

28 And ^athat these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city ; and ^athat these days of Purim should not ^afail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them ^aperish from their seed.

1 The holiness, riches, and religious care of Job for his children 8 Satan, appearing before God, obtains leave to tempt Job 13 Job in his mourning to his God.

THERE was a man ^ain the land of Uz, whose name was ^aJob ; and that man was ^aperfect and upright, and one that ^afeared God, and eschewed evil.

2 And there were born unto him seven sons and three daughters

3 His ^asubstance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she asses, and a very great ^ahousehold ; so that this man was the greatest of all the ^amen of the east.

4 And his sons went and feasted in their houses, every one his day ; and sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them.

5 And it was so, when the days of ^atheir feasting were gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, ^aand offered burnt offerings ^aaccording to the number of them all : for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and ^acursed God in their hearts. Thus did Job ^acontinually.

6 ¶ Now ^athere was a day ^awhen the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and ^aSatan came also ^aamong them.

7 And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou ? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From ^agoing to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

8 And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that ^athere is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil?

9 Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought?

10 ^aHast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? ^bthou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land.

11 ^aBut put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, ^band he will curse thee to thy face.

12 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power; only upon myself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

13 ¶ And there was a day ^awhen his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

14 And there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them:

15 And the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

16 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, ^aThe fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burned up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

17 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands, and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

18 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

19 And, behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

20 Then Job arose, ^aand rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and ^bfell down upon the ground, and worshipped, 21 And said, Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: the LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD.

22 ¶ In all this Job sinned not, nor charged God foolishly.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Satan appearing again to Job. God obtaineth further leave to tempt Job. He smiteth him with sore boils. 9 Job reproveh his wife. 11 His three friends console with him in silence.

AGAIN ^athere was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the LORD.

2 And the LORD said unto Satan, From whence comest thou? And Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

3 And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, ^aa perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? and still he holdeth fast his integrity, although thou movedst me against him, ^bto destroy him without cause.

4 And Satan answered the LORD, and said, Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life.

5 ^aBut put forth thine hand now, and touch his ^bbone and his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face.

6 ^aAnd the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand; ^bbut save his life.

7 ¶ So went Satan forth from the presence of the LORD, and smote Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot unto his crown.

8 And he took him a pot-herd to scrape himself withal; and he sat down among the ashes.

9 ¶ Then said his wife unto him, Dost thou still retain thine integrity? curse God, and die.

10 But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What? shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? ^aIn all this did not Job sin with his lips.

11 ¶ Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own place; Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite: for they had made an appointment together to come to mourn with him and to comfort him.

12 And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven.

13 So they sat down with him upon the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his grief was very great.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Job curseth the day and a voice of his birth 13
The voice of death. 20 He complaineth of life

AFTER thus opened Job his mouth, and cursed his day.

2 And Job spake, and said,

3 Let the day perish wherein I was born, and the night in which it was said, There is a man child conceived,

4 Let that day be darkness; let not God regard it from above, neither let the light shine upon it.

5 Let darkness and the shadow of death stain it; let a cloud dwell upon it; let the blackness of the day terrify it.

6 As for that night, let darkness seize upon it; let it not be joined unto the days of the year, let it not come into the number of the months.

7 Lo, let that night be solitary, let no joyful voice come therein.

8 Let them curse it that curse the day, who are ready to raise up their mourning.

9 Let the stars of the twilight thereof be dark; let it look for light, but have none; neither let it see the dawning of the day:

10 Because it shut not up the doors of my mother's womb, nor hid sorrow from mine eyes.

11 Why did I not from the womb? why did I not give up the ghost when I came out of the belly?

12 Why did the knees prevent me? or why the breasts that I should suck?

13 For now should I have lain still and been quiet, I should have slept: then had I been at rest, 14 With lings and counsellors of the earth, which build desolate places for themselves;

15 Or with princes that had gold, who filled their houses with silver:

16 Or as an hidden untimely birth I had not been; as infants which never saw light.

17 There the wicked cease from troubling; and there the weary be at rest.

18 There the prisoners rest together; they hear not the voice of the oppressor.

19 The small and great are there; and the servant is free from his master.

20 Wherefore is light given to him that is in misery, and life unto the bitter in soul;

21 Which long for death, but it cometh not; and dig for it more than for hid treasures;

22 Which rejoice exceedingly, and are glad, when they can find the grave:

CHAPTER 4.

1 Eliphaz reproveth Job for want of religion 7 He teacheth God's judgments to be not for the right cause, but for the wicked. 12 His fearful vision, to humble the excellency of creatures before God

THEN Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

2 If we assay to commune with thee, wilt thou be grieved? but who can withhold himself from speaking?

3 Behold, thou hast instructed many, and thou hast strengthened the weak hands.

4 Thy words have upheld him that was falling, and thou hast strengthened the feeble knees.

5 But now it is come upon thee, and thou faintest; it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

6 Is not this thy fear, thy confidence, thy hope, and the uprightness of thy ways?

7 Remember, I pray thee, who ever perished, being innocent? or where were the righteous cut off?

8 Even as I have seen, they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.

9 By the blast of God they perish, and by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed.

10 The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, and the teeth of the young lions, are broken.

11 The old lion perisheth for lack of prey, and the stout lion's whelps are scattered abroad.

12 Now a thing was secretly brought to me, and mine ear received a little thereof.

13 In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falleth on men, 14 Fear came upon me, and trembling, which made all my bones to shake.

15 Then a spirit passed before my face; the hair of my flesh stood up.

16 It stood still, but I could not discern the form thereof: an image was before mine eyes, there was silence, and I heard a voice, saying,

17 Shall mortal man be more just than God? shall a man be more pure than his maker?

18 Behold, ho^b put no trust in his servants; ¹and his angels he charged with folly:

19 How much less ^{1a} them that dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation ^{1s} in the dust, which are crushed before the moth?

20 They are ³destroyed from morning to evening: they perish for ever without any regarding ^{1t}.

21 Doth not their excellency which is in them go away? they die, even without wisdom.

CHAPTER 5.

¹ The harm of inconsideration. ³ The end of the wicked is misery. ⁶ God is to be regarded in affliction. ¹⁷ The happy end of God's correction.

CALL now, if there be any that will answer thee; and to which of the saints wilt thou ³turn?

2 For wrath killeth the foolish man, and ³convy slayeth the silly one.

3 ¹I have seen the foolish taking root: but suddenly I cursed his habitation.

4 His children are far from safety, and they are crushed in the gate, neither ^{1s} there any to deliver them.

5 Whose harvest the hungry eateth up, and taketh it even out of the thorns, and the robber swalloweth up their substance.

6 Although ³affliction cometh not forth of the dust, neither doth trouble spring out of the ground;

7 Yet man is born unto ³trouble, as ⁶the sparks fly upward.

8 I would seek unto God, and unto God would I commit my cause:

9 Which doeth great things ³and unsearchable; marvellous things ³without number:

10 Who giveth rain upon the earth, and sendeth waters upon the ¹fields:

11 ¹To set up on high those that be low; that those which mourn may be exalted to safety.

12 ¹He disappointeth the devices of the crafty, so that their hands ³cannot perform their enterprise.

13 He taketh the wise in their own craftiness: and the counsel of the forward is carried headlong.

14 They ³meet with darkness in the daytime, and grope in the noonday as in the night.

15 But ¹he saveth the poor from the sword, from their mouth, and from the hand of the mighty.

16 ¹So the poor hath hope, and iniquity stoppeth her mouth.

17 ¹Behold, happy ^{1s} the man whom God correcteth: therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty:

24 And thou shalt know ⁵that thy tabernacle shall be in peace; and thou shalt visit thy habitation, and shalt not ⁷sin.

CHAPTER 6.

¹ Job saith that his complaints are not causeless. ⁵ He wisheth for death, wherein he is assured of comfort. ¹⁴ He reproveh his friends of unkindness.

BUT Job answered and said,

2 Oh that my grief weigh thoroughly weighed, and my calamity ¹laid in the balances together!

3 For now it would be heavier than the sand of the sea: therefore ⁷my words are swallowed up.

4 ¹For the arrows of the Almighty are within me, the poison whereof drinketh up my spirit: ¹the terrors of God do set themselves in array against me.

5 Doth the wild ass bray ²when he hath grass? or loweth he or over his fodder?

6 Can that which is unsavoury be eaten without salt? or is there ¹any taste in the white of an egg?

7 The things that my soul refused to touch are as my sorrowful meat.

8 Oh that I might have my request; and that God would grant me ¹the thing that I long for!

9 Even that it would please God to destroy me; that he would let loose his hand, and cut me off!

10 Then should I yet have comfort; yea, I would harden myself in sorrow: let him not spare; for ¹I have not concealed the words of ¹the Holy One.

11 What ^{1s} my strength, that I should hope? and what is mine end, that I should prolong my life?

12 Is my strength the strength of stones? or is my flesh of brass?
13 Is not my help in me? and is wisdom driven quite from me?

14 To^a him that is afflicted pity should be shewed from his friend; but he forsaketh the fear of the Almighty.

15 My brethren have dealt deceitfully as a brook, and as the stream of brooks they pass away;

16 Which are blackish by reason of the ice, and wherein the snow is hid;

17 What time they wax warm, they vanish: when it is hot, they are consumed out of their place.

18 The paths of their way are turned aside; they go to nothing, and perish.

19 The troops of Tema looked, the companies of Sheba waited for them.

20 They were confounded because they had hoped; they came thither, and were ashamed.

21 For now ye are nothing; ye see my casting down, and are afraid.

22 Did I say, Bring unto me? or Give a reward for me of your substance?

23 Or, Deliver me from the enemy's hand? or, Redeem me from the hand of the mighty?

24 Teach me, and I will hold my tongue: and cause me to understand wherein I have erred.

25 How forcible are right words! but what doth your arguing reprove?

26 Do ye imagine to reprove words, and the speeches of one that is desperate, which are as wind?

27 Yea, ye overwhelm the fatherless, and ye dig a pit for your friend.

28 Now therefore be content, look upon me; for it is evident unto you if I lie.

29 Return, I pray you, let it not be iniquity; yea, return again, my righteousness is in it.

30 Is there iniquity in my tongue? cannot my taste discern perverse things?

CHAPTER 7.

1 Job expresseth his desire of death 12 His own restlessness, 17 and God's watchfulness

Is there not an appointed time to man upon earth? are not his days like the days of an hireling?

2 As a servant earnestly desireth the shadow, and as an hireling looketh for the reward of his work:

3 So am I made to possess months of vanity, and wearisome nights are appointed to me.

4 When I lie down, I say, When shall I arise, and the night be gone? and I am full of tossings to and fro unto the dawning of the day.

6 My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope.

7 O remember that my life is wind: mine eye shall no more see good.

8 The eye of him that hath seen me shall see me no more: thine eyes are upon me, and I am not.

9 As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away: so he that goeth down to the grave shall come up no more.

10 He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place know him any more.

11 Therefore I will not refrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

12 Am I a sea, or a whale, that thou settest a watch over me?

13 When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint;

14 Then thou scarest me with dreams, and terrifiest me through visions:

15 So that my soul chooseth strangling, and death rather than my life.

16 I loathe it; I would not live alway let me alone; for my days are vanity.

17 What is man, that thou shouldst magnify him? and that thou shouldst set thine heart upon him?

18 And that thou shouldst visit him every morning, and try him every moment?

19 How long wilt thou not depart from me, nor let me alone till I swallow down my spittle?

20 I have sinned; what shall I do unto thee, O thou preserver of men? why hast thou set me as a mark against thee, so that I am a burden to myself?

21 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

22 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

23 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

24 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

25 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

26 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

27 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

28 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

29 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

30 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

31 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

32 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

33 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

34 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

35 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

36 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

5 "If thou wouldest seek unto God betimes, and make thy supplication to the Almighty;

6 If thou wert pure and upright; surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.

7 Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase.

8 "For enquire, I pray thee, of the former age, and prepare thyself to the search of their fathers:

9 (For "we are but of yesterday, and know "nothing, because our days upon earth are a shadow:)

10 Shall not they teach thee, and tell thee, and utter words out of their heart?

11 Can the rush grow up without mire? can the flag grow without water?

12 "Whist! it is yet in his greenness, and not cut down, it withereth before any other herb.

13 So are the paths of all that forget God; and the "hypocrite's hope shall perish:

14 Whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall be "a spider's web 15 "He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.

16 He is green before the sun, and his branch shooteth forth in his garden.

17 His roots are wrapped about the heap, and seeth the place of stones.

18 "If he destroy him from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, I have not seen thee.

19 Behold, this is the joy of his way, and "out of the earth shall others grow.

20 Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man, neither will he "help the evil doers:

21 Till he fill thy mouth with laughing, and thy lips with "rejoicing.

22 They that hate thee shall be "clothed with shame; and the dwelling place of the wicked "shall come to nought.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Job, acknowledging God's justice, sheweth there is no contending with him. 2 Man's innocency is not to be condemned by afflictions.

THEN Job answered and said,

2 I know it is so of a truth: but how should "man be just "with God?

3 If he will contend with him, he cannot answer him one of a thousand.

4 "He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered?

5 Which removeth the mountains, and they know not: which overturneth them in his anger.

14 How much less shall I answer him, and choose out my words to reason with him?

16 If I had called, and he had answered me; yet would I not believe that he had hearkened unto my voice.

17 For he breaketh me with a tempest, and multiplieth my wounds "without cause.

18 He will not suffer me to take my breath, but filleth me with bitterness.

19 If I speak of strength, lo, he is strong: and if of judgment, who shall set me a time to plead?

20 If I justify myself, mine own mouth shall condemn me: if I say, I am perfect, it shall also prove me perverse.

21 Though I were perfect, yet would I not know my soul: I would despise my life.

22 This is one thing, therefore I said it, "He destroyeth the perfect and the wicked.

24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked thereof; if not, where, and who is he?

25 Now "my days are swifter than a post: they flee away, they see no good.

32 For ³he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him, and we should come together in judgment.

33 Neither is there ⁴any ⁵daysman betwixt us, that might lay his hand upon us both.

34 Let him take his rod away from me, and let not his fear terrify me:

35 Then would I speak, and not fear him; ⁶but it is not so with me.

CHAPTER 10.

1 Job, taking liberty of complaint, expostulateth with God about his afflictions. 18 He complaineth of life, and craveth a little ease before death.

MY ¹soul is ²wearry of my life; I will leave my complaint upon myself; ³I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

2 I will say unto God, Do not condemn me; shew me wherefore thou contendest with me.

3 Is it good unto thee that thou shouldst oppress, that thou shouldst despise ⁴the work of thine hands, and shine upon the counsel of the wicked?

4 Hast thou eyes of flesh? or ⁵seest thou as man seeth?

5 Are thy days as the days of man? are thy years as man's days,

6 That thou enquirest after mine iniquity, and searchest after my sin?

7 Thou ¹knowest that I am not wicked; and ²there is none that can deliver out of thine hand.

8 ³Thine hands ⁴have made me and fashioned me together round about; yet thou dost destroy me.

9 Remember, I beseech thee, that ⁵thou hast made me as the clay; and wilt thou ⁶bring me into dust again?

10 ⁷Hast thou not poured me out as milk, and curdled me like cheese?

11 Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh, and hast ⁸fenced me with bones and sinews.

12 Thou hast granted me life and favour, and thy visitation hath preserved my spirit.

13 And these ⁹things hast thou hid in thine heart: I know that this is with thee.

14 If I sin, then ¹⁰thou markest me, and thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity.

15 If I be wicked, ¹¹woe unto me; ¹²and if I be righteous, yet will I not lift up my head. I am full of confusion; therefore ¹³see thou mine affliction;

CHAPTER 11.

1 Zophar reprooveth Job 13 Measuring of repentance THEN answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

2 Should not the multitude of words be answered? and should ¹a man full of talk be justified?

3 Should thy ²lies make men hold their peace? and when thou mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed?

4 For ³thou hast said, My doctrine is pure, and I am clean in thine eyes.

5 But oh that God would speak, and open his lips against thee;

6 And that he would shew thee the secrets of wisdom, that ⁴they are double to that which is! Know therefore that ⁵God exacteth of thee less than thine iniquity ⁶deserveth.

7 Canst thou by searching find out God? canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection?

8 It is ⁷as high as heaven; what canst thou do? deeper than hell; what canst thou know?

9 The measure thereof is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea.

10 If he ⁸cut off, and shut up, or gather together, then ⁹who can hinder him?

11 For ¹⁰he knoweth vain men: he seeth wickedness also; will he not then consider it?

12 For ¹¹vain man would be, though man be born ¹²like a wild ass's colt.

13 If thou ¹³prepare thine heart, and stretch out thine hands toward him;

19 Also thou shalt lie down, and none shall make thee afraid; yea, many shall "make suit unto thee.

20 But "the eyes of the wicked shall fail, and "they shall not escape, and "their hope shall be as "the giving up of the ghost.

3 But I have "understanding as well as you; "I am not inferior to you: yea, "who knoweth not such things as these?

CHAPTER 13.

1 Job reproved his friends. 2 He professed confidence in God, and intrusted to know his own sins, and God's purpose in afflicting him.

JO, mine eye hath seen all this, mine ear hath heard and understood it.

2 "What ye know, the same do I know also: "I am not inferior unto you.

3 "Surely I would speak to the Almighty, and I desire to reason with God.

4 But ye are forgers of lies, "ye are all physicians of no value.

5 O that ye would altogether hold your peace! and "it should be your wisdom.

6 Hear now my reasoning, and hearken to the pleadings of my lips.

7 "Will ye speak wickedly for God? and talk deceitfully for him?

8 Will ye accept his person? will ye contend for God?

9 Is it good that he should search you out? or as one man mocketh another, do ye so mock him?

10 He will surely reprove you, if ye do secretly accept persons.

11 Shall not his excellency make you afraid? and his dread fall upon you?

12 Your remembrances are like unto ashes, your bodies to bodies of clay.

13 "Hold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak, and let come on me what will.

14 Wherefore "do I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in mine hand?

15 "Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: ⁶but I will maintain mine own ways before him.

16 He also shall be my salvation: for an hypocrite shall not come before him. 17 I heard diligently my speech, and my declaration with your ears.

18 Behold now, I have ordered my cause: I know that I shall be justified.

19 "Who is he that will plead with me? for now, if I hold my tongue, I shall give up the ghost.

20 "Only do not two things unto me: thou wilt I not hide myself from thee.

21 "Withdraw thine hand far from me: and let not thy dread make me afraid.

22 Then call thou, and I will answer: or let me speak, and answer thou me.

23 How many are mine iniquities and sins: make me to know my transgression and my sin.

24 "Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and ^aholdest me for thine enemy?

25 "Wilt thou break a leaf driven to and fro? and wilt thou pursue the dry stubble?

26 For thou writest bitter things against me, and ^amakest me to possess the iniquities of my youth.

28 And he, as a rotten thing, consumeth, as a garment that is moth eaten.

CHAPTER 14.

1 Job ^aentreatheth God for favour, by the shortness of life, and certainty of death. 7 Though life once lost be irrecoverable, yet he wasteth for his change. 18 In sin the creature is subject to corruption.

MAN that is born of a woman is ^aof few days, and ^afull of trouble.

2 "He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

9 Yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a plant.

10 But mandieeth, and ^awasteth away: yea, man giveth up the ghost, and where is he?

11 As the waters fail from the sea, and the flood decayeth and drieth up:

12 So man lieth down, and riseth not: ^atill the heavens be no more, they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their sleep.

13 O that thou wouldest hide me in the grave, that thou wouldest keep me secret, until thy wrath be past, that thou wouldest appoint me a set time, and remember me!

14 If a man die, shall he live again? all the days of my appointed time ^awill I wait, till my change come.

15 "Thou shalt call, and I will answer thee: thou wilt have a desire to the work of thine hands.

16 "For now thou numberest my steps: dost thou not watch over my sin?

17 "My transgression is sealed up in a bag, and thou sewest up mine iniquity.

18 And surely the mountain falling ^acometh to nought, and the rock is removed out of his place.

19 The waters wear the stones: thou ^awashest away the things which grow out of the dust of the earth; and thou destroyest the hope of man.

20 Thou prevailest for ever against him, and he passeth: thou changest his countenance, and sendest him away.

21 His sons come to honour, and ^ahe knoweth it not; and they are brought low, but he perceiveth it not of them.

22 But his flesh upon him shall have pain, and his soul within him shall mourn.

CHAPTER 15.

1 Eliphaz reproveth Job of impiety. 17 He proveth the unguiness of wicked men.

THEN answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,

2 Should a wise man utter ^avain knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind?

3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk? or with speeches which with he can do no good?

4 Yea, ^athou castest off fear, and restrainest ^aprayer before God.

5 For thy mouth ^auttereth thine iniquity, and thou choosest the tongue of the crafty.

6 "Thine own mouth condemneth thee, and not I: yea, thine own lips testify against thee.

7 Art thou the first man that was born? ^aor wast thou made before the hills?

8 ^aHast thou heard the secret of God? and dost thou restrain wisdom to thyself?

9 ^aWhat knowest thou, that we know not? ^awhat understandest thou, which is not in us?

10 ^aWith us are both the grayheaded and very aged men, much elder than thy father.

11 Are the consolations of God small with thee? is there any secret thing with thee?

12 Why doth thine heart carry thee away? and what do thy eyes wink at, 13 That thou turnest thy spirit against God, and leestest such words go out of thy mouth?

14 ^aWhat is man, that he should be clean? and he which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous? 15 ^aBehold, he putteth no trust in his saints; yea, the heavens are not clean in his sight.

16 ^aHow much more abominable and filthy is man, ^awhich drinketh iniquity like water?

17 I will shew thee, hear me; and that which I have seen I will declare; 18 Which wise men have told ^afrom their fathers, and have not hid it.

19 Unto whom alone the earth was given, and ^ano stranger passed among them.

20 The wicked man travaileth with pain all his days, ^aand the number of years is hidden to the oppressor.

21 ^aA dreadful sound is in his ears: ^ain prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him.

22 He believeth not that he shall return out of darkness, and he is waited for of the sword.

23 He ^awandereth abroad for bread, saying, Where is it? he knoweth that the day of darkness is ready at his hand.

24 Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid; they shall prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.

25 For he stretcheth out his hand against God, and strengthenth himself against the Almighty.

26 He runneth upon him, even on his neck, upon his thick bosses of his bucklers:

27 ^aBecause he covereth his face with his fatness, and maketh collops of fat on his flanks.

28 And he dwelleth in desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabiteth, which are ready to become heaps.

29 He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall he prolong the perfection thereof upon the earth.

CHAPTER 16.

1 Job reproveth his friends of unmercifulness. 7 He sheweth the pitifulness of his case. 17 He maintaineth his innocency.

THEN Job answered and said, 1 I have heard many such things: ^amiserable ^acomforters are ye all.

3 Shall ^avain words have an end? or what emboldeneth thee that thou answerest?

4 I also could speak as ye do: if your soul were in my soul's stead, I could heap up words against you, and ^ashake mine head at you.

5 But I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the moving of my lips should assuage your grief.

6 Though I speak, my grief is not asswaged; and though I forbear, ^awhat am I eased?

7 But now he hath made me weary: thou hast made desolate all my company.

8 And thou hast filled me with wrinkles, which is a witness against me: and my leanness rising up in me beareth witness to my face.

9 ^aHe tearth me in his wrath, who hateth me: he gnasheth upon me with his teeth; ^amine enemy sharpeneth his eyes upon me.

10 They have ^agaped upon me with their mouth; they ^ahave smitten me upon the cheek reproachfully; they have ^agathered themselves together against me.

11 God ^ahath ^adelivered me to the ungodly, and turned me over into the hands of the wicked.

12 I was at ease, but he hath broken me asunder: he hath also taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces, and ^aset me up for his mark.

13 His archers compass me round about, he cleaveth my reins asunder, and doth not spare; he poureth out my gall upon the ground.

14 He breaketh me with breach upon breach, he runneth upon me like a giant.

15 I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin, and ²deified my horn in the dust.

16 My face is foul with weeping, and on my eyehds ¹⁸is the shadow of death,

17 Not for ¹⁹any injustice in mine hands: also my prayer ²⁰is pure 18 O earth, cover not thou my blood, and ²¹let my cry have no place.

19 Also now, behold, ²²my witness is in heaven, and my record is ²³on high.

20 My friends ²⁴scorn me: but mine eye poureth out ²⁵tears unto God.

21 ²⁶O that one might plead for a man with God, as a man ²⁷pleadeth for his ²⁸neighbour!

22 When ²⁹a few years are come, then I shall ³⁰go the way ³¹whence I shall not return.

CHAPTER 17.

1 Job appealeth from men to God. 6 The unmerciful dealing of men with the afflicted may astonish, but not discourage the righteous. 11 His hope is not in life, but in death.

M^Y breath is corrupt, my days are extinct, ²the graves are ready for me.

2 Are there not mockers with me? and doth not mine eye ³continue in their ⁴provocation?

3 Lay down now, put me in a surety with thee; who ⁵is he that ⁶will strike hands with me?

4 For thou hast hid their heart from understanding: therefore shalt thou not exalt ⁷them.

5 He that speaketh flattery to his friends, even the eyes of his children shall fail.

6 He hath made me also ⁸a byword of the people; and ⁹afortime I was as a tabret.

7 Mine eye also is dim by reason of sorrow, and all ¹⁰my members are as a shadow.

8 Upright men shall be astonished at this, and the innocent shall stir up himself against the hypocrite.

9 The righteous also shall hold on his way, and he that hath ¹¹clean hands shall be stronger and stronger.

10 But as for you all, ¹²do ye return, and come now: for I cannot find ¹³one wise man among you.

11 My days are past, my purposes are broken off, ¹⁴even ¹⁵the thoughts of my heart.

12 They change the night into day: the light is ¹⁶short because of darkness.

13 If I wait, the grave is mine house: I have made my bed in the darkness.

THEN answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 How long ³will it be ere ye make an end of words? mark, and afterwards we will speak.

3 Wherefore are ye counted ⁴as beasts, and reputed vile in your sight?

4 ⁵He teareth ⁶himself in his anger: shall the earth be forsaken for thee? and shall the rock be removed out of his place?

5 Yea, ⁷the light of the wicked shall be put out, and the spark of his fire shall not shine.

6 The light shall be dark in his tabernacle, ⁸and his ⁹candle shall be put out with him.

7 The steps of his strength shall be straitened, and ⁸his own counsel shall cast him down.

8 For ⁹he is cast into a net by his own feet, and he walketh upon a square.

9 The gin shall take ¹⁰him by the heel, and ¹¹the robber shall prevail against him.

10 The snare ¹²is ¹³laid for him in the ground, and a trap for him in the way.

11 ¹⁴Terrors shall make him afraid on every side, and shall ¹⁵drive him to his feet.

13 It shall devour the ¹⁷strength of his skin: even the firstborn of death shall devour his strength.

14 ¹⁸His confidence shall be rooted out of his tabernacle, and it shall bring him to the king of terrors.

15 It shall dwell in his tabernacle, because ¹⁹it is none of his: brimstone shall be scattered upon his habitation.

CHAPTER 19.

1 Job complaineth of his friends cruelty, 31, 28 He craveth pity, 23 He believeth in the resurrection.

THEN Job answered and said,
2 How long will ye vex my soul, and break me in pieces with words?

3 These ten times have ye reproached me: ye are not ashamed that ye ^{make} yourselves strange to me.

4 And be it indeed that I have erred, mine error remaineth with myself.

5 If indeed ye will ^{magnify yourselves} against me, and plead against me my reproach:

9 He hath stripped me of my glory, and taken the crown ^{from} my head.

10 He hath destroyed me on every side, and I am gone: and mine hope hath he removed like a tree.

11 He hath also kindled his wrath against me, and ^{he} counteth me unto him as ^{one} of his enemies.

12 His troops come together, and raise up their way against me, and encamp round about my tabernacle.

13 He hath put my brethren far from me, and mine acquaintance are verily estranged from me.

14 My kinsfolk have failed, and my familiar friends have forgotten me.

15 They that dwell in mine house, and my maids, count me for a stranger: I am an alien in their sight.

CHAPTER 20.

Ezphar beweeth the state and portion of the wicked.

THEN answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

2 Therefore do my thoughts cause me to answer, and for ^{this} ^I make haste.

3 I have heard the cheek of my reproach, and the spirit of my understanding causeth me to answer.

4 Knowest thou not ^{this} of old, since man was placed upon earth,

5 That the trumping of the wicked ^{is} short, and the joy of the hypocrite ^{but} for a moment?

6 ^{Though} his excellency mount up to the heavens, and his head reach unto the ^{clouds};

7 Yet he shall perish for ever like his own dung: they which have seen him shall say, Where is he?

8 He shall fly away ^{as} a dream, and shall not be found: yea, he shall be chased away as a vision of the night.

9 The eye also ^{which} saw him shall see him no more; neither shall his place any more behold him.

10 ^{His} children shall seek to please the poor, and his hands shall restore their goods.

11 His bones are full of ^{the} sin of his youth, ^{which} shall ^{lead} him down with him in the dust.

12 Though wickedness ^{be} sweet in his mouth, ^{though} he hide it under his tongue;

13 ^{Though} he spare it, and forsake it not; but keep it still ^{within} his mouth:

14 Yet his meat in his bowels is turned, it is the gall of asps within him.

15 He hath swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them up again: God shall cast them out of his belly.

16 He shall suck the poison of asps: the viper's tongue shall slay him.

17 He shall not see ^{the} rivers, ^{the} floods, the brooks of honey and butter.

18 That which he laboured for shall he restore, and shall not swallow it down: ^{according to his substance shall the restitution be,} and he shall not rejoice therein.

19 Because he hath ^{oppressed and} hath forsaken the poor; ^{because he} hath violently taken away an house which he builded not;

20 Surely he shall not ^{feel} quietness in his belly, he shall not save of that which he desired.

21 There shall none of his meat be left; therefore shall no man look for his goods.

22 In the fulness of his sufficiency he shall be in straits: every hand of the wicked shall come upon him.

23 When he is about to fill his belly, God shall cast the fury of his wrath upon him, and shall rain it upon him while he is eating.

24 He shall flee from the iron weapon, and the bow of steel shall strike him through.

25 It is drawn, and cometh out of the body; yea, the glittering sword cometh out of his gall: ^{terrors are} upon him.

26 All darkness shall be hid in his secret places: ^{a fire not blown shall} consume him; it shall go ill with him that is left in his tabernacle.

27 The heaven shall hiss his iniquity; and the earth shall rise up against him.

28 The increase of his house shall depart, and his goods shall flow away in the day of his wrath.

29 This is the portion of a wicked man from God, and the heritage appointed unto him by God.

CHAPTER 21.

1 Job sheweth his birth reason to be grieved. 7 Sometimes the wicked prosper. 18 Sometimes their destruction is manifest. 22 The happy and unhappy are alike in death. 27 The judgment of the wicked is in another world.

BUT Job answered and said, 2 Hear diligently my speech, and let this be your consolations.

3 Suffer me that I may speak; and after that I have spoken, mock on.

4 As for me, ^{is} my complaint to man? and if it were so, why should not my spirit be ^{crouched}?

1 Eliphaz saith that when a goodness profiteth not God, he accuseth Job of divers sins. 21 He exhorteth him to repentance, with promises of mercy.

THEN Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

2 "Can a man be profitable unto God, as he that is wise may be profitable unto himself?

3 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that thou art righteous? or is it gain to him, that thou makest thy ways perfect?

4 Will he prove thee for fear of thee? will he enter with thee into judgment?

5 Is not thy wickedness great? and thine iniquities infinite?

6 For thou hast taken a pledge from thy brother for nought, and stripped the naked of his clothing.

7 Thou hast not given water to the weary to drink, and thou hast withheld bread from the hungry.

8 But as for the mighty man, he had the earth; and the honourable man dwelt in it.

9 Thou hast sent widows away empty, and the arms of the fatherless have been broken.

10 Therefore snares are round about thee, and sudden fear troubleth thee;

11 Or darkness, that thou canst not see; and abundance of waters cover thee.

12 Is not God in the height of heaven? and behold the height of the stars, how high they are!

13 And thou sayest, How I doth God know? can he judge through the dark cloud?

14 Thick clouds are a covering to him, that he seeth not; and he walketh in the circuit of heaven.

18 Yet he filled their houses with good things: but the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

19 The righteous see it, and are glad: and the innocent laugh them to scorn.

20 Whereas our substance is not cut down, but the remnant of them the fire consumeth.

21 Acquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace: thereby good shall come unto thee.

22 Receive, I pray thee, the law from his mouth, and lay up his words in thine heart.

23 If thou return to the Almighty, thou shalt be built up, thou shalt put away iniquity far from thy tabernacles.

24 Then shalt thou lay up gold as dust, and the gold of Ophir as the stones of the brooks.

25 Yea, the Almighty shall be thy defence, and thou shalt have plenty of silver.

26 For then shalt thou have thy delight in the Almighty, and shalt lift up thy face unto God.

27 Thou shalt make thy prayer unto him, and he shall hear thee, and thou shalt pay thy vows.

28 Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee: and the light shall shine upon thy ways.

CHAPTER 23.

1 Job lengtheneth to appear before God, & in confidence of his mercy. 8 God observeth our ways. 11 Job's innocency. 19 God's decree is immutable.

THEN Job answered and said,

2 Even to day is my complaint bitter: my stroke is heavier than my groaning.

3 Oh that I knew where I might find him! that I might come even to his seat!

4 I would order my cause before him, and fill my mouth with arguments.

5 I would know the words which he would answer me, and understand what he would say unto me.

6 Will he plead against me with his great power? No; but he would put strength in me.

7 There the righteous might dispute with him; so should I be delivered for ever from my judge.

8 Behold, I go forward, but he is not there; and backward, but I cannot perceive him:

9 On the left hand, where he doth work, but I cannot behold him: he hideth himself on the right hand, that I cannot see him:

10 But he knoweth the way that I take: when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold.

11 My foot hath held his steps, his way have I kept, and not declined.

12 Neither have I gone back from the commandment of his lips; I have esteemed the words of his mouth more than my necessary food.

13 But he is in one mind, and who can turn him? and what his soul desireth, even that he doeth.

14 For he performeth the thing that is appointed for me: and many such things are with him.

15 Therefore am I troubled at his presence: when I consider, I am afraid of him.

16 For God maketh my heart soft, and the Almighty troubleth me:

17 Because I was not cut off before the darkness, neither hath he covered the darkness from my face.

CHAPTER 24.

1 Wickedness goeth often unpunished. 17 There is a secret judgment for the wicked.

WHY, seeing times are not hidden from the Almighty, do they that know him not see his days?

2 Some remove the landmarks; they violently take away flocks, and feed thereof.

3 They drive away the ass of the fatherless, they take the widow's ox for a pledge.

4 They turn the needy out of the way: the poor of the earth hide themselves together.

5 Behold as wild asses in the desert, go they forth to their work; rising betimes for a prey: the wilderness yieldeth food for them and for their children.

6 They reap every one his corn in the field: and they gather the vintage of the wicked.

7 They cause the naked to lodge without clothing, that they have no covering in the cold.

8 They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and embrace the rock for want of a shelter.

9 They pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge of the poor.

10 They cause him to go naked without clothing, and they take away the sheaf from the hungry;

11 Which make oil within their walls, and tread their winepresses, and suffer thirst.

12 Men groan from out of the city, and the soul of the wounded crieth out: yet God layeth not folly to them.

13 They are of those that rebel against the light; they know not the ways thereof, nor abide in the paths thereof.

14 The murderer rising with the light killeth the poor and needy, and in the night is as a thief.

15 The eye also of the adulterer waiteth for the twilight, saying, No eye shall see me: and he disguiseth his face.

16 In the dark they dig through houses, which they had marked for themselves in the daytime: they know not the light.

17 For the morning is to them even as the shadow of death: if one know them, they are in the terrors of the shadow of death.

18 He is swift as the waters; their portion is cursed in the earth: he be- holdeth not the way of the vineyards.

19 Drought and heat consume the snow waters: so doth the grave those which have sinned.

20 The womb shall forget him; the worm shall feed sweetly on him; he shall be no more remembered; and wickedness shall be broken as a tree.

21 He evil entreateth the barren that beareth not; and doeth not good to the widow.

22 He draweth also the mighty with his power: he riseth up, and no man is sure of life.

23 Though it be given him to be in safety, whereon he resteth; yet his eyes are upon their ways.

24 They are exalted for a little while, but are gone and brought low; they are taken out of the way as all other, and cut off as the tops of the ears of corn.

25 And if it be not so now, who will make me a liar, and make my speech nothing worth?

Baldad saith that man cannot be justified before God.

WHEN answered Baldad the Shu- hita, and said,

2 Dominion and fear are with him, he maketh peace in his high places.

3 Is there any number of his armies, and upon whom doth not his light arise?

4 How then can man be justified with God? or how can he be clean that is born of a woman?

5 Behold even to the moon, and it shineth not; yea, the stars are not pure in his sight.

6 How much less man, that is a worm? and the son of man, which is a worm?

CHAPTER 26.

1 Job, reproving the uncharitable spirit of Bildad, 5 acknowledged the power of God to be infinite and unsearchable.

BUT Job answered and said,
2 How hast thou helped him that is without power? how savest thou the arm that hath no strength?

3 How hast thou counselled him that hath no wisdom? and how hast thou plentifully declared the thing as it is?

4 To whom hast thou uttered words? and whose spirit came from thee?

5 Dead things are formed from under the waters,^a and the inhabitants thereof.

6 Hell is naked before him, and destruction hath no covering.

7 He stretcheth out the north over the empty place, and hangeth the earth upon nothing.

8 He bindeth up the waters in his thick clouds; and the cloud is not rent under them.

9 He holdeth back the face of his throne, and spreadeth his cloud upon it.

10 He hath compassed the waters with bounds,^d until the day and night come to an end.

11 The pillars of heaven tremble and are astonished at his reproof.

12 He divideth the sea with his power, and by his understanding he smiteth through the proud.

13 By his spirit he hath garnished the heavens; his hand hath formed the crooked serpent.

9 Will God hear his cry when trouble cometh upon him?

10 Will he delight himself in the Almighty? will he always call upon God?

11 I will teach you by the hand of God: that which is with the Almighty will I not conceal.

12 Behold, all ye yourselves have seen it; why then are ye thus altogether vain?

13 This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of oppressors, which they shall receive of the Almighty.

14 If his children be multiplied, it is for the sword: and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.

15 Those that remain of him shall be burned in death: and his widows shall not weep.

23 Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place.

CHAPTER 28.

1 There is a knowledge of natural things 12 But wisdom is an excellent gift of God.

SURELY there is a vein for the silver, and a place for gold where they fine it.

2 Iron is taken out of the earth, and brass is molten out of the stone.

3 He setteth an end to darkness, and searcheth out all perfection: the stones of darkness, and the shadow of death.

4 The flood breaketh out from the inhabitant; even the waters forgotten of the foot: they are dried up, they are gone away from men.

5 As for the earth, out of it cometh bread: and under it is turned up as it were fire.

6 The stones of it are the place of sapphires: and it hath dust of gold

10 He outteth out rivers among the 11 He bindeth the floods from overflowing; and the thing that is hid wisdom is above rubies.

CHAPTER 29.

Job berateath himself of his former prosperity and honour

MOREOVER Job continued his parable, and said,
2 Oh that I were as in months past,
as in the days when God preserved me;
3 "When his candle shined upon my head, and when by his light I walked through darkness;
4 As I was in the days of my youth, when the secret of God was upon my tabernacle;
5 When the Almighty was yet with me, when my children were about me; 6 When I washed my steps with butter, and the rock poured me out rivers of oil;
7 When I went out to the gate through the city, when I prepared my seat in the street;
8 The young men saw me, and hid themselves: and the aged arose, and stood up.
9 The princes refrained talking, and laid their hand on their mouth.
10 "The nobles held their peace, and their tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth.
11 When the ear heard me, then it blessed me; and when the eye saw me, it gave witness to me:
12 Because I delivered the poor that cried, and the fatherless, and him that had none to help him.
13 The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me: and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.
14 "I put on righteousness, and it clothed me: my judgment was as a robe and a diadem.
15 I was eyes to the blind, and feet was I to the lame.
16 I was a father to the poor: and the cause which I knew not I searched out.
17 And I brake the jaws of the wicked, and plucked the spoil out of his teeth.
18 Then I said, I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply my days as the sand.
19 "My root was spread out by the waters, and the dew lay all night upon my branch.
20 My glory was fresh in me, and my bow was renewed in my hand.
21 Unto men I gave ear, and waited, and kept silence at my counsel.
22 After my words they spake not again; and my speech dropped upon them.
23 And they waited for me as for the rain; and they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain.

24 If I laughed on them, they believed it not; and the light of my countenance they cast not down.

25 I chose out their way, and sat chief, and dwelt as a king in the army, as one that comforteth the mourners.

CHAPTER 30.

1 Job's honour is turned into extreme contempt.
16 His prosperity into calamity

BUT now they that are younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to have set with the dogs of my flock.

2 Yea, whereto might the strength of their hands profit me, in whom old age was perished?

3 For want and famine they were solitary; fleeing into the wilderness in former time desolate and waste.

4 Who cut up mallows by the bushes, and juniper roots for their meat.

5 They were driven forth from among men, (they cried after them as after a thief;)

6 To dwell in the cliffs of the valleys, in caves of the earth, and in the rocks.

7 Among the bushes they brayed; under the nettles they were gathered together.

8 They were children of fools, yea, children of the base men: they were viler than the earth.

9 And now am I their song, yea, I am their byword.

10 They abhor me, they flee far from me, and spare not to spit in my face.

11 Because he hath loosed my cord, and afflicted me, they have also let loose the bridle before me.

12 Upon my right hand rise the youth; they push away my feet, and they raise up against me the ways of their destruction.

13 They mar my path, they set forward my calamity, they have no helper.

14 They came upon me as a wide breaking in of waters in the desolation they rolled themselves upon me.

15 Terrors are turned upon me: they pursue my soul as the wind: and my welfare passeth away as a cloud.

16 And now my soul is poured out upon me; the days of affliction have taken hold upon me.

17 My bones are pierced in me in the night season: and my sinews take no rest.

18 By tho great force of my disease is my garment changed: it bindeth me about as the collar of my coat.

19 He hath cast me into the mire, and I am become like dust and ashes.

20 I cry unto thee, and thou dost not hear me: I stand up, and thou regardest me not.

CHAPTER 31.

Job maketh a solemn protestation of his integrity in several duties.

I MADE a covenant with mine eyes; why then should I think upon a maid?

2 For what portion of God is there from above? and what inheritance of the Almighty from on high?

3 Is not destruction to the wicked? and a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity?

4 Doth not he see my ways, and count all my steps?

5 If I have walked with vanity, or if my foot hath hastened to deceit;

6 Let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know mine integrity.

7 If my step hath turned out of the way, and mine heart walked after mine eyes, and if any blot hath cleaved to mine hands;

8 Then let me sow, and let another eat; yea, let my offspring be rooted out.

9 If mine heart have been deceived by a woman, or if I have laid wait at my neighbour's door;

10 Then let my wife grind unto another, and let others bow down upon her.

11 For this is an heinous crime; yea, it is an iniquity to be punished by the judges.

13 For it is a fire that consumeth to destruction, and would root out all mine increase.

13 If I did despise the cause of my manservant or of my maidservant, when they contended with me;

14 What then shall I do when God riseth up? and when he visiteth, what shall I answer him?

15 Did not he that made me in the womb make him? and did not one fashion us in the womb?

16 If I have withheld the poor from their desire, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail;

17 Or have eaten my morsel myself alone, and the fatherless hath not eaten thereof;

18 (For from my youth he was brought up with me, as with a father, and I have guided her from my mother's womb.)

19 If I have seen any perish for want of clothing, or any poor without covering;

20 If his loins have not been blessed me, and if he were not warmed with the fleece of my sheep;

21 If I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless, when I saw my help in the gate;

22 Then let mine arm fall from my shoulder blade, and mine arm be broken from the bone.

23 For destruction from God was a terror to me, and by reason of his highness I could not endure.

24 If I have made gold my hope, or have said to the fine gold, Thou art my confidence;

25 If I rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because mine hand had gotten much;

26 If I beheld the sun when it shined, or the moon walking in brightness;

27 And my heart hath been secretly enticed, or my mouth hath kissed my hand:

28 This also were an iniquity to be punished by the judge: for I should have denied the God that is above.

29 If I rejoiced at the destruction of him that hated me, or lifted up myself when evil found him:

30 Neither have I suffered my mouth to sin by wishing a curse to his soul.

31 If the men of my tabernacle said not, Oh that we had of his flesh! we cannot be satisfied.

32 The stranger did not lodge in the street: but I opened my doors to the traveller.

33 If I covered my transgressions as Adam, by hiding mine iniquity in my bosom:

34 Did I fear a great multitude, or did the contempt of families terrify me, that I kept silence, and went not out of the door?

35 Oh that one would hear me! I behold, my desire is, that the Almighty would answer me, and that mine adversary had written a book.

36 Surely I would take it upon my shoulder, and bind it as a crown to me.

37 I would declare unto him the number of my steps; as a prince would I go near unto him.

CHAPTER 32.

1 Elihu is angry with Job and his three friends. 6 Because wisdom cometh not from age, he exhorteth the boldness of his youth. 11 He reprovereth them for not satisfying Job. 16 His zeal to speak.

SO these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.

2 Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the kindred of Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified himself rather than God.

3 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.

4 Now Elihu had waited till Job had spoken, because they were elder than he.

5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled.

6 And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said, I am young, and ye are very old; wherefore I was afraid, and durst not shew you mine opinion.

7 I said, Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom.

8 But there is a spirit in man: and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding.

9 Great men are not always wise: neither do the aged understand judgment.

10 Therefore I said, Hearken to me; I also will shew mine opinion.

11 Behold, I waited for your words: I gave ear to your reasons, whilst ye searched out what to say.

12 Yea, I attended unto you, and behold, there was none of you that convinced Job, or that answered his words:

13 ¹ Lest ye should say, We have found out wisdom: God thrusteth him down, not man.

14 Now he hath not ¹ directed his words against me: neither will I answer him with your speeches.

15 They were amazed, they answered no more: ² they left off speaking.

16 When I had waited, (for they spake not, but stood still, and answered no more;)

17 I said, I will answer also my part, I also will shew mine opinion.

18 For I am full of ³ matter, ⁴ the spirit within me constraineth me.

19 Behold, my belly is ⁵ as wine which ⁶ hath no vent; it is ready to burst like new bottles.

20 I will speak, ⁷ that I may be refreshed: I will open my lips and answer.

21 Let me not, I pray you, ⁸ accept any man's person, neither let me give flattering titles unto man.

22 For I know not to give flattering titles: in so doing my maker would soon take me away.

CHAPTER 33.

1 Elihu offereth himself to reason with Job. 8 He exhorteth God from giving man an account of his ways, by his greatness. 14 God calleth man to repentance by visions, 18 by afflictions, 23 and by his ministry. 31 He inviteth Job to attention.

WHEREFORE, Job, I pray thee, hear my speeches, and hearken to all my words.

2 Behold, now I have opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken ⁵ in my mouth.

3 My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart: and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.

4 ¹ The spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life.

5 If thou canst answer me, set thy words in order before me, stand up.

6 ² Behold, I am ³ according to thy wish in God's stead: I also am ⁴ formed out of the clay.

7 ⁵ Behold, my terror shall not make thee afraid, neither shall my hand be heavy upon thee.

8 Surely thou hast spoken ² in mine hearing, and I have heard the voice of thy words, saying,

9 ¹ I am clean without transgression, I am innocent; neither is there iniquity in me.

13 Why dost thou ² strive against him? for ³ he giveth not account of any of his matters.

14 ⁴ For God speaketh once, yeas twice, yet man perceiveth it not.

15 ⁵ In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed;

16 ⁶ Then ⁷ he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction, 17 That he may withdraw man from his ⁸ purpose, and hide pride from man.

18 He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life ⁹ from perishing by the sword.

19 He is chastened also with pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong pain.

20 ¹⁰ So that his life abhorreth bread, and his soul ¹¹ dainty meat.

21 His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stick out.

22 Yea, his soul draweth near unto the grave, and his life to the destroyers.

23 If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to shew unto man his uprightness:

24 Then he is gracious unto him, and saith, Deliver him from going down to the pit: I have found ¹² a ransom.

25 His flesh shall be fresher ¹³ than a child's: he shall return to the days of his youth:

26 He shall pray unto God, and he will be favourable unto him: and he shall see his face with joy: for he will render unto man his righteousness.

27 ¹⁴ He looketh upon men, and if any ¹⁵ say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it ¹⁶ profited me not;

28 ¹⁷ He will ¹⁸ deliver his soul from going unto the pit, and his life shall see the light.

29 Lo, all these things worketh God ¹⁹ oftentimes with man, 30 ²⁰ To bring back his soul from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living.

31 Mark well, O Job, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I will speak.

32 If thou hast any thing to say, answer me: speak, for I desire to justify thee.

33 If not, ²¹ hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I shall teach thee wisdom.

CHAPTER 34.

1 Elihu accuseth Job for charging God with injustice
 10 God cannot be unjust 31 Man must humble himself unto God. 34 Elihu reproveh Job

FURTHERMORE Elihu answered and said,

2 Hear my words, O ye wise men, and give ear unto me, ye that have knowledge.

3 For the ear trieth words, as the mouth tasteth meat

4 Let us choose to us judgment: let us know among ourselves what is good

5 For Job hath said, 'I am righteous. and 'God hath taken away my judgment.

6 Should I lie against my right? my wound is incurable without transgression.

7 What man is like Job, who drinketh up scorning like water?

8 Which goeth in company with the workers of iniquity, and walketh with wicked men.

9 For 'he hath said, It profiteth a man nothing that he should delight himself with God.

10 Therefore hearken unto me, ye men of understanding: far be it from God, that he should do wickedness; and from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity.

11 For the work of a man shall he render unto him, and cause every man to find according to his ways.

12 Yea, surely God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty pervert judgment.

13 Who hath given him a charge over the earth? or who hath disposed the whole world?

14 If he set his heart upon man, if he gather unto himself his spirit and his breath;

15 All flesh shall perish together, and man shall turn again unto dust.

16 If now thou hast understanding, hear this: hearken to the voice of my words.

17 Shall even he that hateth right govern? and wilt thou condemn him that is most just?

18 Is it fit to say to a king, Thou art wicked? and to princes, Ye are ungodly?

19 How much less to him that accepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the rich more than the poor? for 'they all are the work of his hands.

20 In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass away: and the mighty shall be taken away without hand.

21 For his eyes are upon the ways of man, and he seeth all his goings.

of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.

23 For he will not lay upon man more than right, that he should enter into judgment with God

24 He shall break in pieces mighty men without number, and set others in their stead.

25 Therefore he knoweth their works, and he overturneth them in the night, so that they are destroyed.

26 He striketh them as wicked men in the open sight of others;

27 Because they turned back from him, and would not consider any of his ways:

28 So that they cause the cry of the poor to come unto him, and he heareth the cry of the afflicted.

29 When he giveth quietness, who then can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who then can behold him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only

30 That the hypocrite reign not, lest the people be ensnared

31 Surely it is meet to be said unto God, 'I have borne chastisement, I will not offend any more

32 That which I see not teach thou me; if I have done iniquity, I will do no more 33 Should it be according to thy mind? he will recompense it, whether thou refuse, or whether thou choose; and not I. therefore speak what thou knowest.

34 Let men of understanding tell me, and let a wise man hearken unto me.

35 Job hath spoken without knowledge, and his words were without wisdom.

36 My desire is that Job may be tried unto the end because of his answers for wicked men.

37 For he addeth rebellion unto his sin, he clappeth his hands among us, and multiplieth his words against God.

CHAPTER 35.

1 Comparison is not to be made with God. 9 Many cry up their afflictions, but are not heard

ELIHU spake moreover, and said,

2 Thinkest thou this to be right, that thou saidst, My righteousness is more than God's?

3 For thou saidst, What advantage will it be unto thee? and, What profit shall I have, if I be cleansed from my sin?

4 I will answer thee, and thy companions with thee.

5 Look unto the heavens, and see, and behold the clouds which are higher than thou.

6 If thou sinnest, what doest thou against him? or if thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto him?

7 If thou be righteous, what giveth thou him? or what receiveth he of thine hand?

8 Thy wickedness may hurt a man as thou art, and thy righteousness may profit the son of man.

9 By reason of the multitude of oppressions they make the oppressed to cry: they cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty.

10 But none saith, Where is God my maker, who giveth songs in the night; 11 Who teacheth us more than the fowls of the earth, and maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven?

12 There they cry, but none giveth answer, because of the pride of evil men.

13 Surely God will not hear vanity, neither will the Almighty regard it.

14 Although thou sayest thou shalt not see him, yet judgment is before him; therefore trust thou in him.

15 But now, because it is not so, he hath visited in his anger; yet he knoweth it not in great extremity.

16 Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vain; he multiplieth words without knowledge.

CHAPTER 36.

1 Elihu sheweth how God is just in his ways. 16 How Job's sins hinder God's blessings 24 God's works are to be magnified ELIHU also proceeded, and said. 2 Suffer me a little, and I will shew thee that I have yet to speak on God's behalf.

3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

4 For truly my words shall not be false: he that is perfect in knowledge is with thee.

5 Behold, God is mighty, and despiseth not any: he is mighty in strength and wisdom.

6 He preserveth not the life of the wicked: but giveth right to the poor.

7 He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous: but with kings are they on the throne; yea, he doth establish them for ever, and they are exalted.

8 And if they be bound in fetters, and be holden in cords of affliction;

9 Then he sheweth them their work, and their transgressions that they have exceeded.

10 He openeth also their ear to discipline, and commandeth that they return from iniquity.

11 If they obey and serve him, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures.

12 But if they obey not, they shall perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge.

13 But the hypocrites in heart heap up wrath: they cry not when he bindeth them.

14 They die in youth, and their life is among the unclean.

15 He delivereth the poor in his affliction, and openeth their ears in oppression.

16 Even so would he have removed thee out of the strait into a broad place, where there is no straitness; and that which should be set on thy table should be full of fatness.

17 But thou hast fulfilled the judgment of the wicked. Judgment and justice take hold on thee.

18 Because there is wrath, beware lest he take thee away with his stroke. then a great ransom cannot deliver thee.

19 Will he esteem thy riches? no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.

20 Desire not the night, when people are cut off in their place.

21 Take heed, regard not iniquity: for thou hast thou chosen rather than affliction.

22 Behold, God exalteth by his power, who teacheth like him.

23 Who hath enjoined him his way? or who can say, Thou hast wrought iniquity?

24 Remember that thou magnify his work, which men behold.

25 Every man may see it; man may behold it afar off.

26 Behold, God is great, and we know him not, neither can the number of his years be searched out.

27 For he maketh small the drops of water: they pour down rain according to the vapour thereof.

28 Which the clouds do drop and distil upon man abundantly.

29 Also can any understand the spreadings of the clouds, or the noise of his tabernacle?

30 Behold, he spreadeth his light upon it, and covereth the bottom of the sea.

31 For by them judgeth he the people; he giveth meat in abundance.

32 With clouds he covereth the light; and commandeth it not to shine by the cloud that cometh between.

33 The noise thereof sheweth concerning it, the cattle also concerning the vapour.

CHAPTER 37.

1 God is to be feared because of his great works.
 15 His wisdom is unsearchable in them.

AT this also my heart trembleth, and is moved out of his place.

2 ²Hear attentively the noise of his voice, and the sound that goeth out of his mouth.

3 He directeth it under the whole heaven, and his ³lightning unto the ends of the earth.

4 After it ^aa voice roareth: he thundereth with the voice of his excellency; and he will not stay them when his voice is heard.

5 God thundereth marvellously with his voice; ^agreat things doeth he, which we cannot comprehend.

6 For ^ahe saith to the snow, Bethon on the earth; ^alikewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of his strength.

7 He sealeth up the hand of every man; ^athat all men may know his work.

8 Then the beasts ^ago into dens, and remain in their places.

9 Out of the south cometh the whirlwind: and cold out of the ^anorth.

10 ^aBy the breath of God frost is given: and the breadth of the waters is straitened.

11 Also hy watering he wearieth the thick cloud: he scattereth ^ahis bright cloud:

12 And it is turned round about by his counsels: that they may ^ado whatsoever he commandeth them upon the face of the world in the earth.

13 ^aHe causeth it to come, whether for ^acorrection, or ^afor his land, or for mercy.

14 Hearken unto this, O Job: stand still, and ^aconsider the wondrous works of God.

15 Dost thou know when God disposed them, and caused the light of his cloud to shine?

16 ^aDost thou know the balancings of the clouds, the wondrous works of ^ahim which is perfect in knowledge?

17 How thy garments are warm, when he quieteth the earth by the south wind?

18 Hast thou with him ^aspread out the sky, which is strong, and as a molten looking glass?

19 Teach us what we shall say unto him; for we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness.

20 Shall it be told him that I speak?
 if a man speak, surely he shall be swallowed up.

21 And now men see not the bright light which is in the clouds: but the wind passeth, and cleanseth them.

87 Job 38 12

22 ¹Fair weather cometh out of the north: with God is terrible majesty.

23 Touching the Almighty, ²we cannot find him out: ³he is excellent in power, and in judgment, and in plenty of justice: he will not afflict.

24 Men do therefore ^afear him: he respecteth not any that are ^awise of heart.

CHAPTER 38.

1 God challengeth Job to answer. 4 God convinceth Job of ignorance, and of imbecility

THEN the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said, 2 ^aWho is this that darkeneth counsel by ^awords without knowledge?

3 ^aGird up now thy loins like a man; for I will demand of thee, and ^aanswer thou me.

4 ^aWhere wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding.

5 Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it?

6 Whereupon are the ^afoundations thereof ^afastened? or who laid the corner stone thereof;

7 When the morning stars sang together, and all ^athe sons of God shouted for joy?

8 ^aOr who shut up the sea with doors, when it brake forth, as if it had issued out of the womb?

9 When I made the cloud the garment thereof, and thick darkness a swaddlingband for it,

10 And ^abrake up for it my decreed place, and set bars and doors.

11 And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further; and here shall ^athy proud waves ^abe stayed?

12 Hast thou ^acommanded the morning since thy days; and caused the dayspring to know his place;

13 That it might take hold of the ends of the earth, that ^athe wicked might be shaken out of it?

14 It is turned as clay to the seal;
 and they stand as a garment

15 And from the wicked their light is withholden, and ^athe high arm shall be broken.

16 Hast thou ^aentered into the springs of the sea? or hast thou walked in the search of the depth?

17 Have ^athe gates of death been opened unto thee? or hast thou seen the doors of the shadow of death?

18 Hast thou perceived the breadth of the earth? declare if thou knowest it all.

19 Where is the way where light dwelleth? and as for darkness, where is the place thereof,

20 That thou shouldest take it ¹ to the bound thereof, and that thou shouldest know the paths to the house thereof?

21 Knowest thou it, because thou wast then born? or because the number of thy days is great?

22 Hast thou entered into ^b the treasures of the snow? or hast thou seen the treasures of the hail,

23 ^c Which I have reserved against the time of trouble, against the day of battle and war?

24 By what way is the light parted, which scattereth the east wind upon the earth?

25 Who ^d hath divided a watercourse for the overflowing of waters, or a way for the lightning of thunder;

26 To cause it to rain on the earth, where no man is; on the wilderness, wherein there is no man;

27 ^e To satisfy the desolate and waste ground; and to cause the bud of the tender herb to spring forth?

28 ^f Hath the rain a father? or who hath begotten the drops of dew?

29 Out of whose womb came the ice? and the hoary frost of heaven, who hath gendered it?

30 The waters are hid as with a stone, and the face of the deep ^g is frozen.

31 Canst thou bind the sweet influences of ^h Pleiades, ⁱ or loose the bands of ^j Orion?

32 Canst thou bring forth ^k Mazzaroth in his season? or canst thou ^l guide Arcturus with his sons?

33 Knowest thou ^m the ordinances of heaven? canst thou set the dominion thereof in the earth?

34 Canst thou lift up thy voice to the clouds, that abundance of waters may cover thee?

35 Canst thou send lightnings, that they may go, and say unto thee, ⁿ Here we are!

36 ^o Who hath put wisdom in the inward parts? or who hath given understanding to the heart?

37 Who can number the clouds in wisdom? or ^p who can stay the bottles of heaven, 38 ^q When the dust ^r groweth into hardness, and the clods cleave fast together?

39 ^s Wilt thou hunt the prey for the lion? or fill ^t the appetite of the young lions, 40 When they couch in ^u their dens, and abide in the covert to lie in wait?

41 ^v Who provideth for the raven his food? when his young ones cry unto God, they wander for lack of meat.

CHAPTER 39.

1 Of the wild goats and hinds. 5 Of the wild ass, &c.

KNOWEST thou the time when the wild goats of the rock bring forth? or canst thou mark when the hinds do calve?

2 Canst thou number the months that they fulfil? or knowest thou the time when they bring forth?

3 They bow themselves, they bring forth their young ones, they cast out their sorrows.

4 Their young ones are in good liking, they grow up with corn; they go forth, and return not unto them.

5 Who hath sent out the wild ass free? or who hath loosed the bands of the wild ass?

6 ^a Whose house I have made the wilderness, and the ^b barren land his dwellings.

7 He scorneth the multitude of the city, neither regardeth he the crying of the driver.

8 The range of the mountains is his pasture, and he searcheth after every green thing.

9 Will the ^c unicorn be willing to servo thee, or abide by thy crib?

10 Canst thou bind the unicorn with his band in the furrow? or will he harrow the valleys after thee?

11 Wilt thou trust him, because his strength is great? or wilt thou leave thy labour to him?

12 Wilt thou believe him, that he will bring home thy seed, and gather it into thy barn?

13 Gavest thou the goodly wings unto the peacocks? or ^d wings and feathers unto the ostrich?

14 Which leaveth her eggs in the earth, and warmeth them in dust,

15 And forgetteth that the foot may crush them, or that the wild beast may break them.

16 She is ^e hardened against her young ones, as though they were not her's: her labour is in vain without fear;

17 Because God hath deprived her of wisdom, neither hath he ^f imparted to her understanding.

18 What time she lifteth up herself on high, she scorneth the horse and his rider.

19 Hast thou given the horse strength? hast thou clothed his neck with thunder?

20 Canst thou make him afraid as a grasshopper? the glory of his nostrils is terrible.

21 ^g He paweth in the valley, and rejoiceth in his strength: ^h he goeth on to meet ⁱ the armed men.

22 He mocketh at fear, and is not affrighted; neither turneth he back from the sword.

23 The quiver rattleth against him, the glittering spear and the shield.

24 He swalloweth the ground with fierceness and rage: neither believeth he that it is the sound of the trumpet.

25 He saith among the trumpets, Ha, ha; and he smelleth the battle afar off, the thunder of the captains, and the shouting.

26 Doth the hawk fly by thy wisdom, and stretch her wings toward the south?

27 Doth the eagle mount up ^{at} thy command, and ^{make} her nest on high?

28 She dwelleth and abideth on the rock, upon the crag of the rock, and the strong place.

29 From thence she seeketh the prey, and her eyes behold afar off

30 Her young ones also suck up blood, and ^{where the slain are}, there is she.

CHAPTER 40.

1 Job humbleth himself to God & God stretcheth him up to show his righteousness, power, and wisdom 15 Of the behemoth.

MOREOVER the LORD answered Job, and said,

2 Shall he that ^{contendeth} with the Almighty instruct him? he that reproveth God, let him answer it.

3 ¶ Then Job answered the LORD, and said,

4 Behold, I am vile; what shall I answer thee? ^{I will lay mine hand upon my mouth.}

5 Once have I spoken; but I will not answer: yea, twice; but I will proceed no further.

6 ¶ Then answered the LORD unto Job out of the whirlwind, and said,

7 Gird up thy loins now like a man: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

8 Wilt thou also disannul my judgment? wilt thou condemn me, that thou mayest be righteous?

9 Hast thou an arm like God? or canst thou thunder with a voice like him?

10 Deck thyself now with majesty and excellency; and array thyself with glory and beauty.

11 Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath: and behold every one that is proud, and abase him.

12 Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place.

13 Hide them in the dust together; and bind their faces in secret.

14 Then will I also confess unto thee that thine own right hand can save thee.

17 ² He moveth his tail like a cedar: the sinews of his stones are wrapped together.

18 His bones are as strong pieces of brass; his bones are like bars of iron.

19 He is the chief of the ways of God: he that made him can make his sword to approach unto him.

20 Surely the mountains ³ bring him forth food, where all the beasts of the field play.

21 He lieth under the shady trees, in the covert of the reed, and fens.

22 The shady trees cover him with their shadow; the willows of the brook compass him about.

Of God's great power in the Leviathan.

CANST thou draw out ⁶ leviathan ⁷ with a cord? which thou lettest down?

2 Canst thou put an hook into his nose? or bore his jaw through with a thorn?

3 Will he make many supplications unto thee? will he speak soft words unto thee?

4 Will he make a covenant with thee? wilt thou take him for a servant for ever?

5 Wilt thou play with him as with a bird? or wilt thou bind him for thy maidens?

6 Shall the companions make a banquet of him? shall they part him among the merchants?

7 Canst thou fill his skin with balbed irons? or his head with fish spears?

8 Lay thine hand upon him, remember the battle, do no more.

9 Behold, the hope of him is in vain. shall not one be cast down even at the sight of him?

10 None is so fierce that dare stir him up: who then is able to stand before me?

11 Who hath prevented me, that I should repay him? ⁸ whatsoever is under the whole heaven is mine.

12 I will not conceal his parts, nor his power, nor his comely proportion.

13 Who can discover the face of his garment? or who can come to him with his double bridle?

14 Who can open the doors of his face? his teeth are terrible round about.

15 His scales are his pride, shut up together as with a close seal.

16 One is so near to another, that no air can come between them.

17 They are joined one to another, they stick together, that they cannot be sundered.

18 By his neesings a light doth shine, and his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.

19 Out of his mouth go burning lamps, and sparks of fire leap out.

20 Out of his nostrils goeth smoke, as out of a seething pot or caldron.

21 His breath kindleth coals, and a flame goeth out of his mouth.

22 In his neck remaineth strength, and sorrow is turned into joy before him.

23 The flakes of his flesh are joined together: they are firm in themselves; they cannot be moved.

24 His heart is as firm as a stone; yea, as hard as a piece of the nether millstone.

25 When he raiseth up himself, the mighty are afraid: by reason of breakings they purify themselves.

26 The sword of him that layeth at him cannot hold: the spear, the dart, nor the habergeon.

27 He esteemeth iron as straw, and brass as rotten wood.

28 The arrow cannot make him flee: slingstones are turned with him into stubble.

29 Darts are counted as stubble: he laugheth at the shaking of a spear.

30 Sharp stones are under him: he spreadeth sharp pointed things upon the mire.

31 He maketh the deep to boil like a pot: he maketh the sea like a pot of ointment.

32 He maketh a path to shine after him; one would think the deep to be hoary.

33 Upon earth there is not his like, who is made without fear.

34 He beholdeth all high things: he is a king over all the children of pride.

4 Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

5 I have heard of thee by the hearing of the ear: but now mine eye seeth thee.

6 Wherefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes.

7 And it was so, that after the LORD had spoken these words unto Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath.

8 Therefore take unto you now seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you: for him will I accept: lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my servant Job.

9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the LORD commanded them: the LORD also accepted Job.

10 And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before.

11 Then came there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an earring of gold.

12 So the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand asses.

13 He had also seven sons and three daughters.

14 And he called the name of the first, Jemima; and the name of the second, Kezia; and the name of the third, Keren-happuch.

15 And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren.

16 After this lived Job an hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, even four generations.

17 So Job died, being old and full of days.

7 David prayeth unto God to guide him
To the chief Musician upon Nehiloth, A Psalm of David.

GIVE ear to my words, O LORD, consider my meditation.

2 Harken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God: for unto thee will I pray.

3 "My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O LORD; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.

4 For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness: neither shall evil dwell with thee.

5 The foolish shall not stand in thy sight: thou hatest all workers of iniquity.

6 "Thou shalt destroy them that speak leasing: the LORD will abhor the bloody and deceitful man.

7 But as for me, I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy: and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.

8 "Lead me, O LORD, in thy righteousness because of mine enemies; make thy way straight before my face.

9 For there is no faithfulness in their mouth; their inward part is very wickedness; their throat is an open sepulchre; they flatter with their tongue.

10 "Destroy thou them, O God: let them fall by their own counsels; cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions; for they have rebelled against thee.

11 But let all those that put their trust in thee rejoice: let them ever shout for joy, because thou defendest them: let them also that love thy name be joyful in thee.

12 For thou, LORD, wilt bless the righteous; with favour wilt thou compass him as with a shield.

10 By faith he smeth his defence

* Shiggaon of David, which he sang unto the LORD, concerning the words of Cush the Benjamite

LORD my God, in these do I put my trust: save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver me

2 "Lest he tear my soul like a lion, rending it in pieces, while there is none to deliver.

3 O LORD my God, if I have done this; if there be iniquity in my hands;

4 If I have rewarded evil unto him that was at peace with me; (yea, I have delivered him that without cause is mine enemy:)

5 Let the enemy persecute my soul, and take it, yea, let him tread down my life upon the earth, and lay mine honour in the dust. Selah.

6 Arise, O LORD, in thine anger, lift up thyself because of the rage of mine enemies; and awake for me to the judgment that thou hast commanded.

7 So shall the congregation of the people compass thee about: for their sakes therefore return thou on high.

8 The LORD shall judge the people: judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness, and according to mine integrity that is in me.

9 Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just: for the righteous God trieth the hearts and reins.

10 "My defence is of God, which saveth the upright in heart.

11 "God judgeth the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day.

12 If he turn not, he will whet his sword; he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

13 He hath also prepared for him the instruments of death; he ordaineth his arrows against the persecutors.

PSALM 8.

God's glory is magnified by his works, and by his love to man.

To the chief Musician ^aupon Gittith, A Psalm of David.

O LORD our Lord, how ^aexcellent is thy name in all the earth! who ^ahast set thy glory above the heavens.

2 ²Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ^aordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still ^athe enemy and the avenger.

3 When I ²consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

4 ^aWhat is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

5 For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour.

6 ^aThou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; ^athou hast put all ^athings under his feet:

7 ^aAll sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field;

8 ^aThe fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, ^aand whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

9 ^aO LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!

PSALM 9.

1 David praiseth God for executing of judgment

To the chief Musician upon Muth-labben, A Psalm of David.

I WILL praise thee, O LORD, with my whole heart; I will shew forth all thy marvellous works.

2 I will be glad and ^arejoice in thee: I will sing praise to thy name, O ^athou most High.

3 When mine enemies are turned back, they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

4 For ^athou hast maintained my right and my cause; thou satest in the throne judging ^aright.

5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, thou hast destroyed the wicked, thou hast ^aput out their name for ever and ever.

6 ¹O thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpetual end: and thou hast destroyed cities; their memorial is perished with them.

7 ²But the LORD shall endure for ever: he hath prepared his throne for judgment.

8 And ^ahe shall judge the world in righteousness, he shall minister judgment to the people in uprightness.

9 ³The LORD also will be ^aa refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.

10 And they that ^aknow thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, LORD, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.

11 Sing praises to the LORD, which dwelleth in Zion: ^adeclare among the people his doings.

12 ⁴When he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them: he forgetteth not the cry of the ^ahumble.

13 Have mercy upon me, O LORD; consider my trouble ^{which} I suffer of them that hate me, thou that hiest me up from the gates of death:

14 That I may shew forth all thy praise in the gates of the daughter of Zion: I will ^arejoice in thy salvation.

15 ^aThe heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the net which they hid is their own foot taken.

16 The LORD is ^aknown by the judgment ^{which} he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. ^aHugai^{on}. Selah.

17 The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations ^athat forget God.

18 ^aFor the needy shall not always be forgotten: ^athe expectation of the poor shall not perish for ever.

19 Arise, O LORD; let not man prevail: let the heathen be judged in thy sight.

20 Put them in fear, O LORD: ^athat the nations may know themselves to be but men. Selah.

PSALM 10.

1 David complaineth to God 12 He prayeth for remedy 18 He professeth confidence

WHY standest thou afar off, O LORD? why hidest thou thyself in times of trouble?

2 ^aThe wicked in his pride doth persecute the poor: ^alet them be taken in the devices that they have imagined.

3 ^aFor the wicked ^aboasteth of his heart's desire, and ^ablesseth ^athe covetous, whom the LORD abhorreth.

4 The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God: ^aGod is not in all his ^athoughts.

5 His ways are always grievous; thy judgments are far above out of his sight: as for all his enemies, he puffeth at them.

6 ^bHe hath said in his heart, I shall not be moved: for I shall ³never be in adversity.

7 ^aHis mouth is full of cursing and ^cdeceit and fraud: under his tongue is mischief and ^bvanity.

8 He sitteth in the lurking places of the villages: in the secret places doth he murder the innocent: his eyes ⁷are privily set against the poor.

9 He lieth in wait ^asecretly as a lion in his den: he lieth in wait to catch the poor: he doth catch the poor, when he draweth him into his net.

10 ¹He croucheth, and humbleth himself, that the poor may fall ^dby his strong ones.

11 He hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten: ^ahe hideth his face; he will never see it.

12 Arise, O LORD; O God, ^alift up thine hand: forget not the ^bhumble.

13 Wherefore doth the wicked condemn God? he hath said in his heart, Thou wilt not require it.

14 Thou hast seen it; for thou beholdest mischief and spite, to requite it with thy hand: the poor ^acommitteeth ^bhimself unto thee; ^cthou art the helper of the fatherless.

15 Break thou the arm of the wicked and the evil man: seek out his wickedness til thou find none.

16 ^aThe LORD is King for ever and ever: the heathen are perished out of his land.

17 LORD, thou hast heard the desire of the humble: thou wilt ^aprepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine ear to hear:

18 To ^bjudge the fatherless and the oppressed, that the man of the earth may no more ^coppress.

1 David, destitute of human comfort, craveth help of God. 3 God's judgments on the wicked. To the chief Musician, upon ⁸Shennith, A Psalm of David.

HELP, ^aLORD; for the godly man censeth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men.

2 ^aThey speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips and with ^aa double heart do they speak.

3 The LORD shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh ^aproud things.

4 Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail; our lips ^aare our own: who is lord over us?

1 David complaineth of delay in help. 3 He prayeth for grace, and denaith of divine service. To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

HOW long wilt thou forget me, O LORD? for ever? ^ahow long wilt thou hide thy face from me?

2 How long shall I take counsel in my soul, ^ahaving sorrow in my heart daily? how long shall mine enemy be exalted over me?

3 Consider and hear me, O LORD my God: ^alighten mine eyes, ^blest I sleep the sleep of death;

4 Lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him; and those that trouble me rejoice when I am moved.

5 But I have trusted in thy mercy; my heart shall rejoice in thy salvation.

PSALM 14.

1 David describeth the corruption of a natural man, and glorieth in the salvation of God. To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

THE ^afool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good.

2 ^aThe LORD looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God.

3 They are all gone aside, they are all together become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

4 Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread, and call not upon the LORD.

5 There were they in great fear: for God is in the generation of the righteous.

6 Ye have shamed the counsel of the poor, because the LORD is his refuge.

7 Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! when the LORD bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

PSALM 15.

David describeth a citizen of Zion.

A Psalm of David.

LORD, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

2 He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart.

3 He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbour, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbour.

4 In whose eyes a vile person is contemned; but he honoureth them that fear the LORD. He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not.

A Prayer of David.

HEAR the right, O LORD, attend unto my cry, give ear unto my prayer, that goeth not out of feigned lips.

2 Let my sentence come forth from thy presence; let thine eyes behold the things that are equal.

3 Thou hast proved mine heart; thou hast visited me in the night; thou hast tried me, and shalt find nothing; I am purposed that my mouth shall not transgress.

4 Concerning the works of men, by the word of thy lips I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer.

5 Hold up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not.

6 I have called upon thee, for thou wilt hear me, O God: incline thine ear unto me, and hear my speech.

7 Shew thy marvellous lovingkindness, O thou that savest by thy right hand them which put their trust in thee from those that rise up against them.

8 Keep me as the apple of the eye, bideme under the shadow of thy wings.

9 From the wicked that oppress me, from my deadly enemies, who compass me about.

10 They are inclosed in their own fat: with their mouth they speak proudly

11 They have now compassed us in our steps: they have set their eyes bowing down to the earth;

12 Like as a lion that is greedy of his prey, and as it were a young lion lurking in secret places.

13 Arise, O LORD, disappoint him, cast him down: deliver my soul from the wicked, which is thy sword:

14 From men which are thy hand, O LORD, from men of the world, which have their portion in this life, and whose belly thou fillest with thy hid treasure: they are full of children, and leave the rest of their substance to their babes.

15 As for me, "I will behold thy face in righteousness: "I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness.

PSALM 18.

David praiseth God for his manifold and marvellous blessings

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, "the servant of the Lord, who speaks unto the Lord the words of this song in the day that the Lord delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul And he said,

I "WILL love thee, O LORD, my strength.

2 The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, "my strength, "in whom I will trust, my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

3 I will call upon the LORD, "who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

4 The sorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of "ungodly men made me afraid.

5 The sorrows of hell compassed me about: the snares of death prevented me.

6 In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears.

7 Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills moved and were shaken, because he was wroth.

8 There went up a smoke "out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down: and darkness was under his feet.

10 And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly: yea, "he did fly upon the wings of the wind.

11 He made darkness his secret place; "his pavilion round about him were dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

12 At the brightness that was before him his thick clouds passed, hail stones and coals of fire.

13 The LORD also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave "his voice; hail stones and coals of fire.

14 Yea, he sent out his arrows, and scattered them; and he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them.

15 Then the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were discovered at thy rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.

18 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my stay.

19 He brought me forth also into a large place; he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

20 The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

22 For all his judgments were before me, and I did not put away his statutes from me.

23 I was also upright before him, and I kept myself from mine iniquity.

24 Therefore hath the LORD recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his eyesight.

25 With the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful; with an upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright;

26 With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure; and with the froward thou wilt shew thyself froward.

27 For thou wilt save the afflicted people; but wilt bring down "high looks.

28 For thou wilt light my candle: the LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.

29 For by thee I have run through a troop; and by my God have I leaped over a wall.

30 As for God, "his way is perfect: the word of the LORD is "tried: he is a buckler to all those that trust in him.

31 For who is God save the LORD? or who is a rock save our God?

32 It is God that "guardeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect.

33 He maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and "setteth me upon my high places.

34 He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.

35 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy right hand hath holden me up, and "thy gentleness hath made me great.

36 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me, "that my feet did not slip.

37 I have pursued mine enemies, and overtaken them: neither did I turn again till they were consumed.

38 I have wounded them that they were not able to rise: they are fallen under my feet.

39 For thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle: thou hast "subdued under me those that rose up against me

40 Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies; that I might destroy them that hate me.

41 They cried, but there was none to save them ^{even} unto the LORD, but he answered them not.

42 Then did I beat them small as the dust before the wind. I did ^{cast} them out as the dirt in the streets.

43 Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people; and ^{thou} hast made me the head of the heathen: ^a people whom I have not known shall serve me.

44 ^{As} soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me: ^{the} strangers shall ^{submit} themselves unto me.

45 ^{The} strangers shall fade away, and be afraid out of their close places.

46 The LORD liveth; and blessed ^{be} my rock; and let the God of my salvation be exalted.

47 It is God that ^{avengeth} me, ^{and} ^{sublueth} the people under me.

48 He delivereth me from mine enemies: yea, ^{thou} liftest me up above those that rise up against me: thou hast delivered me from the ^{violent} man.

49 ^{Therefore} will I ^{give} thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the heathen, and sing praises unto thy name.

50 ^{Great} deliverance giveth he to his king; and sheweth mercy to his anointed, to David, and to his seed for evermore.

35 Ps 131 5, 6.

9 The fear of the LORD ^{is} clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the LORD ^{are} ^{true} and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired ^{are} they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and ^{the} honeycomb.

11 Moreover by them is thy servant warned: ^{and} in keeping of them ^{thou} ^{art} great reward.

12 Who can understand ^{his} errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults.

13 Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from ^{the} great transgression.

14 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, ^{my} strength, and my ^{redeemer}.

PSALM 20.

The church's confidence in God's succour
To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David

THE LORD hear thee in the day of trouble; the name of the God of Jacob ^{defend} thee;

2 Send ^{thee} help from the sanctuary, and ^{strengthen} thee out of Zion;

3 Remember all thy offerings, and ^{accept} thy burnt sacrifice; Selah.

4 Grant thee according to thine own heart, and fulfil all thy counsel.

5 We will rejoice in thy salvation, and in the name of our God we will set up our banners: the LORD fulfil all thy petitions.

6 Now know I that the LORD saveth his anointed; he will hear him ^{from} his holy heaven ^{with} the saving strength of his right hand.

7 Some ^{trust} in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the name of the LORD our God.

8 They are brought down and fallen: but we are risen, and stand upright.

9 Save, LORD: let the king hear us when we call.

PSALM 21.

1 A thanksgiving for victory. 7 Confidence of further success.
To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David

THE king shall joy in thy strength, O LORD; and in thy salvation how greatly shall he rejoice!

2 Thou hast given him his heart's desire, and hast not withheld the request of his lips. Selah.

3 For thou preventest him with the blessings of goodness: thou settest a crown of pure gold on his head.

4 ^{He} asked life of thee, ^{and} thou gavest it him, ^{even} length of days for ever and ever.

5 His glory is great in thy salvation. honour and majesty hast thou laid upon him.

6 For thou hast ²made him most blessed for ever; thou hast ³made him exceeding glad with thy countenance.

7 For the king trusteth in the LORD, and through the mercy of the most High he shall not be moved.

8 Thine hand shall find out all thine enemies; thy right hand shall find out those that hate thee.

9 Thou shalt make them as a fiery oven in the time of thine anger: the LORD shall swallow them up in his wrath, and the fire shall devour them.

10 Their fruit shalt thou destroy from the earth, and their seed from among the children of men.

11 For they intended evil against thee: they imagined a mischievous device, which they are not able to perform.

12 Therefore ⁶shalt thou make them turn their ⁷back, when thou shalt make ready thine arrows upon thy strings against the face of them.

13 Be thou exalted, LORD, in thine own strength: so will we sing and praise thy power.

PSALM 22.

1 David complaineth in great discouragement. 2 He prayeth in great distress. 23 He praiseth God. To the chief Musician upon ¹Altogether Shaloh, A Psalm of David

MY God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my roaring?

2 O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not; and in the night season, and ²am not silent.

3 But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the ³praises of Israel.

4 Our fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them.

5 They cried unto thee, and were delivered: ⁴they trusted in thee, and were not confounded.

6 But I am ⁵a worm, and no man; ⁵a reproach of men, and despised of the people.

7 ⁶All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they ⁶shoot out the lip, ⁶they shake the head, saying,

8 ⁷He ⁷trusted on the LORD that he would deliver him: ⁷let him deliver him, ⁷seeing he delighted in him.

9 ⁸But thou art he that took me out of the womb: thou ⁸didst make me hope when I was upon my mother's breasts.

2 When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

3 Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.

4 One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to enquire in his temple.

5 For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock.

6 And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the LORD.

1 David prayeth earnestly against his enemies, 8 He bleareth God, 9 He prayeth for the people.
A Psalm of David.

UNTO thee will I cry, O LORD my rock; be not silent to me: lest, if thou be silent to me, I become like them that go down into the pit.

2 Hear the voice of my supplications, when I cry unto thee, when I lift up my hands toward thy holy oracle.

3 Draw me not away with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquity, which speak peace to their neighbours, but mischief is in their hearts.

4 Give them according to their deeds, and according to the wickedness of their endeavours: give them after the work of their hands; render to them their desert.

5 Because they regard not the works of the LORD, nor the operation of his hands, he shall destroy them, and not build them up.

6 Blessed be the LORD, because he hath heard the voice of my supplications.

7 The LORD is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in him, and I am helped: therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; and with my song will I praise him.

¹ David, showing his confidence in God, craveth his help ⁷ He rejoiceth in his mercy ⁹ He praiseth in his calamity ¹⁹ He praiseth God for his goodness To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David

IN ¹thee, O LORD, do I put my trust; let me never be ashamed: I deliver me in thy righteousness.

²Bow down thine ear to me; deliver me speedily: be thou ³my strong rock, for an house of defence to save me.

³For thou ⁴art my rock and my fortress; therefore ⁵for thy names sake lead me, and guide me.

⁴Pull me out of the net that they have laid privily for me: for thou ⁶art my strength.

⁵Into thine hand I commit my spirit: thou hast redeemed me, O LORD God of truth.

⁶I have hated them ⁷that regard lying vanities; but I trust in the LORD.

⁷I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy; for thou hast considered my trouble; thou hast ⁸known my soul in adversities;

⁸And hast not ⁹shut me up into the hand of the enemy: thou hast set my feet in a large room.

⁹Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am in trouble: ¹⁰mine eye is consumed with grief, yea, my soul and my belly.

¹⁰For my life is spent with grief, and my years with sighing: my strength faileth because of mine iniquity, and my bones are consumed.

¹¹I was a reproach among all mine enemies, but ¹²especially among my neighbours, and a fear to mine acquaintance: ¹³they that did see me without fled from me.

¹²I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind: I am like ¹⁴a broken vessel.

¹³For I have heard the slander of many: ¹⁵fear was on every side: while they ¹⁶took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life.

¹⁴But I trusted in thee, O LORD. I said, Thou ¹⁷art my God.

¹⁵My times are in thy hand: deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that persecute me.

¹⁶Make thy face to shine upon thy servant save me for thy mercies' sake.

17 Let me not be ashamed, O LORD, for I have called upon thee: let the wicked be ashamed, and let them be silent in the grave.

18 Let the lying lips be put to silence; which speak grievous things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous.

19 Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men!

20 Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence from the pride of man: thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.

21 Blessed be the LORD: for he hath shewed me his marvellous kindness in a strong city.

22 For I said in my haste, 'I am cut off from before thine eyes: nevertheless thou hearest the voice of my supplications when I cried unto thee.'

23 O love the LORD, all ye his saints: for the LORD preserveth the faithful, and plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.

24 Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart, all ye that hope in the LORD.

3 When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long.

5 I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid: I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the LORD; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Selah.

6 For this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh unto him.

11 Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, ye righteous: and shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

PSALM 33.

1 God is to be praised for his goodness 6 for his power 12 and for his providence

REJOICE in the LORD, O ye righteous: for praise is comely for the upright.

2 Praise the LORD with harp: sing unto him with the psaltery and an instrument of ten strings.

3 Sing unto him a new song; play skilfully with a loud noise.

4 For the word of the LORD is right; and all his works are done in truth.

5 He loveth righteousness and judgment: the earth is full of the goodness of the LORD.

6 By the word of the LORD were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.

7 He gathereth the waters of the sea together as an heap: he layeth up the depth in storehouses.

8 Let all the earth fear the LORD: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

9 For he spake, and it was done, he commanded, and it stood fast.

10 The LORD bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect.

11 The counsel of the LORD standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

12 Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

13 The LORD looketh from heaven; he beareth all the sons of men.

14 From the place of his habitation he looketh upon all the inhabitants of the earth.

15 He fashioneth their hearts alike: he considereth all their works.

16 There is no king saved by the multitude of an host: a mighty man is not delivered by much strength.

17 An horse is a vain thing for safety: neither shall he deliver any by his great strength.

18 Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his mercy:

19 To deliver thoir soul from death, and ^{to} keep them alive in famine.
20 Our soul waiteth for the LORD:
he is our help and our shield.
21 For our heart shall rejoice in holy name.

22 Let thy mercy, O LORD, be upon us, according as we hope in thee.

departed.

good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

9 O fear the LORD, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him.
10 The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the LORD shall not want any good thing.

11 Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the LORD.

12 What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good?

13 Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile.

14 Depart from evil, and do good;
seek peace, and pursue it.

15 The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry.

16 The face of the LORD is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

17 The righteous cry, and the LORD heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles.

18 The LORD is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart: and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.

19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the LORD delivereth him out of them all.

20 He keepeth all his bones: not one of them is broken.

21 Evil shall slay the wicked: and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate.

22 The LORD redeemeth the soul of his servants: and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate.

PSALM 35.

1 David prayeth for his own safety, and his enemies confusion. 11 He complaineth of their wrongful dealing. 22 Thereby he trusteth God against them.

A Psalm of David.

I PLEAD my cause, O LORD, with them that strive with me: fight against them that fight against me.

2 Take hold of shield and buckler, and stand up for mine help.

3 Draw out also the spear, and stop the way against them that persecute me: say unto my soul, I am thy salvation.

4 Let them be confounded and put to shame that seek after my soul: let them be turned back and brought to confusion that devise my hurt.

5 Let them be as chaff before the wind: and let the angel of the LORD chase them.

6 Let their way be dark and ship-pery: and let the angel of the LORD persecute them.

7 For without cause have they hid for me their net in a pit, which without cause they have digged for my soul.

8 Let destruction come upon him at unawares: and let his net that he hath hid catch himself: into that very destruction let him fall.

9 And my soul shall be joyful in the LORD: it shall rejoice in his salvation.

10 All my bones shall say, LORD, who is like unto thee, which deliverest the poor from him that is too strong for him, yea, the poor and the needy from him that spoileth him?

11 False witnesses did rise up; they laid to my charge things that I knew not.

12 They rewarded me evil for good to the spoiling of my soul.

13 But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth: I humbled my soul with fasting; and my prayer returned into mine own bosom.

14 I behaved myself as though I had been my friend or brother: I bowed down heavily, as one that mourneth for his mother.

15 But in mine adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together: yea, the abjects gathered themselves together against me, and I knew it not; they did ¹tear me, and ceased not:

16 With hypocritical mockers in feasts, ²they gnashed upon me with their teeth.

17 Lord, how long wilt thou ³look on? rescue my soul from their destructions, ⁴my darling from the lions.

18 I will give thee thanks in the great congregation: I will praise thee among ⁵much people.

19 ⁶Let not them that are mine enemies ⁷wrongfully rejoice over me: ⁸neither ⁹let them wink with the eye ¹⁰that hate me without a cause.

20 For they speak not peace; but they devise deceitful matters against them that are quiet in the land.

21 Yea, they ¹¹opened their mouth wide against me, and said, ¹²"Aha, aha, our eye hath seen it."

22 ¹³This thou hast ¹⁴seen, O Lord: ¹⁵keep not silence: O Lord, be not ¹⁶fear from me.

23 ¹⁷Stir up thyself, and awake to my judgment, ¹⁸even unto my cause, my God and my Lord.

24 Judge me, O Lord my God, ¹⁹"according to thy righteousness; and let them not rejoice over me.

25 Let them not say in their hearts, ²⁰"Ah, so would we have it; let them not say, ²¹"We have swallowed him up."

26 Let them be ashamed and brought to confusion together that rejoice at mine hurt: let them be ²²clothed with shame and dishonour that magnify themselves against me.

27 ²³Let them shout for joy, and be glad, that favour ²⁴my righteous cause. yea, let them say continually, Let the Lord be magnified, which hath pleasure in the prosperity of his servant.

28 And my tongue shall speak of thy righteousness ²⁵and of thy praise all the day long.

4 ⁶"Delight thyself also in the Lord; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

5 ⁷"Commit ⁸"thy way unto the Lord; trust also in him; and he shall bring ⁹it to pass.

6 ¹⁰"And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday.

7 ¹¹"Rest in the Lord, ¹²"and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

8 ¹³"Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: ¹⁴"fret not thyself in any wise to do evil.

9 ¹⁵"For evildoers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon the Lord, they shall ¹⁶"inherit the earth.

10 ¹⁷"For ¹⁸"yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yea, ¹⁹"thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.

11 ²⁰"But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

12 The wicked ²¹"plotteth against the just, ²²"and gnasheth upon him with his teeth.

13 ^aThe Lord shall laugh at him: for he seeth that ^bhis day is coming.

14 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay ^csuch as be of upright conversation.

15 ^dTheir sword shall enter into their own heart, and their bows shall be broken.

16 ^eA little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked.

17 For ^fthe arms of the wicked shall be broken: but the LORD upholdeth the righteous.

18 The LORD ^gknoweth the days of the upright: and their inheritance shall be ^hfor ever.

19 They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: and ⁱin the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

20 But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the LORD ^jshall be as ^kthe fat of lambs: they shall consume; ^linto smoke shall they consume away.

21 The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again: but ^mthe righteous sheweth mercy, and giveth.

PSALM 38.

David mouth God to take compassion of his pitiful case

A Psalm of David, ^ato bring to remembrance

2 For ^cthine arrows stick fast in me, and ^dthy hand presseth me sore.

3 ^eThere is no soundness in my flesh because of thine anger: ^fneither is there any ^grest in my bones because of my sin.

4 For ^hmine iniquities are gone over mine head: as an heavy burden they are too ⁱheavy for me.

5 My wounds stink ^jand are corrupt because of my foolishness.

6 I am ^ktroubled; I am bowed down greatly; ^lI go mourning all the day long.

7 For my loins are filled with ^ma loathsome disease: and ⁿthere is no soundness in my flesh.

8 I am feeble and sore broken: ^oI have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart.

9 Lord, all my desire is before thee; and my groaning is not hid from thee.

10 My heart panteth, my strength faileth me: as for ^pthe light of mine eyes, it also ^qis gone from me.

11 ^rMy lovers and my friends ^sstand aloof from my ^tsore; and ^umy kinsmen ^vstand afar off.

12 They also that seek after my life ^wlay snares for me and they that seek my hurt ^xspeak mischievous things, and ^yimagine deceits all the day long.

13 But ^zI, as a deaf man, heard not: ^{aa}and ^{ab}I was as a dumb man that openeth not his mouth.

14 Thus I was as a man that heareth not, and in whose mouth are no reproofs.

15 For ¹in thee, O LORD, ²do I hope: thou wilt ³hear, O Lord my God.

16 For I said, Hear me, lest otherwise they should rejoice over me: when my foot slippeth, they magnify themselves against me.

17 For I am ready ³to halt, and my sorrow is continually before me.

18 For I will ²declare mine iniquity; I will be ³sorry for my sin.

19 But mine enemies ²are lively, and they are strong: and they that hate me wrongfully are multiplied.

20 They also ²that render evil for good are mine adversaries; because I follow the thing that good is.

21 Forsake me not, O LORD: O my God, ²be not far from me.

22 Make haste ²to help me, O Lord my salvation.

PSALM 39.

1 David's care of his thoughts 4 Of the brevity and vanity of life

To the chief Musician, even to ³Jeduthun, A Psalm of David.

I SAID, I will ²take heed to my ways, that I an not with my tongue: I will keep ²my mouth with a bridle, while the wicked is before me.

2 I was dumb with silence, I held my peace, even from good; and my sorrow was ²starred.

3 My heart was hot within me, while I was musing the fire burned: then spake I with my tongue,

4 LORD, make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is; that I may know ³how frail I am.

5 Behold, thou hast made my days as an handbreadth; and mine age is as nothing before thee: verily every man ²at his best state is altogether vanity. Selah.

6 Surely every man walketh in ²vain, vain shew: surely they are disquieted in vain: ²he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

7 And now, Lord, what wait I for? my hope is in thee.

8 Deliver me from all my transgressions: make me not ²the reproach of the foolish.

9 I was dumb, I opened not my mouth; because ²thou didst it.

10 Remove thy stroke away from me: I am consumed by the ²blow of thine hand.

11 When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity, thou makest ²his beauty ²to consume away like a moth: surely every man is vanity. Selah.

PSALM 40.

1 The benefit of confidence in God. 6 Obedience is the best sacrifice 11 The sense of David's evils inflameth his prayer

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

I ²'WAITED' patiently for the LORD; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

2 He brought me up also out of ²an horrible pit, out of ²the miry clay, and ²set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.

3 And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God: many shall see ²it, and fear, and shall trust in the LORD.

4 Blessed ²is that man that maketh the LORD his trust, and respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

5 Many, O LORD my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward: they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: ²if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.

6 Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire: mine ears hast thou ²opened: burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of the book ²it is written of me, 8 I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is ²within my heart.

9 I have preached righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I have not refrained my lips, O LORD, thou knowest.

10 I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy lovingkindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

11 Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O LORD: let thy lovingkindness and thy truth continually preserve me.

12 For innumerable evils have compassed me about: ²mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of mine head: therefore my heart ²faileth me.

13 Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me: O LORD, make haste to help me.

14 Let them be ashamed and confounded together that seek after my soul to destroy it; let them be driven backward and put to shame that wish me evil.

15 Let them be "desolate for a reward of their shame that say unto me, Aha, aha.

16 "Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: let such as love thy salvation "say continually, The LORD be magnified.

PSALM 41.

1 God's care of the poor 4 David complaineth of his enemies treachery 10 He fleeth to thee for succour To the chief Musician, a Psalm of David.

BLESSED is he that considereth the poor: the LORD will deliver him "in time of trouble.

2 The LORD will preserve him, and keep him alive; and he shall be blessed upon the earth: "and "thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies.

3 The LORD will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing: thou wilt "make all his bed in his sickness.

4 I said, LORD, be merciful unto me: heal my soul; for I have sinned against thee.

5 Mine enemies speak evil of me, When shall he die, and his name perish?

6 And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanity: his heart gathereth iniquity to itself; when he goeth abroad, he telleth it.

7 All that hate me whisper together against me: against me do they devise "my hurt.

8 "An evil disease, say they, cleaveth fast unto him: and now that he lieth he shall rise up no more.

9 "Yea, "mine own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, "which did eat of my bread, hath "lifted up his heel against me.

10 But thou, O LORD, be merciful unto me, and raise me up, that I may requite them.

11 By this I know that thou favour-est me, because mine enemy doth not triumph over me.

12 And as for me, thou upholdest me in mine integrity, and "settest me before thy face for ever.

13 "Blessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting, and to everlasting. Amen, and Amen.

PSALM 44.

1 The church, in memory of former favours, 7 complains of their present evils. 17 Praising her integrity, 23 she fervently prayeth for succour.

To the chief Musician for the sons of Korah, Maschil

WE have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us, what work thou didst in their days, in the times of old.

2 How thou didst drive out the heathen with thy hand, and plantedst them; how thou didst afflict the people, and cast them out.

3 For they got not the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them: but thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, because thou hadst a favour unto them.

4 Thou art my King, O God: command deliverances for Jacob.

5 Through thee will we push down our enemies: through thy name will we tread them under that rise up against us.

6 For I will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me.

7 But thou hast saved us from our enemies, and hast put them to shame that hated us.

8 In God we boast all the day long, and praise thy name for ever. Selah.

9 But thou hast cast off, and put us to shame; and goest not forth with our armies.

10 Thou makest us to turn back from the enemy: and they which hate us spoil for themselves.

11 Thou hast given us like sheep appointed for meat; and hast scattered us among the heathen.

12 Thou sellest thy people for nought, and dost not increase thy wealth by their price.

13 Thou makest us a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and a derision to them that are round about us.

14 Thou makest us a byword among the heathen, a shaking of the head among the people.

15 My confusion is continually before me, and the shame of my face hath covered me, 16 For the voice of him that reproacheth and blasphemeth; by reason of the enemy and avenger.

17 All this is come upon us; yet have we not forgotten thee, neither have we dealt falsely in thy covenant.

18 Our heart is not turned back, neither have our steps declined from thy way;

19 Though thou hast sore broken us in the place of dragons, and covered us with the shadow of death

PSALM 45.

The majesty and grace of Christ's kingdom.

To the chief Musician upon Shushannim, for the sons of Korah, Maschil. A Song of love.

MY heart is inditing a good matter: I speak of the things which I have made touching the king: my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

2 Thou art fairer than the children of men: grace is poured into thy lips: therefore God hath blessed thee for ever.

3 Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, O most mighty, with thy glory and thy majesty.

4 And in thy majesty ride prosperously because of truth and meekness and righteousness; and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

5 Thine arrows are sharp in the heart of the king's enemies; whereby the people fall under thee.

6 Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: the sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre.

7 Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

8 All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia, out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad.

9 King's daughters were among thy honourable women: upon thy right hand did stand the queen in gold of Ophir.

10 Harken, O daughter, and consider, and incline thine ear; forget also thine own people, and thy father's house;

11 So shall the king greatly desire thy beauty: for he is thy Lord; and worship thou him.

12 And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift; even the rich among the people shall intreat thy favour.

13 The king's daughter shall glorify within: her clothing is of wrought gold

14 ^aShe shall be brought unto the king in raiment of needlework; the virgins her companions that follow her shall be brought unto thee.

15 With gladness and rejoicing shall they be brought: they shall enter into the king's palace.

16 Instead of thy fathers shall be thy children, ^awhom thou mayest make princes in all the earth.

17 I will make thy name to be remembered in all generations: therefore shall the people praise thee for ever and ever.

HEAR this, all ye people; give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world:
2 Both low and high, rich and poor, together.

3 My mouth shall speak of wisdom; and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.

4 I will incline mine ear to a parable: I will open my dark saying upon the harp.

5 Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil, when the iniquity of my heels shall compass me about?

6 They that trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches;

7 None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him:

8 (For the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever:)

9 That he should still live for ever, and not see corruption.

10 For he seeth that wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish person perish, and leave their wealth to others.

11 Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling places to all generations; they call their lands after their own names.

12 Nevertheless man being in honour abideth not: he is like the beasts that perish.

13 This their way is their folly: yet their posterity approve their sayings. Selah.

14 Like sheep they are laid in the grave; death shall feed on them; and the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning; and their beauty shall consume in the grave from their dwelling.

15 But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave: for he shall receive me. Selah.

16 Be not thou afraid when one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased:

17 For when he dieth he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him.

18 Though while he lived he blessed his soul: and men will praise thee, when thou doest well to thyself.

19 He shall go to the generation of his fathers; they shall never see light.

20 Man that is in honour, and understandeth not, is like the beasts that perish.

THE mighty God, even the Lord, hath spoken, and called the earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.

2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God hath shined.

3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him.

4 He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that he may judge his people.

5 Gather my saints together unto me; those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.

6 And the heavens shall declare his righteousness: for God is judge himself. Selah.

7 Hear, O my people, and I will speak; O Israel, and I will testify against thee: I am God, even thy God.

8 I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices or thy burnt offerings, to have been continually before me.

9 I will take no bullock out of thy house, nor he goats out of thy folds.

10 For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills.

11 I know all the fowls of the mountains: and the wild beasts of the field are mine.

12 If I were hungry, I would not tell thee: for the world is mine, and the fulness thereof.

13 Will I eat the flesh of wild beasts of the field, or drink the blood of goats?

14 Offer unto God thy pay thy vows unto the Lord.

15 And call upon me of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.

16 But unto the wicked, What hast thou done that I should requite thee?

17 Seeing thou hate my covenant in thy heart, and castest my words behind thee.

18 When thou sawest a thief, then thou hast consented with him, and hast been partaker with adulterers.

19 Thou givest thy mouth to evil, and thy tongue frameth deceit.

20 Thou attest and speakest against thy brother; thou slanderest thine own mother's son.

21 These things hast thou done, and I kept silence: thou thoughtest that I was altogether such an one as thyself: but I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes.

22 Now consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David. * when the prophet came unto him after he had gone in to Bath sheba

HAVE mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions

2 Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin. 3 For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me.

4 Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight. * that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.

5 Behold I was shapen in iniquity, * and in sin did my mother conceive me.

6 Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

7 Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow

8 Make me to hear joy and gladness, that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

9 Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities

10 Create me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.

11 Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy holy spirit from me

12 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free spirit

13 Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

14 Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation: and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

15 O Lord, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

16 For thou desirest not sacrifice; else would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt offering.

17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

18 Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem

19 Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, with

PSALM 52

David, condemning the wickedness of Doeg, prophesying his destruction

To the chief Musician Maschil A Psalm of David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said unto him David is come to the house of Ahimelech

WHY boastest thou thyself in mischief, O mighty man? the goodness of God endureth continually

2 Thy tongue deviseth mischiefs; like a sharp razor, working deceitfully 3 Thou lovest evil more than good, and lying rather than to speak righteousness Selah.

4 Thou lovest all devouring words, O thou deceitful tongue

5 God shall likewise destroy thee for ever, he shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling place, and root thee out of the land of the living. Selah

6 The righteous also shall see, and fear, and shall laugh at him

7 Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength, but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness

8 But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God: I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever

9 I will praise thee for ever, because thou hast done it: and I will wait on thy name; for it is good before thy saints.

PSALM 53.

1 David describeth the corruption of a natural man, & the glory in the salvation of God

To the chief Musician upon Mahalath Maschil A Psalm of David

THE fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity: there is none that doeth good.

2 God looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, that did seek God.

3 Every one of them is gone back, they are altogether become filthy, there is none that doeth good, no, not one

4 Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread. they have not called upon God

5 There were they in great fear, where no fear was for God hath scattered the bones of him that encampeth against thee: thou hast put them to shame, because God hath despised them.

6 Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! When God bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

PSALM 54.

David, complaining of the Ephimae, prayeth for salvation.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, Maschil. A Psalm of David. *when the Ziphimae came and said to Saul, hath not David hid himself with us?

SAVE me, O God, by thy name, and judge me by thy strength.
2 Hear my prayer, O God; give ear to the words of my mouth.

3 For 'strangers are risen up against me, and oppressors seek after my soul: they have not set God before them. Selah.

4 Behold, God is mine helper: the Lord is with them that uphold my soul.

5 He shall reward evil unto mine enemies: cut them off in thy truth.

6 I will freely sacrifice unto thee: I will praise thy name, O Lord; for it is good.

7 For he hath delivered me out of all trouble: and mine eye hath seen his desire upon mine enemies.

PSALM 55.

David in his prayer complaineth of his fearful cam To the chief Musician on Neginoth, Maschil, A Psalm of David GIVE ear to my prayer, O God; and hide not thyself from my supplication.

2 Attend unto me, and hear me: I mourn in my complaint, and make a noise;

3 Because of the voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked: for they cast iniquity upon me, and in wrath they hate me.

4 My heart is sore pained within me: and the terrors of death are fallen upon me.

5 Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, and horror hath overwhelmed me.

6 And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove! for then would I fly away, and be at rest.

7 Lo, then would I wander far off, and remain in the wilderness. Selah.

8 I would hasten my escape from the windy storm and tempest.

9 Destroy, O Lord, and divide their tongues: for I have seen violence and strife in the city.

10 Day and night they go about it upon the walls thereof: mischief also and sorrow are in the midst of it.

11 Wickedness is in the midst thereof: deceit and guile depart not from her streets.

13 But it was thou, a man mine equal, my guide, and mine acquaintance

14 We took sweet counsel together, and walked unto the house of God in company.

15 Let death seize upon them, and let them go down quick into hell: for wickedness is in their dwellings, and among them.

16 As for me, I will call upon God; and the Lord shall save me.

17 Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud: and he shall hear my voice.

18 He hath delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against me: for there were many with me.

19 God shall hear, and afflict them, even he that abideth of old. Selah.

Because they have no changes, therefore they fear not God.

20 He hath put forth his hands against such as be at peace with him: he hath broken his covenant.

21 The words of his mouth were smoother than butter, but war was in his heart: his words were softer than oil, yet were they drawn swords.

22 Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.

23 But thou, O God, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruction: bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days; but I will trust in thee.

PSALM 56.

David complaineth of his enemies

To the chief Musician upon Jonath-elem-rechokim. Michtham of David, when the Philistines took him in Gath

BE merciful unto me, O God: for man would swallow me up, he fighting daily oppresseth me.

2 Mine enemies would daily swallow me up: for they be many that fight against me, O thou most High.

3 What time I am afraid, I will trust in thee.

4 In God I will praise his word, in God I have put my trust: I will not fear what flesh can do unto me.

5 Every day they wrest my words all their thoughts are against me for evil.

6 They gather themselves together, they hide themselves, they mark my steps, when they wait for my soul.

7 Shall they escape by iniquity? in thine anger cast down the people, O God.

8 Thou taltest my wanderings: put thou my tears into thy bottle. are they not in thy book?

9 When I cry unto thee, then shall mine enemies turn back: this I know, for ¹God is for me.

10 In God will I praise his word in the LORD will I praise his word.

11 In God have I put my trust: I will not be afraid what man can do unto me.

12 Thy vows are upon me, O God: I will render praises unto thee.

13 For ¹thou hast delivered my soul from death: will not thou deliver my feet from falling? that I may walk before God in ²the light of the living?

PSALM 57.

David in prayer complaineth of his dangerous case
To the chief Musician. A. 1. Asaph. Michiam of David. When he fled from Saul in the cave.

BE merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me for my soul trusteth in thee. Yea, in the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge, until these calamities be overpast.

2 I will cry unto God most high, unto God ¹that performeth all things for me.

3 He shall send from heaven, and save me ¹from the reproach of him that would swallow me up. Selah. God ²shall send forth his mercy and his truth.

4 My soul is among lions, and I lie even among them: they are set on fire, even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.

5 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens; let thy glory be above the earth.

6 They have prepared a net for my steps; my soul is bowed down: they have digged a pit before me, into the midst whereof they are fallen themselves. Selah.

7 My heart is fixed, O God: my heart is fixed. I will sing and give praise.

8 Awake up, ¹my glory; awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake early.

9 I will praise thee, O Lord, among the people: I will sing unto thee among the nations.

10 For thy mercy is great unto the heavens, and thy truth unto the clouds.

11 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: let thy glory be above all the earth.

PSALM 59.

David prayeth to be delivered from his enemies
To the chief Musician. A. 1. Asaph. Michiam of David. When Saul sent and they watched his house to kill him.

DELIVER me from mine enemies, O my God: defend me from them that rise up against me.

2 Deliver me from the workers of iniquity, and save me from bloody men.

3 For, lo, they lie in wait for my soul: the mighty are gathered against me; not for my transgression, nor for my sin, O Lord.

4 They run and prepare themselves without my fault: awake to help me, and behold.

5 Thou therefore, O Lord God of hosts, the God of Israel, awake to visit all the heathen: be not merciful to any wicked transgressors. Selah.

6 They return at evening they make a noise like a dog, and go round about the city.

7 Behold, they belch out with their mouth: swords are in their lips for who, say they, doth hear?

8 But thou, O Lord, shalt laugh at them: thou shalt have all the heathen in derision.

9 Because of his strength will I wait upon thee for God is my defence.

10 The God of my mercy shall "prevent me: God shall let ^a me see ^b my desire upon ^c mine enemies.

11 Slay them not, lest my people forget: scatter them by thy power; and bring them down, O Lord our shield.

12 "For the sin of their mouth and the words of their lips let them even be taken in their pride; and for cursing and lying which they speak.

13 Consume them in wrath, consume them, that they may not be: and let them know that God ruleth in Jacob unto the ends of the earth. Selah.

14 And "at evening let them return; and let them make a noise like a dog, and go round about the city.

15 Let them "wander up and down ^a for meat, ^b and grudge if they be not satisfied.

16 But I will sing of thy power; yea, I will sing aloud of thy mercy in the morning: for thou hast been my defence and refuge in the day of my trouble.

17 Unto thee, "O my strength, will I sing: for God ^a is my defence, and the God of my mercy.

To the chief Musician, to Jeduthun, A Psalm

of David

TRULY ^a my soul ^b waiteth upon God: from him cometh my salvation.

2 He only ^a is my rock and my salvation; he ^a is my ^b defence; I shall not be greatly moved.

3 How long will ye imagine mischief against a man? ye shall be slain all of you: ^a as a bowing wall shall ye be, and as a tottering fence.

4 They only consult to cast him down from his excellency: they delight in lies: ^a they bless with their mouth, but their curse ^b inwardly. Selah.

5 My soul, wait thou only upon God; for my expectation ^a is from him.

6 He only ^a is my rock and my salvation: he ^a is my defence; I shall not be moved.

7 "In God ^a is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, ^a is in God.

8 Trust in him at all times; ye people, ^a pour out your heart before him: God ^a is a refuge for us. Selah.

9 Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: to be laid in the balance, they are ^a altogether lighter than vanity.

10 Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery. "if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

12 Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy: for thou renderest to every man according to his work.

PSALM 63.

1 David's thirst for God. 4 His manner of blessing God. A Psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

O GOD, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and ^{thirsty} land, ^{where} no water is:

2 To see ^{thy} power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.

3 Because thy lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee. 4 Thine will I bless thee while I live; I will lift up my hands in thy name.

5 My soul shall be satisfied as with ^{marrow} and fatness; and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips:

6 When ^I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the night watches.

7 Because thou hast been my help, therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

8 My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me.

9 But those that seek my soul, to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth.

10 ^{They} shall fall by the sword: they shall be a portion for foxes.

11 But the king shall rejoice in God; ^{every} one that sweareth by him shall glory: but the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

7 But God shall shoot at them with an arrow; suddenly ⁴ shall they be wounded.

8 So they shall make their own tongue to fall upon themselves: ⁵ all that see them shall flee away.

9 And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God; for they shall wisely consider of his doing.

10 The righteous shall be glad in the Lord, and shall trust in him; and all the upright in heart shall glory.

PSALM 65.

1 David praiseth God for his grace. 4 The blessedness of God chosen by reason of benefits.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm and Song of David. PRAISE ⁷ waiteth for thee, O God, in Zion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed.

2 O thou that hearest prayer, ³ unto thee shall all flesh come.

3 ⁴ Iniquities prevail against me: as for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.

4 ⁵ Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts: ⁶ we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple.

5 ⁷ By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation; ⁸ who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea:

6 Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains; ⁹ being girded with power:

7 ¹⁰ Which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, ¹¹ and the tumult of the people.

8 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens: thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening ¹² to rejoice.

9 Thou visitest the earth, and ¹³ waterest ¹⁴ it: thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water: thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it.

10 Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly: ¹⁵ thou settest the furrows thereof; ¹⁶ thou makest it soft with showers: thou blessest the springing thereof.

11 Thou crownest ¹⁷ the year with thy goodness; and thy paths drop fatness.

12 They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness; and the little hills ¹⁸ rejoice on every side.

13 The pastures are clothed with flocks; "the valleys also are covered over with corn; they shout for joy, they also sing.

PSALM 66.

1 David exhorteth to praise God, & to shew his great works, & to bless him for his gracious benefits
To the chief Musician, A Song or Psalm

MAKE^a a joyful noise unto God, all ye lands:

2 Sing forth the honour of his name: make his praise glorious.

3 Say unto God, How^b terrible art thou in thy works! through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies submit themselves unto thee.

4 All the earth shall worship thee, and shall sing unto thee; they shall sing to thy name. Selah.

5 Come and see the works of God: he is terrible in his doing toward the children of men.

6 He turned the sea into dry land: they went through the flood on foot: there did we rejoice in him.

7 He ruleth by his power for ever: his eyes behold the nations: let not the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah.

8 O bless our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard:

9 Which holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved.

10 For^c thou, O God, hast proved us: thou hast tried us, as silver is tried.

11 Thou broughtest us into the net; thou laidst affliction upon our loins.

12 Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads; we went through fire and through water: but thou broughtest us out into a^d wealthy place.

13 I will go into thy house with burnt offerings: I will pay thee my vows, 14 Which my lips have uttered, and my mouth hath spoken, when I was in trouble.

15 I will offer unto thee burnt sacrifices of^e fatings, with the incense of rams; I will offer bullocks with goats. Selah.

16 Come and hear, all ye that fear God, and I will declare what he hath done for my soul.

17 I cried unto him with my mouth, and he was extolled with my tongue.

18 Yet I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me;

19 But verily God hath heard me; he hath attended to the voice of my prayer.

20 Blessed be God, which hath not turned away my prayer, nor his mercy from me.

PSALM 68.

1 A prayer at the removing of the ark. 2 An exhortation to praise God for his mercies, &c.
To the chief Musician, A Psalm or Song of David.

LET God arise, let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him flee before him.

2 As smoke is driven away, so drive them away: as wax melteth before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.

3 But let the righteous be glad; let them rejoice before God: yea, let them exceedingly rejoice.

4 Sing unto God, sing praises to his name: extol him that rideth upon the heavens by his name JAH, and rejoice before him.

5 A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows, is God in his holy habitation.

6 God setteth the solitary in families: he bringeth out those which are bound with chains: but the rebellious dwell in a dry land.

7 O God, when thou wentest forth before thy people, when thou didst march through the wilderness; Selah:

8 The earth shook, the heavens also dropped at the presence of God: even Sinai itself was moved at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

9 Thou, O God, didst send a plentiful rain, whereby thou didst confirm thine inheritance, when it was weary.

10 Thy congregation hath dwelt therein: thou, O God, hast prepared of thy goodness for the poor.

11 The Lord gave the word: great was the company of those that published it.

12 Kings of armies did flee apace: and she that tarried at home divided the spoil.

13 Though ye have lien among the pots, yet shall ye be as the wings of a dove covered with silver, and her feathers with yellow gold.

14 ^{When} the Almighty scattered kings ⁱⁿ it, it was white as snow in Salmon

15 The hill of God is as the hill of Bashan, an high hill as the hill of Bashan

16 Why leap ye, ye high hills? ^{this} is the hill which God desireth to dwell in, yea, the LORD will dwell in it for ever

17 ^{The} chariots of God are twenty thousand, ^{even} thousands of angels the Lord is annoying them, as in Sinai, in the holy place

18 ^{Thou} hast ascended on high, ^{thou} hast led captivity captive, ^{thou} hast received gifts ^{for} men, yea, ^{for} the rebellious also, ^{that} the LORD God might dwell among them

19 Blessed be the Lord, who duly loadeth us with benefits, even the God of our salvation Selah

20 He that is our God is the God of salvation, and ^{unto} God the Lord belong the issues from death

21 But ^{God} shall wound the head of his enemies, ^{and} the hairy scalp of such an one as goeth on still in his trespasses

22 The Lord said I will bring ^{again} from Bashan, I will bring my people again ^{from} the depths of the sea

23 ^{That} thy foot may be ^{dipped} in the blood of thine enemies, ^{and} the tongue of thy dogs in the same

24 They have seen thy goings, O God, even the goings of my God, my King, in the sanctuary

PSALM 69

1 David comj lann (1) 1 affliction 13 He prayeth for deliv rance 30 He praiseth God

To the chief Musician *upon Shonhamum A Psalm of David

SAVE me, O God, for ^{the} waters are come in unto my soul

2 ^I sink in ^{deep} mire, where there is no standing I am come into ^{deep} waters, where the floods overflow me

3 ^I am weary of my crying, my throat is dried ^{mine} eyes fail while I wait for my God

4 They that ^{hate} me without a cause are more than the hairs of mine head they that would destroy me being mine enemies wrongfully, are mighty then

5 O God, ^{thou} knowest my foolishness, and my ^{sins} are not hid from thee

6 Let not them that wait on thee, O Lord God of hosts, be ashamed for my sake let not those that seek thee be confounded for my sake, O God of Israel

7 Because for thy sake I have borne reproach, shame hath covered my face

8 ^I am become a stranger unto my brethren, and an alien unto my mother's children

9 ^{For} the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up; ^{and} the reproches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me

10 ^{When} I wept, ^{and} chastened my soul with fasting, that was to my reproach

11 I made sackcloth also my garment, ^{and} I became ^a proverb to them

12 They that sit in the gate speak against me, and ^I was the song of the ^{drunkards}

13 But as for me, my prayer is unto thee, O LORD, ⁱⁿ an acceptable time O God, in the multitude of thy mercy hear me in the truth of thy salvation

14 Deliver me out of the mire and let me not sink ^{let} me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the deep waters

15 Let not the waterflood overflow me, neither let the deep swallow me up, and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me.

16 Hear me, O LORD; for thy loving-kindness is good: turn unto me according to the multitude of thy tender mercies.

17 And hide not thy face from thy servant; for I am in trouble: hear me speedily.

18 Draw nigh unto my soul, and redeem it: deliver me because of mine enemies.

19 Thou hast known my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonour: mine adversaries are all before thee.

20 Reproach hath broken my heart; and I am full of heaviness: and I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; and for comforters, but I found none.

21 They gave me also gall for my meat; and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

22 Let their table become a snare before them; and that which should have been for their welfare, let it become a trap.

23 Let their eyes be darkened, that they see not; and make their loins continually to shake.

24 Pour out thine indignation upon them, and let thy wrathful anger take hold of them.

25 Let their habitation be desolate; and let none dwell in their tents.

26 For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten; and they talk to the grief of those whom thou hast wounded.

27 Add iniquity unto their iniquity: and let them not come unto thy righteousness.

28 Let them be blotted out of the book of the living, and not be written with the righteous.

29 But I am poor and sorrowful; let thy salvation, O God, set me up on high.

30 I will praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify him with thanksgiving.

31 This also shall please the LORD better than an ox or bullock that hath horns and hoofs.

32 The humble shall see this, and be glad: and your heart shall live that seek God.

33 For the LORD heareth the poor, and despiseth not his prisoners.

34 Let the heaven and earth praise him, the seas, and every thing that moveth therein.

35 For God will save Zion, and will build the citadel of Judah: that they may dwell there, and have it in possession.

PSALM 70.

David soliciteth God to the speedy destruction of the wicked, and preservation of the godly. To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, *to bring to remembrance.

MAKE haste, O God, to deliver me; make haste to help me, O LORD.

2 Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek after my soul: let them be turned backward, and put to confusion, that desire my hurt.

3 Let them be turned back for a reward of their shame that say, Aha, aha.

4 Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: and let such as love thy salvation say continually, Let God be magnified.

5 But I am poor and needy: make haste unto me, O God: thou art my help and my deliverer; O LORD, make no tarrying.

PSALM 71.

1 David prayeth both for himself, and against the enemies of his soul. 14 He promiseth constancy. 17 He prayeth for perseverance. 19 He praiseth God, and promiseth to do so cheerfully.

IN thee, O LORD, do I put my trust: let me never be put to confusion.

2 Deliver me in thy righteousness, and cause me to escape: incline thine ear unto me, and save me.

3 Be thou my strong habitation, whereunto I may continually resort: thou hast given commandment to save me; for thou art my rock and my fortress.

4 Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.

5 For thou art my hope, O LORD God: thou art my trust from my youth.

6 By thee have I been holden up from the womb: thou art he that took me out of my mother's bowels: my praise shall be continually of thee.

7 I am as a wonder unto many; but thou art my strong refuge.

8 Let my mouth be filled with thy praise and with thy honour all the day.

9 Cast me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength faileth.

10 For mine enemies speak against me: and they that lay wait for my soul take counsel together.

11 Saying, God hath forsaken him; persecute and take him; for there is none to deliver him.

12 O God, be not far from me: O my God, make haste for my help.

13^a Let them be confounded and consumed that are adversaries to my soul; let them be covered with reproach and dishonour that seek my hurt.

14 But I will hope continually, and will yet praise thee more and more.

15^a My mouth shall shew forth thy righteousness and thy salvation all the day; for I know not the numbers thereof.

16 I will go in the strength of the Lord God: I will make mention of thy righteousness, even of thine only.

17 O God, thou hast taught me from my youth. and hitherto have I declared thy wondrous works.

18 Now also when I am old and greyheaded, O God, forsake me not; until I have shewed thy strength un to this generation, and thy power to every one that is to come.

19 Thy righteousness also, O God, is very high, who hast done great things: O God, who is like unto thee!

20^a Thou, which hast shewed me great and sore troubles, shalt quicken me again, and shalt bring me up again from the depths of the earth.

21 Thou shalt increase my greatness, and comfort me on every side.

22 I will also praise thee with the psaltery, even thy truth, O my God: unto thee will I sing with the harp, O thou Holy One of Israel.

23 My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing, unto thee; and my soul, which thou hast redeemed.

24 My tongue also shall talk of thy righteousness all the day long, for they are confounded, for they are brought unto shame, that seek my hurt.

1 The prophet, prevailing in a temptation 2 sheweth the occasion thereof.

A Psalm of Asaph.

TRULY God is good to Israel, even to such as are of a clean heart.

2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone; my steps had well nigh slipped.

3 For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

4 For there are no bands in their death: but their strength is firm.

5 They are not in trouble as other men; neither are they plagued like other men.

6 Therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain; violence covereth them as a garment.

7^a Their eyes stand out with fatness: they have more than heart could wish.
8^c They are corrupt, and "speak wickedly concerning oppression: they speak loftily.

9 They set their mouth ^aagainst the heavens, and their tongue walketh through the earth.

10 Therefore his people return hither: and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them.

11 And they say, ^aHow doth God know? and is there knowledge in the most High?

12 Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world; they increase in riches.

13^a Verily I have cleansed my heart in vain, and ^awashed my hands in innocence.

14 For all the day long have I been plagued, and ^achastened every morning.

15 If I say, I will speak thus; behold, I should offend ^aagainst the generation of thy children.

16^a When I thought to know this, it was too painful for me;

17 Until ^aI went into the sanctuary of God; ^athen understood I ^atheir end.

18 Surely ^athou didst set them in slippery places; thou castedst them down into destruction.

19 How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors.

20^a As a dream when one awaketh; so, O Lord, when thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image.

21 Thus my heart was grieved, and I was pricked in my reins.

22^a So foolish was I, and ^aignorant: I was as a beast ^abefore thee.

23 Nevertheless I am continually with thee: thou hast holden me by my right hand.

24^a Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.

25^a Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire beside thee.

26^a My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the ^astrength of my heart, and my portion for ever.

27 For, lo, ^athey that are far from thee shall perish: thou hast destroyed all them that go a whoring from thee.

28 But it is good for me to ^adraw near to God: I have put my trust in the Lord God, that I may declare all thy works.

^a A Psalm for Asaph to sing in instruction.

O GOD, why hast thou ^acast us off for ever? ^awhy doth thine anger ^asmoke against ^athe sheep of thy pasture?

2 Remember thy congregation, ^awhich thou hast purchased of old; the ^arod of thine inheritance, ^awhich thou hast redeemed; this mount Zion, wherein thou hast dwelt.

3 Lift up thy feet unto the perpetual desolations; ^aeven all that the enemy hath done wickedly in the sanctuary.

4 Thine enemies roar in the midst of thy congregations; ^athey set up their ensigns for signs.

5 A man was famous according as he had lifted up axes upon the thick trees.

6 But now they break down the carved work thereof at once with axes and hammers.

7 ^aThey have cast fire into thy sanctuary, they have defiled by casting down the dwelling place of thy name to the ground.

8 ^aThey said in their hearts, Let us ^adestroy them together: they have burned up all the synagogues of God in the land.

9 We see not our signs: ^athere is no more any prophet; neither ^ais there among us any that knoweth how long.

10 O God, how long shall the adversary ^areproach? shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever?

11 ^aWhy withdrawest thou thy hand, even thy right hand? pluck it out of thy bosom

12 For ^aGod is my King of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.

13 ^aThou didst divide the sea by thy strength: ^athou brakest the heads of the ^adragons in the waters.

14 Thou brakest the heads of leviathan in pieces, and gavest him ^ato be meat to the people inhabiting the wilderness.

15 ^aThou didst cleave the fountain and the flood: ^athou driedst up ^amighty rivers

16 The day is thine, the night also is thine: thou hast prepared the light and the sun.

17 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth: ^athou hast ^amade summer and winter.

18 ^aRemember this, that the enemy hath reproached, O Lord, and that ^athe foolish people have blasphemed thy name.

19 O deliver not the soul ^aof thy turtle dove unto the multitude of the wicked: ^aforget not the congregation of thy poor for ever.

20 ^aHave respect unto the covenant for the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty.

21 O let not the oppressed return ashamed: let the poor and needy praise thy name.

22 Arise, O God, plead thine own cause: "remember how the foolish man reproacheth thee daily.

23 Forget not the voice of thine enemies: the tumult of those that rise up against thee "increaseth continually.

PSALM 75.

1 The prophet praiseth God. 2 He promiseth to judge uprightly. 4 He rebuketh the proud. To the chief Musician, "Al-tachith, 2 A Psalm or Song "of Asaph.

UNTO thee, O God, do we give thanks, unto thee do we give thanks: for that thy name is near thy wondrous works declare.

2 "When I shall receive the congregation I will judge uprightly.

3 The earth and all the inhabitants thereof are dissolved: I bear up the pillars of it. Selah.

4 I said unto the fools, Deal not foolishly; and to the wicked, "Lift not up the horn:

5 Lift not up your horn on high: speak not with a stiff neck.

6 For promotion cometh neither from the east, nor from the west, nor from the south.

7 But "God is the judge: "he putteth down one, and setteth up another.

8 For "in the hand of the Lord there is a cup, and the wine is red: it is full of mixture; and he poureth out of the same: "but the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them.

9 But I will declare for ever: I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

10 "All the horns of the wicked also will I cut off: but "the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

PSALM 76.

1 A declaration of God's majesty in the church. 11 An exhortation to serve him reverently. To the chief Musician on Neginoth, 2 A Psalm or Song "of Asaph.

IN "Judah is God known: his name is great in Israel.

2 In Salem also is his tabernacle, and his dwelling place in Zion.

3 There brake he the arrows of the bow, the shield, and the sword, and the battle. Selah.

4 Thou art more glorious and excellent than the mountains of prey.

5 "The stouthearted are spoiled, "they have slept their sleep: and none of the men of might have found their hands.

6 "At thy rebuke, O God of Jacob, both the chariot and horse are cast into a dead sleep.

PSALM 77.

1 The psalmist sheweth what fierce combat he had with diligence. 10 The victory which he had. To the chief Musician, "to Jeduthun, 2 A Psalm of Asaph.

I "CRIED unto God with my voice, I even unto God with my voice; and he gave ear unto me.

2 "In the day of my trouble I "sought the Lord: "my soul in the night, and ceased not: my soul refused to be comforted.

3 I remembered God, and was troubled: I complained, and "my spirit was overwhelmed. Selah.

4 Thou holdest mine eyes waking: I am so troubled that I cannot speak.

5 "I have considered the days of old, the years of ancient times.

6 I call to remembrance "my song in the night: "I commune with mine own heart: and my spirit made diligent search.

7 "Will the Lord cast off for ever? and will he "be favourable no more?

8 Is his mercy clean gone for ever? doth "his promise fail "for evermore?

9 Hath God "forgotten to be gracious? hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies? Selah.

10 And I said, This is "my infirmity: but I will remember the works of the right hand of the most High.

11 "I will remember the works of the Lord: surely I will remember thy wonders of old.

12 I will meditate also of all thy work, and talk of thy doings.

13 "Thy way, O God, is in the sanctuary: "who is so great a God as our God?

14 Thou art the God that doest wonders: thou hast declared thy strength among the people.

15 "Thou hast with thine arm redeemed thy people, the sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah.

16 "The waters saw thee, O God, the waters saw thee; they were afraid: the depths also were troubled.

17 "The clouds poured out water: the skies sent out a sound: "thine arrows also went abroad.

18 "The voice of thy thunder was in the heaven: the lightnings lightened the world: "the earth trembled and shook.

19 "Thy way is in the sea, and thy path in the great waters, "and thy footsteps are not known.

20 "Thou leddest thy people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

PSALM 78.

1 An exhortation both to learn and to preach the law of God. 2 The story of God's wrath against the incredulous and disobedient. 37 The Israelites being rejected, God chose Judah, Zim, and David.
"Mashi¹ of Asaph

GIVE² ear, O my people, to my law: incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

2 "I will open my mouth in a parable: I will utter dark sayings of old:

3 "Which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.

4 "We will not hide them from their children, "shewing to the generation to come the praises of the LORD, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done.

5 For "he established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, "that they should make them known to their children:

6 "That the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born; who should arise and declare them to their children:

7 That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments:

8 And "might not be as their fathers, "a stubborn and rebellious generation; a generation "that" set not their heart aright, and whose spirit was not stedfast with God.

9 The children of Ephraim, being armed, and "carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle.

10 "They kept not the covenant of God, and refused to walk in his law; 11 And "forgot his works, and his wonders that he had shewed them.

12 "Marvellous things did he in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, "in the field of Zoan.

13 "He divided the sea, and caused them to pass through; and "he made the waters to stand as an heap.

14 "In the daytime also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire.

15 "He clave the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink as out of the great depths.

16 He brought "streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers.

17 And they sinned yet more against him by "provoking the most High in the wilderness.

18 And "they tempted God in their heart by asking meat for their lust.

19 "Yea, they spake against God; they said, Can God "furnish a table in the wilderness?

20 "Behold, he smote the rock, that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed; can he give bread also? can he provide flesh for his people?

21 Therefore the LORD heard this, and "was wroth: so a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also came up against Israel;

22 Because they "believed not in God, and trusted not in his salvation:

23 Though he had commanded the clouds from above, "and opened the doors of heaven.

24 "And had rained down manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven.

25 "Man did eat angels' food: he sent them meat to the full.

26 "He caused an east wind "to blow in the heaven; and by his power he brought in the south wind

27 He rained flesh also upon them as dust, and "feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea;

28 And he let it fall in the midst of their camp, round about their habitations.

29 "So they did eat, and were well filled: for he gave them their own desire;

30 They were not estranged from their lust. But "while their meat was yet in their mouths, 31 The wrath of God came upon them, and slew the fattest of them, and "smote down the "chosen men of Israel.

32 For all this "they sinned still, and "believed not for his wondrous works

33 "Therefore their days did he consume in vanity, and their years in trouble.

34 "When he slew them, then they sought him: and they returned and enquired early after God.

35 And they remembered that "God was their rock, and the high God "their redeemer.

36 Nevertheless they did "flatter him with their mouth, and they lied unto him with their tongues.

57 For their heart was not right with him: neither were they stedfast in his covenant.

58 But he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not: yea, many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath.

59 For he remembered that they were but flesh, a wind that passeth away, and cometh not again.

60 How oft did they provoke him in the wilderness, and grieved him in the desert!

61 Yet they turned back and tempted God, and limited the Holy One of Israel.

62 They remembered not his hand, nor the day when he delivered them from the enemy.

63 How he had wrought his signs in Egypt, and his wonders in the field of Zoan.

64 And had turned their rivers into blood; and their floods, that they could not drink.

65 He sent divers sorts of flies among them, which devoured them; and frogs, which destroyed them;

66 He gave also their increase unto the caterpillar, and their labour unto the locust.

67 He destroyed their vines with hail, and their sycomore trees with frost.

68 He gave up their cattle also to the hail, and their flocks to hot thunderbolts.

69 He cast upon them the fierceness of his anger, wrath, and indignation, and trouble, by sending evil angels among them.

70 He made a way to his anger; he spared not their soul from death, but gave their life over to the pestilence.

71 And smote all the firstborn in Egypt; the chief of their strength in the tabernacles of Ham:

72 But made his own people to go forth like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

73 And he led them on safely, so that they feared not, but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.

74 And he brought them to the border of his sanctuary, even to this mountain, which his right hand had purchased.

75 He cast out the heathen also before them, and divided them an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.

76 Yet they tempted and provoked the most high God, and kept not his testimonies.

faithfully like their fathers: they were turned aside like a deceitful bow.

58 For they provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their graven images.

59 When God heard this, he was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israel.

60 So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent which he placed among men;

61 And delivered his strength in to captivity, and his glory into the enemy's hand.

62 He gave his people over also unto the sword; and was wroth with his inheritance.

63 The fire consumed their young men, and their maidens were not given to marriage.

64 Their priests fell by the sword, and their widows made no lamentation.

65 Then the Lord awaked as one out of sleep, and like a mighty man that shouteth by reason of wine.

66 And he smote his enemies in the hinder parts: he put them to a perpetual reproach.

67 Moreover he refused the tabernacle of Joseph, and chose not the tribe of Ephraim.

68 But chose the tribe of Judah, the mount Zion which he loved.

69 And he built his sanctuary like high palaces, like the earth which he hath established for ever.

70 He chose David also his servant, and took him from the sheepfold.

71 From following the ewes great with young he brought him to feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.

72 So he fed them according to the integrity of his heart, and guided them by the skilfulness of his hands.

PSALM 79

1 The psalmist complaineth of the demolition of Jerusalem. 2 His prayer for its recovery in A Psalm of Asaph

O GOD, the heathen are come into thine inheritance; thy holy temple have they defiled; thy holy city have they laid waste.

2 The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the heaven, the flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the earth.

3 Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem; and there was none to bury them.

4 We are become a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and derision to them that are round about us.

5 How long, LORD? wilt thou be angry for ever? shall thy jealousy burn like fire?

6 "Pour out thy wrath upon the heathen that have not known thee, and upon the kingdoms that have not called upon thy name.

7 For they have devoured Jacob, and laid waste his dwelling place.

8 "O remember not against us former iniquities: let thy tender mercies speedily prevent us: for we are brought very low.

9 "Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name; and deliver us, and purge away our sins, for thy name's sake.

10 "Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is their God? let him be known among the heathen in our sight by the revenging of the blood of thy servants which is shed.

11 Let the sighing of the prisoner come before thee; according to the greatness of thy power preserve thou those that are appointed to die;

12 And render unto our neighbours sevenfold into their bosom their reproach, wherewith they have reproached thee, O Lord.

13 So we thy people and sheep of thy pasture will give thee thanks for ever; we will shew forth thy praise to all generations.

PSALM 80.

1 The psalmist complaineth of the miseries of the church. 2 God's former favours are turned into judgments. 14 He prayeth for deliverance To the chief Musician upon Shoshannim-Eduth. A Psalm of Asaph.

GIVE ear, O Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph like a flock; thou that dwellest between the cherubims, shine forth.

2 Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasse stir up thy strength, and come and save us.

3 Turn us again, O God, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

4 O Lord God of hosts, how long wilt thou be angry against the prayer of thy people?

5 Thou feedest them with the bread of tears; and givest them tears to drink in great measure.

6 Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbours; and our enemies laugh among themselves.

7 Turn us again, O God of hosts, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

8 Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt: thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it.

PSALM 81.

1 An exhortation to a solemn praising of God. 4 God challengeth that duty by reason of his benefits To the chief Musician upon Gittith, A Psalm of Asaph.

SING aloud unto God our strength: make a joyful noise unto the God of Jacob.

2 Take a psalm, and bring hither the timbrel, the pleasant harp with the psaltery.

3 Blow up the trumpet in the new moon, in the time appointed, on our solemn feast day.

4 For this was a statute for Israel, and a law of the God of Jacob.

5 This he ordained in Joseph for a testimony, when he went out through the land of Egypt: where I heard a language that I understood not.

6 I removed his shoulder from the burden: his hands were delivered from the pots.

7 Thou calledst in trouble, and I delivered thee; I answered thee in the secret place of thunder: I proved thee at the waters of Meribah. Selah.

8 Hear, O my people, and I will testify unto thee: O Israel, if thou wilt hearken unto me;

9 There shall no strange god be in thee; neither shalt thou worship any strange god.

10 I am the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.

11 But my people would not hearken to my voice; and Israel would ^{not} obey me.

12 ^{So} I gave them up ^{unto} their own hearts' lust: ^{and} they walked in their own counsels.

13 ^{Oh} that my people had hearkened unto me, ^{and} Israel had walked in my ways!

14 I should soon have subdued their enemies, and turned my hand against their adversaries.

15 ^{The} haters of the Lord should have ^{submitted} themselves unto him: but their time should have endured for ever.

16 He should ^{have} fed them also ^{with} the finest of the wheat: and with honey ^{out} of the rock should I have satisfied thee.

PSALM 82.

1 The psalmist, having exhorted the judges, 6 and reproved their negligence, 8 prays that God to judge
A Psalm of Asaph.

GOD ^{standeth} in the congregation of the mighty; he judgeth among ^{the} gods.

2 How long will ye judge unjustly, and ^{accept} the persons of the wicked? Selah.

3 ^{Defend} the poor and fatherless: ^{do} justice to the afflicted and needy.

PSALM 84.

The prophet sheweth how blessed they are that dwell in the sanctuary
For the sons of Korah

To the chief Musician ^{upon} Olayith, A Psalm

HOW ^{amiable} are thy tabernacles, O LORD of hosts!

2 ^{My} soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the LORD: my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God.

3 Yea, the sparrow hath found an house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, ^{even} thine altars, O LORD of hosts, my King, and my God.

4 Blessed ^{are} they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee. Selah.

5 Blessed ^{is} the man whose strength ^{is} in thee; in whose heart ^{are} the ways of ^{them}.

6 ^{Who} passing through the valley ^{of} Baca make it a well; the rain also ^{filleth} the pools.

7 They go ^{from} ^{strength} to strength, ^{every} one of ^{them} in Zion ^{appeareth} before God.

8 O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer: give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah.

9 Behold, "O God our shield, and look upon the face of thine anointed.

10 For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. ²¹ I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

11 For the LORD God is "a sun and shield; the LORD will give grace and glory; "no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

12 O LORD of hosts, "blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

PSALM 85.

1 The psalmist, out of the experiences of former mercies, prayeth for the continuance thereof; & His confidence in God's goodness.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm "for the sons of Korah

LORD, thou hast been "favourable unto thy land; thou hast "brought back the captivity of Jacob.

2 Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people, thou hast covered all their sin. Selah.

3 Thou hast taken away all thy wrath; "thou hast turned thyself from the fierceness of thine anger.

4 "Turn us, O God of our salvation, and cause thine anger toward us to cease.

5 "Wilt thou be angry with us for ever? wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations?

6 Wilt thou not "revive us again; that thy people may rejoice in thee?

7 Shew us thy mercy, O LORD, and grant us thy salvation.

8 "I will hear what God the LORD will speak: for "he will speak peace unto his people, and to his saints: but let them not "turn again to folly.

9 Surely "his salvation is nigh them that fear him; "that glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mercy and truth are met together; "righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

11 Truth shall spring out of the earth; and righteousness shall look down from heaven.

12 "Yea, the LORD shall give that which is good; and our land shall yield her increase.

13 "Righteousness shall go before him; and shall set us in the way of his steps.

PSALM 88.

A prayer containing a grievous complaint.

A Song or Psalm for the sons of Asaph: to the chief musician upon Mahalath 1 Ananeth 2 Maschil of Heman the Ezrahite

O LORD "God of my salvation, I have cried day and night before thee

2 Let my prayer come before thee: incline thine ear unto my cry,

3 For my soul is full of troubles: and my life draweth nigh unto the grave

4 "I am counted with them that go down into the pit: I am as a man that hath no strength—

5 Free among the dead, like the slain that lie in the grave, whom thou rememberest no more: and they are cut off from thy hand.

6 Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit, in darkness, in the deeps

7 Thy wrath lieth hard upon me, and thou hast afflicted me with all thy waves Selah

8 Thou hast put away mine acquaintance far from me; thou hast made me an abomination unto them: "I am shut up, and I cannot come forth.

9 Mine eye mourneth by reason of affliction. "LORD, "I have called daily upon thee, "I have stretched out my hands unto thee.

10 "Wilt thou shew wonders to the dead? shall the dead arise and praise thee? Selah.

11 Shall thy lovingkindness be declared in the grave? or thy faithfulness in destruction?

12 "Shall thy wonders be known in the dark? and thy righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?

13 But unto thee have I cried, O LORD, and in the morning shall my prayer prevent thee.

14 LORD, why castest thou off my soul? why hidest thou thy face from me?

I WILL sing of the mercies of the LORD for ever: with my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations

2 For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever: thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens

3 "I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have sworn unto David my servant,

4 Thy seed will I establish for ever, and build up thy throne to all generations Selah.

5 And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O LORD: thy faithfulness also in the congregation of the saints

6 For who in the heaven can be compared unto the LORD? who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the LORD?

7 "God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him

8 O LORD God of hosts, who is a strong LORD like unto thee? or to thy faithfulness round about thee?

9 "Thou rulest the raging of the sea when the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them

10 "Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain; thou hast scattered thine enemies with thy strong arm.

11 "The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine: as for the world and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them 12 The north and the south thou hast created them: "Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy name.

13 Thou hast a mighty arm strong in thy hand, and high is thy right hand

PSALM 90.

1 Moses, setting forth God's providence, 3 complaineth of human frailty, 7 divine chastements, 10 and brevity of life. 12 He prayeth.

"A Prayer "of Moses the man of God.

LORD, "thou hast been our dwelling place "in all generations.

2 "Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.

3 Thou turnest man to destruction; and sayest, "Return, ye children of men.

4 "For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday "when it is past, and as a watch in the night.

5 Thou carriest them away as with a flood; "they are as a sleep: in the morning "they are like grass which "groweth up.

6 "In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

7 For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled.

8 "Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our "secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

9 For all our days are "passed away in thy wrath: we spend our years "as a tale that is told.

10 "The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

11 Who knoweth the power of thine anger? even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath.

12 "So teach us to number our days, that we may "apply our hearts unto wisdom.

13 Return, O LORD, how long? and let it repent thee concerning thy servants.

14 O satisfy us early with thy mercy, that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

15 Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil.

16 Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children.

17 And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us, and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

PSALM 91.

1 The state of the godly 2 Their safety 3 Their habitation 4 Their servants 5 Their friends with the effects of them all

HE that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. 2 I will say of the LORD, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

3 Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and thee from the noisome pestilence.

4 He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

5 Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

6 Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

7 A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

8 Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

9 Because thou hast made the LORD, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation;

10 There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

11 For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. 12 They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

13 Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

14 Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

15 He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.

PSALM 92.

1 The prophet exhorteth to praise God for his great works for his judgments on the wicked and for his goodness to the godly

A Psalm or Song for the sabbath day

It is a good thing to give thanks unto the LORD, and to sing praises unto thy name, O most High.

2 To shew forth thy lovingkindness, in the morning, and thy faithfulness every night,

3 Upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the psaltery; upon the harp with a solemn sound.

4 For thou, LORD, hast made me glad through thy work: I will triumph in the works of thy hands.

5 O LORD, how great are thy works, and thy thoughts are very deep.

6 A brutish man knoweth not, neither doth a fool understand this.

7 When the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; it is that they shall be destroyed for ever.

8 But thou, LORD, art most high for evermore.

9 For, lo, thine enemies, O LORD, for, lo, thine enemies shall perish; all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.

10 But thy horn shall thou exalt like the horn of an unicorn. I shall be anointed with fresh oil.

11 Mine eye also shall see my desire on mine enemies, and mine ears shall hear my desire of the wicked that rise up against me.

12 The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

13 Those that be planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God.

14 They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and flourishing;

15 To shew that the LORD is upright: he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

PSALM 93.

The majesty, power and holiness of Christ's kingdom

THE LORD reigneth, he is clothed with majesty, the LORD is clothed with strength, whereunto he hath girded himself: the world also is established, that it cannot be moved.

2 Thy throne is established of old thou art from everlasting.

3 The floods have lifted up, O LORD, the floods have lifted up their voice: the floods lift up their waves.

4 The LORD on high is mighty than the noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty waves of the sea.

5 Thy testimonies are very sure:
holiness becometh thine house, O
LORD, ¹for ever.

PSALM 94.

¹ The prophet, calling for justice, complaineth of tyranny and impiety. ⁸ He teacheth God's providence. ¹² He sheweth the blessedness of affliction.

O LORD ²God, "to whom vengeance belongeth; O God, to whom vengeance belongeth," shew thyself.

² Lift up thyself, thou "judge of the earth: render a reward to the proud.
3 LORD, "how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph?

⁴ How long shall they "utter and speak hard things? and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves?"

⁵ They break in pieces thy people,
O LORD, and afflict thine heritage.

⁶ They slay the widow and the stranger, and murder the fatherless.

⁷ Yet they say, The LORD shall not see, neither shall the God of Jacob regard ¹⁴.

⁸ Understand, ye brutish among the people: and ye fools, when will ye be wise?

⁹ He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? he that formed the eye, shall he not see?

¹⁰ He that chastiseth the heathen, shall not he correct? he that "teacheth man knowledge, shall not he know?"

¹¹ The LORD knoweth the thoughts of man, that they are vanity.

¹² Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O LORD, and teachest him out of thy law;

¹³ That thou mayest give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit be digged for the wicked.

¹⁴ For the LORD will not cast off his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance.

¹⁵ But judgment shall return unto righteousness: and all the upright in heart shall follow it.

¹⁶ Who will rise up for me against the evildoers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?

¹⁷ Unless the LORD had been my help, my soul had almost dwelt in silence.

¹⁸ When I said, "My foot slippeth;
thy mercy, O LORD, held me up."

¹⁹ In the multitude of my thoughts within me, thy comforts delighted my soul.

²⁰ Shall "the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischiefs by a law?"

²¹ They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood.

PSALM 95.

and for his goodness, and not to tempt him

O COME, let us sing unto the LORD:
² let us make a joyful noise to
"the rock of our salvation."

² Let us "come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms."

³ For "the LORD is a great God, and a great King above all gods."

⁴ "In his hand are the deep places of the earth: "the strength of the hills is his also."

⁵ "The sea is his, and he made it:
and his hands formed the dry land."

⁶ O come, let us kneel before the LORD our maker.

⁷ For he is our God; and "we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. "To day if ye will hear his voice,

⁸ Harden not your heart, "as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

⁹ When "your fathers tempted me, proved me, and "saw my work."

¹⁰ "Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways:

¹¹ Unto whom "I swear in my wrath that they should not enter into my rest."

PSALM 96.

¹ An exhortation to praise God, ⁴ for his greatness, and for his kingdom, ¹¹ for his general judgment.

O "SING unto the LORD a new song:
sing unto the LORD, all the earth."

² Sing unto the LORD, bless his name; shew forth his salvation from day to day.

³ Declare his glory among the heathen, his wonder among all people.

⁴ For "the LORD is great, and greatly to be praised: "he is to be feared above all gods."

⁵ For "all the gods of the nations are idols: "but the LORD made the heavens."

⁶ Honour and majesty are before him: strength and "beauty are in his sanctuary."

⁷ Give unto the LORD, O ye kindreds of the people, give unto the LORD glory and strength."

⁸ Give unto the LORD the glory "due unto his name: bring an offering, and come into his courts."

9 O worship the LORD ⁱⁿ the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth.

10 Say among the heathen that ^{the} LORD reigneth: the world also shall be established that it shall not be moved: ^{he} shall judge the people righteously.

11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; ^{let} the sea roar, and the fulness thereof.

12 Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice.

13 Before the LORD: for he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: ^{he} shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth.

PSALM 97.

1 The majesty of God's kingdom. 7 The church rejoiceth at God's judgments upon idolaters.

THE LORD reigneth; let the earth rejoice; let the multitude of isles be glad thereof.

2 Clouds and darkness are round about him: ^{righteousness and judgment are} his habitation of his throne.

3 A fire goeth before him, and burneth up his enemies round about.

4 His lightnings enlightened the world: the earth saw, and trembled.

5 The hills melted like wax at the presence of the LORD, at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

6 The heavens declare his righteousness, and all the people see his glory.

7 Confounded be all they that serve graven images, that boast themselves of idols: ^{worship him, all ye gods.}

8 Zion heard, and was glad; and the daughters of Judah rejoiced because of thy judgments, O LORD.

9 For thou, LORD, art ^{high above} all the earth: ^{thou art exalted far above} all gods.

10 Ye that love the LORD, ^{hate evil}: ^{he preserveth} the souls of his saints: ^{he delivereth} them out of the hand of the wicked.

11 Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.

12 Rejoice in the LORD, ye righteous; ^{and give thanks} at the remembrance of his holiness.

PSALM 101.

David maketh a vow and profession of godliness.

A Psalm of David.

I WILL sing of mercy and judgment: unto thee, O LORD, will I sing.

2 I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way. O when wilt thou come unto me? I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.

3 I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside; it shall not cleave to me.

4 A froward heart shall depart from me: I will not know a wicked person.

5 Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: him that hath an high look and a proud heart will I not suffer.

6 Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me: he that walketh in a perfect way, he shall serve me.

7 He that worketh decent shall not dwell within my house: he that telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight.

8 I will early destroy all the wicked of the land; that I may cut off all wicked doers from the city of the LORD.

PSALM 102.

1 The prophet maketh a grievous complaint 12 He taketh comfort in the eternity and mercy of God

A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed, and poureth out his complaint before the LORD

HEAR my prayer, O LORD, and let my cry come unto thee. 2 Hide not thy face from me in the day when I am in trouble; incline thine ear unto me; in the day when I call answer me speedily.

3 For my days are consumed like smoke, and my bones are burned as an hearth.

4 My heart is smitten, and withered like grass; so that I forget to eat my bread.

5 By reason of the voice of my groaning, my bones cleave to my skin.

6 I am like a pelican of the wilderness: I am like an owl of the desert.

7 I watch, and am as a sparrow alone upon the house top.

8 Mine enemies reproach me all the day; and they that are mad against me are sworn against me.

9 For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping;

12 But thou, O LORD, shalt endure for ever; and thy remembrance unto all generations.

13 Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion: for the time to favour her, yea, the set time, is come.

14 For thy servants take pleasure in her stones, and favour the dust thereof.

15 So the heathen shall fear the name of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth thy glory.

16 When the LORD shall build up Zion, he shall appear in his glory.

17 He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer.

18 This shall be written for the generation to come: and the people which shall be created shall praise the LORD.

19 For he hath looked down from the height of his sanctuary; from heaven did the LORD behold the earth;

20 To hear the groaning of the prisoner; to loose those that are appointed to death;

21 To declare the name of the LORD in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem;

22 When the people are gathered together, and the kingdoms, to serve the LORD.

23 He weakened my strength in the way; he shortened my days.

24 I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days: thy years are throughout all generations.

25 Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

26 They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed:

27 But thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end.

28 The children of thy servants shall continue, and their seed shall be established before thee.

PSALM 103.

An exhortation to bless God for his mercy.

A Psalm of David.

BLESS the LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

2 Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:

3 Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases;

4 Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; ⁵who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies;

5 Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that ⁶thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.

6 The LORD executeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed.

7 ⁸He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel.

8 ⁹The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and ¹⁰plenteous in mercy.

9 ¹¹He will not always chide: neither will he keep ¹²his anger for ever.

10 ¹³He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

11 For ¹⁴as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

12 As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he ¹⁵removed our transgressions from us.

13 ¹⁶Like as a father pitieth ¹⁷his children, so the LORD pitieth them that fear him.

14 For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are ¹⁸dust.

15 ¹⁹As for man, ²⁰his days are as grass: ²¹as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.

16 ²²For the wind passeth over it, and ²³it is gone; and ²⁴the place thereof shall know it no more.

17 But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children;

18 ²⁵To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them.

19 The LORD hath prepared his throne in the heavens; and ²⁶his kingdom ruleth over all.

20 ²⁷Bless the LORD, ye his angels, ²⁸that excel in strength, that ²⁹do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word.

21 ³⁰Bless ye the LORD, all ye ³¹his hosts; ³²ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.

22 ³³Bless the LORD, all his works in all places of his dominion: bless the LORD, O my soul.

PSALM 104.

1 A meditation upon the power, 7 and providence of God. 31 God's glory is eternal BLESS ¹the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, thou art very great; thou art clothed with honour and majesty.

PSALM 105.

1 An exhortation to praise God: 7 God's providence over Abraham, 16 Joseph, 23 Jacob in Egypt, &c.

O GIVE thanks unto the LORD; call upon his name: make known his deeds among the people.

2 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him: talk ye of all his wondrous works.

3 Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.

4 Seek the LORD, and his strength: seek his face evermore.

5 Remember his marvellous works that he hath done; his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth;

6 O ye seed of Abraham his servant, ye children of Jacob his chosen.

7 He is the LORD our God: his judgments are in all the earth.

8 He hath remembered his covenant for ever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations.

9 Which covenant he made with Abraham, and his oath unto Isaac;

10 And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant:

11 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance:

tion to another, from one kingdom to another people;

14 He suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, he reproveth kings for their sakes;

15 Saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm.

16 Moreover he called for a famine upon the land: he brake the whole staff of bread.

17 He sent a man before them, even Joseph, who was sold for a servant:

18 Whose feet they hurt with fetters: he was laid in iron:

19 Until the time that his word came: the word of the LORD tried him;

20 The king sent and loosed him; even the ruler of the people, and let him go free.

21 He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all his substance:

22 To bind his princes at his pleasure; and teach his senators wisdom.

23 Israel also came into Egypt; and Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.

24 And he increased his people greatly; and made them stronger than their enemies.

25 He turned their heart to hate his people, to deal subtly with his servants.

26 He sent Moses his servant; and Aaron whom he had chosen.

27 They shewed his signs among them, and wonders in the land of Ham.

28 He sent darkness, and made it dark; and they rebelled not against his word.

29 He turned their waters into blood, and slew their fish.

30 Their land brought forth frogs in abundance, in the chambers of their kings.

31 He spake, and there came divers sorts of flies, and lice in all their coasts.

32 He gave them hail for rain, and flaming fire in their land.

33 He smote the vines also and their fig trees; and brake the trees of their coasts.

34 He spake, and the locusts came, and caterpillars, and that without number.

35 And did eat up all the herbs in their land, and devoured the fruit of their ground.

36 He smote also all the firstborn in their land, the chief of all their strength.

37 He brought them forth also with silver and gold: and there was not one feeble person among their tribes.

38 Egypt was glad when they departed: for the fear of them fell upon them.

39 "He spread a cloud for a covering; and fire to give light in the night 40 "The people asked, and he brought quails, and ¹satisfied them with the bread of heaven.

41 "He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out; they ran in the dry places like a river

42 For he remembered 'his holy promise, and Abraham his servant.

43 And he brought forth his people with joy, and his chosen with gladness

44 "And gave them the lands of the heathen and they inherited the labour of the people;

45 "That they might observe his statutes, and keep his laws. ²Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM 107.

¹ The psalmist exhorteth the redeemed, in praising God, to observe his manifold providence, ⁴ over travellers, 10 over captives, 17 over sick men, 31 over seamen, 33 and in divers varieties of life.

O ¹GIVE thanks unto the LORD, for ¹he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, ¹whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy;

3 And ¹gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and ^afrom the south.

4 They wandered in ^othe wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in.

5 Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainteth in them.

6 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses.

7 And he led them forth by the ¹right way that they might go to a city of habitation.

8 Oh that ^{men}would praise the LORD for his goodness, and ^{for}his wonderful works to the children of men!

9 For ¹he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

10 Such as ¹sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, ^{being}^abound in affliction and iron,

11 Because they ¹rebelled against the words of God, and contemned the counsel of the most High:

12 Therefore he brought down their heart with labour; they fell down, and ^{there was}^anone to help.

13 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses.

14 ¹He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and brake their bands in sunder.

15 Oh that ^{men}would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

16 For he hath ¹broken the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in sunder.

17 Fools ¹because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted.

18 Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat; and they ¹draw near unto the gates of death.

19 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saveth them out of their distresses.

20 ¹He sent his word, and ¹healed them, and ¹delivered them from their destructions.

21 Oh that ^{men}would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

22 And ¹let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and ¹declare his works with ¹rejoicing.

23 They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters;

24 These see the works of the LORD, and his wonders in the deep.

25 For he commandeth, and ¹raiseth ¹the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.

26 They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths: ¹their soul is melted because of trouble.

27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and ¹are at their wit's end.

28 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses.

29 ¹He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still.

30 Then are they glad because they be quiet; so he bringeth them unto their desired haven.

31 "Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!"

32 Let them exalt him also "in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders."

33 He "turneth rivers into a wilderness, and the waterspings into dry ground;"

34 A "fruitful land into barrenness for the wickedness of them that dwell therein."

35 "He turneth the wilderness into a standing water, and dry ground into waterspings."

36 And there he maketh the hungry to dwell, that they may prepare a city for habitation;"

37 And sow the fields, and plant vineyards, which may yield fruits of increase."

38 "He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly; and suffereth not their cattle to decrease."

39 Again, they are "minished and brought low through oppression, affliction, and sorrow."

40 "He poureth contempt upon princes, and causeth them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no way."

41 "Yet setteth he the poor on high from affliction, and maketh him families like a flock."

42 "The righteous shall see it, and rejoice: and all iniquity shall stop her mouth."

43 "Whoso is wise, and will observe these things, even they shall understand the lovingkindness of the LORD."

PSALM 108.

1 David encourageth himself to praise God & He prayeth for God's help, according to his promise
A Song or Psalm of David

O GOD, my heart is fixed; I will sing and give praise, even with my glory."

2 "Awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake early."

3 I will praise thee, O LORD, among the people: and I will sing praises unto thee among the nations."

4 For thy mercy is great above the heavens: and thy truth reacheth unto the clouds."

5 "Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth;"

6 "That thy beloved may be delivered: save with thy right hand, and answer me."

7 God hath spoken in his holiness; I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth."

PSALM 109.

1 David complaineth of his enemies 10 He sheweth their sin. 26 He prayeth for help
To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

HOLD "not thy peace, O God of my praise;"

2 For the mouth of the wicked and the "mouth of the deceitful are opened against me: they have spoken against me with a lying tongue."

3 They compassed me about also with words of hatred; and fought against me "without a cause."

4 For my love they are my adversaries: but I "gave myself unto prayer."

5 And "they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love."

6 Set thou a wicked man over him and let "Satan stand at his right hand."

7 When he shall be judged, let him be condemned: and "let his prayer become sin."

8 Let his days be few; and "let another take his office."

9 "Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow."

10 Let his children be continually vagabonds, and beg: let them seek their bread also out of their desolate places."

11 "Let the extortioner catch all that he hath; and let the strangers spoil his labour."

12 Let there be none to extend mercy unto him: neither let there be any to favour his fatherless children."

13 "Let his posterity be cut off; and in the generation following let their name be blotted out."

14 "Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the LORD; and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out."

15 Let them be before the LORD continually, that he may "cut off the memory of them from the earth."

16 Because that he remembered not to shew mercy, but persecuted the poor and needy man, that he might even slay the "broken in heart."

17 ^a As he loved cursing, so let it come unto him, as he delighted not in blessing, so let it be far from him.

18 As he clothed himself with cursing like as with his garment, so let it come ² into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones.

19 Let it be unto him as the garment which covereth him, and for a girdle wherewith he is girded continually.

20 Let this be the reward of mine adversaries from the LORD, and of them that speak evil against my soul.

21 But do thou for me, O God the Lord, for thy name's sake: because thy mercy is good, deliver thou me.

22 For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.

23 I am gone ^a like the shadow when it declineth: I am tossed up and down as the locust.

24 My ^a knees are weak through fasting; and my flesh faileth of fatness.

25 I became also ^a a reproach unto them: when they looked upon me ^a they shook their heads.

26 Help me, O LORD my God: O save me according to thy mercy:

27 ^a That they may know that this is thy hand; that thou, LORD, hast done it.

28 Let them curse, but bless thou: when they arise, let them be ashamed; but let ^a thy servant rejoice.

29 Let mine adversaries be clothed with shame, and let them cover themselves with their own confusion, as with a mantle.

30 I will greatly praise the LORD with my mouth; yea, ^a I will praise him among the multitude.

31 For ^a he shall stand at the right hand of the poor, to save him ^b from those that condemn his soul.

PSALM 115.

1 Because God is true, glorious, & idols are vanity, he exhorteth to confidence in God

NOT unto us, O LORD, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake

2 Wherefore should the heathen say, "Where is now their God?"

3 "But our God is in the heavens: he hath done whatsoever he hath pleased

4 "Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.

5 They have mouths, but they speak not: eyes have they, but they see not:

6 They have ears, but they hear not noises have they, but they smell not

7 They have hands, but they handle not: feet have they, but they walk not: neither speak they through their throat

8 "They that make them are like unto them; so is every one that trusteth in them.

9 "O Israel, trust thou in the LORD: he is their help and their shield

10 O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD: he is their help and their shield.

11 Ye that fear the LORD, trust in the LORD: he is their help and their shield

12 The LORD hath been mindful of us: he will bless us: he will bless the house of Israel, he will bless the house of Aaron

13 "He will bless them that fear the LORD, both small and great

14 The LORD shall increase you more and more, you and your children

15 Ye are blessed of the LORD, which made heaven and earth

16 The heaven, even the heavens, are the LORD's: but the earth hath he given to the children of men

17 "The dead praise not the LORD, neither any that go down into silence 18 "But we will bless the LORD from this time forth and for evermore. Praise the LORD.

PSALM 116

1 The psalmist professeth his love and duty to God for his deliverance

12 He studieth to be thankful

I LOVE the LORD, because he hath heard my voice and my supplications

2 Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, therefore will I call upon him as long as I live

3 "The sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of hell gat hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow

4 Then called I upon the name of the LORD, O LORD, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.

5 ^aGracious is the LORD, and ^arighteous; yea, our God is merciful.

6 The LORD preserveth the simple: I was brought low, and he helped me.

7 Return unto thy rest, O my soul; for the LORD hath dealt bountifully with thee.

8 For thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.

9 I will walk before the LORD ⁱⁿ the land of the living.

10 ^{mi}I believed, therefore have I spoken: I was greatly afflicted;

11 ⁱI said in my haste, ^aAll men are liars.

12 What shall I render unto the LORD for all his benefits toward me?

13 I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the LORD.

14 ⁱI will pay my vows unto the LORD now in the presence of all his people.

15 ^aPrecious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints.

16 O LORD, truly ⁱI am thy servant; ⁱI am thy servant, and ^athe son of thine handmaid: thou hast loosed my bonds.

1 An exhortation to praise God for his mercy. 5 The psalmist by his experience sheweth how good it is to trust in God. 19 Under the type of the psalmist the coming of Christ in his kingdom is expressed.

2 ^aLet Israel now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

3 Let the house of Aaron now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

4 Let them now that fear the LORD say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

PSALM 119.

Sundry prayers, praises, and professions of obedience.

A. ALFPH.

BLESSED are the ¹undefiled in the way, ²who walk in the law of the LORD.

² Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, and that seek him with the whole heart.

³ They also do no iniquity: they walk in his ways.

⁴ Thou hast commanded us to keep thy precepts diligently.

⁵ O that my ways were directed to keep thy statutes!

⁶ Then shall I not be ashamed, when I have respect unto all thy commandments.

⁷ I will praise thee with uprightness of heart, when I shall have learned ⁸thy righteous judgments.

⁸ I will keep thy statutes: O forsake me not utterly.

B. BETH.

⁹ Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed there according to thy word.

¹⁰ With my whole heart have I ¹¹sought thee: O let me not ¹²wander from thy commandments.

¹¹ Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.

¹² Blessed art thou, O LORD: ¹³teach me thy statutes.

¹³ With my lips have I ¹⁴declared all the judgments of thy mouth.

¹⁴ I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies, as much as in all riches.

¹⁵ I will ¹⁶meditate in thy precepts, and have respect unto thy ways.

¹⁶ I will ¹⁷delight myself in thy statutes: I will not forget thy word.

C. GIMEL.

¹⁷ Deal bountifully with thy servant, that I may live, and keep thy word.

¹⁸ Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law.

¹⁹ I am a stranger in the earth: hide not thy commandments from me.

²⁰ My soul breaketh for the longing that it hath unto thy judgments at all times.

²¹ Thou hast rebuked the proud that are oursed, which do ²²err from thy commandments.

²² Remove from me reproach and contempt; for I have kept thy testimonies.

²³ Princes also did sit and speak against me: but thy servant did ²⁴meditate in thy statutes.

²⁴ Thy testimonies also are my delight and ²⁵my counsellors.

PSALM 120.

*David a prayer and complaint
A Song of degrees.*

IN ^amy distress I cried unto the LORD, and he heard me.

2 Deliver my soul, O LORD, from lying lips, and from a deceitful tongue.

3 ^bWhat shall be given unto thee?
or what shall be done unto thee, thou

PSALM 121.

I ^aWILL lift up mine eyes unto the

2 ^bMy help cometh from the LORD, which made heaven and earth.

PSALM 122.

1 David professeth his joy for the church, & and prayeth for the peace thereof.
A Song of degrees of David.

I WAS glad when they said unto me, "Let us go into the house of the LORD."

2 Our feet shall stand within thy gates, O Jerusalem.

3 Jerusalem is builded as a city that is compact together;

4 Whither the tribes go up, the tribes of the LORD, unto the testimony of Israel, to give thanks unto the name of the LORD.

5 For there are set thrones of judgment, the thrones of the house of David.

6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.

7 Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces.

8 For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee.

9 Because of the house of the LORD our God I will seek thy good.

PSALM 123.

1 The godly profess their confidence in God, & and pray to be delivered from contempt.
A Song of degrees

UNTO thee I lift up mine eyes, O thou that dwellest in the heavens.

2 Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress; so our eyes wait upon the LORD our God, until that he have mercy upon us.

3 Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us for we are exceedingly filled with contempt.

4 Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud.

PSALM 124.

The church bleaseth God for a miraculous deliverance

A Song of degrees of David

IF it had not been the LORD who was on our side, 'now may Israel say;

2 If it had not been the LORD who was on our side, when men rose up against us.

3 Then they had swallowed us up quick, when their wrath was kindled against us.

4 Then the waters had overwhelmed us, the stream had gone over our soul:

5 Then the proud waters had gone over our soul.

6 Blessed be the LORD, who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth.

PSALM 125.

1 The safety of such as trust in God. A prayer for the godly, and against the wicked
A Song of degrees

THEY that trust in the LORD shall be as mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever.

2 As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the LORD is round about his people from henceforth even for ever.

3 For the rod of the wicked shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous; lest the righteous put forth their hands unto iniquity.

4 Do good, O LORD, unto those that be good, and to them that are upright in their hearts.

5 As for such as turn aside unto their crooked ways, the LORD shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity: but peace shall be upon Israel.

PSALM 126.

1 The church, celebrating her incredible return out of captivity, & prayeth for, and prophesieth the good success thereof

A Song of degrees

WHEN the LORD turned again the captivity of Zion, we were like them that dream.

2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing: then said they among the heathen, The LORD hath done great things for them.

3 The LORD hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad.

4 Turn again our captivity, O LORD, as the streams in the south.

5 They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.

6 He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

PSALM 127.

1 The virtue of God's blessing
3 Good children are his gift.

A Song of degrees of Solomon

EXCEPT the LORD build the house, they labour in vain that build it except the LORD keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain.

2 It is vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sorrows: for so he giveth his beloved sleep.

3 Lo, children are an heritage of the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is his reward.

4 As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man; so are children of the youth.

5 Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them: they shall not be ashamed, but they shall speak with the enemies in the gate.

PSALM 128.

The sundry blessings which follow them that fear God

A Song of degrees.

BLESSED 'is every one that fear- eth the LORD; that walketh in his ways.

2 'For thou shalt eat the labour of thine hands: happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee.

3 Thy wife shall be "as a fruitful vine by the sides of thine house: thy children "like olive plants round about thy table.

4 Behold, that thus shall the man be blessed that *fear*eth the LORD.

5 'The LORD shall bless thee out of Zion: and thou shalt see the good of Jerusalem all the days of thy life.

6 Yea, thou shalt "see thy children's children, and "peace upon Israel.

PSALM 129.

An exhortation to praise God for saving Israel in their great afflictions.

A Song of degrees.

MANY a time have they afflicted me from "my youth, "may Israel now say:

2 Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth: yet they have not prevailed against me.

3 The plowers plowed upon my back: they made long their furrows.

4 The LORD is righteous: he hath cut asunder the cords of the wicked.

5 Let them all be confounded and turned back that hate Zion.

6 Let them be as "the grass upon the housetops, which withereth afore it groweth up:

7 Wherever the mower filloth not his hand; nor he that bindeth sheaves his bosom.

8 Neither do they which go by say, "The blessing of the LORD be upon you: we bless you in the name of the LORD.

PSALM 133

The benefit of the communion of saints.
A song of degrees of David.

BEHOLD, how good and how pleasant ^ait is for brethren to dwell together in unity!

2 ^aIt is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments;

3 As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the LORD commanded the blessing, even life for evermore.

1 ^aAn exhortation to praise God for his mercy, & for his power, & for his judgment. 13 The vanity of idols. 19 An exhortation to bless God.

PRAISE ye the LORD. Praise ye the name of the LORD; praise him, O ye servants of the LORD.

2 ^aYe that stand in the house of the LORD, in the courts of the house of our God,

3 Praise the LORD; for the LORD is good: sing praises unto his name; for it is pleasant.

4 For the LORD hath chosen Jacob unto himself, and Israel for his peculiar treasure.

5 For I know that the LORD is great, and that our Lord is above all gods.

6 Whatsoever the LORD pleased, that did he in heaven, and in earth, in the sea, and all deep places.

PSALM 138.

1 David praiseth God for the truth of his word 4 He prophesieth that the kings of the earth shall praise God. 7 He professeth his confidence in God

A Psalm of David.

I WILL praise thee with my whole heart: ^a before the gods will I sing praise unto thee.

2 ^b I will worship ^c toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast ^d magnified thy word above all thy name.

3 In the day when I cried thou answeredst me, and strengthenedst me with strength in my soul.

4 ^e All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O LORD, when they hear the words of thy mouth.

5 Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the LORD: for great ^f is the glory of the LORD.

6 ^g Though the LORD be high, yet ^h hath he respect unto the lowly: but the proud he knoweth afar off.

7 ⁱ Though I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me: thou shalt stretch forth thine hand against the wrath of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.

8 ^j The LORD will perfect that which concerneth me: thy mercy, O LORD, endureth for ever ^k forsake not the works of thine own hands.

PSALM 139.

1 David praiseth God for his allseeing providence, 17 and for his infinite mercies 19 He deplores the wicked. 23 He prays for sincerity.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

O LORD ^a thou hast searched me, and known me.

2 ^b Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou ^c understandest my thought afar off.

3 ^d Thou ^e compasses my path and my living down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

4 For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O LORD, ^f thou knowest it altogether.

5 Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

6 ^g Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot ^h attain unto it.

7 ⁱ Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

8^a If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there. ^b If I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there.

9 ¹ I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea.

10 Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

11 If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me.

12 Yea, ¹ the darkness hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day. ² The darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

13 For thou hast possessed my reins: thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.

14 I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvelous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well.

15 ^a My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.

16 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being imperfect; and in thy book ^a all my members were written, ^b which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them.

17 ^a How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them!

18 ^a If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when I awake, I am still with thee.

19 Surely thou wilt ^a slay the wicked, O God: ^b depart from me therefore, ye bloody men.

20 For they ^a speak against thee wickedly, and thine enemies take thy name in vain.

21 ^a Do not I hate them, O Lord, that hate thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee? ^b I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies.

23 ^a Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts:

24 And see if there be any ^a wicked way in me, and ^b lead me in the way everlasting.

PSALM 140.

1 David prayeth to be delivered from Saul and Doeg. ² His confidence in God.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

DELIVER me, O LORD, from the evil man: preserve me from the violent man;

2 Which imagine mischiefs in their heart; continually are they gathered together for war.

3 They have sharpened their tongues

^a As a serpent;

^b adders' poison is under their lips. Selah.

4 ^a Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked; preserve me from the violent man; who have purposed to overthrow my gong.

5 ^a The proud have hid a snare for me, and cords; they have spread a net by the way side; they have set gins for me. Selah.

6 I said unto the LORD, Thou art my God: hear the voice of my supplications, O LORD.

7 O God the Lord, the strength of my salvation, thou hast covered my head in the day of battle.

8 Grant not, O LORD, thine desires of the wicked, further not his wicked device, lest they exalt themselves.

Selah.

9 ^a As for the head of those that compass me about, ^b let the mischief of their own lips cover them.

10 ^a Let burning coals fall upon them:

let them be cast into the fire; into deep pits, that they rise not up again.

11 Let not ^a an evil speaker be established in the earth: evil shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him.

12 I know that the LORD will maintain the cause of the afflicted, and the right of the poor.

13 Surely the righteous shall give thanks unto thy name: the upright shall dwell in thy presence.

PSALM 141.

David prayeth that his suit may be acceptable

A Psalm of David

LORD, I cry unto thee: ^a make haste unto me; give ear unto my voice, when I cry unto thee.

2 Let ^a my prayer be set forth before thee as incense; and ^b the lifting up of my hands as ^c the evening sacrifice.

3 Set a watch, O LORD, before my mouth; keep the door of my lips.

4 Incline not my heart to any evil thing, to practise wicked works with men that work iniquity: and let me not eat of their dainties.

5 ^a Let ^b the righteous smite me; it shall be a kindness; and let him reprove me; it shall be an excellent oil, which shall not break my head: for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities.

6 When their judges are overthrown in stony places, they shall hear my words; for they are sweet.

7 Our bones are scattered at the grave's mouth, as when one cutteth and cleaveth wood upon the earth.

8 But ^a mine eyes are unto thee, O God the Lord: in thee is my trust; ^b leave not my soul destitute.

9 Keep me from ^athe snares ^{which} they have laid for me, and the gins of the workers of iniquity.

10 ^bLet the wicked fall into their own nets, whilst that I withal ^cescape.

PSALM 142.

David sheweth his comfort in prayer.

^a Maschil ^a of David. A Prayer ^b when he was in the cave.

I CRIED unto the LORD with my voice; with my voice unto the LORD did I make my supplication.

2 ^aI poured out my complaint before him; I shewed before him my trouble.

3 When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then thou knewest my path. ^bIn the way wherein I walked have they privily laid a snare for me.

4 ^cI looked on my right hand, and behold, but ^dthere was no man that would know me: refuge ^efailed me; ^fno man cared for my soul.

5 I cried unto thee, O LORD: I said, ^gThou art my refuge and ^hmy portion ⁱin the land of the living.

6 Attend unto my cry; for I am ^jbrought very low: deliver me from my persecutors; for they are stronger than I.

7 Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise thy name: ^kthe righteous shall compass me about; ^lfor thou shalt deal bountifully with me.

PSALM 143.

David prayeth for favour in judgment

A Psalm of David

HEAR my prayer, O LORD, give ear to my supplications. ^aIn thy faithfulness answer me, and in thy righteousness.

2 And ^benter not into judgment with thine servant: for ^cin thy sight shall no man living be justified.

3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soul; he hath smitten my life down to the ground; he hath made me to dwell in darkness, as those that have been long dead.

4 Therefore is my spirit overwhelmed within me; my heart within me is desolate.

5 I remember the days of old; I meditate on all thy works; I muse on the work of thy hands.

6 ^aI stretch forth my hands unto thee: ^bmy soul thirsteth after thee, as a thirsty land. Selah.

7 Hear me speedily, O LORD: my spirit faileth: hide not thy face from me, ^clest ^dI be like unto them that go down into the pit.

8 Cause me to hear thy lovingkindness ^ein the morning; for in thee do I trust: cause me to know the way wherein I should walk; for ^fI lift up my soul unto thee.

9 Deliver me, O LORD, from mine enemies: I ^gflee unto thee to hide me.

10 ^aTeach me to do thy will; for thou art my God: ^bthy spirit is good; lead me into ^cthe land of uprightness.

11 ^aQuicken me, O LORD, for thy name's sake: for thy righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble.

12 And of thy mercy ^bcut off mine enemies, and destroy all them that afflict my soul: for I am thy servant.

PSALM 144.

David bleisseth God for his mercy: both to him and to man.

A Psalm of David

BLESSED be the LORD ^amy strength, ^bwhich teacheth my hands ^cto war, and my fingers to fight:

2 ^aMy goodness, and my fortress; my high tower, and my deliverer; my shield, and he in whom I trust; who subdueth my people under me.

3 LORD, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him! or the son of man, that thou makest account of him!

4 ^aMan is like to vanity: ^bhis days are as a shadow that passeth away.

5 ^aBow thy heavens, O LORD, and come down: ^btouch the mountains, and they shall smoke.

6 ^aCast forth lightning, and scatter them: shoot out thine arrows, and destroy them.

7 Send thine ^ahand from above: rid me, and deliver me out of great waters, from the hand of strange children;

8 Whose mouth ^aspeaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

9 I will ^asing a new song unto thee, O God: upon a psaltery and an instrument of ten strings will I sing praises unto thee.

10 ^aIt is he that giveth ^bsalvation unto kings: who delivereth David his servant from the hurtful sword.

11 Rid me, and deliver me from the hand of strange children, whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood:

12 That our sons ^amay be ^bas plants grown up in their youth; that our daughters ^cmay be as corner stones, ^dpolished after the sunlitude of a palace:

THE PROVERBS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 The use of the proverbs 7 An exhortation to fear God, and believe his word 10 To avoid the snare of sinners 20 Wisdom compasseth of her countenance

THE "proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel;

2 To know wisdom and instruction, to perceive the words of understanding;

3 To receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and equity;

4 To give subtilty to the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion.

5 A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels:

6 To understand a proverb, and the interpretation, the words of the wise, and their dark sayings.

7 ¶ The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

8 My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

9 For they shall be an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck.

10 ¶ My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.

11 If they say, Come with us, let us lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause:

12 Let us swallow them up alive as the grave; and whole, as those that go down into the pit:

13 We shall find all precious substance, we shall fill our houses with spoil.

14 Cast in thy lot among us; let us all have one purse:

15 My son, walk not thou in the way with them; refrain thy foot from their path:

16 For their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood.

17 Surely in vain the net is spread in the sight of any bird.

18 And they lay wait for their own blood; they lurk privily for their own lives.

19 So are the ways of every one that is greedy of gain; which taketh away the life of the owners thereof.

20 ¶ "Wisdom" crieth without; she uttereth her voice in the streets:

21 She crieth in the chief place of concourse in the openings of the gates:

in the city she uttereth her words, saying,

22 How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity? and the scornful delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?

23 Turn you at my reproof, behold I will pour out my spirit unto you, I will make known my words unto you.

24 ¶ Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;

25 But ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof.

26 I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh;

27 When your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you.

28 ¶ Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me.

29 For that they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the Lord;

30 They would none of my counsel, they despised all my reproof.

31 Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.

32 For the turning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.

33 But whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Wisdom prevaileth godliness to her children 20 and direction in good ways

MY son, if thou wilt receive my words, and hide my commandments with thee;

2 So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding;

3 Yes, if thou criest after knowledge, and liftest up thy voice for understanding;

4 If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures;

5 Then shalt thou understand the fear of the Lord, and mind the knowledge of God.

6 For the Lord giveth wisdom, out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding.

7 He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous, he is as a buckler to them that walk uprightly.

8 He keepeth the paths of judgment, and preserveth the way of his saints.

9 Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgment, and equity; yea, every good path.

10 ¶ When wisdom entereth into thine heart, and knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul;

11 Discretion shall preserve thee, understanding shall keep thee:

12 To deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from the man that speaketh froward things;

13 Who leave the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness;

14 Who ^hrejoice to do evil, and ^hdelight in the frowardness of the wicked;

15 ^hWhose ways are crooked, and they froward in their paths:

16 To deliver thee from ^hthe strange woman, ^heven from the stranger which flattereth with her words;

17 Which forsaketh the guide of her youth, and forgetteth the covenant of her God.

18 For ^hher house inclineth unto death, and her paths unto the dead.

19 None that go unto her return again, neither take they hold of the paths of life.

20 That thou mayest walk in the way of good men, and keep the paths of the righteous.

21 ^hFor the upright shall dwell in the land, and the perfect shall remain in it.

22 ^hBut the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, and the transgressors shall be ^hrooted out of it.

CHAPTER 3.

1 An exhortation to obedience, 6 faith, 7 mortification, &c. 13 The happy gain of wisdom 21 An exhortation to charity, &c.

MY son, forget not my law; ^hbut let thine heart keep my commandments:

2 For length of days, and ^hlong life, and ^hpeace, shall they add to thee.

3 Let not mercy and truth forsake thee; bind them about thy neck; ^hwrite them upon the table of thine heart:

4 ^hSo shalt thou find favour and ^hgood understanding in the sight of God and man.

5 ¶ Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; ^hand lean not unto thine own understanding.

6 ^hIn all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall ^hdirect thy paths.

7 ¶ Be not wise in thine own eyes: ^hfear the LORD, and depart from evil.

8 It shall be ^hhealth to thy navel, and ^hmarrow ^hto thy bones.

11 ¶ My son, despise not the chastening of the LORD; neither be weary of his correction:

12 For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth; ^heven as a father the son in whom he delighteth.

13 ¶ Happy ^his the man that findeth wisdom, and ^hthe man that getteth understanding.

15 She is more precious than rubies: and ^hall the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.

24 ^hWhen thou hest down, thou shalt not be afraid: yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet.

27 ¶ Withhold not good from ^hthem to whom it is due, when it is in the power of thine hand to do it.

28 Say not unto thy neighbour, Go, and come again, and to-morrow I will give; when thou hast it by thee.

29 Devise not evil against thy neighbour, seeing he dwelleth securely by thee.

30 ¶ Strive not with a man without cause, if he have done thee no harm.

31 ¶ Envy thou not ^hthe oppressor, and choose none of his ways.

32 For the froward is abomination to the LORD: ^hbut his secret is with the righteous.

instruction he had of his father is.

HEAR, ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to 2 For I gave you good doctrine, for me, Let thine heart retain my words

5 ^aGet wisdom get understanding forget it not, neither decline from the 6 ^aFor sake her not, and she shall preserve thee: ^alove her, and she shall keep thee

7 ^aWisdom is the principal thing,

8 ^aExalt her, and she shall promote thee: she shall bring thee to honour when thou dost humblest her

9 She shall give to thine head ^aan ornament of grace: ^aa crown of glory shall she deliver to thee

10 Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings, ^aand the years of thy life shall be many

11 I have taught thee in the way of wisdom, I have led thee in right paths

12 When thou goest, ^athy steps shall not be strutted, ^aand when thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble

13 ^aTake fast hold of instruction, let 14 ^aEnter not into the path of the is taken away, unless they cause some to fall

1 Solomon exhorteth to the study of wisdom. 2 He sheweth the mischief of whor dom and riot

MY son, attend unto my wisdom, and bow thine ear to my under-

2 That thou mayest regard discipline, and that thy lips may ^akeep

3 ^aFor the lips of a strange woman drop as a honeycomb, and her

4 But her end is ^abitter as worm

5 ^aHer feet go down to death, her steps take hold on hell

6 Lest thou shouldst ponder the path of life, her ways are movable, that thou canst not know them

7 Hear me now therefore, O ye children, and depart not from the words of my mouth

8 Remove thy way far from her, and come not nigh the door of her house

9 Lest thou give thine honour unto others, and thy years unto the cruel

10 Lest strangers be filled with ^athy wealth, and thy labours be in the house of a stranger,

11 And thou mourn at the last when thy flesh and thy body are consumed,

12 And say, How have I ^ahated in-

18 Let thy fountain be blessed: and rejoyce with the wife of thy youth.

19 ¹Let her be as the loving hind and pleasant roe; let her breasts satisfy thee at all times; and ²be thou ravished always with her love.

20 And why wilt thou, my son, be ravished with ¹a strange woman, and embrace the bosom of a stranger?

21 ¹"For the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD, and he pondereth all his goings.

22 ¹"His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be holden with the cords of his ²sins.

23 ¹He shall die without instruction; and in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Against suretiship, 6 idleness, 12 and mischiefousness 18 Seven things hateful to God 20 The blessings of obedience 26 The mischief of idleness.

MY son, "if thou be surety for thy friend, ¹if thou hast stricken thy hand with a stranger,

2 Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth.

3 Do this now, my son, and deliver thyself, when thou art come into the hand of thy friend; go, humble thyself, ²and make sure thy friend.

4 ¹Give not sleep to thine eyes, nor slumber to thine eyelids.

5 Deliver thyself as a roe from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the fowler.

6 ¹"Go to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise:

7 Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler,

8 Provideth her meat in the summer, and gathereth her food in the harvest.

9 ¹How long wilt thou sleep, O sluggard? when wilt thou arise out of thy sleep?

10 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

11 ¹So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth, and thy want as an armed man.

12 ¹"A naughty person, a wicked man, walketh with a froward mouth.

13 ¹"He winketh with his eyes, he speaketh with his feet, he teacheth with his fingers;

14 Frowardness is in his heart, ¹he deviseth mischief continually; ²he soweth discord.

CHAPTER 7.

1 Solomon persuadeth to a married familiarity with wisdom. 22 The desperate simplicity of a young woman. 24 He dehorteth from such wickedness.

MY son, keep my words, and ¹my uppy commandments with thee.

2 ¹Keep my commandments, and live; ²and my law as the apple of thine eye.

3 Bind them upon thy fingers, write them upon the table of thine heart.
4 Say unto wisdom, Thou art my sister; and call understanding thy kinswoman:

5 That they may keep thee from the strange woman, from the stranger which flattereth with her words.

6 For at the window of my house I looked through my casement,

7 And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man void of understanding,

8 Passing through the street near her corner; and he went the way to her house,

9 In the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night:

10 And, behold, there met him a woman with the attire of an harlot, and subtil of heart.

11 She is loud and stubborn; her feet abide not in her house:

12 Now is she without, now in the streets, and beth in wait at every corner.)

13 So she caught him, and kissed him, and with an impudent face said unto him, 14 I have peace offerings with me; this day have I payed my vows.

15 Therefore came I forth to meet thee, diligently to seek thy face, and I have found thee.

16 I have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved works, with fine linnen of Egypt.

17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon

18 Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning: let us solace ourselves with loves.

19 For the Goodman is not at home, he is gone a long journey:

20 He hath taken a bag of money with him, and will come home at the day appointed.

21 With her much fair speech she caused him to yield, with the flattering of her lips she forced him.

22 He goeth after her straightway, as an ox goeth to the slaughter, or as a fool to the correction of the stocks;

23 Till a dart strike through his liver; as a bird hasteth to the snare, and knoweth not that it is for his life

24 Hearken unto me now therefore, O ye children, and attend to the words of my mouth.

27 Her house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death.

CHAPTER 8.

1 The fame, 8 and easiness of wisdom. 10 The excellency, 13 the nature, 15 the power, 18 the riches, 22 and the eternity of wisdom.

DOTH not wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice?

2 She standeth in the top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths.

3 She crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors.

4 Unto you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man.

5 O ye simple, understand wisdom, and, ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.

6 Hear; for I will speak of excellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be right things.

7 For my mouth shall speak truth; and wickedness is an abomination to my lips.

8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; there is nothing froward or perverse in them.

9 They are all plain to him that understandeth, and right to them that find knowledge.

10 Receive my instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold.

11 For wisdom is better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.

12 I wisdom dwell with prudence, and find out knowledge of witty inventions.

13 The fear of the LORD is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the froward mouth, do I hate.

14 Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom: I am understanding; I have strength.

15 By me kings reign, and princes decree justice.

16 By me princesses rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth.

17 I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me.

18 Riches and honour are with me; yea, durable riches and righteousness.

19 My fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold; and my revenue than choice silver.

20 I lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgment.

21 That I may cause those that love me to inherit substance; and I will fill their treasures.

22 The LORD possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old.

23 "I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.

24 When there were no depths, I was brought forth; when there were no fountains abounding with water.

25 "Before the mountains were settled, before the hills was I brought forth;

26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the ¹fields, nor ²the highest part of the dust of the world.

27 When he prepared the heavens, I was there: when he set ³a compass upon the face of the depth:

28 When he established the clouds above; when he strengthened the fountains of the deep:

29 "When he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment: when ⁴he appointed the foundations of the earth:

30 "Then I was by him, as one brought up with him: ⁵and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him;

31 Rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth; and ⁶my delights were with the sons of men.

32 Now therefore hearken unto me, O ye children: for ⁷"blessed are they that keep my ways.

33 Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not.

34 "Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors.

35 For whose findeth me findeth life, and shall ⁸"obtain" favour of the LORD.

36 But he that sinneth against me ⁹"wrongeth his own soul: all they that hate me love death.

CHAPTER 9.

1 The discipline, 4 and doctrine of wisdom. 13 The custom, 16 and error of folly.

WISDOM hath ¹"built her house, she hath hewn out her seven pillars:

2 "She hath killed ²her beasts; ³she hath mingled her wine; she hath also furnished her table.

3 She hath ⁴"sent forth her maidens: ⁵she crieth ⁶"upon the highest places of the city,

4 "Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: as ⁷for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,

5 "Come, eat of my bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled.

6 Forsake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding.

7 He that reproveth a scorner getteth to himself shame: and he that rebuketh a wicked man ⁸getteth himself a blot.

8 "Reprove not a scorner, lest he 12 "If thou be wise, thou shalt be wise for thyself: but ²if thou scornest, thou alone shalt bear it.

13 "A foolish woman is clamorous: she is simple, and knoweth nothing.

14 For she sitteth at the door of her house, on a seat ³in the high places of the city,

15 To call passengers who go right on their ways:

16 "Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: and as ⁴for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him, 17 "Stolen waters are sweet, and bread ⁵eaten in secret is pleasant.

18 But he knoweth not that ⁶the dead are there; and that her guests are in the depths of hell.

CHAPTER 10.

From this chapter to the five and twentieth are sundry observations of moral virtues, and their contrary vices.

THE proverbs of Solomon. "A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother.

2 "Treasures of wickedness profit nothing: but righteousness delivereth from death.

3 "The LORD will not suffer the soul of the righteous to famish: but he casteth away ¹the substance of the wicked.

4 "He becometh poor that dealeth with a slack hand: but ²the hand of the diligent maketh rich.

5 He that gathereth in summer is a wise son: but he that sleepeth in harvest is ³a son that causeth shame.

6 Blessings are upon the head of the just: but ⁴violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

7 "The memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot.

8 The wise in heart will receive commandments: ⁵but ⁶a prating fool shall fall.

9 "He that walketh uprightly walketh surely: but he that perverteth his ways shall be known.

10 "He that winketh with the eye causeth sorrow: ⁷but a prating fool shall fall.

11 "The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life: but ^aviolence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

12 Hatred stirreth up strifes: but ^alove covereth all sins.

13 In the lips of him that hath understanding wisdom is found: but ^arod is for the back of him that is void of ^aunderstanding.

14 Wise men lay up knowledge: but ^athe mouth of the foolish is near destruction.

15 ^aThe rich man's wealth is his strong city: the destruction of the poor is their poverty.

16 The labour of the righteous tendeth to life: the fruit of the wicked to sin.

17 He is in the way of life that keepeth instruction: but he that refuseth reproof ^aerred.

18 He that hideth hatred with lying lips, and ^ahe that uttereth a slander, is a fool.

19 ^aIn the multitude of words there wanteth not sin: but ^ahe that refrained his lips is wise.

20 The tongue of the just is as choice silver: the heart of the wicked is little worth.

21 The lips of the righteous feed many: but fools die for want of wisdom.

22 "The blessing of the LORD, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it.

23 ^aIt is as sport to a fool to do mischief: but a man of understanding hath wisdom.

24 The fear of the wicked, it shall come upon him: but ^athe desire of the righteous shall be granted.

25 As the whirlwind passeth, ^aso is the wicked no more: but ^athe righteous is an everlasting foundation.

26 As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the sluggard to them that send him.

27 The fear of the LORD ^aprolongeth days: but ^athe years of the wicked shall be shortened.

28 The hope of the righteous shall be gladness: but the ^aexpectation of the wicked shall perish.

29 The way of the LORD is strength to the upright: ^abut destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

30 The righteous shall never be removed: but the wicked shall not inhabit the earth.

31 ^aThe mouth of the just bringeth forth wisdom: but the froward tongue shall be cut out.

32 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable: but the mouth of the wicked ^aspeareth ^afrowardness.

CHAPTER 11. ✓

A ^aFALSE ^abalance is abomination to the LORD: but ^aa just weight is his delight.

2 ^aWhen pride cometh, then cometh shame: but with the lowly is wisdom.

3 ^aThe integrity of the upright shall guide them: but the perverseness of transgressors shall destroy them.

4 ^aRiches profit not in the day of wrath: but ^arighteousness delivereth from death.

5 The righteousness of the perfect shall ^adirect his way: but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.

6 The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them: but ^atransgressors shall be taken in ^atheir own naughtiness.

7 ^aWhen a wicked man dieth, his expectation shall perish: and the hope of unjust men perisheth.

8 ^aThe righteous is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked cometh in his stead.

9 An ^ahypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbour: but through knowledge shall the just be delivered.

10 ^aWhen it goeth well with the righteous, the city rejoiceth: and when the wicked perish, there is shouting.

11 ^aBy the blessing of the upright the city is exalted, but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.

12 He that is ^avoid of wisdom despiseth his neighbour: but a man of understanding holdeth his peace.

13 ^aA talebearer revealeth secrets: but he that is of a faithful spirit concealeth the matter.

14 ^aWhere no counsel is, the people fall: but in the multitude of counsellors there is safety.

15 ^aHe that is surety for a stranger shall smart ^afor it: and he that hateth ^asuretyship is sure.

16 ^aA gracious woman retaineth honour: and strong men retain riches.

17 ^aThe merciful man doeth good to his own soul: but he that is cruel troubleth his own flesh.

18 The wicked worketh a deceitful work: but ^ato him that soweth righteousness shall be a sure reward.

19 As righteousness tendeth to life: so he that pursueth evil pursueth it to his own death.

20 They that are of a froward heart are abomination to the LORD: but such as are upright in ^atheir way are his delight.

21 ^aThough hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but ^athe seed of the righteous shall be delivered.

22 As a jewel of gold in a swine's snout, so is a fair woman which is without discretion.

23 The desire of the righteous is only good: but the expectation of the wicked is wrath.

24 There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty.

25 The liberal soul shall be made fat: and he that watereth shall be watered also himself.

26 He that withholdeth corn, the people shall curse him: but the blessing shall be upon the head of him that selleth it.

27 He that diligently seeketh good procureth favour: but he that seeketh mischief, it shall come unto him.

28 He that trusteth in his riches shall fall: but the righteous shall flourish as a branch.

29 He that troubleth his own house shall inherit the wind: and the fool shall be servant to the wise of heart.

30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise.

31 Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth: much more the wicked and the sinner.

CHAPTER 12.

WHOSO loveth instruction loveth knowledge; but he that hateth reproof is brutish.

2 A good man obtaineth favour of the LORD: but a man of wicked devices will he condemn.

3 A man shall not be established by wickedness: but the root of the righteous shall not be moved.

4 A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband: but she that maketh ashamed is as rottenness in his bones.

5 The thoughts of the righteous are right: but the counsels of the wicked are deceit.

6 The words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood: but the mouth of the upright shall deliver them.

7 The wicked are overthrown, and are not: but the house of the righteous shall stand.

8 A man shall be commended according to his wisdom: but he that is of a perverse heart shall be despised.

9 He that is despised, and hath a servant, is better than he that honoureth himself, and lacketh bread.

10 A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast: but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.

12 The wicked desireth the net of evil men: but the root of the righteous yieldeth fruit.

13 The wicked is snared by the transgression of his lips: but the just shall come out of trouble.

14 A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth: and the recompence of a man's hands shall be rendered unto him.

15 The way of a fool is right in his own eyes: but he that hearkeneth unto counsel is wise.

16 A fool's wrath is presently known: but a prudent man covereth shame.

17 He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness decoit.

18 There is that speaketh like the piercings of a sword: but the tongue of the wise is health.

19 The lip of truth shall be established for ever: but a lying tongue is but for a moment.

20 Deceit is in the heart of them that imagine evil: but to the counsellors of peace is joy.

21 There shall no evil happen to the just: but the wicked shall be filled with mischief.

22 Lying lips are abomination to the LORD: but they that deal truly are his delight.

23 A prudent man concealeth knowledge, but the heart of fools proclaimeth foolishness.

24 The hand of the diligent shall bear rule: but the slothful shall be under tribute.

25 Heaviness in the heart of man maketh it stoop: but a good word maketh it glad.

26 The righteous is more excellent than his neighbour: but the way of the wicked seduceth them.

27 The slothful man roasteth not that which he took in hunting: but the substance of a diligent man is precious.

28 In the way of righteousness is life; and in the pathway thereof there is no death.

CHAPTER 13.

A WISE son heareth his father's instruction: but a scorner heareth not rebuke.

7 "There is that maketh himself rich, yet hath nothing: there is that maketh himself poor, yet hath great riches.

8 The ransom of a man's life are his riches: but the poor heareth not rebuke.

9 The light of the righteous rejoiceth: but the lamp of the wicked shall be put out.

10 Only by pride cometh contention: but with the well advised is wisdom.

11 "Wealth gotten by vanity shall be diminished: but he that gathereth by labour shall increase.

12 Hope deferred maketh the heart sick: but when the desire cometh, it is a tree of life.

13 Whoso despiseth the word shall be destroyed: but he that feareth the commandment shall be rewarded.

14 "The law of the wise is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.

15 Good understanding giveth favour: but the way of transgressors is hard.

16 "Every prudent man dealeth with knowledge: but a fool layeth open his folly.

17 A wicked messenger falleth into mischief: but a faithful ambassador is health.

18 Poverty and shame shall be to him that refuseth instruction: but he that regardeth reproof shall be honoured.

19 "The desire accomplished is sweet to the soul: but it is abomination to fools to depart from evil.

20 He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.

CHAPTER 14.

EVERY wise woman buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands.

2 He that walketh in his uprightness feareth the LORD: but he that is perverse in his ways despiseth him.

3 In the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride: but the lips of the wise shall preserve them.

4 Where no oxen are, the crib is clean: but much increase is by the strength of the ox.

5 A faithful witness will not lie: but a false witness will utter lies.

6 A scorner seeketh wisdom, and findeth it not: but knowledge is easy unto him that understandeth.

7 Go from the presence of a foolish man, when thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge.

8 The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way: but the folly of fools is deceit.

9 Fools make a mock at sin: but among the righteous there is favour.

10 The heart knoweth his own bitterness: and a stranger doth not intermeddle with his joy.

11 The house of the wicked shall be overthrow: but the tabernacle of the upright shall flourish.

12 There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

13 Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful: and the end of that mirth is heaviness.

14 The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways: and a good man shall be satisfied from himself.

15 The simple believeth every word: but the prudent man looketh well to his going.

16 A wise man feareth, and departeth from evil: but the fool rageth, and is confident.

17 He that is soon angry dealth foolishly: and a man of wicked devices is hated.

18 The simple inherit folly: but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.

19 The evil bow before the good; and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

20 The poor is hated even of his own neighbour: but the rich hath many friends.

21 He that despiseth his neighbour sinneth: but he that hath mercy on the poor, happy is he.

22 Do they not err that devise evil? but mercy and truth shall be to them that devise good.

23 In all labour there is profit: but the talk of the lips tendeth only to penury.

24 The crown of the wise is their riches: but the foolishness of fools is folly.

25 A true witness delivereth souls: but a deceitful witness speaketh lies.

26 In the fear of the LORD is strong confidence: and his children shall have a place of refuge.

27 The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.

28 In the multitude of people is the king's honour: but in the want of people is the destruction of the prince.

29 He that is slow to wrath is of great understanding: but he that is hasty of spirit exalteth folly.

30 A sound heart is the life of the flesh: but "envy" the rottenness of the bones.

31 He that oppresseth the poor reproacheth his Maker: but he that honoureth him hath more on the poor.

32 The wicked is driven away in his wickedness: but "the righteous hath hope in his death."

33 Wisdom resteth in the heart of him that hath understanding: but "that which is in the midst of fools is made known."

34 Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.

35 The king's favour is toward a wise servant: but his wrath is against him that causeth shame.

CHAPTER 15.

A "SOFT answer turneth away wrath: but grievous words stir up anger.

2 The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright: but the mouth of fools poureth out foolishness.

3 The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.

4 A wholesome tongue is a tree of life: but perverseness therein is a breach in the spirit.

5 A fool despiseth his father's instruction: but he that regardeth reproof is prudent.

6 In the house of the righteous is much treasure: but in the revenues of the wicked is trouble.

7 The lips of the wise disperse knowledge: but the heart of the foolish doeth not so.

8 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD: but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

9 The way of the wicked is an abomination unto the LORD: but he loveth him that "followeth after righteousness.

10 Correction is grievous unto him that forsaketh the way: and "he that hateth reproof shall die.

11 Hell and destruction are before the LORD: how much more then the hearts of the children of men?

12 A scorner loveth not one that reproveth him: neither will he go unto the wise.

13 A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance: but "by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken.

14 The heart of him that hath understanding seeketh knowledge: but the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness.

15 All the days of the afflicted are evil: "but he that is of a merry heart hath a continual feast.

16 Better is little with the fear of the LORD than great treasure and trouble therewith.

17 Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred therewith.

18 A wrathful man stirreth up strife: but he that is slow to anger appeaseth strife.

19 The way of the slothful man is as an hedge of thorns: but the way of the righteous is made plain.

20 A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish man despiseth his mother.

21 Folly is joy to him that is destitute of wisdom: but a man of understanding walketh uprightly.

22 Without counsel purposes are disappointed: but in the multitude of counsellors they are established.

23 A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth: and "a word spoken in due season, how good is it!

24 The way of life is above the wise, that he may depart from hell beneath.

25 The LORD will destroy the house of the proud: but "he will establish the border of the widow.

26 The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the LORD: but the words of the pure are pleasant words.

27 He that is greedy of gain troubleth his own house: but he that hateth gifts shall live.

28 The heart of the righteous studieth to answer: but the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things.

29 The LORD is far from the wicked: but "he heareth the prayer of the righteous.

30 The light of the eyes rejoiceth the heart: and a good report maketh the bones fat.

31 "The ear that heareth the reproof of life abideth among the wise.

32 He that refuseth instruction despiseth his own soul; but he that heareth reproof getteth understanding.

33 "The fear of the LORD is the instruction of wisdom; and before honour is humility.

CHAPTER 16.

THE "preparations^a of the heart in man, and the answer of the tongue, is from the LORD.

2 "All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes; but the LORD weigheth the spirits.

3 "Commit thy works unto the LORD, and thy thoughts shall be established.

4 "The LORD hath made all things for himself: yea, even the wicked for the day of evil.

5 "Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD: though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished.

6 "By mercy and truth iniquity is purged: and by the fear of the LORD men depart from evil.

7 When a man's ways please the LORD, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.

8 "Better is a little with righteousness than great revenues without right.

9 "A man's heart deviseth his way: but the LORD directeth his steps.

10 "A divine sentence is in the lips of the king: his mouth transgresseth not in judgment.

11 "A just weight and balance are the LORD's: all the weights of the bag are his work.

12 "It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness: for the throne is established by righteousness.

13 "Righteous lips are the delight of kings; and they love him that speaketh right.

14 "The wrath of a king is as messengers of death: but a wise man will pacify it.

15 In the light of the king's countenance is life, and his favour is as a cloud of the latter rain.

16 "How much better is it to get wisdom than gold, and to get understanding rather to be chosen than silver!

17 The highway of the upright is to depart from evil: he that keepeth his way preserveth his soul.

18 Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.

19 Better it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud.

12 Let ^aa bear robbed of her whelps meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly.

13 Whoso ^arewardeth evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house.

14 The beginning of strife is as when one letteth out water: therefore ^aleave off contention, before it be meddled with.

15 ^aHe that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just, even they both are abomination to the LORD.

2 A fool hath no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself.

3 When the wicked cometh, then cometh also contempt, and with ignominy reproach.

4 ^aThe words of a man's mouth are as deep waters, ^aand the wellspring of wisdom as a flowing brook.

5 ^a*It is* not good to accept the person of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgment.

6 A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth calleth for strokes.

7 A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soul.

8 ^aThe words of a ^atalchearer are ^aas wounds, and they go down into the ^ainnermost parts of the belly.

9 He also that is slothful in his work is ^abrother to him that is a great waster.

10 ^aThe name of the LORD is a strong tower: the righteous runneth into it, and is safe.

11 ^aThe rich man's wealth is his strong city, and as an high wall in his own conceit.

12 ^aBefore destruction the heart of a man is haughty, and before honour is humility.

13 He that ^aanswereth a matter ^abefore he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him.

14 The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity; but a wounded spirit who can bear?

15 The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge; and the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge.

16 ^aA man's gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men.

17 ^a*He that is* first in his own cause seemeth just; but his neighbour cometh and searcheth him.

18 The lot causeth contentions to cease, and parteth between themighty.

19 A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city, and their contentions are like the bars of a castle.

20 ^aA man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled.

21 ^aDeath and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

22 ^aWhoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the LORD.

23 The poor useth intreaties; but the rich answereth ^aroughly.

24 A man that hath friends must show himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

CHAPTER 19.

BBETTER ¹is the poor that walketh in his integrity, than he that is perverse in his lips, and is a fool.

2 Also, that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good; and he that hasteth with his feet sinneth.

3 The foolishness of man perverteth his way: and his heart fretteth against the LORD.

4 Wealth maketh many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbour.

5 A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall not escape.

6 Many will intreat the favour of the prince: and every man is a friend to him that giveth gifts.

7 All the brethren of the poor do hate him: how much more do his friends go far from him? he pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him.

8 He that getteth wisdom loveth his own soul: he that keepeth understanding shall find good.

9 A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall perish.

10 Delight is not seemly for a fool; much less for a servant to have rule over princes.

11 The discretion of a man deferreth his anger; and it is his glory to pass over a transgression.

12 The king's wrath is as the roaring of a lion, but his favour is as dew upon the grass.

13 A foolish son is the calamity of his father: and the contentions of a wife are a continual dropping.

14 House and riches are the inheritance of fathers: and a prudent wife is from the LORD.

15 Slothfulness casteth into a deep sleep; and an idle soul shall suffer hunger.

16 He that keepeth the commandment keepeth his own soul, but he that despiseth his ways shall die.

17 He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth to the LORD; and that which he hath given will he pay him again.

18 Chasten thy son while there is hope, and let not thy soul spare for his crying.

22 The desire of a man is his kindness: and a poor man is better than a liar.

28 An ungodly witness scorneth judgment: and the mouth of the wicked devoureth inquiry.

29 Judgments are prepared for scorners, and stripes for the back of fools.

CHAPTER 20.

WINE is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.

2 The fear of a king is as the roaring of a lion, whoso provoketh him to anger sinneth against his own soul.

3 It is an honour for a man to cease from strife, but every fool will be meddling.

4 The sluggard will not plow by reason of the cold; therefore shall he beg in harvest, and have nothing.

5 Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water; but a man of understanding will draw it out.

6 Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness, but a faithful man who can find?

7 The just man walketh in his integrity, his children are blessed after him.

8 A king that sitteth in the throne of judgment scattereth away all evil with his eyes.

9 Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin?

10 Divers weights, and divers measures, both of them are alike abomination to the LORD.

11 Even a child is known by his doings, whether his work be pure, and whether it be right.

12 The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, the LORD hath made even both of them.

13 Love not sleep, lest thou come to poverty; open thine eyes, and thou shalt be satisfied with bread.

14 It is naught, it is naught, saith the buyer: but when he is gone his way, then he boasteth.

15 There is gold, and a multitude of rubies; but the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.

16 Take his garment that is surety for a stranger: and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

17 Bread of deceit is sweet to a man; but afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel.

18 Every purpose is established by counsel; and with good advice make war.

19 He that goeth about as a tale-bearer revealeth secrets: therefore meddle not with him that flattereth with his lips.

20 Whoso curseth his father or his mother, his lamp shall be put out in obscure darkness.

21 An inheritance may be gotten hastily at the beginning; but the end thereof shall not be blessed.

22 Say not thou, I will recompense evil; but wait on the LORD, and he shall save thee.

23 Divers weights are an abomination unto the LORD; and a false balance is not good.

24 Man's goings are of the LORD; how can a man then understand his own way?

25 It is a snare to the man who devoureth that which is holy, and after vows to make enquiry.

26 A wise king scattereth the wicked, and bringeth the wheel over them.

27 The spirit of man is the candle of the LORD, searching all the inward parts of the belly.

28 Mercy and truth preserve the king; and his throne is upheld by mercy.

29 The glory of young men is their strength: and the beauty of old men is the grey head.

30 The blueness of a wound cleanseth away evil: so do stripes the inward parts of the belly.

CHAPTER 21.

THE king's heart is in the hand of the LORD, as the rivers of water he turneth it whithersoever he will.

2 Every way of a man is right in his own eyes, but the LORD poudereth the hearts.

3 To do justice and judgment is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.

4 An high look, and a proud heart, and the plowing of the wicked, is sin.

Heb. Naughtiness of eyes.

or, the light of the wicked.

Jer. 6. 20.

5 The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenteousness; but of every one that is hasty only to want.

6 The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death.

7 The robbery of the wicked shall destroy them; because they refuse to do judgment.

8 The way of man is froward and strange: but as for the pure, his work is right.

9 It is better to dwell in a corner of the housetop, than with a bawling woman in a wide house.

10 The soul of the wicked desireth evil: his neighbour findeth no favour in his eyes.

11 When the scorner is punished, the simple is made wise: and when the wise is instructed, he receiveth knowledge.

12 The righteous man wisely considereth the house of the wicked: but God overthroweth the wicked for their wickedness.

13 Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard.

14 A gift in secret pacifieth anger: and a reward in the bosom strong wrath.

15 It is joy to the just to do judgment: but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

16 The man that wandereth out of the way of understanding shall remain in the congregation of the dead.

17 He that loveth pleasure shall be a poor man: he that loveth wine and oil shall not be rich.

18 The wicked shall be a ransom for the righteous, and the transgressor for the upright.

19 It is better to dwell in the wilderness, than with a contentious and an angry woman.

20 There is treasure to be desired and oil in the dwelling of the wise; but a foolish man spendeth it up.

21 He that followeth after righteousness and mercy findeth life, righteousness, and honour.

22 A wise man scaleth the city of the mighty, and casteth down the strength of the confidence thereof.

23 Whoso keepeth his mouth and his tongue keepeth his soul from troubles.

24 Proud and haughty scorner is his name, who dealeth in proud wrath.

25 The desire of the slothful killeth him: for his hands refuse to labour.

26 He coveteth greedily all the day long: but the righteous giveth and spareth not.

27 The sacrifice of the wicked is abomination how much more, when he bringeth it with a wicked mind?

28 A false witness shall perish but the man that heareth shall con- stitute

29 A wicked man hardeneth his face but as for the upright, he directeth his way.

30 There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the LORD

31 The horse is prepared against the day of battle but safety is of the LORD.

CHAPTER 22

A GOOD name is rather to be chosen than great riches and loving favour rather than silver and gold

2 The rich and poor meet together the LORD is the maker of them all

3 A prudent man foreseeth the evil and hideth himself but the simple pass on, and are punished

4 By humility and the fear of the LORD are riches and honour and life

5 Thorns and snares are in the way of the forward he that doth keep his soul shall be far from them

6 Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old, he will not depart from it

7 The rich ruleth over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender

8 He that soweth iniquity shall reap vanity and the rod of his anger shall fail

9 He that hath a bountiful eye shall be blessed, for he giveth of his bread to the poor

10 Cast out the scorner, and contention shall go out, yea, strife and reproach shall cease

11 He that loveth pureness of heart shall for the grace of his lips the king shall be his friend

12 The eyes of the LORD preserve knowledge and he overthroweth the words of the transgressor

13 The slothful man saith, There is a lion without I shall be slain in the streets

14 The mouth of strange women is a deep pit he that is abhorred of the LORD shall fall therein

15 Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child, but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him

16 He that oppresseth the poor to increase his riches, and he that giveth to the rich shall surely come to want

17 Bow down thine ear, and hear the words of the wise, and apply thine heart unto my knowledge

18 For it is a pleasant thing if thou keep them within thee, they shall withal be fitted in thy lips.

child: for if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die.

14 Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and shalt deliver his soul from hell.

15 My son, if thine heart be wise, my heart shall rejoice, even mine.

16 Yea, my reins shall rejoice, when thy lips speak right things.

17 Let not thine heart envy sinners: but ¹be thou in the fear of the Lord all the day long.

18 For surely there is an end; and thine expectation shall not be cut off.

19 Hear thou, my son, and be wise, and guide thine heart in the way.

20 Be not among winebibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh:

21 For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty: and drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags.

22 Harken unto thy father that begat thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old.

23 Buy the truth, and sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.

24 The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice: and he that begetteth a wise child shall have joy of him.

25 Thy father and thy mother shall be glad, and she that bare thee shall rejoice.

26 My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways.

27 For a whore is a deep ditch; and a strange woman is a narrow pit.

28 She also lieth in wait as for a prey, and increaseth the transgressors among men.

29 Who hath woo? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath bawling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes?

30 They that tarry long at the wine; they that go to seek mixed wine.

31 Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright.

32 At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder.

33 Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things.

34 Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down in the midst of the sea, or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast.

35 They have stricken me, shall thou say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and I felt it not: when shall I awake? I will seek it yet again.

CHAPTER 24.

BE not thou envious against evil men, neither desire to be with them: For their heart studieth destruction, and their lips talk of mischief.

3 Through wisdom is an house builded; and by understanding it is established:

4 And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

5 A wise man is strong; yea, a man of knowledge increaseth strength.

6 For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war: and in multitude of counsellors there is safety.

7 Wisdom is too high for a fool: he openeth not his mouth in the gate.

8 He that deviseth to do evil shall be called a mischievous person.

9 The thought of foolishness is sin: and the scorner is an abomination to men.

10 If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is small.

11 If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain;

12 If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works?

13 My son, eat thou honey, because it is good; and the honeycomb, which is sweet to thy taste:

14 So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found it, then thers shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off.

15 Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous; spoil not his resting place.

16 For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief.

17 Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth:

18 Lest the Lord see it, and he displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him.

19 Fret not thyself because of evil men, neither be thou envious at the wicked;

20 For there shall be no reward to the evil man, the candle of the wicked shall be put out.

21 My son, fear thou the Lord and the king: and meddle not with them that are given to change:

22 For their calamity shall rise suddenly; and who knoweth the ruin of them both?

23 These things also belong to the wise. It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment.

24 He that saith unto the wicked,

Thou art righteous; him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him.

25 But to them that rebuke him shall be delight, and a good blessing shall come upon them.

26 Every man shall kiss his lips that giveth a right answer.

27 Prepare thy work without and make it fit for thyself in the field, and afterwards build thine house.

28 Be not a witness against thy neighbour without cause, and deceive not with thy lips.

29 Say not, I will do so to him as he hath done to me: I will render to the man according to his work.

30 I went by the field of the slothful, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding;

31 And, lo, it was all grown over with thorns, and nettles had covered the face thereof, and the stony wall thereof was broken down.

32 Then I saw, and considered it well: I looked upon it, and received instruction.

33 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

34 So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth; and thy want as an armed man.

THESE are also proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out.

2 It is the glory of God to conceal a thing: but the honour of kings is to search out a matter.

3 The heaven for height, and the earth for depth, and the heart of kings is unsearchable.

4 Take away the dross from the silver, and there shall come forth a vessel for the finer.

5 Take away the wicked from before the king, and his throne shall be established in righteousness.

6 Put not forth thyself in the presence of the king, and stand not in the place of great men.

7 For better it is that it be said unto thee, Come up hither; than that thou shouldst be put lower in the presence of the prince whom thine eye have seen.

8 Go not forth hastily to strive, lest thou know not what to do in the end thereof, when thy neighbour hath put thee to shame.

9 Debate thy cause with thy neighbour himself, and discover not a secret to another:

to shame, and thine infamy turn not away;

11 A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver.

12 As an earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise reproof upon an obedient ear.

13 As the cold of snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to them that send him: for he refresheth the soul of his masters.

14 Whoso boasteth himself of a false gift is like clouds and wind without rain.

15 By long forbearing is a prince persuaded, and a soft tongue breaketh the bone.

16 Hast thou found honey? eat so much as is sufficient for thee, lest thou be filled therewith, and vomit it.

17 Withdraw thy foot from thy neighbour's house; lest he be weary of thee, and so hate thee.

18 A man that beareth false witness against his neighbour is a maul, and a sword, and a sharp arrow.

19 Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint.

20 As he that taketh away a garment in cold weather, and as vinegar upon nitre, so is he that singeth songs to an heavy heart.

21 If thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink:

22 For thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head, and the Lord shall reward thee.

23 The north wind driveth away rain: so doth an angry countenance a backbiting tongue.

24 It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop, than with a brawling woman and in a wide house.

25 As cold waters to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country.

26 A righteous man falling down before the wicked is as a troubled fountain, and a corrupt spring.

27 It is not good to eat much honey: so for men to search their own glory is not glory.

28 He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.

2 As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by flying, so the curse causeless shall not come.

3 ^a A whip for the horse, a bridle for the ass, and a rod for the fool's back.

4 Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him.

5 ^a Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in ¹ his own conceit.

6 He that sendeth a message by the hand of a fool cutteth off the feet, and drinketh ^a damage.

7 The legs of the lame ^a are not equal, so ^{is} a parable in the mouth of fools.

8 ^a As he that bindeth a stone in a sling, so ^{is} he that giveth honour to a fool.

9 As a thorn goeth up into the hand of a drunkard, so ^{is} a parable in the mouth of fools.

10 ^a The great ^a God that formed all things both rewardeth the fool, and rewardeth transgressors.

11 ^a As a dog returneth to his vomit, so a fool ¹ returneth to his folly.

12 ^a Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? ^{there is} more hope of a fool than of him.

13 The slothful ^a man saith, There is a lion in the way; a lion is in the streets.

14 ^a As the door turneth upon his hinges, so ^{doth} the slothful upon his bed.

15 The slothful hideth his hand in his bosom; ^a he grieveth him to bring it again to his mouth.

16 The sluggard ^{is} wiser in his own conceit than seven men that can render a reason.

17 He that passeth by, and ^a meddleth with strife ^{belonging} not to him, ^{is} like one that taketh a dog by the ears.

18 As a mad man who casteth ⁷ firebrands, arrows, and death, 19 So ^{is} the man that deceiveth his neighbour, and saith, ^a Am not I in sport?

20 ^a Where no wood is, ^{there} the fire goeth out: so where ^{there is} no ^a talebearer, the strife ¹ ceaseth.

21 ^a As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire; so ^{is} a contentious man to kindle strife.

22 The words of a talebearer ^{are} as wounds, and they go down into the ² innermost parts of the belly.

23 Burning lips and a wicked heart ^{are} like a potsherd covered with silver dross.

24 He that hateth ^a dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him;

25 ^a When he ^a speaketh fair, believe him not; for ^{there are} seven abominations in his heart.

26 Whose ^a hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness shall be shewed before the whole congregation.

CHAPTER 27.

1 Observations of wisdom, 5 of true love, 11 of care to avoid offences, 23 and of the household care

BOAST not thyself of ² to-morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.

2 Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; a stranger, and not thine own lips.

3 A stone ^{is} ^a heavy, and the sand weighty; but a fool's wrath ^{is} heavier than them both.

4 ⁷ Wrath ^{is} cruel, and anger ^{is} outrageous; but who ^{is} able to stand before ¹ envy?

5 Open rebuke ^{is} better than secret love.

6 Faithful ^{are} the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an enemy ^{are} ² deceitful.

7 The full soul ³ loatheth an honey-comb; but to the hungry soul every bitter thing ^{is} sweet.

8 As a bird that wandereth from her nest, so ^{is} a man that wandereth from his place.

9 Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart: so ^{doth} the sweetness of a man's friend ⁵ by hearty counsel.

10 Thine own friend, and thy father's friend, forsake not; neither go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity: ^{for} better ^{is} a neighbour that ^{is} near than a brother far off.

11 My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, ⁹ that I may answer him that reproacheth me.

12 A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself; but the simple pass on, and ^{are} punished.

13 Take his garment that is surety for a stranger, and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

14 He that blesseth his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it shall be counted a curse to him.

15 A continual dropping in a very rainy day and a contentious woman ^{are} alike.

16 Whosoever hideth her hideth the wind, and the ointment of his right hand, ^{which} bewrayeth ^{itself}.

17 Iron sharpeneth iron; so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend.

18 ^a Whoso keepeth the fig tree shall eat the fruit thereof: so he that waiteth on his master shall be honoured.

19 As in water face answereth to face, so the heart of man to man.

20 ^a Hell and destruction are ⁱ never full; so ^e the eyes of man are never satisfied.

21 ^a As the fining pot for silver, and the furnace for gold; so ^{is} a man to his praise.

22 ^a Though thou shouldest bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, yet will not his foolishness depart from him.

23 Be thou diligent to know the state of thy flock, and ⁱ look well to thy herds.

24 For ^a riches are not for ever, and doth the crown endure ^a to every generation?

25 ^a The hay appeareth, and the tender grass sheweth itself, and herbs of the mountains are gathered.

26 The lambs are for thy clothing, and the goats are the price of the field.

27 And thou shalt have goats' milk enough for thy food, and for the ^a maintenance for thy maidens.

CHAPTER 28

General observations of impiety and religious integrity

The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.

2 For the transgression of a land many are the princes thereof: but ^a by a man of understanding and knowledge the state thereof shall be prolonged.

3 ^a A poor man that oppresseth the poor is like a sweeping rain ⁱ which leaveth no food.

4 ^a They that forsake the law praise the wicked, ^a but such as keep the law contend with them.

5 ^a Evil men understand not judgment: but ^a they that seek the LORD understand all things.

6 ^a Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than he that is perverse in his ways, though he be rich.

7 ^a Whoso keepeth the law is a wise son: but he that ^a is a companion of riotous men shameth his father.

8 ^a He that by usury and unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor.

9 ^a He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, ^a even his prayer shall be abomination.

10 ^a Whoso causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own pit: ^a but the upright shall have good things in possession.

11 The rich man is wise ^a in his own conceit; but the poor that hath understanding searcheth him out.

12 ^a When righteous men do rejoice, there is great glory: but when the wicked rise, a man is ^a hidden.

13 ^a He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whose confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

14 Happy is the man ^a that feareth alway: ^a but he that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief.

15 ^a As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear; ^a so is a wicked ruler over the poor people.

16 The prince that wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor: but he that hateth covetousness shall prolong his days.

17 ^a A man that doeth violence to the blood of any person shall flee to the pit; let no man stay him.

18 ^a Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved: but ^a he that is perverse in his ways shall fall at once.

19 ^a He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread: but he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough.

20 A faithful man shall abound with blessings: ^a but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be ^a innocent.

21 ^a To have respect of persons is not good: for ^a for a piece of bread that man will transgress.

22 ^a He that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye, and considereth not that poverty shall come upon him.

23 ^a Ho that rebuketh a man after wards shall find more favour than he that flattereth with the tongue.

24 Whoso robbeth his father or his mother, and saith, It is no transgression: the same ^a is the companion of a destroyer.

25 ^a He that is of a proud heart stirreth up strife: ^a but he that putteth his trust in the LORD shall be made fat.

26 He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whose walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.

27 ^a He that giveth unto the poor shall not lack: but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.

28 ^a When the wicked rise, ^a men hide themselves: but when they perish, the righteous increase.

CHAPTER 29.

1 Observations of public government, 15 and of private, 22 of an angry pride &c.

HE that being often reproved hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

2 ^a When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn.

3 ^aWhoso loveth wisdom rejoiceth his father ^bbut he that keepeth company with harlots spendeth his substance.

4 The king by judgment establisheth the land ^bbut ^ahe that receiveth gifts overthroweth it.

5 A man that flattereth his neighbour spreadeth a net for his feet.

6 In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare: but the righteous doth sing and rejoice.

7 ^aThe righteous considereth the cause of the poor: but the wicked regardeth not to know it.

8 ^aScornful men ^bbring a city into a snare, but wise men ^cturn away wrath.

9 If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, ^awhether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.

10 ^aThe bloodthirsty hate the upright: but the just seek his soul.

11 A fool uttereth all his mind: but a wise man keepeth it in till afterwards.

12 If a ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked.

13 The poor and ^athe deceitful man meet together: ^bthe LORD lighteneth both their eyes.

14 ^aThe king that faithfully judgeth the poor, his throne shall be established for ever.

15 The rod and reproof give wisdom: but ^aan child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame.

16 When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increaseth: but the righteous shall see their fall.

17 ^aCorrect thy son, and he shall give thee rest: yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.

18 ^aWhere there is no vision, the people ^bperish: but ^che that keepeth the law, happy is he.

19 A servant will not be corrected by words: for though he understand he will not answer.

20 Seest thou a man that is hasty ^ain his words? ^bthere is more hope of a fool than of him.

21 He that delicately bringeth up his servant from a child shall have him become his son at the length.

22 ^aAn angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

23 ^aA man's pride shall bring him low: but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit.

24 Whoso is partner with a thief hateth his own soul: ^ahe heareth cursing, and bewrayeth it not.

CHAPTER 30.

1 Agur's confession of his faith. 7 The two points of his prayer. 10 The meanness are not to be wronged. 11 Four wicked generations. 16 Four things unsearchable. 17 Parents are not to be despised. 18 Four things hard to be known. 21 In tolerable. 24 According to wise. 28 Stately. 32 Truth is to be prevented.

THE words of Agur the son of Jakeb, even the prophecy. the man spake unto Ithiel, even unto Ithiel and Ucal,

2 ^aSurely I am more brutish than any man, and have not the understanding of a man,

3 I neither learned wisdom, nor have the knowledge of the holy.

4 ^aWho hath ascended up into heaven, or descended? ^bwho hath gathered the wind in his fists? ^cwho hath bound the waters in a garment?
who hath established all the ends of the earth? what is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell?

5 ^aEvery word of God is ^bpure:
he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

6 ^aAdd thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

7 Two things have I required of thee: ^adeny me them not before I die.

8 Remove far from me vanity and lies: give me neither poverty nor riches, ^afeed me with food ^bcon-venient for me.

9 ^aLest I be full, and ^bdeny thee, and say, Who is the LORD? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain.

10 ^aAccuse not a servant unto his master, lest he curse thee, and thou be found guilty.

11 There is a generation that curseth their father, and doth not bless their mother.

12 There is a generation that arc pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthiness.

13 There is a generation, O how lofty are their eyes! and their eyelids are lifted up.

14 There is a generation, whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives, ^ato devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men.

15 The horseleach hath two daughters, crying, Give, give. There are three things that are never satisfied, yea, four things say not, ¹It is enough: 16 ^aThe grave; and the barren womb; the earth that is not filled with water; and the fire that saith not, ¹It is enough.

17 ^aThe eye that mocketh at his father, and despiseth to obey his mother, the ravens of ²the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it.

18 There be three things which are too wonderful for me, yea, four which I know not:

19 The way of an eagle in the air; the way of a serpent upon a rock; the way of a ship in the midst of the sea; and the way of a man with a maid.

20 Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness.

21 For three things the earth is disquieted, and for four which it cannot bear:

22 ^aFor a servant when he reigneth; and a fool when he is filled with meat;

23 For an odious woman when she is married; and an handmaid that is her to her mistress.

24 There be four things which are little upon the earth, but they are exceeding wise:

25 ^aThe ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their meat in the summer;

26 ^aThe conies are but a feeble folk, yet make they their houses in the rocks;

27 The locusts have no king, yet go they forth all of them by bands;

28 The spider taketh hold with her hands, and is in kings' palaces.

29 There be three things which go well, yea, four are comely in going:

30 A lion which is strongest among beasts, and turneth not away for any;

31 A ^agreyhound; an he goat also; and a king, against whom there is no rising up

32 If thou hast done foolishly in lifting up thyself, or if thou hast thought evil, ^alay thine hand upon thy mouth.

33 Surely the churning of milk bringeth forth butter, and the wringing of the nose bringeth forth blood: so the forcing of wrath bringeth forth strife.

3 "Give not thy strength unto women, nor thy ways to that which destroyeth kings.

4 "It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine; nor for princes strong drink:

5 "Lest they drink, and forget the law, and "pervert the judgment of any of the afflicted.

6 "Give strong drink unto him that is ready to perish, and wine unto those that be of heavy hearts.

7 Let him drink, and forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more.

8 "Open thy mouth for the dumb "in the cause of all "such as are appointed to destruction.

CHAPTER 1.

1 All human courses are vain. 4 Because the creatures are restless in their course, 9 they bring forth nothing new, and all old things are forgotten. 12 He hath found it so in the study of wisdom.

THE words ^of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

2 ^cVanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity of vanities; ^aall is vanity.

3 ^jWhat profit hath a man of all his labour which he taketh under the sun?

4 ^oOne generation passeth away, and another generation cometh: ^obut the earth abideth for ever.

5 ^oThe sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and ^ohasteth to his place where he ariseth.

6 ^oThe wind goeth toward the south, and turneth about unto the north; it whirleth about continually, and the wind returneth again according to his circuits.

7 ^mAll the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full; unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they ^oreturn again.

8 All things are full of labour; man cannot utter it: ^othe eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

9 ^oThe thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun.

10 Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been already of old time, which was before us.

11 There is no remembrance of former things; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come with those that shall come after.

13 And I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done under heaven: ^athis sore travail hath God given to the sons of man ¹to be exercised therewith.

14 I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

15 ^oThat which is crooked cannot be made straight; and ^othat which is wanting cannot be numbered.

16 I communed with mine own heart, saying, Lo, I am come to great estate, and have gotten ^omore wisdom than all they that have been before me in Jerusalem: yea, my heart ^ohad great experience of wisdom and knowledge.

17 And I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly: I perceived that this also is vexation of spirit.

18 For ^oin much wisdom is much grief: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.

CHAPTER 2.

1 The vanity of human courses in the works of pleasure 12 Though the wise be better than the fool, yet both have one event 18 The vanity of human labour 21 Nothing better than joy in our labour.

I SAID in mine heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth, therefore enjoy pleasure: and, behold, ^othis also is vanity.

2 ^oI said of laughter, It is mad: and of mirth, What doeth it?

3 ^oI sought in mine heart ^oto give myself unto wine, yet acquainting mine heart with wisdom; and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven ^oall the days of their life.

4 I made me great works; I builded me houses; I planted me vineyards;

5 I made me gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kind of fruits:

6 I made me pools of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees:

7 I got me servants and maidens, and had ^{servants} born in my house; also I had great possessions of great and small cattle above all that were in Jerusalem before me:

8 I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces: I gat me men singers, and women singers, and the delights of the sons of men, as ^{musical} instruments, and that of all sorts.

9 So I was great, and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem: also my wisdom remained with me.

10 And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labour: and ^{this} was my portion of all my labour.

11 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do, and, behold, all was ^{vanity} and vexation of spirit, and ^{there was} no profit under the sun.

12 ¶ And I turned myself to behold wisdom, ^{and} madness, and folly: for what can the man do that cometh after the king? ^{even} that which hath been already done.

13 Then I saw ^{that} wisdom excelleth folly, as far as light excelleth darkness.

14 ^{The} wise man's eyes ^{are} in his head; but the fool walketh in darkness: and I myself perceived also that ^{one} event happeneth to them all.

15 Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so it ^{happeneth} even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity.

16 For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how dieth the wise man? as the fool.

17 Therefore I hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

18 ¶ Yea, I hated all my labour which I had ^{taken} under the sun: because I should leave it unto the man that shall be after me.

19 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have shewed myself wise under the sun. This is also vanity.

20 Therefore I went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labour which I took under the sun.

21 For there is a man whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he ^{leave} it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil.

22 ¶ For what hath man of all his labour, and of the vexation of his heart, wherein he hath laboured under the sun?

23 For all his days are ^{sorrows}, and his travail grief; yea, his heart hath rest not in the night. This is also vanity.

24 ¶ ^{There is} nothing better for a man, ^{than} that he should eat and drink, and ^{that} he should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God.

25 For who can eat, or who else can hasten ^{hereunto}, more than I?

26 For God giveth to a man that is good ⁱⁿ his sight wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he giveth travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him that is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAPTER 3.

1 By the necessary change of times, vanity is added to human travail. 11 There is an excellency in God's works 18 But as for man, God shall judge his works there, and here he shall be like a beast

TO every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

2 A time ^{to} be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up ^{that which is} planted;

3 A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

4 A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

5 A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time ^{to} refrain from embracing;

6 A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

7 A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

8 A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

9 ^aWhat profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth?

10 ^bI have seen the travail, which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in it.

11 He hath made every thing beautiful in his time; also he hath set the world in their heart, so that ^cno man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.

12 ^dI know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life.

13 And also ^ethat every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God.

14 I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: ^fnothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God doeth it, that men should fear before him.

15 ^gThat which hath been is now; and that which is to be hath already been; and God requireth ^hthat which is past.

16 ⁱ¶ And moreover ^jI saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there.

17 I said in mine heart, ^kGod shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is ^la time there for every purpose and for every work.

18 I said in mine heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, ^mthat God might manifest them, and that they might see that they themselves are beasts.

19 ⁿFor that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one breath; so that a man hath no preeminence above a beast: for all ^ois vanity.

20 All go unto one place; ^pall are of the dust, and all turn to dust again.

21 ^qWho knoweth the spirit ^rof man that goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth?

22 ^sWherefore I perceive that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for ^tthat is his portion: ^ufor who shall bring him to see what shall be after him?

CHAPTER 4.

1 ^vVanity is increased unto men by oppression, 4 by envy, 5 by idleness, 7 by covetousness, 9 by solitariness, 13 by usefulness comforter; and on the ¹side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter.

2 ²Wherefore I praised the dead which are already dead more than the living which are yet alive.

3 ³Yea, better ⁴is he than both they, which hath not yet been, who hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

4 ⁴¶ Again, I considered all travail, and ⁵every right work, that ⁶for this a man is envied of his neighbour. This is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

5 ⁵The fool foldeth his hands together, and eateth his own flesh.

6 ⁶Better ⁷is a handful with quietness, than both the hands full with travail and vexation of spirit.

7 ⁷¶ Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun.

8 There is one alone, and there is not a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet ⁸there no end of all his labour; neither is his ⁹eye satisfied with riches; ¹⁰neither saith he, For whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good? This is also vanity, yea, it is a sore travail.

9 ⁹¶ Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour.

10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up.

11 Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone?

12 And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a three-fold cord is not quickly broken.

13 ¹³¶ Better is a poor and a wise child than an old and foolish king, ¹⁴who will no more be admonished.

14 For out of prison he cometh to reign; whereas also he that is born in his kingdom becometh poor.

15 I considered all the living which walk under the sun, with the second child that shall stand up in his stead.

16 There is no end of all the people, even of all that have been before them: they also that come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAPTER 5.

1 ¹Vanities in divine reward, 8 in murmuring against oppression, 9 and in riches 18 Joy in riches is the gift of God

²KEEP ³thy foot when thou goest to the house of God, and be more ready to hear, ⁴than to give the sacrifice of fools; for they consider not that they do evil.

2 Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: there fore let thy words be few.

3 For a dream cometh through the multitude of business, and "a fool's voice is known by multitude of words." 4 "When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed.

5 "Better is it that thou shouldst not vow, than that thou shouldst vow and not pay.

6 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; neither say thou before the angel, that it was an error: where fore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands."

7 For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also divers vanities: but fear thou God.

8 "If thou seekest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they.

9 "Moreover the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field.

10 He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase: this is also vanity.

11 When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what good is there to the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes?

12 The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

13 "There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt.

14 But those riches perish by evil travail: and he begetteth a son, and there is nothing in his hand.

15 "As he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take nothing of his labour, which he may carry away in his hand.

16 And this also is a sore evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and what profit hath he that hath laboured for the wind?

17 All his days also he eateth in darkness, and he hath much sorrow and wrath with his sickness.

18 "Behold that which I have seen: it is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour that he taketh under the sun: all the days of his life, which God giveth him: "for it is his portion.

CHAPTER 6.

1 The vanity of riches without use. 3 Of children born out of wedlock without father. 9 The vanity of sight and of our vain desires. 11 The counsel of an evil man.

THERE is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men.

2 A man to whom God hath given riches, wealth, and honour, so that he wanteth nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, yet God giveth him not power to eat thereof, but a stranger eateth it: this is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

3 "If a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, and his soul be not filled with good, and also that he have no burial; I say, that an untimely birth is better than he.

4 For he cometh in with vanity, and departeth in darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness.

5 Moreover he hath not seen the sun, nor known any thing: this hath more rest than the other.

6 "Yea, though he live a thousand years twice told, yet hath he seen no good: do not all go to one place?

7 "All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet he appetite is not filled.

8 For what hath the wise more than the fool? what hath the poor, that knoweth to walk before the living?

9 "Better is the sight of the eyes, than the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

10 That which hath been is named already, and it is known that it is man: neither may he contend with him that is mightier than he.

11 "Seeing there he many things that increase vanity, what is man the better?

12 For who knoweth what is good for man in this life, all the days of his vain life which he spendeth as "a shadow" for "who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?"

CHAPTER 7.

1 Remedies against vanity are, a good name, 2 mortification, 7 patience, 11 wisdom. 24 The difficulty of wisdom.

A GOOD name is better than precious ointment; and the day of death than the day of one's birth.

2 ¶ It is better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting; for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart.

3 Sorrow is better than laughter: for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better.

4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

5 ¶ It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools.

6 For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool: this also is vanity.

7 ¶ Surely oppression maketh a wise man mad; and a gift destroyeth the heart.

8 Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof; and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

9 Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger reareth in the bosom of fools.

10 Say not thou, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not enquire wisely concerning this.

11 ¶ Wisdom is good with an inheritance: and by it there is profit to them that see the sun.

12 For wisdom is a defence, and money is a defence; but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it.

13 Consider the work of God: for who can make that straight, which he hath made crooked?

14 In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: God also hath set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him.

15 All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: there is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that longeth his life in his wickedness.

16 Be not righteous over much; neither make thyself overwise: why shouldest thou destroy thyself?

17 Be not over much wicked, neither be thou foolish: why shouldest thou die before thy time?

18 It is good that thou shouldst take hold of this; yea, also from this 20 ¶ For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not.

21 Also take no heed unto all words that are spoken; lest thou hear thy servant curse thee:

22 For oftentimes also thine own heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed others.

23 ¶ All this have I proved by wisdom: I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me.

24 That which is far off, and exceeding deep, who can find it out?

25 ¶ I applied mine heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness:

26 And I find more bitter than death the woman, whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: whose pleaseth God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her.

27 Behold, this have I found, saith the preacher, reckoning one by one, to find out the account:

28 Which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not: one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman among all those have I not found.

29 Lo, this only have I found, that God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Kings are greatly to be respected. 8 The divine providence is to be observed. 12 It is better with the godly in adversity, than with the wicked in prosperity. 16 The work of God is unsearchable.

WHO is as the wise man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? A man's wisdom maketh his face to shine, and the boldness of his face shall be changed.

2 I counsel thee to keep the king's commandment, and that in regard of the oath of God.

3 Be not hasty to go out of his sight: stand not in an evil thing; for he doeth whatsoever pleaseth him.

4 Where the word of a king is, there is power; and who may say unto him, What doest thou?

5 Whoso keepeth the commandment shall feel no evil thing: and a wise man's heart discerneth both time and judgment.

6 ¶ Because to every purpose there is time and judgment, therefore the misery of man is great upon him.

7 For he knoweth not that which shall be: for who can tell him when it shall be?

8 There is no man that hath power over the spirit to retain the spirit; neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no discharge in that war; neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it.

9 All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: there is a time wherein one man ruleth over another to his own hurt.

10 And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city where they had so done: this is also vanity.

11 Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

12 Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him:

13 But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

14 There is a vanity which is done upon the earth; that there be just men, unto whom it happeneth according to the work of the wicked; again, there be wicked men, to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous: I said that this also is vanity.

15 Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry: for that shall abide with him of his labour the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun.

16 When I applied mine heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done upon the earth: (for also there is that neither day nor night seeth sleep with his eyes.)

17 Then I beheld all the work of God, that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yea farther; though a wise man think to know it, yet shall he not be able to find it.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Like things happen to good and bad. 4 There is a necessity of death unto men. 7 Comfort is all their portion in this life. 11 God's providence ruleth over all. 15 Wisdom is better than strength.

1Thes 5 3

FOR all this I considered in my heart even to declare all this, that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them.

2 All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath.

3 This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all: yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

4 For to him that is joined to all the living there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

5 For the living know that they shall die: but the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten:

6 Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun.

7 Go thy way, eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for God now accepteth thy works.

8 Let thy garments be always white, and let thy head lack no ornament.

9 Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: for that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou takest under the sun.

10 Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest.

11 I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all.

12 For man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the herds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.

13 This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and it seemed great unto me:

14 ^{There was} a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it:

15 Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.

16 ^{Then said I}, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

17 The words of wise men are heard in quiet more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.

18 ^{Wisdom is better than weapons of war}: but ^{one sinner destroyeth} much good.

CHAPTER 10.

1 Observations of wisdom and folly 16 of riot, 18 slothfulness, 19 and money 20 Men's thoughts of kings ought to be reverent

DEAD ^{flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking savour}: so doth a little folly him that is in reputation for wisdom and honour.

2 A wise man's heart is at his right hand; but a fool's heart at his left.

3 Yea also, when he that is a fool walketh by the way, ^{his wisdom faileth him}, and he saith to every one that he is a fool.

4 If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, leave not thy place; for yielding pacifieth great offences.

5 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an error which proceedeth ^{from the ruler}:

6 ^{Folly is set} in great dignity, and the rich sit in low place.

7 I have seen servants upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth.

8 ^{He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it}; and whose breaketh an hedge, a serpent shall bite him.

9 Whoso removeth stones shall be hurt therewith; and he that cleaveth wood shall be endangered thereby.

10 If the iron be blunt, and he do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but wisdom is profitable to direct.

11 Surely the serpent will bite ^{without enchantment}; and ^{a babbler is} no better.

12 ^{The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious}; but ^{the lips of a fool will swallow up himself}.

13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness: and the end of his talk is mischievous madness.

1 Directions for charity. 7 Death in life, 9 and the day of judgment in the days of youth, are to be thought on CAST thy bread ^{upon the waters}: for thou shalt find it after many days.

2 ^{Give a portion to seven, and also to eight}; for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth.

3 If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if the tree fall toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be.

4 He that observeth the wind shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap.

5 As thou knowest not what is the way of the spirit, ^{nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child}: even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all.

6 In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand: for thou knowest not whether thou shalt prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good.

7 ^{Truly the light is sweet}, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun:

8 But if a man live many years, and rejoice in them all; yet let him remember the days of darkness; for they shall be many. All that cometh is vanity.

9 ^{Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth}; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment.

10 Therefore remove sorrow from thy heart, and put away evil from thy flesh: for childhood and youth are vanity.

CHAPTER 12.

1 The Creator is to be remembered in his time.
The preacher's care to edify. 1d The fear of God is the chief antidote of vanity.

REMEMBER now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them;

2 While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain:

3 In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened,

4 And the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of musick shall be brought low;

5 Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail: because

8 ¶ Vanity of vanities, saith the preacher; all is vanity.

9 And moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs.

10 The preacher sought to find out acceptable words: and that which was written was upright, even words of truth.

11 The words of the wise are as goads, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.

12 And further, by these, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

13 ¶ Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

14 For God shall bring every work unto judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

10 My beloved spake, and said unto me, Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away.

11 For, lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone;

12 The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land;

6 The church glorified in Christ

BY night on my bed I sought him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

2 I will rise now, and go about the city in the streets, and in the broad ways I will seek him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

3 The watchmen that go about the city found me: to whom I said, Saw ye him whom my soul loveth?

4 It was but a little that I passed from them, but I found him whom my soul loveth: I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.

5 I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roses, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.

6 ¶ Who is this that cometh out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant?

7 Behold his bed, which is Solomon's; threescore valiant men are about it, of the valiant of Israel.

8 They all hold swords, being expert in war: every man hath his sword upon his thigh because of fear in the night.

9 King Solomon made himself a chariot of the wood of Lebanon.

10 He made the pillars thereof of silver, the bottom thereof of gold, the covering of it of purple, the midst thereof being paved with love, for the daughters of Jerusalem.

11 Go forth, O ye daughters of Zion, and behold king Solomon with the crown wherewith his mother crowned him in the day of his espousals, and in the day of the gladness of his heart.

CHAPTER 5

¹Christ awaketh the ch. rch. with his calling ²The church having a taste of Christ's love is sick of love. ³A description of Christ by his graces

I AM come into my garden, my sister, my spouse I have gathered my myrrh with my spice, I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey, I have drunk my wine with my milk eat, O friends; drink, yea, drink abundantly, O beloved

²I sleep, but my heart waketh it is the voice of my beloved ¹that knocketh, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night

³I have put off my coat, how shall I put it on? I have washed my feet, how shall I defile them?

⁴My beloved put in his hand by the hole of the door, and my bowels were moved ¹for him

⁵I rose up to open to my beloved, and my hands dropped with myrrh and my fingers with sweet smelling myrrh, upon the handles of the lock

⁶I opened to my beloved, but my beloved had withdrawn himself, and was gone my soul failed when he spake ²I sought him, but I could not find him, I called him, but he gave me no answer

⁷The watchmen that went about the city found me, they smote me they wounded me, the keepers of the walls took away my veil from me

⁸I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if ye find my beloved, ¹that ye tell him, that I am sick of love

⁹What is thy beloved more than another beloved, O thou fairest among women? what is thy beloved more than another beloved, that thou dost so charge us?

¹⁰My beloved is white and ruddy, ¹the chiefest among ten thousand

¹¹His head is as the most fine gold his locks are ¹bushy, and black as a raven

¹²His eyes are as the eyes of doves by the rivers of waters washed with milk and ¹flitly set

¹³His cheeks are as a bed of spices, as ¹sweet flowers his lips like lilies, dropping sweet smelling myrrh

¹⁴His hands are as gold rings set with the beryl his belly is as bright ivory overlaid with sapphires

¹⁵His legs are as pillars of marble set upon sockets of fine gold his countenance is as Lebanon excellent as the cedars

¹⁶His mouth is most sweet yea, he is altogether lovely This is my beloved, and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 6.

1 The church professeth her faith in Christ. 4 Christ sheweth the graces of the church, 10 and his love towards her.

WHITHER is thy beloved gone, O thou fairest among women? whither is thy beloved turned aside? that we may seek him with thee.

2 My beloved is gone down into his garden, to the beds of spices, to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

3 I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine: he feedeth among the lilies.

4 Thou art beautiful, O my love, as Tirzah, comely as Jerusalem, terrible as an army with banners.

5 Turn away thine eyes from me, for they have overcome me: thy hair is as a flock of goats that appear from Gilad.

6 Thy teeth are as a flock of sheep which go up from the washing, whereof every one beareth twins, and there is not one barren among them.

7 As a piece of a pomegranate are thy temples within thy locks.

8 There are threescore queens, and fourscore concubines, and virgins without number.

9 My dove, my undefiled is but one; she is the only one of her mother, she is the choice one of her that bare her. The daughters saw her, and blessed her; yea, the queens and the concubines, and they praised her.

10 Who is she that looketh forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners?

11 I went down into the garden of nuts to see the fruits of the valley, and to see whether the vine flourished, and the pomegranates budded.

12 Or over I was aware, my soul made me like the chariots of Amminadib.

13 Return, return, O Shulamite; return, return, that we may look upon thee. What wilt ye see in the Shulamite? As it were the company of two armies.

CHAPTER 7.

1 A further description of the church's graces. 10 The church professeth her faith and desire.

HOW beautiful are thy feet with shoes, O prince's daughter! the joints of thy thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a cunning workman.

2 Thy navel is like a round goblet, which wanteth not liquor: thy belly is like an heap of wheat set about with lilies.

3 Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins.

4 Thy neck is as a tower of ivory; thine eyes like the fishpools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bath-rabbun; thy nose is as the tower of Lebanon which looketh toward Damascus.

5 Thine head upon thee is like Carmel, and the hair of thine head like purple; the king is held in the galleries.

6 How fair and how pleasant art thou, O love, for delights!

7 This thy stature is like to a palm tree, and thy breasts to clusters of grapes.

8 I said, I will go up to the palm tree, I will take hold of the boughs thereof: now also thy breasts shall be as clusters of the vine, and the smell of thy nose like apples;

9 And the roof of thy mouth like the best wine for my beloved, that goeth down sweetly, causing the lips of those that are asleep to speak.

10 I am my beloved's, and his desire is toward me.

11 Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field; let us lodge in the villages.

12 Let us get up early to the vineyards; let us see if the vine flourish, whether the tender grape appear, and the pomegranates bud forth: there will I give thee my loves.

13 The mandrakes give a smell, and at our gates are all manner of pleasant fruits, new and old, which I have laid up for thee, O my beloved.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Love of the church to Christ. 8 Calling of the Gentiles.

14 The church prayeth for Christ's coming.

OTHAT thou wert as my brother, that sucked the breasts of my mother! when I should find thee without, I would kiss thee; yea, I should not be despised.

2 I would lead thee, and bring thee into my mother's house, who would instruct me: I would cause thee to drink of spiced wine of the juice of my pomegranate.

3 His left hand should be under my head, and his right hand should embrace me.

4 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, until he please.

5 Who is this that cometh up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved? I raised thee up under the apple tree: there thy mother brought thee forth: there she brought thee forth that bare thee.

6 Set me as a seal upon thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm: for love is strong as death; jealousy is ¹cruel as the grave, the coals thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vehement flame.

⁷ Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it: ⁸ if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would utterly be contemned.

⁸ ¶ ⁹ We have a little sister, and she hath no breasts: what shall we do for our sister in the day when she shall be spoken for?

⁹ If she be a wall, we will build upon her a palace of silver: and if she be a door, we will inclose her with boards of cedar.

PROPHET ISAIAH.

CHAPTER 1.

¹ Isaiah complaineth of Judah for her rebellion. ⁵ He lamenteth her judgments. ¹⁰ He upbraiddeth their whole service. ¹⁶ He exhorteth to repentance. ²¹ He denounceth God's judgments. ²⁵ He promiseth grace, and threatneth destruction to the wicked.

THE vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

² Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth: for the LORD hath spoken, I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me.

³ The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider.

⁷ ¶ ⁸ Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will ⁹revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

¹⁰ From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it: but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: ¹¹ they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment.

⁸ And the daughter of Zion is left ⁹as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, ¹⁰as a besieged city.

⁹ Except the LORD of hosts had left untousa very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah.

¹⁰ ¶ Hear the word of the LORD, ye rulers of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah.

¹² When ye come ¹³to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts?

¹³ Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me: the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; ¹⁴it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting.

¹⁴ Your ¹⁵new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; ¹⁶I am weary to bear them.

¹⁵ And ¹⁶when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: ¹⁷yea, when ye ¹⁸make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of ¹⁹blood.

¹⁶ ¶ ¹⁷Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; ¹⁸cease to do evil;

¹⁹ Learn to do well; seek judgment,

²relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.

18 Come now, and ⁴let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, ⁵they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

19 If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land:

20 But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: ¹for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

21 ¶ ¹How is the faithful city become an harlot! it was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers.

22 ²The silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with water:

23 ³Thy princes are rebellious, and ⁴companions of thieves: ⁵every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: ⁶they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

24 Therefore saith the LORD, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Ah, ¹I will ease me of mine adversaries, and ²avenge me of mine enemies:

25 ¶ And I will turn my hand upon thee, and ³purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin;

26 And I will restore thy judges ¹as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward ²thou shalt be called. The city of righteousness, the faithful city.

27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and ³her converts with righteousness.

28 ¶ And the ¹'destruction' of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

29 For they shall be ashamed of ¹'the oaks which ye have desired,' and ye shall be confounded for the gardens that ye have chosen.

30 For ye shall be as an oak whose leaf fadeth, and as a garden that hath no water.

31 ¹'And the strong shall be as tow, and the maker of it as a spark, and they shall both burn together, and none shall quench them.'

be exalted above the hills; ²'and all nations shall flow unto it.

3 And many people shall go and say, ⁴'Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: ⁵'for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

4 And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: ⁵'and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: ⁶'nation shall not lift up sword against nation, ⁷'neither shall they learn war any more.

5 O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us ¹'walk in the light of the LORD.

6 ¶ Therefore thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Jacob, because they be replenished ¹'from the east, and ²'are soothsayers like the Philistines, ³'and they ⁴'please themselves in the children of strangeis.

7 ¹'Their land also is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures; ²'their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots:

8 ¹'Their land also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made:

9 And the mean man boweth down, and the great man humbleth himself: therefore forgive them not.

10 ¶ ¹'Enter into the rock, and hide thee in the dust, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty.

11 The ¹'lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and the LORD alone shall be exalted ²'in that day.

12 For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up; and he shall be brought low:

13 And upon all ¹'the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bashan,

14 And ¹'upon all the high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up,

15 And upon every high tower, and upon every fenced wall, 16 ¹'And upon all the ships of Tarshish, and upon all pleasant pictures.

17 ¹'And the loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be made low; and the LORD alone shall be exalted ²'in that day.

18 And ¹'the idols he shall utterly abolish.

19 And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth, ²for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.

²⁰ In that day a man shall cast ²¹his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, ²²which they made each one for him self to worship, to the moles and to the bats;

²¹ To go into the clefts of the rocks, and into the tops of the ragged rocks, ²²for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.

²² Cease, ye from man, whose ²³breath is in his nostrils; for wherein is he to be accounted of?

CHAPTER 3.

¹ The great confusion which cometh by sin. ² The impudency of the people. ³ The oppression and covetousness of the rulers. ⁴ The judgments which shall be for the pride of the women.

FOR, behold, the LORD, the LORD of hosts, doth take away from Jerusalem and from Judah ²the stay and the staff, the whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water, ² The mighty man, and the man of war, the judge, and the prophet, and the prudent, and the ancient.

³ The captain of fifty, and ⁴the honourable man, and the counsellor, and the cunning artificer, and the ⁵eloquent orator.

⁴ And I will give ⁵children to be their princes, and babes shall rule over them.

⁵ And the people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbour: the child shall behave himself proudly against the ancient, and the base against the honourable.

⁶ When a man shall take hold of his brother of the house of his father, saying, Thou hast clothed me, be thou our ruler, and let this run be under thy hand:

⁷ In that day shall he ⁸swear, saying, I will not be ⁹a healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: make me not a ruler of the people.

⁸ For ⁹Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen, because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD, to provoke the eyes of his glory.

⁹ The shew of their countenance doth witness against them; and they declare their sin as ¹⁰Sodom, they hide it not. Woe unto their soul, for they have rewarded evil unto themselves.

¹⁰ Say ye to the righteous ¹¹that it shall be well with him: ¹²for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

CHAPTER 5.

¹ Under the parable of a vineyard God excuseth his severe judgment ³ His judgments upon covetous men, ¹³ upon impious, ²⁰ and upon injurious ²⁵ The executioners of God's judgments.

NOW will I sing to my wellbeloved ¹a song of my beloved touching ¹his vineyard. My wellbeloved hath ¹a vineyard in ²a very fruitful hill:

2 And he ²fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also ⁵made a winepress therein: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes.

3 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, ²judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.

4 What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes?

5 And now go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard. ²I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be ²trod down:

6 And I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned, nor digged; but there shall come up briars and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah ²his pleasant plant: and he looked for judgment, but behold ³oppression; for righteousness, but behold a cry.

8 ¶ Woe unto them that join ⁶house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, that ⁶they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth!

9 ¶ In ⁷mine ears said the LORD of hosts, ⁸Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant.

10 Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one ²bath, and the seed of an homer shall yield sn ephah.

11 ¶ Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, all wine ¹in flame them!

12 And ²the harp, and the viol, the tahret, and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts: but ²they regard not the work of the LORD, neither consider the operation of his hands.

13 ¶ Therefore my people are gone into captivity, ⁷because they have no knowledge; and ⁴their honourable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst.

14 Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure; and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it.

15 And ²the mean man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled.

16 But the LORD of hosts shall be exalted in judgment, and ⁷God that is holy shall be sanctified in righteousness.

17 Then shall the lambs feed after their manner, and the waste places of ²the fat ones shall strangers eat.

18 Woe unto them that draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a cart rope.

19 ¶ That say, Let him make speed, and hasten his work, that we may see it: and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it!

20 ¶ Woe unto them ¹that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

21 Woe unto them that are ²wise in their own eyes, and prudent ³in their own sight!

22 Woe unto them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink:

23 Which ²justify the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him!

24 Therefore ^{as} the fire devoureth the stubble, and the flame consumeth the chaff, so ^{their} root shall be a rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust: because they have cast away the law of the LORD of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

25 Therefore is the anger of the LORD kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them and hath smitten them, and the hills did tremble, and their caves were ⁱⁿ torn in the midst of the streets. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

26 ¶ And he will lift up an ensign unto them from the end of the earth, and behold, they shall come with speed swiftly.

27 None shall be weary nor stumble among them; none shall slumber nor sleep; neither shall the girdle of their loins be loosed, nor the latchet of their shoes be broken.

28 Whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent like horses' hoofs: shall be counted like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind.

29 Their roaring shall be like a lion, they shall roar like young lions: yet they shall roar and lay hold of the prey, and shall carry it away safe, and none shall deliver it.

30 And in that day they shall roar against them like the roaring of the sea, and if one look unto the land, behold darkness and sorrow, and the light is darkened in the heavens thereof.

IN the year that king Uzziah died I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple.

2 Above it stood the seraphims: each one had six wings, with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.

3 And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory.

4 And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke.

6 Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, ¹ having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off ^{the} altar:

7 And he ¹ laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged.

8 Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me.

12 And the LORD have removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land.

13 ¶ But yet in it shall be a tenth, and it shall return, and shall be eaten as a teil tree, and as an oak, whose substance is in them, when they cast their leaves: so the holy seed shall be the substance thereof.

CHAPTER 7.

¹ Ahaz being troubled is comforted by Isaiah. 10 Ahaz having liberty to choose a sign, Christ is promised. 17 His judgment is prophesied to come by Assyria.

AND it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it.

2 And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind.

3 Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, and Shearjashub thy son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field;

4 And say unto him, Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, neither be faint-hearted for the two tails of these smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah.

5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have taken evil counsel against thee, saying,

6 Let us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal:

7 Thus saith the Lord God, "It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass.

8 For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken, that it be not a people.

9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. "If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established.

10 Moreover the Lord spake again unto Ahaz, saying,

11 Ask thee a sign of the Lord thy God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above.

12 But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the Lord.

13 And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David; is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also?

14 Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.

15 Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good.

16 For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land that thou abhorrest shall be forsaken of both her kings.

17 The Lord shall bring upon thee, and upon thy people, and upon thy father's house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria.

18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.

19 And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all bushes.

20 In the same day shall the Lord shave with a razor that is hired, namely, by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the

CHAPTER 8.

1 In Maher shalal hash-baz, he prophesieth that Syria and Israel shall be subdued by Assyria
2 Judah also for their iniquity 9 God's judgments shall be unrenstable 11 Comfort shall be to them that fear God 18 Great afflictions to idolaters.

MOREOVER the LORD said unto me, Take thee a great roll, and write in it with a man's pen concerning Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

2 And I took unto me faithful witnesses to record, Uria the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah.

3 And I went unto the prophetess; and she conceived, and bare a son. Then said the LORD to me, Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

4 For before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and my mother, the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria.

5 The LORD spake also unto me again, saying,

6 Forasmuch as this people refuseth the waters of Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son;

7 Now therefore, behold, the Lord bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even the king of Assyria, and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks.

8 And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over, he shall reach even to the neck; and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel.

9 Associate yourselves, O ye people, ¹and ye shall be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries. ²gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces.

¹⁰ Take counsel together, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: ¹¹for God is with us.

¹¹ ¶ For the LORD spake thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying, ¹² Say ye not, A confederacy, to all them to whom ¹³this people shall say, A confederacy; neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid.

¹³ Sanctify the LORD of hosts himself; and ¹⁴let him be your fear, and let him be your dread

¹⁴ And ¹⁵he shall be for a sanctuary; but for ¹⁶a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

¹⁵ And many among them shall stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.

¹⁶ Bind up the testimony, seal the law among my disciples.

¹⁷ And I will wait upon the LORD, that ¹⁸he hide his face from the house of Jacob, and I ¹⁹will look for him.

¹⁸ Behold, I and the children whom the LORD hath given me ¹⁹are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion.

¹⁹ ¶ And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards ²⁰that peep, and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? for the living ²¹to the dead?

²⁰ To the law and to the testimony. if they speak not according to this word, ²¹it is because ²²there is no light in them

²¹ And they shall pass through it, hardly bestead and hungry: and it shall come to pass, that when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and ²²curse their king and their God, and look upward.

²² And ²³they shall look unto the earth; and behold trouble and darkness, ²⁴dimness of anguish; and they shall be driven to darkness.

is in his heart to destroy and cut off nations not a few.

8 ¹For he saith, ²Are not my princes altogether kings?

9 Is not ¹Caino ²as Carchemish? ³is not Hamath as Arpad? ⁴is not Samaria ⁵as Damascus?

10 As my hand hath found the kingdoms of the idols, and whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria;

11 Shall I not, as I have done unto Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols?

12 Wherefore it shall come to pass, ¹that when the Lord hath performed his whole work ²upon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, ³I will ⁴punish the fruit ⁵of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks.

13 ¹For he saith, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I am prudent: and I have removed the bounds of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the inhabitants ²like a valiant man.

14 And ¹my hand hath found as a nest the riches of the people: and as one gathereth eggs ²that are left, have I gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped.

15 Shall ¹the axe boast itself against him that heweth therewith? or shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it? ²as if the rod should shake itself against them that lift it up, or as if the staff should lift up itself, as if it were no wood.

16 Therefore shall the Lord, the Lord of hosts, send among his ¹fat ones leanness; and under his glory he shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire.

17 And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame: ²and it shall burn and devour his thorns and his briars in one day;

18 And shall consume the glory of his forest, and of ¹his fruitful field, ²both soul and body: and they shall be as when a standardbearer fainteth.

19 And the rest of the trees of his forest shall be ¹few, that a child may write them.

20 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, ¹that the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob, ²shall no more again stay upon him that smote them; but shall stay upon the Lord, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.

21 The remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, unto the mighty God.

22 For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them shall return: the consumption decreed shall overflow with righteousness.

23 For the Lord God of hosts shall make a consumption, even determined, in the midst of all the land.

24 Therefore thus saith the Lord God of hosts, O my people that dwell in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian: he shall smite thee with a rod, and shall lift up his staff against thee after the manner of Egypt.

25 For yet a very little while, and the indignation shall cease, and mine anger in their destruction.

26 And the Lord of hosts shall stir up a scourge for him according to the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb: and as his rod was upon the sea, so shall he lift it up after the manner of Egypt.

27 And it shall come to pass in that day that his burden shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing.

28 He is come to Aiath, he is pressed to Migron, at Michmash he hath laid up his carriages.

29 They are gone over the passage: they have taken up their lodging at Gaba, Ramah is afraid, Gibeah of Saul is fled.

30 Lift up thy voice, O daughter of Gallim: cause it to be heard unto Laish, O poor Anathoth.

31 Madmenah is removed: the inhabitants of Gebim gather themselves to flee.

32 As yet shall he remain at Nob that day: he shall shake his hand against the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.

33 Behold the Lord, the Lord of hosts shall lop the bough with terror: and the high ones of stature shall be hewn down, and the haughty shall be humbled.

34 And he shall cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon shall fall by a mighty one.

and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord.

3 And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the Lord: and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears.

4 But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

5 And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins.

6 The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid, and the calf and the young lion and the fating together, and a little child shall lead them.

7 And the cow and the bear shall feed: their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

8 And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice's den.

9 They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

10 And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people, to it shall the Gentiles seek: and his rest shall be glorious.

11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea.

12 And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.

13 The envy also of Ephraim shall depart, and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off: Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not vex Ephraim.

14 But they shall sit upon the shoulders of the Philistines toward the west, they shall spoil them of the east together: they shall lay their hand upon Edom and Moab, and the children of Ammon shall obey them.

15 And the Lord shall utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with his mighty wind shall he shake his hand over the river, and shall smite it in the seven streams, and make men go over ²dryshod.

16 And ³there shall be an highway for the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria; ⁴like as it was to Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt.

CHAPTER 12.

A joyful thanksgiving of the faithful for the mercies of God

AND ¹in that day thou shalt say, O LORD, I will praise thee: though thou wast angry with me, thine anger is turned away, and thou comfortedst me.

2 Behold, God ²is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid: for the LORD ³JEHOVAH ⁴is my ⁵strength and my song; he also is become my salvation.

3 Therefore with joy shall ye draw ⁶water out of the wells of salvation.

4 And in that day shall ye say, ⁷Praise the LORD, ⁸call upon his name, ⁹declare his doings among the people, make mention that his ¹⁰name is exalted.

5 Sing unto the LORD; for he hath done excellent things: thus is known in all the earth.

6 Cry out and shout, thou ¹¹inhabitant of Zion: for great ¹²is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of thee.

4 The noise of a multitude in the mountains, ⁸like as of a great people; a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together: the LORD of hosts mustereth the host of the battle.

5 They come from a far country, from the end of heaven, ⁹even the LORD, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land.

6 ¶ Howl ye; ¹⁰for the day of the LORD ¹¹is at hand; ¹²it shall come as a destruction from the Almighty.

7 Therefore shall all hands ¹³be faint, and every man's heart shall melt:

10 For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light: the sun shall be ¹⁵darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine.

11 And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; ¹⁶and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible.

16 Their children also shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be spoiled, and their wives ravished.

17 Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, which shall not regard silver; and ¹⁹as for gold, they shall not delight in it.

18 Their bows also shall dash the young men to pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eye shall not spare children.

CHAPTER 15.

The lamentable state of Moab

THE burden of Moab. Because in the night Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence; because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence; 2 He is gone up to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba: on all their heads shall be baldness, and every beard cut off.

3 In their streets they shall gird themselves with sackcloth: on the tops of their houses, and in their streets, every one shall howl, weeping abundantly.

4 And Heshbon shall cry, and Elealeh: their voice shall be heard even unto Jahaz: therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out; his life shall be grievous unto him.

5 My heart shall cry out for Moab; his fugitives shall flee unto Zoar, an heir of three years old: for hy the mounting up of Luhith with weeping shall they go it up; for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of destruction.

6 For the waters of Nimrim shall be desolate: for the hay is withered away, the grass faileth, there is no green thing.

7 Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away to the brook of the willows.

8 For the cry is gone round about the borders of Moab; the howling thereof unto Eglaim, and the howling thereof unto Beer-elim.

9 For the waters of Dimon shall be full of blood: for I will bring more upon Dimon, lions upon him that escapeth of Moab, and upon the remnant of the land.

SEND ye the lamb to the ruler of the land from Sela to the wilderness, unto the mount of the daughter of Zion.

2 For it shall be, that, as a wandering herd cast out of the nest, so the daughters of Moab shall be at the fords of Arnon.

3 Take counsel, execute judgment; make thy shadow as the night in the midst of the noonday; hide the outcasts; bewray not him that wandereth.

4 Let mine outcasts dwell with thee, Moab; be thou a covert to them from the face of the spoiler: for the extortioner is at an end, the spoiler ceaseth, the oppressors are consumed out of the land.

5 And in mercy shall the throne be established; and he shall sit upon it in truth in the tabernacle of David, judging, and seeking judgment, and hastening righteousness.

6 We have heard of the pride of Moab; he is very proud: even of his haughtiness, and his pride, and his wrath: but his lies shall not be so.

7 Therefore shall Moab howl for Moab, every one shall howl: for the foundations of Kir-hareseth shall ye mourn; surely they are stricken.

8 For the fields of Heshbon languish, and the vine of Sibmah: the lords of the beathen have broken down the principal plants thereof, they are come even unto Jazer, they wandered through the wilderness: her branches are stretched out, they are gone over the sea.

9 Therefore I will bewail with the weeping of Jazer the vine of Sibmah: I will water thee with my tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh: for the shouting for thy summer fruits and for thy harvest is fallen.

10 And gladness is taken away, and joy out of the plentiful field; and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting: the treaders shall tread out no wine in their presses; I have made their vintage shouting to cease.

11 Wherefore my bowels shall sound like an harp for Moab, and mine inward parts for Kir-hareseth.

12 And it shall come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary to pray; but he shall not prevail.

13 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning Moab since that time.

14 But now the LORD hath spoken, saying, Within three years, as the that great multitude, and the rem-

¹ The confusion of Egypt in the foolishness of the princes 18 The call of Egypt to the church
²³ The covenant of Egypt and Israel

THE burden of Egypt. Behold the LORD rideth upon a swift cloud and shall come into Egypt and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it. 2 And I will ⁶set¹ the Egyptians against the Egyptians: and they shall fight every one against his brother, and every one against his neighbour; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom.

3 And the spirit of Egypt ²shall fail in the midst thereof; and I will ³destroy the counsel thereof; and they shall ⁴seek to the idols, and to the charmers, and to them that have familiar spirits, and to the wizards.

4 And the Egyptians will I ⁶give over ⁷into the hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts.

5 ⁸And the waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be wasted and dried up.

6 And they shall turn the rivers far away; and the brooks ¹of defence shall be emptied and dried up: the reeds and flags shall wither.

7 The paper reeds by the brooks, by the mouth of the brooks, and every thing sown by the brooks, shall wither, be driven away, ⁷and he be no more.

8 The fishers also shall mourn, and all they that cast angle into the brooks shall lament, and they that spread nets upon the waters shall languish.

9 Moreover they that work in ¹fine flax, and they that weave ²networks, shall be confounded.

10 And they shall be broken in the ³purposes thereof, all that make sluices and ponds ⁴for fish.

11 ¶ Surely the princes of ⁵Zoan are fools, the counsel of the wise counsellors of Pharaoh is become brutish: how say ye unto Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings?

12 ⁶Where are they ⁷where are thy wise men? and let them tell thee now, and let them know what the LORD of hosts hath purposed upon Egypt.

13 The princes of Zoan are become fools, ⁸the princes of Noph are deceived; they have also seduced Egypt, even ⁹they that are the stay of the tribes thereof.

14 The LORD hath mingled ¹⁰a ¹¹perverse spirit in the midst thereof: and they have caused Egypt to err in every work thereof, as a drunken man staggereth in his vomit.

2 At the same time spake the LORD ²by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go and loose ³the sackcloth from off thy loins, and put off thy shoe from thy foot. And he did so, ⁴walking naked and barefoot.

3 And the LORD said, Like as my servant Isaiah hath walked naked and barefoot three years ⁵for a sign and wonder upon Egypt and upon Ethiopia.

4 So shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptian prisoners, and the Ethiopians captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, even with their buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.

5 And they shall be afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory.

6 And the inhabitant of this isle shall say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation, whither we flee for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria. and how shall we escape?

CHAPTER 21.

1 The prophet seeth in a vision the fall of Babylon by the Medes and Persians 11 For a warning the prophet is moved to repentance 13 The calamity of Arabia's calamity

THE burden of the desert of the sea. As whirlwinds in the south pass through; so it cometh from the desert, from a terrible land.

2 A grievous vision is declared unto me: the treacherous dealer dealeth treacherously, and the spoiler spoils. Go up, O Elam: besiege, O Media; all the sighing thereof have I made to cease.

3 Therefore are my louns filled with pain: pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman that travaileth: I was bowed down at the hearing of it, I was dismayed at the seeing of it.

4 My heart panted, fearfulness affrighted me. the night of my pleasure hath he turned into fear unto me.

5 Prepare the table, watch in the watchtower, eat, drink: arise, ye princes, and anoint the shield.

6 For thus hath the Lord said unto me, Go set a watchman, let him declare what he seeth.

7 And he saw a chariot with a couple of horsemen, a chariot of asses, and a chariot of camels; and he hearkened diligently with much heed.

8 And he cried, A lion. My lord, I stand continually upon the watch tower in the daytime, and I am set in my ward whole nights.

9 And, behold, here cometh a chariot of men, with a couple of horsemen. And he answered and said, Babylon is fallen, is fallen; and all the graven images of her gods he hath broken unto the ground.

10 O my threshing, and the corn of my floor: that which I have heard of the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, have I declared unto you.

13 The burden upon Arabia. In the forest in Arabia shall ye lodge, O ye travelling companies of Dedan.

14 The inhabitants of the land of Tema brought water to him that was thirsty, they prevented with their bread him that fled.

15 For they fled from the swords, from the drawn sword, and from the bent bow, and from the grievousness of war.

16 For thus hath the Lord said unto me, Within a year, according to the years of an hireling, and all the glory of Kedar shall fail:

17 And the residue of the number of archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, shall be diminished: for the Lord God of Israel hath spoken it.

CHAPTER 22.

1 The prophet lamenteth the invasion of Jewry by the Persians 15 He propheseth Shebna's desolation 20 and Eliah, prefiguring the kingdom of Christ, his substitution.

THE burden of the valley of vision.

What aileth thee now, that thou art wholly gone up to the house-tops?

2 Thou that art full of stirs, a tumultuous city, a joyous city: thy slain men are not slain with the sword, nor dead in battle.

3 All thy rulers are fled together, they are bound by the archers: all thy are found in thee are bound together, which have fled from far.

4 Therefore said I, Look away from me; I will weep bitterly, labour not to comfort me, because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people.

5 For it is a day of trouble, and of treading down, and of perplexity by the Lord God of hosts in the valley of vision, breaking down the walls, and of crying to the mountains.

6 And Elam bare the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen, and Kir uncovered the shield.

7 And it shall come to pass, that thy choicest valleys shall be full of chariots, and the horsemen shall set themselves in array at the gate.

8 And he discovered the covering of Judah, and thou didst look in that day to the armour of the house of the forest.

9 Ye have seen also the breaches of the city of David, that they are many:

and ye gathered together the waters of the lower pool

10 And ye have numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses have ye broken down to fortify the wall

11 "Ye made also a ditch between the two walls for the water of the old pool. but ye have not looked unto the maker thereof, neither had respect unto him that fashioned it long ago.

12 And in that day did the Lord GOD of hosts call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth.

13 And behold joy and gladness, slaying oxen, and killing sheep, eating flesh, and drinking wine. let us eat and drink; for to-morrow we shall die.

14 And it was revealed in mine ears by the LORD of hosts, Surely this iniquity shall not be purged from you till ye die, saith the Lord GOD of hosts

15 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD of hosts, Go, get thee unto this treasurer, even unto Shebna, which is over the house, and say, 16 What hast thou here? and whom hast thou here, that thou hast hewed thee out a sepulchre here, as he that beweth him out a sepulchre on high, and that graveth an habitation for himself in a rock?

17 Behold, the LORD will carry thee away with a mighty captivity, and will surely cover thee

18 He will surely violently turn and toss thee like a ball into a large country there shalt thou die, and there the chariots of thy glory shall be the shame of thy lord's house.

19 And I will drive thee from thy station, and from thy state shall he pull thee down

20 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will call my servant Elikim the son of Hilkiah

21 And I will clothe him with thy robe, and strengthen him with thy girdle, and I will commit thy government into his hand, and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah

22 And the key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder; so he shall open, and none shall shut, and he shall shut, and none shall open.

23 And I will fasten him as a nail in a sure place; and he shall be for a glorious throne to his father's house

24 And they shall hang upon him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, all vessels

1 The miserable overthrow of Tyre 17 Their

THE burden of Tyre Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them

2 Be still, ye inhabitants of the isle; thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished.

3 And by great waters the seed of Sihor, the harvest of the river, is her revenue; and she is a mart of nations.

4 Be thou ashamed, O Zidon for the sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, I travail not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up young men, nor bring up virgins.

5 As at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre

6 Pass ye over to Tarshish; howl, ye inhabitants of the isle.

7 Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days? her own feet shall carry her afar off to sojourn

8 Who hath taken this counsel against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honourable of the earth?

9 The LORD of hosts hath purposed it, to stain the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth.

10 Pass through thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish. there is no more strength.

11 He stretched out his hand over the sea, he shook the kingdoms the LORD hath given a commandment against the merchant city, to destroy the strong holds thereof

12 And he said, Thou shalt no more rejoice, O thou oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon arise, pass over to Chittim; there also shalt thou have no rest

13 Behold the land of the Chaldeans; this people was not, till the Assyrian founded it for them that dwell in the wilderness they set up the towers thereof, they raised up the palaces thereof; and he brought it to ruin.

14 Howl, ye ships of Tarshish: for your strength is laid waste,

15 And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king: after the end of seventy years ¹shall Tyre sing as an harlot.
16 Take an harp, go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered.

17 ¶ And it shall come to pass after the end of seventy years, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her hire, and ²shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth.

18 And her merchandise and her hire ³shall be holiness to the LORD: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for ⁴durable clothing.

CHAPTER 24.

1 The doleful judgments of God upon the land. 13 A remnant shall joyfully praise him. 16 God in his judgments shall advance his kingdom.

BEHOUD, the LORD maketh the earth empty, and maketh it waste, and ²turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof

2 And it shall be, as with the people, so with the ³priest; ⁴as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; ⁵as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him

3 The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled: for the LORD hath spoken this word.

4 The earth mourneth and fadeth away, the world languisheth and fadeth away, ⁶the haughty people of the earth do languish.

5 ⁷The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants thereof; because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant.

6 Therefore hath ⁸the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are desolate: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

7 ⁹The new wine mourneth, the vine languisheth, all the merryhearted do sigh.

8 The mirth ¹⁰of tabrets ceaseth, the noise of them that rejoice endeth, the joy of the harp ceaseth.

9 They shall not drink wine with a song; strong drink shall be bitter to them that drink it.

1 The prophet praiseth God, for his judgments, 6 for his saving benefits, 9 and for his victorious salvation.

O LORD, thou art my God; "I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name; "for thou hast done wonderful things; "thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth.

2 For thou hast made "of a city an heap; of a defenced city a ruin: a palace of strangers to be no city; it shall never be built.

3 Therefore shall the strong people "glorify thee, the city of the terrible nations shall fear thee.

4 For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, "a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.

5 Thou shalt bring down the noise of strangers, as the heat in a dry place; even the heat with the shadow of a cloud: the branch of the terrible ones shall be brought low.

6 ¶ And in "this mountain shall "the LORD of hosts make unto "all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined.

7 And he will "destroy in this mountain the face of the covering "cast over all people, and the veil that is spread over all nations.

8 He will "swallow up death in victory; and the LORD GOD will "wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it.

9 ¶ And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God: "we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the LORD: we have waited for him, "we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

10 For in this mountain shall the hand of the LORD rest, and Moab shall be "trodden down under him, even as straw is "trodden down for the dunghill.

11 And he shall spread forth his hands in the midst of them, as he that swimmeth spreadeth forth his hands to swim: and he shall bring down their pride together with the spoils of their hands.

12 And the "fortress of the high fort of thy walls shall he bring down, lay low, and bring to the ground, even to the dust.

IN "that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah; We have a strong city; "salvation will God appoint for walls and bulwarks.

2 Open ye the gates, that the righteous nation which keepeth the "truth may enter in.

3 Thou wilt keep him in "perfect peace, whose "mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee.

4 Trust ye in the LORD for ever: "for in the LORD JEHOVAH is "everlasting strength:

5 ¶ For he bringeth down them that dwell on high; "the lofty city, he layeth it low; he layeth it low, even to the ground; he bringeth it even to the dust.

6 The foot shall tread it down, even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy.

7 The way of the just is uprightness: "thou, most upright, dost weigh the path of the just.

8 Yea, "in the way of thy judgments, O LORD, have we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee.

9 "With my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

10 "Let favour be shewed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness; in "the land of uprightness will he deal unjustly, and will not behold the majesty of the LORD.

11 LORD, when thy hand is lifted up, "they will not see: but they shall see, and be ashamed for their envy "at the people; yea, the fire of thine enemies shall devour them.

12 ¶ LORD, thou wilt ordain peace for us: for thou also hast wrought all our works "in us.

13 O LORD our God, "other lords beside thee have had dominion over us: but by thee only will we make mention of thy name.

14 They are dead, they shall not live; they are deceased, they shall not rise: therefore hast thou visited and destroyed them, and made all their memory to perish.

15 Thou hast increased the nation, O LORD, thou hast increased the nation: thou art glorified: thou hast removed it far unto all the ends of the earth.

16 LORD, "in trouble have they visited thee, they poured out a "prayer when thy chastening was upon them.

17 Like as "a woman with child, that draweth near the time of her delivery, is in pain, and crieth out in her pangs; so have we been in thy sight, O LORD.

18 We have been with child, we have been in pain, we have as it were brought forth wind; we have not wrought any deliverance in the earth; neither have we the inhabitants of the world fallen.

19 "Thy dead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise. Awake and sing, ye that dwell in dust: for thy dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast out the dead.

20 ¶ Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast.

21 For, behold, the LORD cometh out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her slain.

CHAPTER 27.

1 The care of God over his vineyard. 7 His chastisements differ from judgments. 12 The church of Jews and Gentiles.

IN that day the LORD with his sore and great and strong sword shall punish leviathan the piercing serpent, even leviathan that crooked serpent; and he shall slay the dragon that is in the sea.

2 In that day sing ye unto her, A vineyard of red wine.

3 I the LORD do keep it; I will water it every moment: lest any hurt it, I will keep it night and day.

4 Fury is not in me: who would set the briers and thorns against me in battle? I would go through them, I would burn them together.

5 Or let him take hold of my strength, that he may make peace with me; and he shall make peace with me.

6 He shall cause them that come of Jacob to take root: Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit.

7 ¶ Hath he smitten him, as he smote those that smote him, or as he slain according to the slaughter of them that are slain by him?

8 In measure, when it shooteth forth, thou wilt debate with it: he stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind.

9 By this therefore shall the iniquity of Jacob be purged; and this is all the fruit to take away his sin; when he maketh all the stones of the altar as chalkstones that are beaten in sun-

11 When the boughs thereof are withered, they shall be broken off: the women come, and set them on fire; for it is a people of no understanding: therefore he that made them will not have mercy on them, and he that formed them will shew them no favour.

12 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall beat off from the channel of the river unto the stream of Egypt, and ye shall be gathered one by one, O ye children of Israel.

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the great trumpet shall be blown, and they shall come which were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt, and shall worship the LORD in the holy mount at Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 28.

1 The prophet threatneth Ephraim for their pride and drunkenness. 3 The radius shall be exalted in the kingdom of Christ. 7 He rebuketh their error. 9 Their untowardness to learn, 14 and their security. 18 Christ the sure foundation is promised. 18 Their security shall be tried. 23 They are invited to the consideration of God's discreet providence.

WOE to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, whose glorious beauty is a fading flower, which are on the head of the fat valleys of them that are overcome with wine!

2 Behold, the Lord hath a mighty and strong one, which as a tempest of hail and a destroying storm, as a flood of mighty waters overflowing, shall cast down to the earth with the hand.

3 The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim, shall be trodden under feet.

4 And the glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley, shall be a fading flower, and as the hasty fruit before the summer; which when he that looketh upon it seeth, while it is yet in his hand he eateth it up.

5 ¶ In that day shall the LORD of hosts be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty, unto the residue of his people,

6 And for a spirit of judgment to him that sitteth in judgment, and for strength to them that turn the battle to the gate.

7 ¶ But they also have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way; ^athe priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment.

8 For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place clean.

9 ¶ ^aWhom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand ¹doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts.

10 For precept ²must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little:

11 For with ³stammering³ lips and another tongue ⁴will he speak to this people.

12 To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing. yet they would not hear.

13 But the word of the LORD was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.

14 ¶ ^aWherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem.

15 Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: ^afor we have made hes our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves;

16 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation ^aa stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation, he that believeth shall not make haste.

17 Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away ^athe refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place.

18 ¶ And your covenant with death shall he disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be ³trodden down by it.

19 From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night: and it shall be a vexation only ⁶to understand the report.

CHAPTER 30.

1 The prophet threatneth the people for their contumacious in Egypt and contempt of God's will. 18 God's mercies towards his church. 27 God's wrath and the people's joy, in the destruction of Assyria.

WOE to the rebellious children, saith the LORD, "that take counsel, but not of me; and that cover with a covering, but not of my spirit, "that they may add sin to sin.

2 "That walk to go down into Egypt, and "have not asked at my mouth, to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt!

3 "Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt your confusion.

4 For his princes were at "Zorn, and his ambassadors came to Hanes.

5 "They were all ashamed of a people that could not profit them, nor be an help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach.

6 "The burden of the beasts of the south into the land of trouble and anguish, from whence come the young and old lion, "the viper and fiery fly¹ serpent, they will carry their riches upon the shoulders of young asses, and their treasures upon the bunches of camels, to a people that shall not profit them.

7 For the Egyptians shall help in vain, and to no purpose therefore have I cried² concerning this, "Their strength is to sit still."

8 ¶ Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for⁴ the time to come for ever and ever:

9 That⁵ this is a rebellious people, lying children, children that will not hear the law of the LORD:

10 "Which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophecy not unto us right things," speak unto us smooth things, prophecy deceats:

11 Get you out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us.

12 Wherefore thus saith the Holy One of Israel, Because ye despise this word, and trust in⁸ oppression and perverseness, and stay thereon;

13 Therefore this iniquity shall be to you⁹ as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking¹⁰ cometh suddenly at an instant.

14 And¹¹ he shall break it as the breaking of¹² the potters' vessel that is broken in pieces; he shall not spare, so that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the pit.

15 For thus saith the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel; "In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength; and ye would not."

16 But ye said, No; for we will flee upon horses; therefore shall ye flee: and, We will ride upon the swift; therefore shall they that pursue you be swift.

17 One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five shall ye flee: till ye be left as¹⁴ a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on an hill.

18 ¶ And therefore will the LORD wait, that he may be gracious unto you, and therefore will he not be exalted, that he may have mercy upon you. for the LORD is a God of judgment: "blessed are all they that wait for him."

19 For the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem: thou shalt weep no more; he will be very gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry; when he shall hear it, he will answer thee.

21 And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, Thus is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left."

22 Ye shall defile also the covering of³ thy graven images of silver, and the ornament of thy molten images of gold: thou shalt⁴ cast them away as a menstruous cloth, thou shalt say unto it, Get thee hence.

23 Then shall he give the rain of thy seed, that thou shalt sow the ground withal; and bread of the increase of the earth, and it shall be fat and plenteous: in that day shall thy cattle feed in large pastures.

24 The oxen likewise and the young asses that eat the ground shall eat⁵ clean provender, which hath been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan.

25 And there shall be⁶ upon every high mountain, and upon every⁷ high hill, rivers and streams of waters in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall.

26 Moreover⁸ the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the LORD bindeth up the breach of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound.

27 ¶ Behold, the name of the LORD cometh from far, burning with his anger,⁹ and the burden thereof¹⁰ is heavy: his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue as a devouring fire:

28 And¹¹ his breath, as an overflowing stream,¹² shall reach to the midst of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity: and there shall be¹³ a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err.

29 Ye shall have a song, as in the night¹⁴ when a holy solemnity is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come into¹⁵ the mountain of the LORD, to the¹⁶ mighty One of Israel.

30 And the LORD shall cause¹⁷ his glorious voice to be heard, and shall shew the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempest, and hailstones.

CHAPTER 31.

1 The prophet sheweth the cure of folly in trusting to Egypt, and forsaking of God. 2 He exhorteth to conversion. 3 He sheweth the fall of Assyria.

WOE to them ¹that go down to Egypt for help; and ²stay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong; but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, ³neither seek the LORD!

2 Yet he also is wise, and will bring evil, and ¹will not ²call back his words: but will arise against the house of the evildoers, and against the help of them that work iniquity.

3 Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When the LORD shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fall together.

4 For thus hath the LORD spoken unto me, ¹Like as the lion and the young lion roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor abase himself for the ²noise of them: so shall the LORD of hosts come down to fight for mount Zion, and for the hill thereof.

5 ¹As birds flying, so will the LORD of hosts defend Jerusalem; defending also he will deliver it, and passing over he will preserve it.

6 ¹Turn ye unto him from whom the children of Israel have deeply revolted.

7 For in that day every man shall ²cast away his idols of silver, and ³his idols of gold, which your own hands have made unto you for ⁴a sin.

8 ¹Then shall the Assyrian ²fall with the sword, not of a mighty man; and the sword, not of a man, shall devour him: but he shall flee ³from the sword, and his young men shall be ⁴discomfited.

9 And ¹he ²shall pass over to ³his strong hold for fear, and his princes shall be afraid of the ensign, saith the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, and his furnace in Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 32.

1 The blessings of Christ's kingdom. 2 Desolation is foreshewn. 3 Restoration is promised to succeed.

BEHOLD, ¹a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment.

2 And a man shall be as an hiding place from the wind, and ²a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a ³great rock in a weary land.

3 And ¹the eyes of them that see shall not be dim, and the ears of them that hear shall hearken.

4 The heart also of the ²rash shall understand knowledge, and the tongue of theammerers shall be ready to speak ³plainly.

5 The vile person shall be no more called liberal, nor the churl said to be bountiful.

6 For the vile person will speak villany, and his heart will work iniquity, to practise hypocrisy, and to utter error against the LORD, to make empty the soul of the hungry, and he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.

7 The instruments also of the churl are evil: he deviseth wicked devices to destroy the poor with lying words, even ¹when the needy speaketh right.

8 But the liberal deviseth liberal things; and by liberal things shall he ²stand.

9 ¹¶ Rise up, ye women ²that are at ease; hear my voice, ye careless daughters; give ear unto my speech.

10 ²Many days and years shall ye be troubled, ye careless women: for the vintage shall fail, the gathering shall not come.

11 Tremble, ye women that are at ease; be troubled, ye careless ones: strip you, and make you bare, and gird sackcloth upon your loins.

12 They shall lament for the tarts, for ¹the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine.

13 ¹¶ Upon the land of my people shall come up thorns and briers; ²yea, upon all the houses of joy ³in the joyous city:

14 ¹Because the palaces shall be forsaken; the multitude of the city shall be left; the ²forts and towers shall be for dens for beasts, a joy of wild asses, a pasture of flocks;

15 Until ¹the spirit be poured upon us from on high, and ²the wilderness be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a forest.

16 Then judgment shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field.

17 ¹And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance for ever.

18 And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places; 19 ⁶ When it shall hail, coming down ^c on the forest; ⁷ and the city shall be low in a low place.

20 Blessed are ye that sow beside all waters, that send forth thither the feet of ¹ the ox and the ass.

THE "wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose.

CHAPTER 36.

1 Sennacherib invading Judah. 4 Rabshakeh by blasphemous persuasions solicited the people to revolt. 22 His words are told to Hezekiah.

NOW "it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the defenced cities of Judah, and took them.

2 And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field.

3 Then came forth unto him Eliakim, Hilkiah's son, which was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, Asaph's son, the recorder.

4 ¶ And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

5 I say, sayest thou, (but they are but vain words) ¹ I have counsel and strength for war: now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

6 Lo, thou trustest in the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it; so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust in him.

7 But if thou say to me, We trust in the LORD our God: is it not he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar?

8 Now therefore give pledges, I pray thee, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

9 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

10 And am I now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? the LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

11 ¶ Then said Eliakim and Shebna and Joah unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

12 ¶ But Rabshakeh said, Hath my master sent me to thy master and to thee to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you?

13 Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, Hear ye the words of the great king, the king of Assyria.

14 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you.

17 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

18 Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, The LORD will deliver us. Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arphad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?

20 Who are they among all the gods of these lands, that have delivered their land out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?

21 But they held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

22 ¶ Then came Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

CHAPTER 37.

¹ Hezekiah mourning smiteth to Isaiah to pray for them. ⁶ Isaiah comforteth them. ⁸ Sennacherib smiteth a blasphemous letter to Hezekiah. ¹⁴ Hezekiah's prayer. ²¹ Isaiah's prophecy of the pride and destruction of Sennacherib. ³⁸ An angel slayeth the Assyrians. ³⁷ Sennacherib is slain by his own sons.

AND ¹ it came to pass, when king A Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

2 And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests covered with sackcloth, unto Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.

3 And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of blasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth.

4 It may be the LORD thy God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God, and will reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that is ¹left.

5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 ¶ And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say unto your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.

7 Behold, I will ²send a blast upon him, and he shall bear a rumour, and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

8 ¶ So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Lihnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.

9 And he heard say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He is come forth to make war with thee. And when he heard ³it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God, in whom thou trustest, deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by destroying them utterly; and shalt thou be delivered?

12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed, as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Telassar?

13 Where is the king of ⁴Hamath, and the king of Arphad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaum, Hena, and Ivah?

14 ¶ And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

15 And Hezekiah prayed unto the LORD, saying,

16 O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, that dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth: thou hast made heaven and earth.

17 Incline thine ear, O LORD, and hear; open thine eyes, O LORD, and see; and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent to reproach the living God.

19 And have ²cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone. therefore they have destroyed them.

20 Now therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD, even thou only.

21 ¶ Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Whence as thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria:

22 This is the word which the LORD hath spoken concerning him; The virgin, the daughter of Zion, hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

23 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against the Holy One of Israel.

24 ³By thy servants hast thou reproached the Lord, and hast said, By the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon; and I will cut down ⁴the tall cedars thereof, and the choice fir trees thereof; and I will enter into the height of his border, and ⁵the forest of his Carmel.

25 I have digged, and drunk water; and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of the ⁶besieged places.

26 ⁷Hast thou not heard long ago, how I have done it; and of ancient times, that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste fenced cities into ruinous heaps.

27 Therefore their inhabitants were ¹of small power, they were dismayed and confounded; they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

28 But I know thy ²abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me.

29 Because thy rage against me, and thy tumult, is come up into mine ears, therefore ³I will put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way hy which thou camest.

30 And this shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such as groweth of itself; and the second year that which springeth of the same: and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof

31 And ¹the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward:

32 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and ³they that escape out of mount Zion: the ⁴zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.

33 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with ⁴shields, nor cast a bank against it.

34 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the LORD.

35 For I will ¹defend this city to save it for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.

36 Then the ²angel of the LORD went forth, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred and fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.

37 ¶ So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh.

38 And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharzer his sons smote him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of ⁷Armenia: and Esar-haddon his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 38.

¹ Hezekiah, having received a message of death, by prayer hath his life lengthened ⁹ his song of thanksgiving.

IN ⁴those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amos came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, ⁴Set ⁹thine house in order: for thou shalt die, and not live.

2 Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed unto the LORD.

3 And said, ¹¹Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done ¹²that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept ¹³sore.

4 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying,

5 Go, and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years.

6 And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and ²¹I will defend this city.

9 ¶ The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and was recovered of his sickness:

10 I said in the cutting off of my days, I shall go to the gates of the grave: I am deprived of the residue of my years

11 I said, I shall not see the LORD, even the LORD, ¹²in the land of the living: I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants of the world.

12 ¹³My age is departed, and is removed from me as a shepherd's tent: I have cut off like a weaver my life: he will cut me off ¹⁴with pining sickness: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

13 I reckoned till morning, that, as a lion, so will he break all my bones: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

14 Like a crane or a swallow, so did I chatter: ¹⁵I did mourn as a dove: mine eyes fail with looking upward: O LORD, I am oppressed; ¹⁶undertake for me.

15 What shall I say? he hath both spoken unto me, and himself hath done ¹⁷it. I shall go softly all my years ¹⁸in the bitterness of my soul.

16 O Lord, by these things men live, and in all these things is the life of my spirit: so wilt thou recover me, and make me to live.

17 Behold, ¹⁹for peace I had great bitterness: but ²⁰thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption: for thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back.

18 For ²¹the grave cannot praise thee, death can not celebrate thee: they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth.

19 The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day: ²²the father to the children shall make known thy truth.

20 The LORD was ready to save me: therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments all the days of our life in the house of the LORD.

21 For ²³Isaiah had said, Let them take a lump of figs, and lay it for a plaster upon the boil, and he shall recover.

22 ²⁴Hezekiah also had said, What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?

CHAPTER 39.

1 Merodach-baladan, sending to visit Hezekiah, hath notice of his treasures. 3 Isaiah, understanding thereof, foretelleth the Babylonian captivity.

AT that time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered.

2 And Hezekiah was glad of them, and shewed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

3 ¶ Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon.

4 Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them.

5 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD of hosts:

6 Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.

7 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

8 Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. He said moreover, For there shall be peace and truth in my days.

of the LORD, "make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

4 Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain:

5 And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

6 The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the goodness thereof is as the flower of the field:

7 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: because the spirit of the LORD bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass.

8 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand for ever.

9 ¶ O Zion, that bringest good tidings, get thee up into the high mountain; O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God!

10 Behold, the Lord God will come with strong hand, and his arm shall rule for him: behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him.

11 He shall feed his flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young.

12 ¶ Who hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with the span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance?

13 Who hath directed the Spirit of the LORD, or being his counsellor hath taught him?

14 With whom took he counsel, and who instructed him, and taught him in the path of judgment, and taught him knowledge, and shewed to him the way of understanding?

15 Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance: behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing.

16 And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt offering.

17 All nations before him are as nothing; and they are counted to him less than nothing, and vanity.

18 ¶ To whom then will ye liken God? or what likeness will ye compare unto him?

19 "The workman melteth a graven image, and the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold, and casteth silver chains.

20 He that ^{is} so impoverished that he hath no oblation chooseth a tree that will not rot; he seeketh unto him a cunning workman ^{to} prepare a graven image, that shall not be moved.

21 "Have ye not known? have ye not heard? hath it not been told you from the beginning? have ye not understood from the foundations of the earth?

22 "It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in:

23 That bringeth the princes to nothing; he maketh the judges of the earth as vanity.

24 Yea, they shall not be planted; yea, they shall not be sown: yea, their stock shall not take root in the earth: and he shall also blow upon them, and they shall wither, and the whirlwind shall take them away as stubble.

25 "To whom then will ye liken me, or shall I be equal? saith the Holy One.

26 Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things, that bringeth out their host by number: he calleth them all by names by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power; not one faileth.

27 Why sayest thou, O Jacob, and speakest, O Israel, My way is hid from the LORD, and my judgment is passed over from my God?

28 "Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? ^{there is} no searching of his understanding.

29 He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength.

30 Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fail.

31 But they that wait upon the LORD shall ^{renew} their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles, they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

their strength: let them come near; then let them speak: let us come near together to judgment.

2 Who raised up ¹ the righteous man ² from the east, called him to his foot, ³ gave the nations before him, and made him rule over kings? he gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow.

3 He pursued them, and passed ⁴ safely; ⁵ even by the way that he had not gone with his feet.

4 Who hath wrought and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I the LORD, the ⁶ first, and with the last; I am he.

5 The isles saw it, and feared; the ends of the earth were afraid, drew near, and came.

6 They helped every one his neighbour; and every one said to his brother, Be of good courage.

7 So the carpenter encouraged the goldsmith, and he that smootheeth with the hammer ⁸ him that smote the anvil, saying, It is ready for the soldering: and he fastened it with nails, ⁹ that it should not be moved.

8 But thou, Israel, art my servant, Jacob whom I have ¹⁰ chosen, the seed of Abraham my ¹¹ friend.

9 Thou whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the chief men thereof, and said unto thee, Thou art my servant; I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away.

10 "Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

11 Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and they that strive with thee shall perish.

12 Thou shalt seek them, and shalt not find them, ¹³ even them that contended with thee: they that war against thee shall be as nothing, and as a thing of nought.

13 For I the LORD thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee.

14 Fear not, thou worm Jacob, and ye ¹⁵ men of Israel; I will help thee, saith the LORD, and thy redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

15 Behold, I will make thee a new sharp threshing instrument having ¹⁶ teeth: thou shalt thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shalt make the hills as chaff.

16 Thou shalt fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them: and thou shalt rejoice in the LORD, and shalt glory in the Holy One of Israel.

17 When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue faileth for thirst, I the LORD will hear them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them.

18 I will open rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys: I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water.

19 I will plant in the wilderness the cedar, the shittah tree, and the myrtle, and the oil tree; I will set in the desert the fir tree, and the pine, and the box tree together:

20 That they may see, and know, and consider, and understand together, that the hand of the LORD hath done this, and the Holy One of Israel hath created it.

21 Produce your cause, saith the LORD; bring forth your strong reasons, saith the King of Jacob.

22 Let them bring them forth, and shew us what shall happen: let them shew the former things, what they be, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or declare us things for to come.

23 Shew the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that ye are gods: yea, do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and behold it together.

24 Behold, ye are of nothing, and your work of nought: an abomination is he that chooseth you.

25 I have raised up one from the north, and he shall come from the rising of the sun: shall he call upon my name: and he shall come upon princes as upon mortar, and as the potter treadeth clay.

26 Who hath declared from the beginning, that we may know? and beforetime, that we may say, He is righteous: yea, there is none that sheweth, yea, there is none that declareth, yea, there is none that heareth your words.

27 The first shall say to Zion, Behold, behold them: and I will give to Jerusalem one that bringeth good tidings.

28 For I beheld, and there was no man: even among them, and there was no counsellor, that, when I asked of them, could answer a word.

29 Behold, they are all vanity: their works are nothing: their molten images are wind and confusion.

CHAPTER 42.

1 The office of Christ, graced with meekness and clemency. 10 An exhortation to praise God for his gospel. 17 He reproves the people of incredulity.

BEHOLD my servant, whom I uphold; mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth; I have put my spirit upon him: he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles.

2 He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.

3 A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench: he shall bring forth judgment unto truth.

4 He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth: and the isles shall wait for his law.

5 Thus saith God the LORD, he that created the heavens, and stretched them out; he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein:

6 I the LORD have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, for a light of the Gentiles;

7 To open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison house.

8 I am the LORD: that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images.

9 Behold, the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare: before they spring forth I tell you of them.

10 Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth, ye that go down to the sea, and all that is therein; the isles, and the inhabitants thereof.

11 Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar doth inhabit: let the inhabitants of the rock sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains.

12 Let them give glory unto the LORD, and declare his praise in the islands.

13 The LORD shall go forth as a mighty man, he shall stir up jealousy like a man of war: he shall cry, yea, roar; he shall prevail against his enemies.

14 I have long time hidained my peace; I have been still, and refrained myself: now will I cry like a travelling woman; I will destroy and devour at once.

15 I will make waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers islands, and I will dry up the pools

16 And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them.

17 ¶ They shall be turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods.

18 Hear, ye deaf; and look, ye blind, that ye may see.

19 ¶ Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I sent? who is blind as he that is perfect, and blind as the Lord's servant?

20 Seeing many things, but thou observest not; opening the ears, but he heareth not.

21 The Lord is well pleased for his righteousness' sake; he will magnify the law, and make it honourable 22 But this is a people robbed and spoiled; they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison houses: they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for a spoil, and none saith, Restore.

23 Who among you will give ear to this? who will hearken and hear for the time to come?

24 Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? did not the Lord, he against whom we have sinned? for they would not walk in his ways, neither were they obedient unto his law.

25 Therefore he hath poured upon him the fury of his anger, and the strength of battle: and it hath set him on fire round about, yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.

CHAPTER 43.

1 The Lord comforteth the church with his promises. 3 He appealeth to the people. 14 He foretelleth them the destruction of Babylon, 18 and the deliverance of his people. 23 He reprooveth the people as unmerciful

BUT now thus saith the Lord that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine.

2 ¶ When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.

3 For I am the LORD thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour: I gave Egypt for thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for thee.

4 Since thou wast precious in my sight, thou hast been honourable, and I have loved thee, therefore will I give men for thee, and people for thy life.

5 ¶ Fear not, for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west;

6 I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth;

7 Even every one that is called by my name: for I have created him for my glory, I have formed him; yea, I have made him.

8 ¶ Bring forth the blind people that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears.

9 Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled: who among them can declare this, and shew us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified; or let them hear, and say, It is truth.

10 ¶ Ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, and my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me.

11 I, even I, am the LORD; and beside me there is no saviour.

12 I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no strange god among you: therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, that I am God.

13 ¶ Yea, before the day was I am he; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who shall let it?

14 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, your redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their nobles, and the Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships.

15 I am the LORD, your Holy One, the creator of Israel, your King.

16 Thus saith the LORD, which maketh a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters:

17 Which bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power; they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as tow.

18 ¶ Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old.

19 Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.

20 The beast of the field shall honour me, the dragons and the ¹²owls because I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen.

21 This people have I formed for myself; they shall shew forth my praise.

22 ¶ But thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob; but thou hast been weary of me, O Israel.

23 Thou hast not brought me the small cattle of thy burnt offerings; neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices. I have not caused thee to serve with an offering, nor wearied thee with incense.

24 Thou hast bought me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices; but thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast wearied me with thine iniquities.

25 I, even I, am he that 'blotteth out thy transgressions' for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins.

26 Put me in remembrance: let us plead together: declare thou, that thou mayest be justified.

27 Thy first father hath sinned, and thy teachers have transgressed against me.

28 Therefore I have profaned the princes of the sanctuary, and have given Jacob to the curse, and Israel to reproaches.

CHAPTER 44.

1 God comforteth the church with his promises. 7 Vanity of idols, 9 and folly of idol makers. 21 He exhorteth to persevere for his redemption.

YET now hear, O Jacob my servant; and Israel, whom I have chosen:

2 Thus saith the LORD that made thee, and formed thee from the womb, which will help thee; Fear not, O Jacob, my servant; and thou, Jesurun, whom I have chosen.

3 For I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground: I will pour my spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring;

4 And they shall spring up as among the grass, as willows by the water courses.

5 One shall say, I am the LORD's; and another shall call himself by the name of Jacob; and another shall subscribe with his hand unto the LORD, and surname himself by the name of Israel.

6 Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, and his redeemer the LORD of hosts; I am the first, and I am the last; and beside me there is no God.

7 And who, as I, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the ancient people, and tho things that are coming, and shall come, let them shew unto them.

8 Fear ye not, neither be afraid: I have not I told thee from that time, and have declared it; ye are even my witnesses. Is there a God beside me? yea, there is no God; I know not any.

9 ¶ They that make a graven image are all of them vanity; and their detectable things shall not profit; and they are their own witnesses; they see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed.

10 Who hath formed a god, or molten a graven image that is profitable for nothing?

11 Behold, all his fellows shall be ashamed; and the workmen, they are of men: let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; yet they shall fear, and they shall be ashamed together.

12 The smith with the tongs both worketh in the coals, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with the strength of his arms; yea, he is hungry, and his strength faileth: he drinketh no water, and is faint.

13 The carpenter stretcheth out his rule; he marketh it out with a line; he fitteth it with planes, and he marketh it out with the compass, and maketh it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man; that it may remain in the house.

14 He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the cypress and the oak, which he strengtheneth for himself among the trees of the forest: he planteth an ash, and the rain doth nourish it.

15 Then shall it be for a man to burn: for he will take thereof, and warm himself; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread; yea, he maketh a god, and worshippeth it; he maketh it a graven image, and falleth down thereto.

16 He burneth part thereof in the fire; with part thereof he eateth flesh; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied; yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire:

17 And the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image; he falleth down unto it, and worshippeth it, and prayeth unto it, and saith, Deliver me; for thou art my god.

18 "They have not known nor understood: for ^bhe hath ¹shut their eyes, that they cannot see; and their hearts, that they cannot understand.

19 And none ^cconsidereth ²in his heart, neither ³is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burned part of it in the fire; yea, also I have baked bread upon the coals thereof; I have roasted flesh, and eaten it: and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? shall I fall down to ³the stock of a tree?

20 He feedeth on ashes: ^aa deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, ¹Is there not a lie in my right hand?

21 ¶ Remember these, O Jacob and Israel; for ^athou art my servant. I have formed thee; and thou art my servant: O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of me.

22 ^aI have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins: return unto me; for ^aI have redeemed thee.

23 ^aSing, O ye heavens; for the LORD hath done ¹it: shout, ye lower parts of the earth: break forth into singing, ye mountains, O forest, and every tree therein: for the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and glorified himself in Israel.

24 Thus saith the LORD, ^athy redeemer, and ^ahe that formed thee from the womb, ^aI am the LORD that maketh all things; ^athat stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the earth by myself;

25 That ^afrustrateth the tokens ^aof the liars, and maketh diviners mad; that turneth wise men backward, ^aand maketh their knowledge foolish;

26 That confirmeth the word of his servant, and performeth the counsel of his messengers; that saith to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be inhabited; and to the cities of Judah, Ye shall be built, and I will raise up the ^adecayed places thereof:

27 That saith to the deep, Be dry, and I will dry up thy rivers:

28 That saith of Cyrus, He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure: even saying to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be built; and to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid.

17 ^{But} Israel shall be saved in the LORD with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end.

CHAPTER 48.

1 God, to convince the people of their foreknowledge of sin, revealed his prophecies. 9 He saveth them for his own sake. 12 He exhorteth them to obedience, because of his power and providence. 16 He lamenteth their backsliding. 20 He powerfully delivereth his out of Babylon.

HEAR ye this, O house of Jacob, which are called by the name of Israel, and ^aare come forth out of the waters of Judah, ^bwhich swear by the name of the LORD, and make mention of the God of Israel, ^cbut not in truth, nor in righteousness.

2 For they call themselves ^dof the holy city, and ^estay themselves upon the God of Israel; The LORD of hosts ^fis his name.

3 ^gI have declared the former things from the beginning; and they went forth out of my mouth, and I shewed them; ^hI did them suddenly, and they came to pass.

4 Because I knew that thou art ⁱobstinate, and ^jthy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brass;

5 ^kI have even from thio beginning declared ^lit to thee; before it came to pass I shewed ^mit thee: lest thou shouldst say, Mine idol hath done them, and my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them.

6 Thou hast heard, see all this; and will not ⁿye declare ^oit? I have shewed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, and thou didst not know them.

7 They are created now, and not from the beginning; even before the day when thou heardest them not; lest thou shouldst say, Behold, I knew them.

8 Yea, thou heardest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from that time that thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldst deal very treacherously, and wast called ^pa transgressor from the womb.

9 ¶ For my name's sake ^qwill I defer mine anger, and for my praise will I refrain from thee, that I cut thee not off.

10 Behold, ^rI have refined thee, but not ^swith silver; I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction.

11 For mine own sake, even for mine own sake, will I do it: for ^thow should my name be polluted? and ^uI will not give my glory unto another.

12 ¶ Harken unto me, O Jacob and Israel, my called; ^vI am he; ^wI am the first, I also am the last.

13 Mine hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, and ^xmy right hand hath spanned the heavens: when ^yI call unto them, they stand up together.

14 "All ye shall be able yourselves, and hear; why among them hath declared ^{the sayings}? "The LORD hath loved Zion, and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans.

15 "I, even I, have spoken; yea, I have called him: I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous.

16 "Come ye near unto me, hear ye this; "I have not spoken in secret from the beginning; from the time that it was, there am I; and now "the LORD GOD, and his Spirit, hath sent me.

17 Thus saith "the LORD, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; I am the LORD thy God which teacheth thee to profit, "which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go.

18 "O that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! "then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea:

19 "Thy seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of thy bowels like the gravel thereof; his name should not have been cut off nor destroyed from before me.

20 "Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans, with a voice of singing declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth; say ye, The LORD hath "redeemed his servant Jacob.

21 And they "trusted not when he led them through the deserts, he "caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them: he clave the rock also, and the waters gushed out.

22 "There is no peace, saith the LORD, unto the wicked.

"Christ, being sent to the Jews, complaineth of them. 5 He to send to the Gentiles with gracious promises. 13 God's love is perpetual to his church. 15 The ample restoration of the church. 24 The powerful deliverance out of captivity.

LISTEN, "O isles, unto me; and I hearken, ye people, from far; "The LORD hath called me from the womb; from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name.

2 And he hath made "my mouth like a sharp sword; "in the shadow of his hand hath he hid me, and made me "a polished shaft; in his quiver hath he hid me;

3 And said unto me, "Thou art my servant, O Israel, "in whom I will be glorified.

judgment is with the LORD, and "my work with my God.

5 "And now, saith the LORD "that formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, "Though Israel "be not gathered, yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the LORD, and my God shall be my strength.

6 And he said, "It is a light thing that thou shouldest be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the "preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a "light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth.

7 Thus saith the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, "to "him whom man despiseth, to him whom the nation abhorreth, to a servant of rulers, "Kings shall see and arise, princes also shall worship, because of the LORD that is faithful, and the Holy One of Israel, and he shall choose thee.

8 Thus saith the LORD, "In an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee: and I will preserve thee, "and give thee for a covenant of the people, to "establish the earth, to cause to in- herent the desolate heritages;

9 That thou mayest say, "to the prisoners, Go forth; to them that are in darkness, Shew yourselves. They shall feed in the ways, and their pastures shall be in all high places.

10 They shall not "hunger nor thirst; "neither shall the heat nor sun smite them: for he that hath mercy on them "shall lead them, even by the springs of water shall he guide them.

11 "And I will make all my moun- tains a way, and my highways shall be exalted.

12 Behold, "these shall come from far: and, lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim.

13 "Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains: for the LORD hath comforted his people, and will have mercy upon his afflicted.

14 "But Zion said, The LORD hath forsaken me, and my Lord hath for- gotten me.

15 "Can a woman forget her sucking child, "that she should not have com- passion on the son of her womb? yea, they may forget, "yet will I not forget thee.

16 Behold, "I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy walls are continually before me.

17 Thy children shall make haste; thy destroyers and they that made thee waste shall go forth of thee.

18 ¶ "Lift up thine eyes round about, and behold: all these gather themselves together, and come to thee. As I live, saith the LORD, thou shalt surely clothe thee with them all, as with an ornament, and bind them on thee, as a bride doeth.

19 For thy waste and thy desolate places, and the land of thy destruction, shall even now be too narrow by reason of the inhabitants, and they that swallowed thee up shall be far away.

20 "The children which thou shalt have, after thou hast lost the other, shall say again in thine ears, The place is too strait for me: give place to me that I may dwell.

21 Then shalt thou say in thine heart, Who hath begotten me these, seeing I have lost my children, and am desolate, a captive, and removing to and fro? and who hath brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where had they been?

22 "Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will lift up mine hand to the Gentiles, and set up my standard to the people: and they shall bring thy sons in their arms, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders.

23 "And kings shall be thy nursing fathers, and their queens thy nursing mothers: they shall bow down to thee with their face toward the earth, and lick up the dust of thy feet; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD: for they shall not be ashamed that wait for me.

24 ¶ "Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captive delivered?

25 But thus saith the LORD, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children.

26 And I will feed them that oppress thee with their own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine; and all flesh shall know that I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob.

vorcement, whom I have put away? or which of my creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities have ye sold yourselves, and for your transgressions is your mother put away.

2 Wherefore, when I came, was there none to man? when I called, was there none to answer? Is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stinketh, because there is no water, and dieth for thirst.

3 I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering.

4 The Lord God hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary: he wakeneth morning by morning, he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned.

5 ¶ The Lord God hath opened mine ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away back.

6 I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting.

7 ¶ For the Lord God will help me; therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed.

8 He is near that justifieth me; who will contend with me? let us stand together: who is my mine adversary? let him come near to me.

9 Behold, the Lord God will help me; who is he that shall condemn me? lo, they all shall wax old as a garment; the moth shall eat them up.

10 ¶ Who is among you that feareth the LORD, that obeyeth the voice of his servant, that walketh in darkness, and hath no light? let him trust in the name of the LORD, and stay upon his God.

11 Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, that compass yourselves about with sparks: walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye have kindled.

This shall ye have of mine hand; ye shall lie down in sorrow.

CHAPTER 51.

1 An exhortation to trust in Christ, 4 by reason of his righteous salvation, 7 and man's mortality 9 Christ by his sanctified arm defendeth his people from the fear of man. 17 He bewilleth the afflictions of Jerusalem, 21 and promiseth deliverance.

HEarken to me, ye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek the LORD: look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged.

2 ^aLook unto Abraham your father, and unto Sarah that bare you; ^bfor I called him alone, and ^cblessed him, and increased him.

3 For the LORD ^ashall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert ^blike the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

4 ^aHearken unto me, my people; and give ear unto me, O my nation: ^bfor a law shall proceed from me, and I will make my judgment to rest ^cfor a light of the people.

5 My righteousness is near; my salvation is gone forth, ^aand mine arms shall judge the people; ^bthe isles shall wait upon me, and ^con mine arm shall they trust.

6 ^aLift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for ^bthe heavens shall vanish away like smoke, ^cand the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

7 ^aHearken unto me, ye that know righteousness, the people ^bin whose heart is my law; ^cfear ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye afraid of their revilings.

8 For ^athe moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool: but my righteousness shall be for ever, and my salvation from generation to generation.

9 ^aAwake, awake, ^bput on strength, O arm of the LORD; awake, ^cas in the ancient days, in the generations of old. ^dArt thou not it that hath cut ^eRahab, and wounded the ^fdragon?

10 Art thou not it which hath ^adried the sea, the waters of the great deep; that hath made the depths of the sea a way for the ransomed to pass over?

11 Therefore ^athe redeemed of the LORD shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their head: they shall obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and mourning shall flee away.

12 I, even I, am he ^athat comforteth you; who art thou, that thou shouldst be afraid ^bof a man which shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made ^cas grass;

13 And forgettest the LORD thy maker, ^athat hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and hast feared continually every day because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he ^awere ready to destroy? ^band where is the fury of the oppressor?

14 The captive exile hasteneth that he may be loosed, ^aand that he should not die in the pit, nor that his head should fail.

15 But I am the LORD thy God, that ^adivided the sea, whose waves roared: The LORD of hosts is his name.

16 And ^aI have put my words in thy mouth, and ^bI have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, ^cthat I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art my people.

17 ^aAwake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, which ^bhast drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his fury; ^cthou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out.

18 There is none to guide her among all the sons whom she hath brought forth; neither is there any that taketh her by the hand of all the sons that she hath brought up.

19 ^aThese two things ^bare come unto thee; who shall be sorry for thee? desolation, and ^cdestruction, and the famine, and the sword: ^dby whom shall I comfort thee?

20 Thy sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, as a wild bull in a net: they are full of the fury of the LORD, the rebuke of thy God.

21 ^aTherefore hear now this, thou afflicted, and drunken, ^bbut not with wine:

22 Thus saith thy Lord the LORD, and thy God ^athat pleadeth the cause of his people, Behold, I have taken out of thine hand the cup of trembling, even the dregs of the cup of my fury; thou shalt no more drink it again:

23 But ^aI will put it into the hand of them that afflict thee; ^bwhich have said to thy soul, Bow down, that we may go over; and thou hast laid thy body as the ground, and as the street, to them that went over.

CHAPTER 52.

1 Christ persuadeth the church to believe his free redemption, 7 to receive the millitars thereof, 9 to joy in the power thereof, 11 and to free themselves from bondage, 13 Christ's kingdom shall be exalted

AWAKE, ^aawake; put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, ^bthe holy city: for ^chenceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised ^dand the unclean.

2 Shake thyself from the dust; arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem:

"loose thyself from the bands of thy neck. O captive daughter of Zion.

3 For thus saith the LORD, "Ye have sold yourselves for nought; and ye shall be redeemed without money.

4 For thus saith the Lord God, My people went down aforetime into "Egypt to sojourn there; and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause.

5 Now therefore, what have I here, saith the LORD, that my people is taken away for nought? they that rule over them make them to howl, saith the LORD; and my name continually every day is "blasphemed.

6 Therefore my people shall know my name: therefore they shall know in that day that I am he that doth speak: behold, it is I.

7 "How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, "Thy God reigneth!

8 Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion.

9 "Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the LORD hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem.

10 "The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and "all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

11 "Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; "be ye clean, that bear the vessels of the LORD.

12 For "ye shall not go out with haste, nor go by flight: "for the LORD will go before you; "and the God of Israel "will be your rereward.

13 "Behold, "my servant shall deal prudently, "he shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high.

14 As many were astonished at thee; his "visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men:

15 "So shall he sprinkle many nations: the kings shall shut their mouths at him: for that "which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider.

WHO "hath believed our "report? and to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed?

2 For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

3 "He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and "acquainted with grief: and "we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and "we esteemed him not.

4 "Surely "he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

5 But he was "wounded^s for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his "stripes^s we are healed.

6 All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD "hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet "he opened not his mouth: "he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth.

8 "He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for "he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people "was he stricken.

9 "And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his "death; because he had done no violence, neither was any "deceit in his mouth.

10 "Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: "when thou shalt make his soul "an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.

11 He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall "my righteous "servant "justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities.

12 "Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, "and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was "numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and "made intercession for the transgressors.

CHAPTER 54.

1 The prophet propheseth the amplitude of their church, & their safety, &c.

SING, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the LORD.

2 Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes;

3 For thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left; and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and maketh desolate cities to be inhabited.

4 Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed: neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more.

5 For thy Maker is thine husband; the LORD of hosts is his name; and thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel; The God of the whole earth shall he be called.

6 For the LORD hath called thee as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when thou wast refused, saith thy God

7 For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee.

8 In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the LORD thy Redeemer.

9 For this is as the waters of Noah unto me: for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth; so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee.

10 For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the LORD that hath mercy on thee.

11 O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, behold, I will lay thy stones with fair colours, and lay thy foundations with sapphires.

12 And I will make thy windows of agates, and thy gates of carbuncles, and all thy borders of pleasant stones.

13 And all thy children shall be taught of the LORD; and great shall be the peace of thy children.

14 In righteousness shalt thou be established: thou shalt be far from oppression; for thou shalt not fear: and from terror: for it shall not come near thee.

15 Behold, they shall surely gather together, but not by me: whosoever shall gather together against thee shall fall for thy sake.

16 Behold, I have created the smith that bloweth the coals in the fire, and that bringeth forth an instrument for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy.

17 No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness is of me, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 55.

1 The prophet, with the promises of Christ, calleth to Joah, & unto repentance 2 The happy success of them that believe.

HO, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price

2 Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness

3 Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

4 Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people

5 Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee because of the LORD thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he hath glorified thee.

6 Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near:

7 Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto the LORD, and how will he have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

8 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD.

9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

10 For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater:

11 "So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

12 "For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

13 "Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

CHAPTER 56.

1 The prophet exhorteth to sanctification 3 He promiseth it shall be general without respect of persons 5 He rebuketh against blind watchmen.

THEUS saith the LORD, Keep ye judgment, and do justice: for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed.

2 Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it; that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil.

3 ¶ Neither let the son of the stranger, that hath joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, The LORD hath utterly separated me from his people: neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree.

4 For thus saith the LORD unto the eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and take hold of my covenant;

5 Even unto them will I give in mine house and within my walls a place, and a name better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off.

6 Also the sons of the stranger, that join themselves to the LORD, to serve him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant;

7 Even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar; for mine house shall be called an house of prayer for all people.

8 The Lord GOD which gathereth the outcasts of Israel saith, Yet will I gather others to him, beside those that are gathered unto him.

9 ¶ All ye beasts of the field, come to devour, yea, all ye beasts in the forest.

CHAPTER 57.

1 The blessed death of the righteous 3 God reproveth the Jews for their worship idolatry 13 He giveth evangelical promises to the penitent

THE righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart: and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come.

2 He shall enter into peace: they shall rest in their beds, each one walking in his uprightness.

3 ¶ But draw near hither, ye sons of the sorceress, the seed of the adulterer and the whore.

4 Against whom do ye sport yourselves? against whom make ye a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue? are ye not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood,

5 Enflaming yourselves with idols under every green tree, slaying the children in the valleys under the cliffs of the rocks?

6 Among the smooth stones of the stream is thy portion; they, they are thy lot: even to them hast thou poured a drink offering, thou hast offered a meat offering. Should I receive comfort in these?

7 Upon a lofty and high mountain hast thou set thy bed: even thither wentest thou up to offer sacrifice.

8 Behind the doors also and the posts hast thou set up thy remembrance, for thou hast discovered thyself to another than me, and art gone up; thou hast enlarged thy bed, and made thee a covenant with them; thou lovedst their bed where thou sawest it.

9 And thou wentest to the king with ointment, and didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thy messengers far off, and didst debase thyself even unto hell.

10 Thou art wearied in the greatness of thy way; yet saidst thou not, There is no hope: thou hast found the life of thine hand; therefore thou wast not grieved.

11 And of whom hast thou been afraid or feared, that thou hast lied, and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart? ¹have not I held my peace even of old, and thou fearest me not?

¹² I will declare thy righteousness, and thy works; for they shall not profit thee.

¹³ ¶ When thou criest, let thy companies deliver thee; but the wind shall carry them all away; vanity shall take them: but he that putteth his trust in me shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain;

¹⁴ And shall say, 'Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumblingblock out of the way of my people.

¹⁵ For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, ²whose name is Holy; 'I dwell in the high and holy place, ³with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, ⁴to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

¹⁶ ¶ For I will not contend for ever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirit should fail before me, and the souls ⁵which I have made.

¹⁷ For the iniquity of ⁶his covetousness was I wroth, and smote him: ⁷'I hid me, and was wroth, ⁸and he went on ⁹'frowardly in the way of his heart.

¹⁸ I have seen his ways, and ¹⁰'will heal him: I will lead him also, and restore comforts unto him and to ¹¹his mourners.

¹⁹ I create ¹²the fruit of the lips; Peace, peace ¹³to him that is far off, and to him that is near, saith the Lord; and I will heal him.

²⁰ ¶ But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt.

²¹ ¶ There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

¹ The prophet, being sent to reprove hypocrisy, 1. ex-presseth a counterfeit fast and a true. ² He declares what promises are due unto godliness, &c.

CRY aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.

² Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinances of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God.

³ ¶ Wherefore have we fasted, say they, and thou seest not? ⁴wherefore have we ⁵'afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast ye find pleasure, and exact all your ⁶labours.

⁸ Is not this the fast that I have chosen? ⁹to loose the bands of wickedness, ¹⁰to undo ¹¹the heavy burdens, and ¹²to let the ¹³'oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke?

⁷ Is it not ¹⁴to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are ¹⁵cast out to thy house? ¹⁶'when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from ¹⁷thine own flesh?

⁸ ¶ Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily: and thy righteousness shall go before thee, ⁹'the glory of the Lord ¹⁰shall be thy reward.

⁹ Then shalt thou call, and the Lord shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am. If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and ¹¹'speaking vanity;

¹⁰ And ¹²'thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noon day:

¹¹ And the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in ¹³'drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters ¹⁴fail not.

¹² And they that shall be of thee ¹⁵'shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.

¹⁴ ¶ Then shalt thou delight thyself in the Lord; and I will cause thee to ¹⁹'ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: "for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

CHAPTER 59.

1 The damnable nature of sin. 3 The sins of the Jews 9 Calamity is for sin 16 Salvation is only of God. 20 The covenant of the Redeemer

BEHOLD, the LORD's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear.

2 But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.

3 For "your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity, your lips have spoken lies, your tongue hath muttered perverseness.

4 None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.

5 They hatch "cockatrice" eggs, and weave the spider's web: he that eateth of their eggs dieth, and "that which is crushed breaketh out into a viper.

6 "Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their bands.

7 "Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and "destruction are in their paths.

8 The way of peace they know not; and there is no "judgment in their goings: they have made them crooked paths: whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace.

9 ¶ Therefore is judgment far from us, neither doth justice overtake us: "we wait for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness.

10 "We grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noon day in the night; we are in desolate places as dead men.

11 We roar all like bears, and "mourn sore like doves: we look for judgment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us.

12 For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us; and as for our iniquities, we know them;

CHAPTER 60.

1 The glory of the church in the abundant access of the Gentiles, 15 and the great blessings after a short affliction ARISE, "shine; "for thy light is come, and "the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.

2 For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

3 And the "Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

4 "Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, "they come to thee thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side.

5 Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because "the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.

6 The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah, all they from Sheba shall come: they shall bring gold and incense; and they shall shew forth the praises of the LORD.

7 All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together unto thee, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister unto thee: they shall come up with acceptance on mine altar, and I will glorify the house of my glory.

8 Who are these that fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows?

9 Surely the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring thy sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, unto the name of the LORD thy God, and to the Holy One of Israel, because he hath glorified thee.

10 And the sons of strangers shall build up thy walls, and their kings shall minister unto thee; for in my wrath I smote thee, but in my favour have I had mercy on thee.

11 Therefore thy gates shall be open continually: they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring unto thee the forces of the Gentiles, and that their kings may be brought.

12 For the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted.

13 The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the fir tree, the pine tree, and the box together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will make the place of my feet glorious.

14 The sons also of them that afflicted thee shall come bending unto thee; and all they that despised thee shall bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee, The city of the LORD, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

15 Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man went through thee, I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.

16 Thou shalt also suck the milk of the Gentiles, and shalt suck the breast of kings: and thou shalt know that I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob.

for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron: I will also make thy officers peace, and thine exactors righteousness.

18 Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders; but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise.

19 The sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the LORD shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory.

20 Thy sun shall no more go down; neither shall thy moon withdraw itself: for the LORD shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended.

21 Thy people also shall be all righteous: they shall inherit the land for ever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified.

22 A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation: I the LORD will hasten it in his time.

CHAPTER 61.

1 The office of Christ 4 The former dress, 7 and blessings of the faithful

THE Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;

2 To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn;

3 To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified.

4 ¶ And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.

5 And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers.

6 But ye shall be named the Priests of the LORD: men shall call you the Ministers of our God: ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves.

7 ¶ ^aFor your shame ye shall have double; and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double: everlasting joy shall be unto them.

8 For ^cI the LORD love judgment, ^aI hate robbery for burnt offering; and I will direct their work in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

9 And their seed shall be known among the Gentiles, and their offspring among the people: all that see them shall acknowledge them, ^athat they are the seed which the LORD hath blessed.

10 ^cI will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for ^bhe hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, ^aas a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels.

11 For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the LORD God will cause ^arighteousness and ^apraise to spring forth before all the nations.

CHAPTER 62.

1 The fervent desire of the prophet to confirm the church in God's promises. 5 The office of the ministers (unto which they are incited) in preaching the gospel, 10 and preparing the people thereto

FOR Zion's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until the righteousness thereof go forth as brightness, and the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth.

2 ^aAnd the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: ^aand thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name.

3 Thou shalt also be ^aa crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God.

4 ^aThou shalt no more be termed ^aForsaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed ^aDesolate: but thou shalt be called ^aHephzibah, and thy land ^aBeulah: for the LORD delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married.

5 ¶ For as a young man marryeth a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee: and ^aas the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so ^ashall thy God rejoice over thee.

hold their peace day nor night: ^aye that make mention of the LORD, keep not silence,

7 And give him no ^arest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem ^aa praise in the earth

8 The LORD hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, ^aSurely I will no more ^agive thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine, for the which thou hast laboured:

9 But they that have gathered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; and they that have brought it together shall drink it ^ain the courts of my holiness.

10 ¶ Go through, go through the gates; ^aprepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones; ^alift up a standard for the people.

11 Behold, the LORD hath proclaimed unto the end of the world, ^aSay ye to the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy salvation cometh; behold, his ^areward is with him, and his ^awork before him.

12 And they shall call them, The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD: and thou shalt be called, Sought out, A city ^anot forsaken.

CHAPTER 63.

1 Christ sheweth who he is, 2 what his victory over his enemies, 7 and what his mercy toward his church. 10 In his just wrath he remembereth his free mercy. 12 The church in their prayers, 17 and complaint, joyeth therein

WHO is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? ^athis that is ^aglorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.

2 Wherefore ^aart thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the winefat?

3 I have ^atrodde[n] the winepress alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment

4 For the ^aday of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.

5 ^aAnd I looked, and ^athere was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own ^aarm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me.

6 And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and ^amake them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth

7 ¶ I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the LORD, and the pi uses of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses

8 For he said, Surely they are my people, children that will not lie so, he was their Saviour

9 ¶ In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bare them, and carried them all the days of old

10 ¶ But they rebelled, and provoked his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them

11 Then he remembered the days of old, Moses, and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of his flock? where is he that put his holy Spirit within him?

12 That led them by the right hand of Moses, with his glorious arm, dividing the water before them, to make himself an everlasting name?

13 That led them through the deep, as an horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble?

14 As a beast goeth down into the valley, the Spirit of the LORD caused him to rest: so didst thou lead thy people, to make thyself a glorious name

15 ¶ Look down from heaven, and behold from the habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory where is thy zeal and thy strength, the sound of thy bowels and of thy mercies toward me? are they restrained?

16 Doubtless thou art our father, though Abraham be ignorant of us, and Israel acknowledge us not thou, O LORD, art our father, our redeemer, thy name is from everlasting

17 ¶ O LORD, why hast thou made us to err from thy ways, and hardened our heart from thy fear? Return for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thine inheritance

18 The people of thy holiness have possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary

19 We are thine thou never barest rule over them, they were not called by thy name.

CHAPTER 64

1 The church prayeth for the illustration of God's power 5 Celebrating God's mercy at mankind's conversion of their natural corruptions 9 It complains of their affliction.

OH that thou wouldest rend the heavens, that thou wouldest come down, that the mountains might flow down at thy presence,

2 As when the melting fire burneth, the fire causeth the waters to boil, to make thy name known to thine adversaries, that the nations may tremble at thy presence!

3 When thou didst terrible things which we looked not for, thou camest down, the mountains flowed down at thy presence.

4 For since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye seen, O God, beside thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him

5 Thou meetest him that rejoiceth and worketh righteousness, those that remember thee in thy ways be hold, thou art wroth: for we have sinned in those is continuance, and we shall be saved

6 But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags, and we all do fade as a leaf, and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

7 And there is none that calleth upon thy name, that stretcheth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast consumed us, because of our iniquities.

8 But now, O LORD, thou art our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand

9 ¶ Be not wroth very sore, O LORD, neither remember iniquity for ever: behold, see, we beseech thee, we are all thy people.

10 Thy holy cities are a wilderness, Zion is a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation

11 ¶ Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, is burned up with fire, and all our pleasant things are laid waste

12 Wilt thou refrain thyself for these things, O LORD? wilt thou hold thy peace, and afflict us very sore?

CHAPTER 65.

1 The calling of the Gentiles. 2 The Jews for their incredulity re-jected; and hypocrites are re-jected. 8 A remnant shall be saved. 11 Judgments on the wicked and blessings on the godly. 17 The blessed state of the new Jerusalem.

I ^aAM sought of them that asked not for me, I am found of them that sought me not: I said, Behold me, behold me, unto a nation that ^cwas not called by my name

2 ^dI have spread out my hands all the day unto a rebellious people, which walketh in a way that was not good, after their own thoughts;

3 A people ^ethat provoketh me to anger continually to my face; ^fthat sacrificeth ^gin gardens, and burneth incense ^hupon altars of brick;

4 ⁱWhich remain among the graves, and lodge in the monuments, ^jwhich eat swine's flesh, and ^kbroth of abominable things ^lis in their vessels;

5 ^mWhich say, Stand by thyself, come not near to me; for I am holier than thou. These ⁿare a smoke in my ^onose, a fire that burneth all the day.

6 Behold, ^pit is written before me: ^qI will not keep silence, ^rbut will recompense, even recompense into their bosom,

7 Your iniquities, and ^sthe iniquities of your fathers together, saith the LORD, ^twhich have burned incense upon the mountains, ^uand blasphemed me upon the hills: therefore will I measure their former work into their bosom

8 ^v¶ Thus saith the LORD, As the new wine is found in the cluster, and ^wone saith, Destroy it not; for ^xa blessing is in it: so will I do for my servants' sakes, that I may not destroy them all.

9 And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains: and mine ^yelect shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there.

10 And ^zSharon shall be a fold of flocks, and ^{aa}the valley of Achor a place for the herds to lie down in, for my people that have sought me.

11 ^{ab}¶ But ye are they that forsake the LORD, that forget ^{ac}my holy mountain, that prepare ^{ad}a table for that ^{ae}troop, and that furnish the drunk offering unto that ^{af}number.

12 Therefore will I number you to the sword, and ye shall all bow down to the slaughter: ^{ag}because when I called, ye did not answer; when I spake, ye did not hear; but did evil before mine eyes, and did choose ^{ah}that wherein I delighted not.

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed:

14 Behold, my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and ^gshall howl for vexation of spirit.

15 And ye shall leave your name ^hfor a curse unto ⁱmy chosen: for the Lord GOD shall slay thee, and ^jcall his servants by another name.

16 ^kThat he who blesseth himself in the earth shall bless himself in the God of truth; and ^lhe that sweareth in the earth shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are bid from mine eyes.

17 ^m¶ For, behold, I create ⁿnew heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor ^ocome into mind.

18 But be ye glad and rejoice for ever ^pin that which I create: for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy.

19 And ^qI will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and the ^rvoice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.

20 There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die an hundred years old; ^sbut the sinner being an hundred years old shall be accursed.

21 And ^tthey shall build houses, and inhabit ^uthem, and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.

22 They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for ^vas the days of a tree ^ware the days of my people, and ^xmine elect ^yshall long enjoy the work of their hands.

23 They shall not labour in vain, ^znor bring forth for trouble; for ^{aa}they are the seed of the blessed of the LORD, and their offspring with them.

24 And it shall come to pass, that ^{ab}before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear.

25 The ^{ac}wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the bullock: ^{ad}and dust ^{ae}shall be the serpent's meat. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 66.

1 The glorious God will be served in humble simplicity: 5 He comforteth the humble with the marvellous generation, 10 and with the gracious benefits of the church 15 God's severe judgments. 18 The Gentiles shall have an holy church

¶ Thus saith the LORD, ^aThe heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the bouse that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest?

2 For all those things hath mine hand made, and all those things have been, saith the LORD: but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and trembleth at my word.

3 He that killeth an ox is as if he slew a man; he that sacrificeth a lamb, as if he cut off a dog's neck, he that offereth an oblation, as if he offered swine's blood; he that burneth incense, as if he blessed an idol. Yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth in their abominations.

4 I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.

5 Hear the word of the LORD, ye that tremble at his word; Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, "Let the LORD be glorified, but he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed."

6 A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the LORD that rendereth recompence to his enemies.

7 Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man child.

8 Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children.

9 Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? saith the LORD: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God.

10 Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all ye that love her: rejoice for joy with her, all ye that mourn for her:

11 That ye may suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may milk out, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream: then shall ye suck, ye shall be borne upon her sudes, and be dandled upon her knees.

13 As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

14 And when ye see this, your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like an herb: and the band of the LORD shall be known toward his servants, and his indignation toward his enemies.

15 For, behold, the LORD will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire.

16 For by fire and by his sword will the LORD plead with all flesh: and the slain of the LORD shall be many.

17 They that sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens behind one tree in the midst, eating swine's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, shall be consumed together, saith the LORD.

18 For I know their works and their thoughts: it shall come, that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come, and see my glory.

19 And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those that escape of them unto the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal, and Javan, to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles.

20 And they shall bring all your brethren for an offering unto the LORD out of all nations upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, saith the LORD, as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD.

21 And I will also take of them for priests and for Levites, saith the LORD.

22 For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain.

23 And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the LORD.

24 And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcasses of the men that have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET JEREMIAH.

CHAPTER 1.

1 The time, 3 and the calling of Jeremiah. 11 His prophetic visions. 15 His heavy message against Judah. 17 God encourageth him with his promise of assistance

THE words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests that were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin.

2 To whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign.

3 It came also in the days of Jehoiahim the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month.

4 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

6 Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! behold, I am a child.

7 ¶ But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak.

8 Be not afraid of their faces: for I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

9 Then the LORD put forth his hand, and touched my mouth. And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth.

10 See, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

11 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a rod of an almond tree.

12 Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seen: for I will hasten my word to perform it.

13 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see a seething pot; and the face thereof is toward the north.

14 Then the LORD said unto me, Out of the north an evil shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land.

15 For, lo, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, saith the LORD: and they shall come, and they shall set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the cities of Judah.

16 And I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, who have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands.

17 ¶ Thou therefore gird up thy loins, and arise, and speak unto them all that I command thee: be not dismayed at their faces, lest I confound thee before them.

18 For, behold, I have made thee this day a fenced city, and an iron pillar, and brasen walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against the people of the land.

19 And they shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee; for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.

CHAPTER 2.

1 God expostulateth with the Jews their careless revolt, & beyond any example. 14 They are the cause of their own calamities. 20 The sins of Judah. 31 Her confidence is rejected.

MOREOVER the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

2 Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; I remember thee, the kindness of thy youth, the love of thine espousals, when thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

3 Israel was holiness unto the LORD, and the firstfruits of his increase: all that devour him shall offend, evil shall come upon them, saith the LORD.

4 Hear ye the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel:

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain?

6 Neither said they, Where is the LORD that ^abrought us up out of the land of Egypt, that led us through ^athe wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought, and of the shadow of death, through a land that no man passed through, and where no man dwelt.

7 And I brought you into ^aa plentiful country, to eat the fruit thereof and the goodneſs thereof, but when ye entered, ye ^adeſtroyed my land, and made mine heritage an abomination.

8 The priests said not, Where is the LORD? and they that handle the ^alaw knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit.

9 ¶ Wherefore ^aI will yet plead with you, saith the LORD, and with your children's children will I plead.

10 For pass ^aover the isles of Chittim, and see; and send unto Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing.

11 ^aHath a nation changed their gods, which are ^ayet no gods? but my people have changed their glory for that which doth not profit.

12 Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the LORD.

13 For my people have committed two evils, they have forsaken me the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

14 ¶ Is Israel ^aa servant? is he a homeborn slave? why is he ^aspoiled?

15 The young lions roared upon him, and ^ayelled, and they made his land waste: his cities are burned without inhabitant.

16 Also the children of Noph and Tahapanes ^ahave broken the crown of thy head.

17 Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, when ^ahe led thee by the way?

18 And now wast hast thou to do in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of ^aSihor? or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river?

19 Thine own wickedness shall correct thee and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the LORD God of hosts.

20 ¶ For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands, and ^athou saidst, I will not ^atransgress, when ^aupon every high hill and under every green tree thou wanderest, playing the harlot.

21 Yet I had ^aplanted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me?

22 For though thou wash thee with nitre, and take thee much sope, yet thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the LORD God.

23 How canst thou say, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Baalim? see thy way in the valley, know what thou hast done: ^athou art a swift dromedary traversing her ways;

24 A wild ass ^aused to the wilderness, that snuffeth up the wind at ^aher pleasure; in her occasion who can turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves, in her month they shall find her.

25 Withhold thy foot from being unshod, and thy throat from thirst: but thou saidst, There is no hope no; for I have loved ^astrangers and after them will I go.

26 As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets, 27 Saying to a stock, Thou art my father; and to a stone, Thou hast brought me forth: for they have turned ^atheir back unto me, and not ^atheir face: but in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise, and save us.

28 But ^awhere are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy trouble: for ^aaccording to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah.

29 Wherefore will ye plead with me? ye all have transgressed against me, saith the LORD.

30 In vain have I ^asmitten your children; they received no correction: your own word hath ^adevoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.

31 ¶ O generation see ye the word of the LORD. Have I been a wilderness unto Israel? and of darkness? have I fore said my people, We are lords, we will come no more unto thee?

32 Can a maid forget her ornaments or a bride her attire? yet my people have forgotten me, without number.

33 Why trimmest thou thy way to seek love? therefore hast thou also taught the wicked ones thy ways.

34 Also in thy skirts is found the blood of the souls of the poor innocents. I have not found it by ^asecret search, but upon all these.

35 "Yet thou sayest, Because I am innocent, surely his anger shall turn from me. Behold, ^aI will plead with thee, ^bbecause thou sayest, I have not sinned.

36 "Why gaddest thou about so much to change thy way? ^athou also shalt be ashamed of Egypt, ^bas thou wast ashamed of Assyria.

37 Yea, thou shalt go forth from him, and ^athine hands upon thine head: for the LORD hath rejected thy confidences, and thou shalt not prosper in them.

CHAPTER 3.

1 God's great mercy in Judah's vile whoredom. 6 Judah is worse than Israel 13 The promise of the gospel to the penitent 20 Israel re-proved, maketh a solemn confession of their sins.

THEY ^asay, If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's, ^bshall he return unto her again? shall not that ^cland be greatly polluted? but thou hast ^dplayed the harlot with many lovers; ^eyet return again to me, saith the LORD.

2 Lift up thine eyes unto ^athe high places, and see where thou hast not been lien with. ^bIn the ways hast thou sat for them, as the Arabian in the wilderness; ^cand thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms and with thy wickedness.

3 Therefore the ^ashowers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; and thou hadst a ^bwhore's forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed.

4 Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me, My father, thou art ^athe guide of ^bmy youth?

5 ^aWill he reserve his anger for ever? will he keep it to the end? Behold, thou hast spoken and done evil things as thou couldest.

6 ^a¶ The LORD said also unto me in the days of Josiah the king, Hast thou seen ^bthat which ^cbacksliding Israel hath done? she is ^dgone up upon every high mountain and under every green tree, and there hath played the harlot.

7 ^aAnd I said after she had done all these things, Turn thou unto me. But she returned not. And her treacherous ^bsister Judah saw it.

8 And I saw, when ^afor all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery I had ^bput her away, and given her a bill of divorce; ^cyet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and played the harlot also.

9 And it came to pass through the ^alightness of her whoredom, that she

10 And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah hath not turned unto me ^awith her whole heart, but ^bfeignedly, saith the LORD.

11 And the LORD said unto me, ^aThe backsliding Israel hath justified herself more than treacherous Judah.

12 ^a¶ Go and proclaim these words toward ^bthe north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the LORD; ^cand I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you: for I am ^dmerciful, saith the LORD, and I will not keep anger for ever.

13 ^aOnly acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the LORD thy God, and hast ^bscattered thy ways to the ^cstrangers ^dunder every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the LORD.

14 Turn, O backsliding children, saith the LORD; ^afor I am married unto you: and I will take you ^bone of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion:

15 And I will give you ^apastors according to mine heart, which shall ^bfeed you with knowledge and understanding.

16 And it shall come to pass, when ye be multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, saith the LORD, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of the LORD: ^aneither shall it ^bcome to mind: neither shall they remember it; neither shall they visit it; neither shall ^cthat be done any more.

17 At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of the LORD; and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, ^ato the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem: neither shall they ^bwalk any more after the ^cimagination of their evil heart.

18 In those days ^athe house of Judah shall walk ^bwith the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of ^cthe north to ^dthe land that I have ^egiven for an inheritance unto your fathers.

19 But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee ^aa pleasant land, ^ba goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? and I said, Thou shalt call me, ^cMy father; and shalt not turn away ^dfrom me.

20 ^a¶ Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her ^bhusband, so ^chave ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the LORD.

21 A voice was heard upon ^athe high places, weeping and supplications of the children of Israel: for they have perverted their way, and they have forgotten the LORD their God.

22 "Return, ye backsliding children, and "I will heal your backslidings. Behold, we come unto thee; for thou art the LORD our God.

23 "Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills, and from the multitude of mountains: truly in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel.

24 "For shame hath devoured the labour of our fathers from our youth; their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.

25 We be down in our shame, and our confusion covereth us: for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even unto this day, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.

CHAPTER 4.

1 God calleth Israel: 3 He exhorteth Judah to repentance: 10 The misery of Judah.

IF thou wilt return, O Israel, saith the LORD, return unto me: and if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my sight, then shalt thou not remove

2 "And thou shalt swear, The LORD liveth, in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; and the nations shall hless themselves in him, and in him shall they glory.

3 "If for thus saith the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, "Break up your fallow ground, and "sow not among thorns

4 "Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem: lest my fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

5 Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry, gather together, and say, "Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the defended cities.

6 Set up the standard toward Zion: retire, stay not: for I will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction.

7 "The lion is come up from his thicket, and the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place to make thy land desolate, and thy cities shall be laid waste, without an inhabitant.

8 For thus saith the LORD, I will bring sackcloth, lament and howl for the fierce anger of the LORD is not turned back from us.

9 And it shall come to pass at that day, saith the LORD, that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder.

10 Then said I, Ah, Lord God! surely thou hast greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall have peace; whereas the sword reacheth unto the soul.

11 At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, "A dry wind of the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to cleanse, 12 Even "a full wind from those places shall come unto me: now also will I "give sentence against them.

13 Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and "his chariots shall be as a whirlwind: "his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe unto us! for we are spoiled.

14 O Jerusalem, "wash thine heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved. How long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee?

15 For a voice declareth "from Dan, and publisheth affliction from mount Ephraim.

16 Make ye mention to the nations; behold, publish against Jerusalem, that watchers come "from a far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah.

17 "As keepers of a field, are they against her round about; because she hath been rebellious against me, saith the LORD.

18 "Thy way and thy doings have procured these things unto thee; thus is thy wickedness, because it is bitter, because it reacheth unto thine heart.

19 "My bowels, my bowels! I am pained at "my very heart; my heart maketh a noise in me; I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.

20 "Destruction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land is spoiled: suddenly are "my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment.

21 How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?

22 For my people is foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: "they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

23 "I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was without form, and void; and the heavens, and they had no light.

24 "I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly.

25 I beheld, and, lo, there was no man, and ^aall the birds of the heavens were fled.

26 I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the presence of the LORD, and by his fierce anger.

27 For thus hath the LORD said, The whole land shall be desolate; ^ayet will I not make a full end.

28 For this ^ashall the earth mourn, and ^athe heavens above be black; because I have spoken ^ait, I have purposed ^ait, and ^awill not repent, neither will I turn back from it.

29 The whole city shall flee for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen; they shall go into thickets, and climb up upon the rocks: every city shall be forsaken, and not a man dwell therein.

30 And when thou art spoiled, what wilt thou do? Though thou clovest thyself with crimson, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, ^athough thou rentest thy ^aface with painting, in vain shalt thou make thyself fair; ^athy lovers will despise thee, they will seek thy life.

31 For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, and the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, that bewaileth herself, that ^aspreadeth her hands, saying, Woe is me now! for my soul is wearied because of murderers.

CHAPTER 5.

1 The judgments of God upon the Jews, for perverseness, 7 for adultery, 10 for impiety, 19 for contempt of God, 25 and for their great corruption.

RUN ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, ^aif ye can find a man, ^aif there be any that executeth judgment, that seeketh the truth; ^aand I will pardon it.

2 And ^athough they say, ^aThe LORD liveth; surely they ^aswear falsely.

3 O LORD, are not ^athine eyes upon the truth? thou hast ^astricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but ^athey have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return.

4 Therefore I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish: for ^athey know not the way of the LORD, nor the judgment of their God.

5 I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for ^athey have known the way of the LORD, and the judgment of their God: but these have altogether ^abroken the yoke, and burst the bonds.

6 Wherefore ^aa lion out of the forest shall slay them, ^aand a wolf of the ^aevenings shall spoil them, ^aa leopard shall watch over their cities: every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces: because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings ^aare increased.

7 How shall I pardon thee for this? thy children have forsaken me, and ^asworn by them ^athat are no gods: ^awhen I had fed them to the full, they then committed adultery, and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses.

8 They were as fed horses in the morning: every one ^aneighed after his neighbour's wife.

9 Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: ^aand shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy; ^abut make not a full end: take away her battlements; for they are not the LORD'S.

11 For ^athe house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD.

12 They have belied the LORD, and said, ^aIt is not he; neither shall evil come upon us; ^aneither shall we see sword nor famine:

13 And the prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them: thus shall it be done unto them.

14 Wherefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, Because ye speak this word, ^abehold, I will make my words in thy mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them.

15 Lo, I will bring a ^anation upon you ^afrom far, O house of Israel, saith the LORD: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say.

16 Their quiver is as an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men.

17 And they shall eat up thine ^aharvest, and thy broad, which thy sons and thy daughters should eat. they shall eat up thy flocks and thine herds: they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig trees: they shall impoverish thy fenced cities, wherem thou trustedst, with the sword.

18 Nevertheless in those days, saith the LORD, I ^awill not make a full end with you.

19 And it shall come to pass, when ye shall say, ^aWherefore doeth the LORD our God all these things unto ¹you; then shalt thou answer them, Like as ye have forsaken me, and served strange gods in your land, so shall ye serve strangers in a land that is not your's.

20 Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying,

21 Hear now this, O foolish people, and without understanding, which have eyes, and see not; which have ears, and hear not

22 Fear ye not me? saith the LORD: will ye not tremble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the bound of thesea by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it: and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it?

23 But this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone.

24 Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God, that he giveth rain, both the former and the latter, in his season: he reserveth unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest.

25 ¶ Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withholden good things from you.

26 For among my people are found wicked men: they lay wait, as he that setteth snares; they set a trap, they catch men.

27 As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxen rich.

28 They are waxen fat, they shine; yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge.

29 Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

30 ¶ A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land;

31 The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and set up a sign of fire in Beth-haccerem. For evil appeareth out of the north, and great destruction

2 I have likened the daughter of Zion to a comely and delicate woman.

3 The shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her; they shall pitch their tents against her round about; they shall feed every one in his place.

4 Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up at noon. Woe unto us! for the day goeth away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out.

5 Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her palaces.

6 ¶ For thus hath the LORD of hosts said, Hew ye down trees, and cast a mount against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she is wholly oppression in the midst of her.

7 As a fountain casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her wickedness: violence and spoil is hired in her; before me continually is grief and wounds.

8 Be thou instructed, O Jerusalem, lest my soul depart from thee; lest I make thee desolate, a land not inhabited.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn back thine hand as a grapegatherer into the baskets.

10 To whom shall I speak, and give warning, that they may hear? behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken; behold, the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it.

11 Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD: I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out upon the children abroad, and upon the assembly of young men together: for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him that is full of days.

12 And their houses shall be turned unto others, with their fields and wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD.

13 For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely.

14 They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.

15 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they shall fall among them that fall, at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.

16 Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein.

17 Also I set watchmen over you, saying, Harken to the sound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not hearken.

18 ¶ Therefore hear, ye nations, and know, O congregation, what is among them.

19 Hear, O earth: behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words, nor to my law, but rejected it.

20 To what purpose cometh there to me incense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet unto me.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will lay stumblingblocks before this people, and the fathers and the sons together shall fall upon them; the neighbour and his friend shall perish.

22 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, a people cometh from the north country, and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth.

23 They shall lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roareth like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array as men for war against thee, O daughter of Zion.

24 We have heard the fame thereof: our hands wax feeble; anguish hath taken hold of us, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

25 Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and fear is on every side.

26 ¶ O daughter of my people, gird thee with sackcloth, and wallow thyself in ashes; make thee mourning, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation: for the spoiler shall suddenly come upon us.

27 I have set thee for a tower and a fortress among my people, that thou mayest know and try their way.

28 They are all grievous revolters, walking with slanders: they are brass and iron; they are all corrupters.

29 The bellows are burned, the lead is consumed of the fire; the founder

CHAPTER 7.

1 Jeremiah is sent to call for true repentance, to prevent the Jews' captivity. 8 He rejecteth their vain confidence, 12 by the example of Shiloh. 17 He threatneth them for their idolatry. 29 He exhorteth to mourn for their abominations in Tophet.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Stand in the gate of the LORD's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all ye of Judah, that enter in at these gates to worship the LORD.

3 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place.

4 Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, are these.

5 For if ye thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if ye thoroughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbour;

6 If ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt;

7 Then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever.

8 Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit.

9 Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not;

10 And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations?

11 Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, saith the LORD.

12 But go ye now unto my place which was in Shiloh, where I set my name at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel.

13 And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the LORD, and I spake unto you, rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and I called you, but ye answered not;

14 Therefore will I do unto this house, which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to ¹Shiloh.

¹⁵ And I will cast you out of my sight, ¹⁶ as I have cast out all your brethren, ¹⁷ even the whole seed of Ephraim.

¹⁶ Therefore ¹ pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: ² for I will not hear thee.

¹⁷ ¶ Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

¹⁸ ¹ The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead ² their dough, to make cakes to the ³ queen of heaven, and to ⁴ pour out drink offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.

¹⁹ ¹ Do they provoke me to anger? saith the LORD: ² do they not ³ provoke themselves to the confusion of their own faces?

²⁰ Therefore thus saith the LORD God: Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

²¹ ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ¹ Put your burnt offerings unto your sacrifices, and eat flesh.

²² ¹ For I spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, ² concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices:

²³ But this thing commanded I them, saying, ¹ Obey my voice, and ² I will be your God, and ye shall be my people: and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you.

²⁴ ¹ But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, but ² walked in the counsels and in the ³ imagination of their evil heart, and ⁴ went ⁵ backward, and not forward.

²⁶ ¹ Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but ² hardened their neck: ³ they did worse than their fathers.

²⁷ Therefore ¹ thou shalt speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: thou shalt also call unto them; but they will not answer thee.

²⁸ But thou shalt say unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the ²⁹ ¶ Cut off thine hair, ¹ O Jerusalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on high places; for the LORD hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.

³⁰ For the children of Judah have done evil in my sight, saith the LORD: ¹ they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to pollute it.

³³ And the ¹ carcases of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth; and none shall fray them away.

³⁴ Then will I cause to ¹ cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride: for ² the land shall be desolate.

¹ The calamity of the Jews. ⁴ He upbraideth their foolish and shameless impiety. ¹³ Their grievous judgment, 18 and desperate estate.

² And they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and ¹ whom they have worshipped: they shall not be gathered, ² nor be buried; they shall be for ³ dung upon the face of the earth.

⁴ ¶ Moreover thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD: Shall they fall, and not arise? shall he turn away, and not return?

5 Why then is this people of Jerusalem shidden back by a perpetual backsliding? they hold fast deceit, they refuse to return.

6 I hearkened and heard, but they spake not aright: no man repented him of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? every one turned to his course, as the horse rusheth into the battle.

7 Yea, the stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and the turtle and the crane and the swallow observe the time of their coming; but my people know not the judgment of the LORD.

8 How do ye say, We are wise, and the law of the LORD is with us? Lo, certainly in vain made he it; the pen of the scribes is in vain.

9 The wise men are ashamed, they are dismayed and taken: lo, they have rejected the word of the LORD; and what wisdom is in them?

10 Therefore will I give their wives unto others, and their fields to them that shall inherit them: for every one from the least even unto the greatest is given to covetousness, from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely.

11 For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.

12 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore shall they fall among them that fall: in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.

13 I will surely consume them, saith the LORD: there shall be no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them.

14 Why do we sit still? assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the defence cities, and let us be silent there: for the LORD our God hath put us to silence, and given us water of gall to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD.

15 We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of health, and behold trouble!

16 The snorting of his horses was heard from Dan: the whole land trembled at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones; for they are come, and have devoured the land, and all that is in it; the city, and those that dwell therein.

17 For, behold, I will send serpents, cockatrices, among you, which will not be charmed, and they shall hite you, saith the LORD.

18 ¶ When I would comfort myself against sorrow, my heart is faint in me.

19 Behold the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people because of them that dwell in a far country: Is not the LORD in Zion? is not her king in her? Why have they provoked me to anger with their graven images, and with strange vanities?

20 The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved.

21 For the hurt of the daughter of my people am I hurt; I am black; astonishment hath taken hold on me.

22 Is there no balm in Gilead? is there no physician there? why then is not the health of the daughter of my people recovered?

CHAPTER 9.

1 Jeremiah lamenteth the Jews for their manifold sins, 9 and for their judgment. 12 Disobedience is the cause of their bitter calamity. 17 He exhorteth to mourn for their destruction, 23 and to trust not in themselves, but in God. 25 He threatneth both Jews and Gentiles.

OH that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!

2 Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them: for they be all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men.

3 And they bend their tongues like their bow for lies: but they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth; for they proceed from evil to evil, and they know not me, saith the LORD.

4 Take ye heed every one of his neighbour, and trust ye not in any brother: for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbour will walk with slanders.

5 And they will deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies, and weary themselves to commit iniquity.

6 Thine habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the LORD.

7 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will melt them, and try them; for how shall I do for the daughter of my people?

8 Their tongue is as an arrow shot out; it speaketh deceit: one speaketh peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but in heart he layeth his wait.

9 ¶ "Shall I not visit them for these things? saith the LORD; shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for the habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burned up, so that none can pass through them, neither can men hear the voice of the cattle; both the fowl of the heavens and the beast are fled; they are gone.

11 And I will make Jerusalem heaps, and a den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant.

12 ¶ "Who is the wise man, that may understand this? and who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD hath spoken, that he may declare it, for what the land perisheth and is burned up like a wilderness, that none passeth through?

13 And the LORD saith, Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein;

14 But have walked after the imagination of their own heart, and after Baalim, which their fathers taught them;

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink.

16 I will scatter them also among the heathen, whom neither they nor their fathers have known: and I will send a sword after them, till I have consumed them.

17 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Consider ye, and call for the mourning women, that they may come; and send for cunning women, that they may come:

18 And let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters.

19 For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we spoiled! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because our dwellings have cast us out.

20 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O ye women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth, and teach your daughters wailing, and every one her neighbour lamentation.

21 For death is come up into our windows, and is entered into our palaces, to cut off the children from without, and the young men from the streets.

22 Speak. Thus saith the LORD, Even the carcases of men shall fall as dung upon the open field, and as the handful after the harvestman, and none shall gather them.

23 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches:

24 But let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the LORD which exercise lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the LORD.

25 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will punish all them which are circumcised with the uncircumcised;

26 Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that are in the utmost corners, that dwell in the wilderness, for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in the heart.

CHAPTER 10.

1 The unequal comparison of God and idols 17 The prophet exhorteth to flee from the calamity to come 19 He lamenteth the spoil of the tabernacle by foolish waters 23 He maketh an humble supplication

Hear ye the word which the LORD speaketh unto you, O house of Israel.

2 Thus saith the LORD, Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them.

3 For the customs of the people are vain: for one cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, with the axe.

4 They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not.

5 They are upright as the palm tree, but speak not; they must needs be born, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good.

6 Forasmuch as there is none like unto thee, O LORD; thou art great, and thy name is great in might.

7 Who would not fear thee, O King of nations? for to thee doth it appertain: forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is none like unto thee.

8 But they are altogether brutish and foolish: the stock is a doctrine of vanities.

9 Silver spread into plates is brought from Tarshish, and "gold from Uphaz, the work of the workman, and of the hands of the founder: blue and purple is their clothing: they are all "the work of cunning men.

10 But the LORD is the "true God, he is "the living God, and an "everlasting "king: at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation.

11 "Thus shall ye say unto them, 'The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, even "they shall perish from the earth, and from under these heavens.

12 He "hath made the earth by his power, he hath "established the world by his wisdom, and "hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion.

13 "When he uttereth his voice, there is a "multitude of waters in the heavens, and "he causeth "the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings "with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.

14 "Every man "is 'brutish in his knowledge: "every founder is confounded by the graven image: "for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

15 They are vanity, and the work of errors: in the time of their visitation "they shall perish.

16 "The portion of Jacob is not like them: for he is the former of all things; and "Israel is the rod of his inheritance: "The LORD of hosts is his name.

17 ¶ "Gather up thy wares out of the land, O "inhabitant of the fortress.

18 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will "sling out the inhabitants of the land at this once, and will distress them, "that they may find it so.

19 ¶ "Woe is me for my hurt! my wound is grievous; but I said, "Truly this is a grief, and "I must bear it.

20 "My tabernacle is spoiled, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth of me, and they are not: there is none to stretch forth my tent any more, and to set up my curtains.

21 For the pastors are become brutish, and have not sought the LORD: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered.

22 Behold, the noise of the bruit is come, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah desolate, and a "den of dragons.

23 ¶ O LORD, I know that the "way

CHAPTER 11.

1 Jeremiah proclaimeth God's covenant, 8 rebuketh the Jews disobeying thereof, 11 prophesieth evils to come upon them, 18 and upon the men of Anathoth.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Hear ye the words of this covenant, and speak unto the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem;

3 And say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel; "Cursed be the man that obeyeth not the words of this covenant,

4 Which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, "from the iron furnace, saying, "Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so shall ye be my people, and I will be your God:

5 That I may perform the "oath which I have sworn unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then answered I, and said, "So be it, O LORD.

6 Then the LORD said unto me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, "and do them.

7 For I earnestly protested unto your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, "rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice.

8 "Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but "walked every one in the "imagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do; but they did them not.

9 And the LORD said unto me, "A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

10 They are turned back to "the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers.

11 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able ¹ to escape; and ² though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them.

12 Then shall the cities of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem go, and ³ cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense: but they shall not save them at all in the time of their ⁴ trouble.

13 For according to the number of thy ⁵ cities were thy gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to that ⁶ shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal.

14 Therefore ⁷ pray not thou for this people, neither lift up a cry or prayer for them: for I will not hear ⁸ them in the time that they cry unto me for their ⁹ trouble.

15 What ¹⁰ hath my beloved to do in mine house, seeing she hath ¹¹ wrought lewdness with many, and ¹² the holy flesh is passed from thee? ¹³ When thou dost evil, then thou ¹⁴ rejoicest.

16 The LORD called thy name, ¹⁵ A green olive tree, fair, and of goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult be hath kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken.

17 For the LORD of hosts, ¹⁶ that planted thee, hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke me to anger in offering incense unto Baal.

18 ¶ And the LORD hath given me knowledge of it, and I know it: then thou shewest me their doings.

19 But I was like a lamb or an ox that is brought to the slaughter; and I knew not that they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy ¹⁷ the tree with the fruit thereof, ¹⁸ and let us cut him off from ¹⁹ the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered.

20 But, O LORD of hosts, that judgest righteously, that ²⁰ triest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee have I revealed my cause.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD of the men of Anathoth, ²¹ that seek thy life, saying, ²² Prophecy not in the name of the LORD, that thou die not by our hand:

22 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will ²³ punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine:

CHAPTER 12.

1 Jeremiah complaineth of the wicked prosperity of God's adversaries, and of his brethren's treachery against him, 7 and lamenteth his heritage. 11 He promitteth to the penitent return from captivity

RIGHTEOUS ¹ art thou, O LORD, when I plead with thee: yet ² let me talk with thee of ³ thy judgments: ⁴ Wherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? ⁵ wherefore are all they happy that deal very treacherously?

2 Thou hast planted them, yea, they have taken root: ⁶ they grow, yea, they bring forth fruit: ⁷ thou art near in their mouth, and far from their reins.

3 But thou, O LORD, knowest me: thou hast seen me, and ⁸ tried mine heart: ⁹ toward thee: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for ¹⁰ the day of slaughter.

4 How long shall ¹¹ the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein? ¹² the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall not see our last end.

5 ¶ If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses? and ¹³ if in the land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, they wearied thee, then how wilt thou do in ¹⁴ the swelling of Jordan?

6 For even ¹⁵ thy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee; yea, ¹⁶ they have called a multitude after thee: ¹⁷ believe them not, though they speak ¹⁸ fair words unto thee.

7 ¶ I have forsaken mine house, I have left mine heritage; I have given ¹⁹ the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies.

8 Mine heritage is unto me as a lion in the forest; it ²⁰ crieth out against me: therefore have I hated it.

9 Mine heritage is unto me as a ²¹ speckled bird, the birds round about are against her; come ye, assemble all the beasts of the field, ²² come to devour.

10 Many ²³ pastors have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my ²⁴ pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

11 They have made it desolate, and being desolate ²⁵ it mourneth unto me; the whole land is made desolate, because ²⁶ no man layeth it to heart.

12 The spoilers are come upon all high places through the wilderness: for the sword of the LORD shall devour from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh shall have peace.

13 They have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns: they have put themselves to pain, but shall not profit: and they shall be ashamed of your revenues because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

14 Thus saith the LORD against all mine evil neighbours, that touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit; Behold, I will pluck them out of their land, and pluck out the house of Judah from among them.

15 And it shall come to pass, after that I have plucked them out I will return, and have compassion on them, and will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land.

16 And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, The LORD liveth; as they taught my people to swear by Baal; then shall they be built in the midst of my people.

17 But if they will not obey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 13.

1 In the type of a linen girdle, hidden at Euphrates, God prophesied the destruction of his people. 13 Under the parable of the bottles filled with wine he foretelleth their drunkenness in misery 15 He exhorteth to prevent their future judgments 23 He sheweth their abominations are the cause thereof

THEUS saith the LORD unto me, Go and get thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water.

2 So I got a girdle according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins.

3 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying,

4 Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock.

5 So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.

6 And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there.

7 Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and, behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing.

8 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Thus saith the LORD, After this manner will I mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem.

10 This evil people, which refuse to hear my words, which walk in the imagination of their heart, and walk after other gods, to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which is good for nothing.

11 For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; that they might be unto me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear.

12 Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word: Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Every bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine?

13 Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness.

14 And I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the LORD: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, but destroy them.

15 Hear ye, and give ear; be not proud: for the LORD hath spoken.

16 Give glory to the LORD your God, before he cause darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and, while ye look for light, he turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness.

17 But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for your pride; and mine eye shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the LORD's flock is carried away captive.

18 Say unto the king and to the queen, Humble yourselves, sit down: for your principalities shall come down, even the crown of your glory.

19 The cities of the south shall be shut up, and none shall open them: Judah shall be carried away captive all of it, it shall be wholly carried away captive.

20 Lift up your eyes, and behold them that come from the north: where is the flock that was given thee, thy beautiful flock?

21 What wilt thou say when he shall punish thee? for thou hast taught them to be captains, and as chief over thee: shall not "sorrows take thee, as a woman in travail?"

22 ¶ And if thou say in thine heart, "Wherefore come these things upon me?" For the greatness of thine iniquity are "thy skirts discovered, and thy heels made bare."

23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are "accustomed to do evil."

24 Therefore will I scatter them "as the stubble that passeth away by the wind of the wilderness."

25 "This is thy lot, the portion of thy measures from me, saith the LORD; because thou hast forgotten me, and trusted in "falsehood."

26 Therefore "will I discover thy skirts upon thy face, that thy shame may appear."

27 I have seen thine adulteries, and thy "neighings, the lewdness of thy whoredom, and thine abominations on the hills in the fields. Woe unto thee, O Jerusalem! wilt thou not be made clean? "when shall it once be!"

CHAPTER 14.

1 The grievous famine "causeth Jeremiah to pray. 10 The LORD will not be interested. 13 Lying prophets are no avengers. 17 Jeremiah is moved to complain."

THE word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning "the dearth. 2 Judah mourneth, and "the gates thereof languish: they are "black unto the ground; and "the cry of Jerusalem is gone up."

3 And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters: they came to the pits, and found no water; they returned with their vessels empty; they were "ashamed and confounded, and covered their heads."

4 Because the ground is chapt, for there was no rain in the earth, the plowmen were ashamed, they covered their heads."

5 Yea, the hind also calved in the field, and forsook it, because there was no grass."

6 And "the wild asses did stand in the high places, they snuffed up the wind like dragons; their eyes did fail, because there was no grass."

7 ¶ O LORD, though our iniquities testify against us, do thou it "for thy name's sake: for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against thee."

not save? yet thou, O LORD, "art in the midst of us, and "we are called by thy name; leave us not."

10 ¶ Thus saith the LORD unto this people, "Thus have they loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet, therefore the LORD doth not accept them; "he will now remember their iniquity, and visit their sins."

11 Then said the LORD unto me, "Pray not for this people for their good."

12 "When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and "when they offer burnt offering and an oblation, I will not accept them: but "I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence."

13 ¶ Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! behold, the prophets say unto them, Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine; but I will give you "assured peace in this place."

14 Then the LORD said unto me, "The prophets prophesy lies in my name: "I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them; they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart."

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and I sent them not, "yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land; By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed."

16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; "and they shall have none to bury them, them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness upon them."

17 ¶ Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them: "Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease: "for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow."

18 If I go forth into "the field, then behold the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine! yea, both the prophet and the priest "go about into a land that they know not."

19 "Hast thou utterly rejected Judah? hath thy soul lothed Zion? why hast thou smitten us, and "there is no healing for us? "we looked for peace, and there is no good; and for the time of healing, and behold trouble!"

20 We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers: for ^a we have sinned against thee.

21 Do not abhor ^{us}, for thy name's sake, do not disgrace the throne of thy glory: ^b remember, break not thy covenant with us.

22 ^a Are there any among ^a the vanities of the Gentiles that can cause rain? or can the heavens give showers? ^a art not thou he, O LORD our God? therefore we will wait upon thee: for thou hast made all these things.

CHAPTER 15.

1 The utter rejection and manifold judgments of the Jews, 10 Jeremiah receiveth a promise for himself, 12 and a threatening for them. 15 He prayeth, 16 and receiveth a gracious promise.

THEN said the LORD unto me, ^a Though ^a Moses and ^a Samuel stood before me, yet my mind could not be toward this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth.

2 And it shall come to pass, if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the LORD; ^a Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity.

3 And I will ^a appoint over them four ^a kinds, saith the LORD: the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and ^a the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and destroy.

4 And ^a I will cause them to be ^a removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of ^a Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.

5 For ^a who shall have pity upon thee, O Jerusalem? or who shall bemoan thee? or who shall go aside ^a to ask how thou doest?

6 ^a Thou hast forsaken me, saith the LORD, thou art ^a gone backward: therefore will I stretch out my hand against thee, and destroy thee; ^a I am weary with repenting.

7 And I will fan them with a fan in the gates of the land; I will bereave them of ^a children, I will destroy my people, since ^a they return not from their ways.

8 Their widows are increased to me above the sand of the seas: I have brought upon them ^a against the mother of the young man a spoiler at noonday: I have caused him to fall upon it suddenly, and terrors upon the city.

10 ^a Woe is me, my mother, that thou hast borne me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have neither lent on usury, nor men have lent to me on usury; yet every one of them doth curse me.

21 And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the hand of the terrible.

CHAPTER 16.

1 The prophet, under the types of abbatating from marriage, from house of mourning and feasting, foretelleth the utter ruin of the Jews. 16 Their return from captivity. 18 God will doubly re-compense their idolatry.

THE word of the LORD came also unto me, saying,

2 Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons or daughters in this place.

3 For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land;

4 They shall die of grievous deaths; they shall not be lamented; neither shall they be buried; but they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their carcasses shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

5 For thus saith the LORD, Enter not into the house of mourning, neither go to lament nor bemoan them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the LORD, even lovingkindness and mercies.

6 Both the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them:

7 Neither shall men tear themselves for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother.

8 Thou shalt not also go into the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink.

9 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your days, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride.

10 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt shew this people all these words, and they shall say unto thee, Wherefore hath the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity? or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?

11 Then shalt thou say unto them, Because your fathers have forsaken me, saith the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law;

12 And ye have done worse than your fathers; for, behold, ye walk every one after the imagination of his 13 ¶ Therefore will I cast you out of this land into a land that ye know not, neither ye nor your fathers; and there shall ye serve other gods day and night; where I will not shew you favour.

18 And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double; because they have defiled my land, they have filled mine inheritances with the carcasses of their detestable and abominable things.

19 O LORD, my strength, and my fortress, and my refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come unto thee from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity, and things where in there is no profit.

20 Shall a man make gods unto himself, and they are no gods?

21 Therefore, behold, I will this once cause them to know, I will cause them to know mine hand and my might; and they shall know that my name is The LORD.

CHAPTER 17.

1 The captivity of Judah. 5 Trust in man is vain, 7 in God is blessed. 9 The deceitful heart cannot deceive God. 12 The salvation of God. 19 The sabbath to be kept holy.

THE sin of Judah is written with a pen of iron, and with the point of a diamond: it is graven upon the table of their heart, and upon the horns of their altars;

2 Whilst their children remember their altars and their groves by the green trees upon the high hills.

3 O my mountain in the field, I will give thy substance and all thy treasures to the spoil, and thy high places for sin, throughout all thy borders.

4 And thou, even ²thyself, shalt discontinue from thine heritage that I gave thee; and I will cause thee to serve thine enemies in ⁶the land which thou knowest not: for ⁷ye have kindled a fire in mine anger, which shall burn for ever.

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; ⁴Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh ⁷flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD.

6 For he shall be ¹like the heath in the desert, and ⁴shall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, ⁴in a salt land and not inhabited.

7 ¹Blessed is the man that trusteth in the LORD, and whose hope the LORD is.

8 For he shall be ²as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of ³drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit.

9 ¶ The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?

10 I the LORD ²search the heart, I try the reins, ⁴even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.

11 As the partridge ⁶sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not; so he that getteth riches, and not by right, shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall he ¹a fool.

12 ¶ A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary.

13 O LORD, ²the hope of Israel, ³all that forsake thee shall be ashamed, and they that depart from me shall be ⁶written in the earth, because they have forsaken the LORD, tho' fountain of living waters.

14 Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for ⁴thou art my praise.

15 ¶ Behold, they say unto me, ¹Where is the word of the LORD? let it come now.

16 As for me, ¹I have not hastened from being a pastor ²to follow thee. neither have I desired tho' woeful day; thou knowest: that which came out of my lips was right before thee.

19 ¶ Thus said the LORD unto me; Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, wherely the kings of Judah come in, and by the which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem;

20 And say unto them, ¹Hear ye the word of the LORD, ye kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates:

21 Thus saith the LORD; ¹Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath day, nor bring ¹it in by the gates of Jerusalem;

22 Neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath day, neither do ye any work, but hallow ye the sabbath day, as I ¹commanded your fathers.

23 ¹But they obeyed not, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, nor receive instruction.

24 And it shall come to pass, if ye diligently hearken unto me, saith the LORD, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath day, but hallow the sabbath day, to do no work therein;

25 ¹Then shall there enter into the gates of this city kings and princes sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: and this city shall remain for ever.

26 And they shall come from the cities of Judah, and from ²the places about Jerusalem, and from tho land of Benjamin, and from ²the plain, and from the mountains, and from ²the south, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and meat offerings, and incense, and bringing ²sacrifices of praise, unto the house of the LORD.

27 But if ye will not hearken unto me to hallow the sabbath day, and not to bear a burden, even entering in at the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day; then ¹will I kindle a fire in the gates thereof, ²and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched.

CHAPTER 18.

1 Under the type of a potter is showed God's absolute power. 11 Judgments threatened to Judah.

18 Jeremiah prayeth against his conspirators.

THE word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause thee to hear my words.

3 Then I went down to the potter's house, and behold, he wrought a work on the wheels.

4 And the vessel ²that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter so he ⁴made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

5 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

6 O house of Israel, 'cannot I do with you as this potter' saith the LORD. Behold, 'as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in mine hand, O house of Israel.

7 At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to ^bpluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it,

8 If that nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, ^aI will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them.

9 And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it,

10 If it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good, wherewith I said I would benefit them.

11 ¶ Now therefore go to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I frame evil against you: ^areturn ye now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good.

12 And they said, ^aThere is no hope: but we will walk after our own devices, and we will every one do the imagination of his evil heart.

13 Therefore thus saith the LORD; ^aAsk ye now among the heathen, who hath heard such things. The virgin of Israel hath done ^avery horrible thing.

14 Will a man leave ^athe snow of Lebanon which cometh from the rock of the field? or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place be forsaken?

shew them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity.

18 ¶ Then said they, 'Come, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah; ^afor the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let us smite him ^awith the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words.

19 Give heed to me, O LORD, and hearken to the voice of them that contend with me.

20 ^a'Shall evil be recompensed for good? ^afor they have digged a pit for my soul. Remember that I stood before thee to speak good for them, and to turn away thy wrath from them.

21 Therefore ^a'deliver up their children to the famine, and ^a'pour out their blood by the force of the sword; and let their wives be bereaved of their children, and be widows; and let their men be put to death; ^alet their young men be slain by the sword in battle.

22 Let a cry be heard from their houses, when thou shalt bring a troop suddenly upon them: for they have digged a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet.

23 Yet, LORD, thou knowest all their counsel against me ^ato slay me: ^a'forgive not their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from thy sight, but let them be overthrown before thee; ^adeal thus with them in the time of thine anger.

CHAPTER 19.

Under the type of breaking a potter's vessel is fore-shewed the desolation of the Jews for their sins

THUS saith the LORD, Go and get a potter's earthen bottle, and take of the ancients of the people, and of the ancients of the priests;

2 And go forth unto ^athe valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of ^athe east gate, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell thee,

3 ^aAnd say, Hear ye the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, the which whosoever heareth, his ears shall tingle.

4 Because they ^a'have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it unto other gods, whom neither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with ^athe blood of innocents;

5 ^a'They have built also the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings unto Baal, ^awhich I commanded not, nor spoke it, neither came it into my mind:

6 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that this place shall no more be called Tophet, nor ²The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of slaughter.

7 And I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; ⁸and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of them that seek their lives, and their carcases will I give to be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

8 And I will make this city ⁴desolate, and an hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished and hiss because of all the plagues thereof.

9 And I will cause them to eat the ⁵flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend in the siege and straitness, wherewith their enemies, and they that seek their lives, shall straiten them.

10 ⁶Then shalt thou break the bottle in the sight of the men that go with thee,

11 And shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; ⁷Even so will I break this people and this city, as one breaketh a potter's vessel, that cannot ²be made whole again: and they shall ⁸bury them in Tophet, till there be no place to bury.

12 Thus will I do unto this place, saith the LORD, and to the inhabitants thereof, and ⁹even make this city as Tophet:

13 And the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, shall be defiled ¹⁰as the place of Tophet, because of all the houses upon whose ¹¹roofs they have burned incense unto all the host of heaven, and ¹²have poured out drink offerings unto other gods.

14 Then came Jeremiah from Tophet, whither the LORD had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in ¹³the court of the LORD's house; and said to all the people, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these things.

15 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon this city and upon all her towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it, because ¹⁴they have hardened their necks, that they might not hear my words.

2 Then Pashur smote Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the high gate of Benjamin, which was by the house of the LORD.

3 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Pashur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then said Jeremiah unto him, The LORD hath not called thy name Pashur, but ¹Magor-misabib.

4 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will make thee a terror to thyself, and to all thy friends: and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and thine eyes shall behold it, and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive into Babylon, and shall slay them with the sword.

5 Moreover I ²will deliver all the strength of this city, and all the labours thereof, and all the precious things thereof, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoil them, and take them, and carry them to Babylon.

6 And thou, Pashur, and all that dwell in thine house shall go into captivity: and thou shalt come to Babylon, and there thou shalt die, and shalt be buried there, thou, and all thy friends, to whom thou hast ³prophesied lies.

7 ⁴O LORD, thou hast deceived me, and I was ⁵deceived: 'thou art stronger than I, and hast prevailed: ⁶I am in derision daily, every one mocketh me.

8 For since I spake, I cried out, ⁷I cried violence and spoil; because the word of the LORD was made a reproach unto me, and a derision, daily.

9 Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name. But ⁸his word was in mine heart as a ⁹burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay.

10 ¹⁰For I heard the defaming of many, fear on every side. Report, say they, and we will report it. ¹¹All my familiars watched for my halting, saying, Peradventure he will be enticed, and we shall prevail against him, and we shall take our revenge on him.

11 But ¹²the LORD is with me as a mighty terrible one: therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not ¹³prevail: they shall be greatly ashamed; for they shall not prosper: ¹⁴their everlasting confusion shall never be forgotten.

12 But, O LORD of hosts, that ^atriest the righteous, and seest the reins and the heart, ^blet me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee have I opened my cause.

13 Sing unto the LORD, praise ye the LORD: for ^che hath delivered the soul of the poor from the hand of evildoers.

14 ^d"Cursed be the day wherein I was born: let not the day wherein my mother bare me be blessed.

15 Cursed be the man who brought tidings to my father, saying, A man child is born unto thee; making him very glad.

16 And let that man be as the cities which the LORD ^eoverthrew, and repented not: and let him ^fhear the cry in the morning, and the shouting at noontide;

17 ^g"Because he slew me not from the womb; or that my mother might have been my grave, and her womb to be always great with me.

3 ^e"Then said Jeremiah unto them, Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah:

4 Thus saith the LORD God of Israel; Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans, which besiege you without the walls, and ^f"I will assemble them into the midst of this city.

5 And I myself will fight against you with an ^goutstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath.

6 And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast: they shall die of a great pestilence.

CHAPTER 22.

1 ^aAn exhortation to repentance. 10 The judgment of Shaltum, 13 of Jehoiakim, 20 and of Contah.

THUS saith the LORD; Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word,

2 And say, ^b"Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, that starest upon the throne of David, thou, and thy servants, and thy people that enter in by these gates:

3 Thus saith the LORD; ^c"Execute ye judgment and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor: and ^d"do no wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this place.

4 For if ye do this thing indeed, ^e"then shall there enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting ^f"upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people.

5 But if ye will not hear these words, ¹I swear by myself, saith the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation.

6 For thus saith the LORD unto the king's house of Judah; Thou art Gilead unto me, and the head of Lebanon; yet surely I will make thee a wilderness, and cities which are not inhabited.

7 And I will prepare destroyers against thee, every one with his weapons; and they shall cut down ⁴thy choice cedars, and cast them unto the fire.

8 And many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbour, ¹Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this great city?

9 Then they shall answer, ¹Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them.

10 ¹Weep ye not for ¹the dead, neither bemoan him; but weep sore for him ¹that goeth away: for he shall return no more, nor see his native country.

11 For thus saith the LORD touching ¹Shallum the son of Josiah king of Judah, who reigned instead of Josiah his father, ¹which went forth out of this place; He shall not return thither any more:

12 But he shall die in the place whither they have led him captive, and shall see this land no more.

13 ¹Woe unto him that buildeth his house by unrighteousness, and his chambers by wrong; ¹that useth his neighbour's service without wages, and giveth him not for his work;

14 That saith, I will build me a wide house and ¹large chambers, and cutteth him out ¹windows; and ¹it is cieled with cedar, and painted with vermilion

15 Shalt thou reign, because thou closest ¹thyself in cedar? ¹did not thy father eat and drink, and do judgment and justice, and then ¹it was well with him?

16 He judged the cause of the poor and needy; ¹thou ¹it was well with him was not this to know me? saith the LORD.

17 ¹But thine eyes and thine heart are not but for thy covetousness, and for to shed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for ¹violence, to do it.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah; ¹They shall not lament for him, saying, ¹Ah my brother! or, Ah sister! they shall not 30 Thus saith the LORD, Write ye this man ¹childless, a man that shall not prosper in his days: for no man of his seed shall prosper, ¹sitting upon the throne of David, and ruling any more in Judah.

CHAPTER 23.

¹He prophesieth a restoration of the scattered flock. ²Christ shall rule and save them. ³Against false prophets, 33 and ministers of the true prophets.

WOE ¹be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the LORD.

2 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel against the pastors that feed my people; Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: "behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD.

3 And "I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase.

4 And I will set up "shepherds over them which shall feed them; and they shall fear no more nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the LORD.

5 ¶ Behold "the days come, saith the LORD, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign, and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth.

6 "In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel "shall dwell safely: and "this is his name whereby he shall be called, "THE LORD OUR RIGHT-EOUSNESS.

7 Therefore, behold, "the days come, saith the LORD, that they shall no more say, The LORD liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

8 But, The LORD liveth, which brought up and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land.

9 ¶ Mine heart within me is broken because of the prophets; "all my bones shake; I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine hath overcome, because of the LORD, and because of the words of his holiness.

10 For "the land is full of adulterers; for "because of "swearing the land mourneth; "the pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up: and their "course is evil, and their force is not right.

11 For "both prophet and priest are profane; yea, "in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD.

12 "Wherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery ways, in the darkness they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

13 And I have seen "folly in the prophets of Samaria, "a new prophecy in Baal, and "caused my people Israel to err.

14 I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem "an horrible thing "they commit adultery, and "walk in lies, they "strengthen also the hands of evildoers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets; Behold, I will feed them with "worm-wood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is "profaneness gone forth into all the land.

16 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Harken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain: "they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD.

20 The "anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his heart: "in the latter days ye shall consider it perfectly.

21 "I have not sent these prophets, yet they say, I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.

22 But if they had "stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they should have "turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

24 Can any "hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD. "Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD.

25 I have heard what the prophets said, that prophecy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed.

26 How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophecy lies? yea, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart;

27 Which think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbour, "as their fathers have forgotten my name for Baal.

28 The prophet "that hath a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? saith the LORD.

29 Is not my word like as a fire? saith the LORD; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces?

30 Therefore, behold, ¹I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that steal my words every one from his neighbour.

31 Behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that use their tongues, and say, He saith.

32 Behold, I am against them that prophesy false dreams, saith the LORD, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by ²their lightness; yet I sent them not, nor commanded them: therefore they shall not profit this people at all, saith the LORD.

33 ¶ And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask thee, saying, What is ³the burden of the LORD? thou shalt then say unto them, What burden? ⁴I will even forsake you, saith the LORD.

34 And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, that shall say, The burden of the LORD, I will even ⁵punish that man and his house.

35 Thus shall ye say every one to his neighbour, and every one to his brother, What hath the LORD answered? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

36 And the burden of the LORD shall ye mention no more: for every man's word shall be his burden; for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God.

37 Thus shalt thou say to the prophet, What hath the LORD answered thee? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

38 But since ye say, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus saith the LORD; Because ye say this word, The burden of the LORD, and I have sent unto you, saying, Ye shall not say, The burden of the LORD;

39 Therefore, behold, I, even I, ⁶will utterly forget you, and ⁷I will forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and cast you out of my presence;

40 And I will bring ⁸an everlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.

penters and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.

2 One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe; and the other basket had very naughty figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad.

3 Then said the LORD unto me, What seest thou, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

4 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge ¹them that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for ²their good.

6 For I will set mine eyes upon them for good, and ³I will bring them again to this land: and ⁴I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.

7 And I will give them ⁵an heart to know me, that I am the LORD; and they shall be ⁶my people, and I will be their God; for they shall return unto me ⁷with their whole heart.

8 ¶ And as the evil ⁸figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so evil: surely thus saith the LORD, So will I give Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land, and ⁹them that dwell in the land of Egypt.

9 And I will deliver them ¹⁰to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for ¹¹their hurt, ¹²to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt ¹³and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them.

10 And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, till they be consumed from off the land that I gave unto them and to their fathers.

CHAPTER 25.

¹ Jeremiah reproving the Jews' disobedience, 9 foretelling the captivity, 12 and the destruction of Babylon, 15 He foretold the destruction of all nations, 34 The howling of the shepherds

THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, ¹in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon;

2 The which Jeremiah the prophet spake unto all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying,

3 From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, even unto this day, that is the three and twentieth year the word of the LORD hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking, but ye have not hearkened.

4 And the LORD hath sent unto you all his servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, but ye have not hearkened, nor inclined your ear to hear.

5 They said, "Turn ye again now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD hath given unto you, and to your fathers for ever and ever."

6 And so not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands, and I will do you no hurt.

7 Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the LORD, that ye might provoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt.

8 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Because ye have not heard my words, 9 Behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, saith the LORD, and Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and an hissing, and perpetual desolations.

10 Moreover I will take from them the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the candle.

11 And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment, and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

12 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, and will make it perpetual desolations.

13 And I will bring upon that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book which Jeremiah hath prophesied against all the nations.

14 ¶ For many nations, and great kings shall serve themselves of them also, and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands.

15 ¶ For thus saith the LORD God of Israel unto me; Take the cup of this fury at my hand, and cruse

all the nations, to whom I send thee, to drink it.

16 And they shall drink, and be moved, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them.

17 Then took I the cup at the LORD's hand, and made all the nations to drink unto whom the LORD had sent me.

18 To wit, Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, an hissing, and a curse, as is this day.

19 Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and all his people,

20 And all the mingled people, and all the kings of the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Azrah, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod,

21 Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon,

22 And all the kings of Tyrus, and all the kings of Zidon, and the kings of the isles which are beyond the sea.

23 Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all that are in the utmost corner.

24 And all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mingled people that dwell in the desert.

25 And all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Ham, and all the kings of the Medes,

26 And all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another, and all the kingdoms of the world, which are upon the face of the earth, and the king of Sheshbazzar shall drink after them.

27 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Drink ye, and be drunken, and spue, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.

28 And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at thine hand to drink, then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Ye shall certainly drink.

29 For, lo, I begin to bring evil on the city, which is called by my name, and should ye be utterly unpunished? Ye shall not be unpun-ished, for I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith

the LORD of hosts.

30 Therefore prophesy thou against them all these words, and say unto them, The LORD shall roar from on high, and utter his voice from his holy habitation; he shall mightily roar upon ^ahis habitation; he shall give ^aa shout, as they that tread the grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth.

31 A noise shall come even to the ends of the earth; for the LORD hath ^aa controversy with the nations, ^hhe will plead with all flesh; he will give them that are wicked to the sword, saith the LORD.

32 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and ^aa great whirlwind shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

33 ^aAnd the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth: they shall not be ^alamented, ^hneither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground.

34 ¶ Howl, ye shepherds, and cry; and wallow yourselves in the ashes, ye principal of the flock: for ¹the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions are accomplished; and ye shall fall like ²a pleasant vessel.

35 And ^athe shepherds shall have no way to flee, nor the principal of the flock to escape.

36 A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and an howling of the principal of the flock, shall be heard: for the LORD hath spoiled their pasture.

37 And the peaceable habitations are out down because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

38 He hath forsaken ^ahis covert, as the lion: for their land is ^adesolate because of the fierceness of the oppressor, and because of his fierce anger.

hearken to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you,

5 To hearken to the words of my servants the prophets, ^awhom I sent unto you, both rising up early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened;

6 Then will I make this house like ^aShiloh, and will make this city ^aa curse to all the nations of the earth.

7 So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

8 ¶ Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die.

9 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

10 ¶ When the princes of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house unto the house of the LORD, and sat down ^ain the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house.

11 Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes and to all the people, saying, ^aThis man is worthy to die; ^afor he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears.

12 ¶ Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes and to all the people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that ye have heard.

13 Therefore now ^aamend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will ^arepent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you.

14 As for me, behold, ^aI am in your hand; do with me ^aas seemeth good and meet unto you.

15 But know ye for certain, that if ye put me to death, ye shall surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof: for of a truth the LORD hath sent me unto you to speak all these words in your ears.

16 ¶ Then said the princes and all the people unto the priests and to the prophets; This man is not worthy to die for he hath spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God.

17 ^aThen rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly of the people, saying, 18^a Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.

19 And Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him at all to death; did he not fear the LORD, and brought 1 the LORD, and the LORD repented him of the evil which he had pronounced against them? 2 Thus might we procure great evil against our souls.

20 And there was also a man that prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjath-jearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah.

21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death: but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt;

22 And Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, namely, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him into Egypt.

23 And they fetched forth Urijah out of Egypt, and brought him unto Jehoiakim the king; who slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the 3 common people.

24 Nevertheless 2 the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

hosts, the God of Israel; Thus shall ye say unto your masters;

5 I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground, by my great power and by my outstretched arm, and have given it unto whom it seemed meet unto me.

6 And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant; and the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.

7 And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the very time of his land come; and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him.

8 And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the LORD, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand.

9 Therefore hearken not ye to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreamers, nor to your enchanters, nor to your soothsayers, which speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon.

10 For they prophesy a lie unto you, to remove you far from your land, and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish.

11 But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those will I let remain still in their own land, saith the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.

12 I spake also to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live.

13 Why will ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?

14 Therefore hearken not unto his words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon for they prophesy a lie unto you.

15 For I have not sent them, saith the LORD, yet they prophesy a lie in my name; that I might drive you out, and that ye might perish, ye, and the prophets that prophesy unto you.

16 Also I spake to the priests and to all this people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Harken not to the words of your prophets that prophesy unto you, saying, Behold, the vessels of the LORD's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you.

17 Harken not unto them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: wherefore should this city be laid waste?

18 But if they be prophets, and if the word of the LORD be with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, go not to Babylon.

19 ¶ For thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that remain in this city,

20 Which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took not, when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem;

21 Yea, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah and of Jerusalem;

22 They shall be carried to Babylon, and there shall they be until the day that I visit them, saith the LORD; then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place,

1 Hananiah prophesieth falsely the return of the vessels. 5 Jeremiah sheweth that the event will declare who are true prophets. 10 Hananiah breaketh Jeremiah's yoke. 15 Jeremiah telleth of an iron yoke, 16 and foretelleth Hananiah's death.

AND it came to pass the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azur the prophet, which was of Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.

3 Within two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon:

the LORD: for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon

5 ¶ Then the prophet Jeremiah said unto the prophet Hananiah in the presence of all the priests, and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house of the LORD,

6 Even the prophet Jeremiah said, Amen: the LORD do so: the LORD perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD's house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place.

7 Nevertheless hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people;

8 The prophets that have been before me and before thee of old prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence.

9 ¶ The prophet which prophesieth of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known, that the LORD hath truly sent him.

10 ¶ Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and brake it.

11 And Hananiah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

12 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the prophet, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, 13 Go and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast broken the yokes of wood; but thou shalt make for thine yokes of iron.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him: and I have given him the beasts of the field also.

15 ¶ Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah; The LORD hath not sent thee; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will cast thee from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt die, because thou hast taught rebellion against the LORD.

17 So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

CHAPTER 29.

1 Jeremiah sendeth a letter to the captives in Babylon, to be quiet there, 5 and not to believe the dreams of their prophets, 10 and that they shall return with grace after seventy years 15 He foretelleth the destruction of the rest for their disobedience. 20 He sheweth the fearful end of Ahab and Zedekiah, two lying prophets 25 Shemaiah's doom foretold

NOW these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem unto the residue of the elders which were carried away captives, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon;

2 [After that Jeconiah the king, and the queen, and the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the carpenters, and the smiths, were departed from Jerusalem;]

3 By the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent unto Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon) saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, unto all that are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem unto Babylon;

5 'Build ye houses, and dwell in them, and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them;

6 Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; that ye may be increased there, and not diminished.

7 And seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace.

8 ¶ For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Let not your prophets and your diviners, that be in the midst of you, deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed.

9 ¶ For they prophesy falsely unto you in my name: I have not sent them, saith the LORD.

10 ¶ For thus saith the LORD, That after seventy years be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place.

11 For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.

12 Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you.

13 And 'ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart.

14 And 'I will be found of you, saith the LORD: and I will turn away your captivity, and 'I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the LORD: and I will bring you again unto the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive.

15 ¶ Because ye have said, The LORD hath raised us up prophets in Babylon;

16 Know that thus saith the LORD of the king that sitteth upon the throne of David, and of all the people that dwelleth in this city, and of your brethren that are not gone forth with you into captivity;

17 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

18 And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and 'will deliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a curse, and an astonishment, and an hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations whither I have driven them:

19 Because they have not hearkened to my words, saith the LORD, which 'I sent unto them by my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, but ye would not hear, saith the LORD.

20 ¶ Hear ye therefore the word of the LORD, all ye of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon:

21 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, of Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and of Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, which prophesy a lie unto you in my name; Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and he shall slay them before your eyes;

22 ¶ And of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captivity of Judah which are in Babylon, saying, The LORD make thee like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire;

23 Because 'they have committed villany in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them; oven I know, and am a witness, saith the LORD.

24 ¶ Thus shalt thou also speak to Shemaiah the Nehelamite, saying,

25 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Because thou hast sent letters in thy name unto all the people that are at Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maseiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying,

26 The LORD hath made thee priest in the stead of Jehoiada the priest, that ye should be officers in the house of the LORD, for every man that is mad, and maketh himself a prophet, that thou shouldest put him in prison, and in the stocks.

27 Now therefore why hast thou not reproved Jeremiah of Anathoth, which maketh himself a prophet to you?

28 For therefore he sent unto us in Babylon, saying, This captivity is long: build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

29 And Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet.

30 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

31 Send to all them of the captivity, saying, Thus saith the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite; Because that Shemaiah hath prophesied unto you, and I sent him not, and he caused you to trust in a lie:

32 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed: he shall not have a man to dwell among this people; neither shall he behold the good that I will do for my people, saith the LORD; because he hath taught rebellion against the LORD.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD God of Israel, saying, Write thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee in a book.

3 For, lo, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the LORD: and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

4 ¶ And these are the words that the LORD spake concerning Israel and concerning Judah.

5 For thus saith the LORD; We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace.

6 Ask ye now, and see whether a man doth travail with child? wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness?

7 Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it.

8 For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him:

9 But they shall serve the LORD their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up unto them.

10 ¶ Therefore fear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the LORD; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid.

11 For I am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, yet will I not make a full end of thee: but I will correct thee in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Thy bruise is incurable, and thy wound is grievous.

13 There is none to plead thy cause, that thou mayest be bound up: thou hast no healing medicines.

14 All thy lovers have forgotten thee; they seek thee not; for I have wounded thee with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the multitude of thine iniquity; because thy sins were increased.

15 Why criest thou for thine affliction? thy sorrow is incurable for the multitude of thine iniquity: because thy sins were increased, I have done these things unto thee.

16 Therefore all they that devour thee shall be devoured; and all thine adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity; and they that spoil thee shall be a spoil, and all that prey upon thee will I give for a prey.

17 For I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the LORD; because they called thee an Outcast, saying, This is Zion, whom no man seeketh after.

18 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will bring again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have mercy on his dwellingplaces; and the city shall be builded upon her own ¹heap, and the palace shall remain after the manner thereof.

19 And ²out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice of them that make merry: ³and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.

20 Their children also shall be ⁴as aforetime, and their congregation shall be established before me, and I will punish all that oppress them.

21 And their nobles shall be of themselves, ⁵and their governor shall proceed from the midst of them; and I will ⁶cause him to draw near, and he shall approach unto me: for who is this that engaged his heart to approach unto me? saith the LORD.

22 And ye shall be ⁷my people, and I will be your God.

23 Behold, the ⁸whirlwind of the LORD goeth forth with fury, a ⁹continuing whirlwind: it shall ¹⁰fall with pain upon the head of the wicked.

24 The fierce anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have done it, and until he have performed the intents of his heart: ¹¹in the latter days ye shall consider it.

2 Thus saith the LORD, The people ⁴which were left of the sword found grace in the wilderness; ⁵even Israel, when ⁶I went to cause him to rest.

among the chief of the nations publish ye, praise ye, and say, O LORD, save thy people, the remnant of Israel.

8 Behold, I will bring them ⁹from the north country, and ¹⁰gather them from the coasts of the earth, ¹¹and with them the blind and the lame, ¹²and the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: ¹³a great company shall return thither.

9 ¹⁴They shall come with weeping, and with ¹⁵supplications will I lead them: ¹⁶I will cause them to walk ¹⁷by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble: ¹⁸for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my ¹⁹firstborn.

10 ²⁰Hear the word of the LORD, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, He that scattered Israel ²¹will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd ²²doth his flock.

11 For ²³the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and ransomed him ²⁴from the hand of him that was stronger than he.

12 Therefore they shall come and sing in ²⁵the height of Zion, and shall flow together to ²⁶the goodness of the LORD, for wheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a ²⁷watered garden; ²⁸and they shall not sorrow any more at all.

13 Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, both young men and old together: for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow.

14 And I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith the LORD.

15 ²⁹Thus saith the LORD; ³⁰A voice was heard in ³¹Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping; ³²Rahel weeping for her children refused to be comforted for her children, because ³³they were not.

16 Thus saith the LORD; Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears: for thy work shall be rewarded, saith the LORD; and ³⁴they shall come again from the land of the enemy.

17 And there is hope in thine end, saith the LORD, that thy children shall come again to their own border.

18 ³⁵I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself ³⁶thus; Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, ³⁷as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: ³⁸turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the LORD my God.

19 Surely ³⁹after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon ⁴⁰my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth.

20 ¹Is Ephraim my dear son? ²Is he a pleasant child? for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still: ³therefore my bowels ¹are troubled for him; ⁴I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the LORD.

21 Set thee up waymarks, make thee high heaps: ¹set thine heart toward the highway, ²even the way which thou wentest: turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these thy cities.

22 ¹How long wilt thou ¹go about, O thou ²backsliding daughter? for the LORD hath created a new thing in the earth, A woman shall compass a man.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah and in the cities thereof, when I shall bring again their captivity; ²The LORD bless thee, O habitation of justice, and ³mountain of holiness.

24 And there shall dwell in Judah itself, and ²in all the cities thereof together, husbandmen, and they ³that go forth with flocks.

25 For I have satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul.

26 Upon this I awaked, and beheld; and my sleep was sweet unto me.

27 ¹Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that ²I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast.

28 And it shall come to pass, ¹that like as I have ²watched over them, ³to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them, ⁴to build, and to plant, saith the LORD.

29 ¹In those days they shall say no more, The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge.

30 ¹But every one shall die for his own iniquity: every man that eateth the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge.

31 ¹Behold, the ²days come, saith the LORD, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah.

32 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that ¹I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, ²although I was an husband unto them, saith the LORD:

33 ¹But this ²shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel: After those days, saith the LORD, ³I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; ⁴and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

35 ¹Thus saith the LORD, ²which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth ³the sea when the waves thereof roar; ⁴The LORD of hosts is his name:

36 ¹If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD, ²then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.

37 Thus saith the LORD; ¹If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, saith the LORD.

38 ¹Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the city shall be built to the LORD ²from the tower of Hana-neel unto the gate of the corner.

39 And ²the measuring line shall yet go forth over against it upon the hill Gareb, and shall compass about to Goath.

CHAPTER 32.

1 Jeremiah, being imprisoned by Zedekiah for his prophecy, 6 month Hananeel a field 13 Haruch must preserve the crutimes 20 God confirmeth the captivity, 38 and promise a gracious return.

¹THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD ²in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar.

2 For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem: and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up ²in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house.

3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Wherefore dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD, ²Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it;

4 And Zedekiah king of Judah shall not come up out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes;

5 And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be 'until I visit him, saith the LORD, though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall not prosper.

6 ¶ And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

7 Behold, Hanameel the son of Shalum thine uncle shall come unto thee, saying, Buy thee my field that is in Anathoth: for the 'right of redemption is thine to buy it.

8 So Hanameel mine uncle's son came to me in the court of the prison according to the word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin, for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

9 And I bought the field of Hanameel my uncle's son, that was in Anathoth, and weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver.

10 And I subscribed the evidence, and sealed it, and took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances.

11 So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open.

12 And I gave the evidence of the purchase unto 'Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hanameel mine uncle's son, and in the presence of the 'witnesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.

13 ¶ And I charged Baruch before them, saying,

14 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, both which is sealed, and this evidence which is open; and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days.

15 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Houses and fields, and vineyards shall be possessed again in this land.

16 ¶ Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed unto the LORD, saying,

17 Ah Lord God! behold, 'thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched out arm, and 'there is nothing 'too hard for thee.

18 Thou shewest 'lovingkindness unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: the Great, 'the Mighty God, 'the LORD of hosts, is his name, 19 'Great in counsel, and mighty in 'work: for thine 'eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men: 'to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.

20 Which hast set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day, and in Israel, and among other men; and hast made thee 'a name, as at this day:

21 And 'hast brought forth thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with great terror;

22 And hast given them this land, which thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, 'a land flowing with milk and honey;

23 And they came in, and possessed it, but they obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law; they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do: therefore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them.

24 Behold the 'mounts, they are come unto the city to take it; and the city 'is given into the hand of the Chaldeans, that fight against it, because of 'the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence: and what thou hast spoken is come to pass; and, behold, thou seest it.

25 And thou hast said unto me, O Lord God, Buy thee the field for money, and take witnesses; 'for 'the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

27 Behold, I am the LORD, tho' God of all flesh: 'is there any thing too hard for me?

28 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, 'I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it.

29 And the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come and 'set fire on this city, and burn it with the houses, upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink offerings unto other gods, to provoke me to anger.

30 For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have only done evil before me from their youth: for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, saith the LORD

31 For this city hath been to me as a provocation of mine anger and of my fury from the day that they built it even unto this day; that I should remove it from before my face.

32 Because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

33 And they have turned unto me the back, and not the face, though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction

34 But they set their abominations in the house, which is called by my name, to defile it.

35 And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Molech: which I commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.

36 ¶ And now therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof ye say, It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence;

37 Behold, I will gather them out of all countries, whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely:

38 And they shall be my people, and I will be their God

39 And I will give them one heart, and one way, that they may fear me for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them.

40 And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them, to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me.

41 Yea, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul.

42 For thus saith the LORD: "Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them.

43 And fields shall be bought in this land, whereof ye say, It is desolate without man or beast; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

44 Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe evidences, and seal them, and take witnesses in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the mountains, and in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the south for I will cause their captivity to return, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 33.

1 God promiseth a gracious return, 9 a joyful state, 12 a settled government, 15 Christ the branch, 17 a continuance of kingdom, 20 and a blessed seed

MOREOVER the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet shut up in the court of the prison, saying, 2 Thus saith the LORD the maker thereof, the LORD that formed it, to establish it: the LORD is his name; 3 Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and shew thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not.

4 For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are thrown down by the mounts, and by the sword;

5 "They come to fight with the Chaldeans, but it is to kill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain in mine anger and in my fury, and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city.

6 Behold, I will bring it health, and cure, and I will cure them, and will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth.

7 And I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, as at the first.

8 And I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned, and whereby they have transgressed against me.

9 ¶ And it shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and an honour before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them: and they shall fear and tremble for all the goodness and for all the prosperity that I procure unto it.

10 Thus saith the LORD; Again there shall be heard in this place, ^a which ye say shall be desolate without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast.

11 The voice of joy, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the voice of them that shall say, ^a "Praise the LORD of hosts for the LORD is good; for his mercy endureth for ever. and of them that shall bring the sacrifice of praise unto the house of the LORD. For ^b I will cause to return the captivity of the land, as at the first, saith the LORD.

12 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^a Again in this place, which is desolate without man and without beast, and in all the cities thereof, shall be an habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down.

13 ^a In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the vale, and in the cities of the south, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks pass again under the hands of him that telleth them, saith the LORD.

14 ^b Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will perform that good thing which I have promised unto the house of Israel and to the house of Judah.

15 ^a In those days, and at that time will I cause the Branch of righteousness to grow up unto David; and he shall execute judgment and righteousness in the land.

16 In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely: and this is the name where with she shall be called, ^b The LORD our righteousness.

17 ^a For thus saith the LORD; ^b David shall never want a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel;

18 Neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me to offer burnt offerings, and to kindle meat offerings, and to do sacrifice continually.

19 And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying,

20 Thus saith the LORD; ^a If ye can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season;

21 Then may also ^a my covenant be broken with David my servant, that

1 Jeremiah; rejoiceth the captivity of Zedekiah and the city; 8 the princes and the people have said their bonds are loosed; 13 Jeremiah; the LORD and Zedekiah into the hands of their enemies.

1 By the obedience of the Rechabites, 12 Jeremiah condemneth the disobedience of the Jews. 18 God blameth the Rechabites for their obedience.

6 But they said, We will drink no wine: for ¹Jonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your sons for ever

9 Nor to build houses for us to dwell in: neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed:

13 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not receive instruction to hearken to my words? saith the LORD.

14 The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment: notwithstanding I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye hearkened not unto me.

15 ¶ I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto me.

16 Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them; but this people hath not hearkened unto me:

CHAPTER 36.

1 Jeremiah causeth Baruch to write his prophecy, 5 and publicly to read it. 11 The prince and Jehoiakim to fetch the roll, and read it. 19 They instruct Baruch to hide himself and Jeremiah. 20 Jehoiakim, being certified thereof, burneth the roll. 27 Jeremiah denounceth his judgment on Baruch writeth a new copy.

AND it came to pass in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that this word came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Take thee a roll of a book, and write therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, from the days of Josiah, even unto this day.

3 ¶ It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them; that they may return every man from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.

4 Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah; and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book.

5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up; I cannot go into the house of the LORD:

6 Therefore go thou, and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the LORD in the ears of the people in the LORD's house upon the fasting day: and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Judah that come out of their cities.

7 ¶ It may be they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will return every one from his evil way; for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people.

8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

9 And it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Judah unto Jerusalem.

10 Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the higher court, at the ^{entry} of the new gate of the LORD's house, in the ears of all the people.

11 ¶ When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD, 12 Then he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's chamber: and, lo, all the princes sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes.

13 Then Michaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people.

14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them.

15 And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears.

16 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they were afraid both one and other, and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words.

17 And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth?

18 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book.

19 Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know where ye be.

20 ¶ And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king.

21 So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll: and he took it out of Elishama the scribe's chamber. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king.

22 Now the king sat in ^{the} winter-house in the ninth month; and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him.

23 And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.

24 Yet they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words.

25 Nevertheless Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll: but he would not hear them.

26 But the king commanded Jerahmeel the son ^{of} Hammelech, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Sheldamiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet: but the LORD hid them.

27 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying, 28 Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah hath burned.

29 And thou shalt say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast burned this roll, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast?

30 Therefore thus saith the LORD of Jehoiakim king of Judah; He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David: and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost.

31 And I will punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them; but they hearkened not.

32 ¶ Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah; who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire. and there were added besides unto them many ²like words.

CHAPTER 37.

¹ The Egyptians having raised the siege of the Chaldeans, king Zedekiah sendeth to Jeremiah to pray for the people. ⁶ Jeremiah prophesieth the Chaldeans' certain return and victory. ¹¹ He is taken for a fugitive, beaten, and put in prison. ¹⁸ He assureth Zedekiah of the captivity. ¹⁸ Intreating for his liberty, he obtaineth some favour.

AND king ^aZedekiah the son of Josiah reigned instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah.

² But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, did hearken unto the words of the LORD, which he spake ^bby the prophet Jeremiah.

³ And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah and ^cZephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Pray now unto the LORD our God for us.

⁴ Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people: for they had not put him into prison.

⁸ And the Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city, and take it, and burn it with fire.

⁹ Thus saith the LORD; Deceive not yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us: for they shall not depart.

¹⁰ For those ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained ^gbut ^hwounded men among them, yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.

¹² Then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, ¹ to separate himself thence in the midst of the people.

¹³ And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward ²was there, whose name ³was Irjiah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying, Thou fallest away to the Chaldeans.

¹⁴ Then said Jeremiah, ⁴It is ⁵false; I fall not away to the Chaldeans. But he hearkened not to him: so Irjiah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes.

¹⁵ Wherefore the princes were wroth with Jeremiah, and smote him, ⁶and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe: for they had made that the prison.

¹⁶ ¶ When Jeremiah was entered into ⁷the dungeon, and into the ⁸cubicles, and Jeremiah had remained there many days;

¹⁷ Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took him out: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there ⁹any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah said, There is: for, said he, thou shalt be delivered unto the hand of the king of Babylon.

¹⁸ Moreover Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, What have I offended against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison?

¹⁹ Where ¹⁰are now your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land?

²⁰ Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king: ¹¹let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there.

²¹ Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah ¹²into the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the bakers' street, ¹³until all the bread in the city were spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

CHAPTER 38.

¹ Jeremiah is put into the dungeon of Malchiah. ⁷ Ebed-melech getteth him some enlargement. ¹⁴ He counselleth the king by yielding to save his life. ²⁴ By the king's instructions he concealeth the conference from the princes.

THEN Shephatiah the son of Matthan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and ¹Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and ²Pashur the son of Malchiah,

^a heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken unto all the people, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, ^c He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live; for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live.

3 Thus saith the LORD, ^d This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it.

4 Therefore the princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, ^e let this man be put to death: for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not the ^f welfare of this people, but the hurt.

5 Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he ^g is in your hand: for the king is not he that can do any thing against you.

6 ^h Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the son ⁱ of Hammelech, that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire: so Jeremiah sunk in the mire.

7 ^j ¶ Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs which was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon: the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin;

8 Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and spake to the king, saying,

9 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and ^k he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is: for there is no more bread in the city.

10 Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men ^l with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he die.

11 So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

12 And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now ^m these old cast clouts and rotten rags under thine armholes under the cords. And Jeremiah did so.

14 ¶ Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the ^c third entry that is in the house of the LORD. and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee a thing; hide nothing from me.

15 Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare ^d it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou not hearken unto me?

16 So Zedekiah the king sware secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, As the LORD liveth, ^e that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life.

17 Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: If thou wilt assuredly ^f go forth ^g unto the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and thou shalt live, and thine house:

18 But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and ^h thou shalt not escape out of their hand.

19 And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they ⁱ mock me.

20 But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee. Obey, I beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, which I speak unto thee: so it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live.

21 But if thou refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD hath shewed me:

22 And, behold, all the women that are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, ^j Thy friends have set thee on, and have prevailed against thee: thy feet are sunk in the mire, and they are turned away back.

23 So they shall bring out all thy wives and ^k thy children to the Chaldeans: and ^l thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and ^m thou shalt cause this city to be burned with fire.

24 ¶ Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die.

25 But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death; also what the king said unto thee:

²⁶ Then thou shalt say unto them, ¹ I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return ² to Jonathan's house, to die there.

²⁷ Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him, and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So ⁴ they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived.

²⁸ So ² Jeremiah abode in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken: and he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

³ And all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, even Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim, Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, with all the residue of the princes of the king of Babylon.

⁴ ¶ And it came to pass, that when Zedekiah the king of Judah saw them, and all the men of war, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate betwixt the two walls: and he went out the way of the plain.

¹⁰ But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, which had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields ² at the same time.

¹¹ ¶ Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah ⁶ to Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard, saying,

¹³ So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushasban, Rab-saris, and Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, and all the king of Babylon's princes;

¹⁴ Even they sent, and took Jeremiah out of the court of the prison, and committed him ⁹ unto Gedaliah the son of ⁴ Ahikam the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he dwelt among the people.

¹⁵ ¶ Now the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying, ¹⁸ For I will surely deliver thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sword, but ² thy life shall be for a prey unto thee: because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 40.

¹ Jeremiah goeth to Gedaliah. ⁷ The dispersed Jews repair unto him. ¹³ Johanan revealing Ishmael's conspiracy is not believed.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being bound in ⁸ chains among all that were carried away captive of Jerusalem and Judah, which were carried away captives unto Babylon.

² And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and ⁴ said unto him, The LORD thy God hath pronounced this evil upon this place.

3 Now the LORD hath brought it, and done according as he hath said: ^abecause ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is come upon you.

4 And now, behold, I loose thee this day from the chains which ¹were upon thine hand. ²If it seem good unto thee to come with me into Babylon, come; and ³I will look well unto thee: but if it seem ill unto thee to come with me into Babylon, forbear: behold, ⁴all the land is before thee: whither it seemeth good and convenient for thee to go, thither go.

5 Now while he was not yet gone back, he said, Go back also to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, ^awhom the king of Babylon had made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people, or go wheresoever it seemeth convenient unto thee to go. So the captain of the guard gave him victuals and a reward, and let him go.

6 Then went Jeremiah unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and dwelt with him among the people that were left in the land.

7 ^aNow when all the captains of the forces which were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, and of ^bthe poor of the land, of them that were not carried away captive to Babylon; 8 Then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, ^ceven Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men.

9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan swore unto them and to their men, saying, Fear not ^dto serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.

10 As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to serve the Chaldeans, which will come unto us: but ye, gather ye wine, and summer fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken.

13 ^aMoreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, 14 And said unto him, Dost thou certainly know that ^bBaalsh the king of the Ammonites hath sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah ^cto slay thee? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam believed them not.

15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spake to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: wherefore should he slay thee that all the Jews which are gathered unto thee should be scattered, and the remnant in Judah perish?

16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said unto Johanan the son of Kareah, Thou shalt not do this thing: for thou speakest falsely of Ishmael.

CHAPTER 41.

¹ Ishmael, from secretly killing Gedaliah and others, purporth with the residue to see unto the Ammonites. 11 Johanan recovereth the captives

NOW it came to pass in the seventh month, ^athat Ishmael the son of Nethaniah the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, and the princes of the king, even ten men with him, came unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they did eat bread together in Mizpah.

2 Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and ^bsmote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and ^cJew him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land.

3 Ishmael also slew all the Jews that were with him, even with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans that were found there, and the men of war.

4 And it came to pass the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it,

5 That there came certain from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even fourscore men, ^ahaving their beards shaven, and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to ^bthe house of the LORD.

6 And Ishmael the son of Netha-niah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, ¹weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam.

7 And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men that were with him.

8 But ten men were found among them that said unto Ishmael, Slay us not: for we have treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbore, and slew them not among their brethren.

9 Now the pit wherein Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had slain ¹⁰because of Gedaliah, was it ¹¹which Aza the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them that were slain.

10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residuo of the people that were in Mizpah, ¹even the king's daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, ²whom Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to ³the Ammonites.

11 ¶ But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all ¹the captains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, 12 Then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by ²the great waters that are in Gibeon.

13 Now it came to pass, that when all the people which were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, then they were glad.

14 So all the people that Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah cast about and returned, and went unto Johanan the son of Kareah.

15 But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the Ammonites.

16 Then took Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after that he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, even mighty men of war, and the women, and the children, and the

CHAPTER 42.

1 Johanan destroyeth Jeremiah to enquire of God, promising obedience to his will. 7 Jeremiah assureth him of safety in Judea, 13 and distinction in Egypt. 19 He reproverth their hypocrisy.

1 ¹THEN all the captains of the forces, ²and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least even unto the greatest, came near,

2 And said unto Jeremiah the prophet, ³Let, we beseech thee, our supplication be accepted before thee, and pray for us unto the LORD thy God, even for all this remnant; (for we are left but ⁴a few of many, as thine eyes do behold us.)

3 That the LORD thy God may shew us ⁵the way wherein we may walk, and the thing that we may do.

4 Then Jeremiah the prophet said unto them, I have heard you, behold, I will pray unto the LORD your God according to your words; and it shall come to pass, that ⁶whatsoever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it unto you; I will ⁷keep nothing back from you.

5 Then they said to Jeremiah, ⁸The LORD be a true and faithful witness between us, if we do not even according to all things for the which the LORD thy God shall send thee to us.

6 Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we send thee.

⁹That it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of the LORD our God.

7 ¶ And it came to pass after ten days, that the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah.

8 Then called he Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces which were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest,

9 And said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto whom ye sent me to present your supplication before him;

10 If ye will still abide in this land, then ¹I will build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up: for I ¹repent me of the evil that I have done unto you.

11 Be not afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom ye are afraid; be not afraid of him, saith the LORD: ²for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand.

12 And ³I will shew mercies unto you, that he may have mercy upon you, and cause you to return to your own land.

13 ¶ But if ⁴ye say, We will not dwell in this land, neither obey the voice of the LORD your God,

14 Saying, No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread, and there will we dwell:

15 And now therefore hear the word of the LORD, ye remnant of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; If ye ⁵wholly set ⁶your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn there;

16 Then it shall come to pass, that the sword, ⁷which ye feared, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine, whereof ye were afraid, ⁸shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there ye shall die.

17 ⁹So shall it be with all the men that set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there; they shall die ¹⁰by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; and ¹¹none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring upon them.

18 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As mine anger and my fury hath been ¹²poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem; so shall my fury be poured forth upon you, when ye shall enter into Egypt and ¹³ye shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and ye shall see thus place no more.

19 ¶ The LORD hath said concerning you, O ye remnant of Judah; ¹⁴Go ye not into Egypt: know certainly that I have ¹⁵admonished you thus day.

20 For ¹⁶ye dissembled in your hearts, when ye sent me unto the LORD your God, saying, ¹⁷Pray for us unto the LORD our God; and according unto all that the LORD our God shall say, so declare unto us, and we will do it.

21 And now I have this day declared it to you; but ye have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God, nor any thing for the which he hath sent me unto you.

CHAPTER 43.

1 Johanan, discarding Jeremiah's prophecy, carried Jeremiah and others into Egypt. 3 Jeremiah prophesied by a type the conquest of Egypt.

AND it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words,

2 ¹Then spake Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsely: the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there:

3 But Baruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into Babylon.

4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah.

5 But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took ²all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations, whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah;

6 Even men, and women, and children, ³and the king's daughters, and every person that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah.

7 So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: thus came they even to Tahpanhes.

8 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,

9 Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the clay in the brick-kiln, which ⁴is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah;

10 And say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them.

11 ⁵And when he cometh, he shall smite the land of Egypt, and deliver ⁶such as are for death to death; and such as are for captivity to captivity; and such as are for the sword to the sword.

12 And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captives: and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; and he shall go forth from thence in peace.

13 He shall break also the images of Beth-shemes, that is in the land of Egypt, and the houses of the gods of the Egyptians shall be burn with fire.

CHAPTER 44.

1 Jeremiah expresseth the desolation of Judah. 11 He prophesieth their destruction, who count idolatry in Egypt. 15 The obstinacy of the Jews. 20 Jeremiah threateneth them for the same

THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews which dwell in the land of Egypt, which dwell at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Noph, and in the country of Pathros, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and, behold, this day they are a desolation, and no man dwelleth therein,

3 Because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, and to serve other gods, whom they knew not, neither they, ye, nor your fathers.

4 Howbeit "I sent unto you all my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate.

5 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods

6 Wherefore my fury and mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as at this day

7 Therefore now thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; Wherefore commit ye this great evil against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, out of Judah, to leave you none to remain;

8 In that ye "provoke me unto wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye go to dwell, that ye might cut yourselves off, and that ye might be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?

9 Have ye forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?

10 They are not humbled even unto this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers.

11 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will set my face against you for evil, and to cut off all Judah.

12 And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt; they shall even be consumed by the sword and by the famine: they shall die, from the least even unto the greatest, by the sword and by the famine: and they shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach.

13 For I will punish them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence:

14 So that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to the which they have a desire to return to dwell there: for none shall return but such as shall escape.

15 ¶ Then all the men which knew that their wives had burned incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwell in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying,

16 As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, we will not hearken unto thee:

17 But we will certainly do whatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of victuals, and were well, and saw no evil.

18 But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine

19 ⁶ And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings unto her, without our ² men?

20 ¶ Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to the men, and to the women, and to all the people which had given him that answer, saying,

21 The incense that ye burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and came it not into his mind?

22 So that the LORD could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land ² a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, ⁶ as at this day.

23 Because ye have burned incense, and because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; ⁶ therefore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day.

24 Moreover Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah ¹ that are in the land of Egypt:

25 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying; ¹ Ye and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your vows.

26 Therefore hear ye the word of the LORD, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt; Behold, ¹ I have sworn by my great name, saith the LORD, that ¹ my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord GOD liveth.

27 Behold, I will watch over them for evil, and not for good: and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt ² shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them.

28 Yet ² a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, and

THE ¹ word that Jeremiah the prophet spake unto Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto thee, O Baruch;

3 Thou didst say, Woe is me now! for the LORD hath added grief to my sorrow; I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest.

4 ¶ Thus shalt thou say unto him, The LORD saith thus: Behold, ¹ that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land.

5 And seekest thou great things for thyself? ¹ see: them not: for, behold, ¹ I will bring evil upon all flesh, saith the LORD: but thy life will I give unto thee ¹ for a prey in all places whither thou goest.

CHAPTER 46.

¹ Jeremiah prophesieth the overthrow of Pharaoh's army, 13 and the conquest of Egypt by Nebuchadnezzar. ²⁷ He comforteth Jacob.

THE word of the LORD which came ¹ to Jeremiah the prophet against ¹ the Gentiles;

2 Against Egypt, ¹ against the army of Pharaoh-necho king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon smote in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah.

3 ¹ Order ye the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle.

4 Harness the horses; and get up, ye horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets; furbish the spears, and put on the brigandines.

5 Wherefore have I seen them dismayed and turned away back? and their mighty ones are ¹beaten down, and are ²fled apace, and look not back: for ³fear was round about, saith the Lord.

6 Let not the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; they shall ¹stumble, and fall toward the north by the river Euphrates.

7 Who is this that cometh up ¹as a flood, whose waters are moved as the rivers?

8 Egypt riseth up like a flood, and ¹his waters are moved like the rivers; and he saith, I will go up, and will cover the earth; I will destroy the city and the inhabitants thereof.

9 Como up, ye horses; and rage, ye chariots; and let the mighty men come forth; ¹the Ethiopians and ²the Libyans, that handle the shield; and the Lydians, ³that handle and bend the bow.

10 For this is ¹the day of the Lord God of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may ²avenge him of his adversaries; and ³the sword shall devour, and it shall be satiate and made drunk with their blood: for the Lord God of hosts ⁴hath a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates.

11 Go up into Gilead, and take balm, ¹O virgin, the daughter of Egypt: in vain shalt thou use many medicines, for ²thou shalt not be cured.

12 The nations have heard of thy shame, and thy cry hath filled the land: for the mighty man hath stumbled against the mighty, and they are fallen both together.

13 ¶ The word that the Lord spake to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon should come and ¹smite the land of Egypt.

14 Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Noph and in Tahpanhes: say ye, ¹Stand fast, and prepare thee; for ²the sword shall devour round about thee.

15 Why are thy valiant men swept away? they stood not, because the Lord did drive them.

16 He ¹made many to fall, yea, ²one fell upon another: and they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our nativity, from the oppressing sword.

17 They did cry there, Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he hath passed the time appointed.

18 As I live, saith the King, ¹whose name is the Lord of hosts, Surely as Tabor is among the mountains, and as Carmel by the sea, so shall he come.

2 Thus saith the Lord; Behold, ¹waters rise up ²out of the north, and shall be an overflowing flood, and shall overflow the land, and ³all that is therein; the city, and them that dwell

4 Because of the day that cometh to spoil all the Philistines, and to cut off from ²Tyrus and Zidon every helper that remaineth: for the LORD will spoil the Philistines, the remnant of ³the country of Caphtor.

5 ⁴Baldness is come upon Gaza; ⁵Ashkelon is cut off with the remnant of their valley: how long wilt thou cut thyself thou?

6 O thou sword of the LORD, how long wilt it be ere thou be quiet? ⁶put up thyself into thy scabbard, rest, and be still.

10 ¹Cursed be he that doeth the work of the LORD ²deceitfully, and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood.

11 ¹Moab hath been at ease from his youth, and he ²hath settled on his lees, and hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity: therefore his taste ³remained in him, and his scent is not changed.

12 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will send unto him wanderers, that shall cause him to wander, and shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles.

13 And Moab shall be ashamed of ⁴Chemosh, as the house of Israel ⁵was ashamed of ⁶Beth-el their confidence.

14 ¹How say ye, ²We are mighty and strong men for the war?

15 ³Moab is spoiled, and gone up out of her cities, and ⁴has chosen young men ⁵are ⁶gone down to the slaughter, saith ⁷the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

16 The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hasteth fast.

17 All ye that are about him, bemoan him; and all ye that know his name, say, ¹How is the strong staff broken, and the beautiful rod!

18 ²Thou daughter that dost inhabit ³Dibon, come down from thy glory, and sit in thirst; for ⁴the spoiler of Moab shall come upon thee, and he shall destroy thy strong holds.

19 O ¹inhabitant of ²Aroer, stand by the way, and espy; ask him that fleeth, and her that escapeth, and say, What is done?

20 Moab is confounded; for it is broken down: ¹howl and cry; tell ye it in ²Arnon, that Moab is spoiled.

21 And judgment is come upon ³the plain country; upon Holon, and upon Jahazah, and upon Mephath.

22 And upon Dibon, and upon Nebo, and upon Beth-diblatthaim,

23 And upon Kirathaim, and upon Beth-gamul, and upon Beth-meon,

24 And upon ¹Kerioth, and upon Bozrah, and upon all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near.

25 ²The horn of Moab is cut off, and his ³arm is broken, saith the LORD.

26 ¹Make ye him drunken. for he magnified himself against the LORD: Moab also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision.

27 For ²was not Israel a derision unto thee? ³was he found among thieves? for since thou spakest of him, thou ⁴skippedst for joy.

28 O ye that dwell in Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock, and be like "the dove that maketh her nest in the sides of the hole's mouth.

29 We have heard the "pride of Moab, (he is exceeding proud) his loftiness, and his arrogance, and his pride, and the haughtiness of his heart.

30 I know his wrath, saith the LORD, but it shall not be so; "his" lies shall not so effect it.

31 Therefore "will I howl for Moab, and I will cry out for all Moab; mine heart shall mourn for the men of Kir-heres.

32 "O vine of Sibmah, I will weep for thee with the weeping of Jazer: thy plants are gone over the sea, they reach even to the sea of Jazer: the spoiler is fallen upon thy summer fruits and upon thy vintage.

33 And "joy and gladness is taken from the plentiful field, and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to fail from the winepresses: none shall tread with shouting; their shouting shall be no shouting.

34 "From the cry of Heshbon even unto Elealeh, and even unto Jahaz, have they uttered their voice, "from Zoar even unto Horonaim, as an heifer of three years old: for the waters also of Nimrim shall be "desolate.

35 Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab, saith the LORD, "hum that offereth in the high places, and him that burneth incense to his gods.

36 Therefore "mine heart shall sound for Moab like pipes, and mine heart shall sound like pipes for the men of Kir-heres, because "the riches that he hath gotten are perished.

37 For "every head shall be bald, and every beard "clipped: upon all the hands shall be cuttings, and "upon the loins sackcloth.

38 There shall be lamentation generally upon all the house-tops of Moab, and in the streets thereof: for I have broken Moab like "a vessel wherein is no pleasure, saith the LORD.

39 They shall howl, saying, How is it broken down! how hath Moab turned the "back with shame! so shall Moab be a derision and a dismaying to all them about him.

40 For thus saith the LORD; Behold "he shall fly as an eagle, and shall "spread his wings over Moab.

41 "Kerioth² is taken, and the strong holds are surprised, and "the mighty men's hearts in Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

42 And Moab shall be destroyed "from being a people, because he hath magnified himself against the LORD.

shall be upon thee, O inhabitant of Moab, saith the LORD.

44 He that flieth from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that getteth up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for "I will bring upon it, even upon Moab, the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

45 They that fled stood under the shadow of Heshbon because of the force: hut "a fire shall come forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and "shall devour the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the "tumultuous ones.

46 "Woe be unto thee, O Moab! the people of Chemosh perisheth: for thy sons are taken "captives, and thy daughters captives.

47 "Yet will I bring again the captivity of Moab "in the latter day, saith the LORD. Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

CHAPTER 49.

1 The judgment of the Ammonites. 7 The judgment of Edom, 23 of Idumea, 28 of Kedar, 30 of Hazor, 34 of Elam. 38 The restoration of Elam.

CONCERNING⁴ the Ammonites, thus saith the LORD; Hath Israel no sons? hath he no heir? why then doth "their king inherit "Gad, and his people dwell in his cities?

2 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard in "Rabbah of the Ammonites, and it shall be a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel be heir unto them that were his heirs, saith the LORD.

3 Howl, O Heshbon, for A¹ is spoiled, cry, ye daughters of Rabbah. "gird you with sackcloth; lament, and run to and fro by the hedges; for "their king shall go into captivity, and his "priests and his princes together.

4 Wherefore gloriest thou in the valleys, "thy flowing valley, O "backsliding daughter! that trusted in her treasures, "saying, Who shall come unto me?

5 Behold, I will bring a fear upon thee, saith the Lord God of hosts, from all those that be about thee, and ye shall be driven out every man right forth; and none shall gather up him that wandereth.

6 And "afterward I will bring again the captivity of the children of Ammon, saith the LORD.

7 "Concerning Edom, thus saith the LORD of hosts; "Is wisdom no more in Teman? "Is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished?

8 "Flee ye, "turn back, dwell deep,

O inhabitants of "Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time that I will visit him.

9 If grapegatherers come to thee, would they not leave some gleanings of grapes? if thieves by night, they will destroy till they have enough.

10 "But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbours, and he is not.

11 Leave thy fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and let thy widows trust in me.

12 For thus saith the LORD; Behold, they whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have assuredly drunken; and art thou he that shalt altogether go unpunished? thou shalt not go unpunished, but thou shalt surely drink of it.

13 For "I have sworn by myself, saith the LORD, that "Bozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes.

14 I have heard a "rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent unto the heathen, saying, Gather ye together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle.

15 For, lo, I will make thee small among the heathen, and despised among men.

16 Thy terriblest hath deceived thee, and the pride of thine heart, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, that holdest the height of the hill: "though thou shouldst make thy nest as high as the eagle, "I will bring thee down from thence, saith the LORD.

17 Also Edom shall be a desolation: every one that goeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all the plagues thereof.

18 "As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD, no man shall abide there, neither shall a son of man dwell in it.

19 "Behold, he shall come up like a lion from "the swelling of Jordan against the habitation of the strong: but I will suddenly make him run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for "who is like me? and "who will appoint me the time? and "who is that shepherd that will stand before me?

20 "Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the inhabitants of 23 "Concerning Damascus. Hamath is confounded, and Arpad: for they have heard evil tidings: they are "fainthearted; "there is sorrow "on the sea; it cannot be quiet.

24 Damascus is waved feeble, and turneth herself to flee, and fear hath seized on her. "Anguish and sorrows have taken her, as a woman in travail.

25 How is "the city of praise not left, the city of my joy!

26 "Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD of hosts.

27 And I will kindle a "fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall consume the palaces of Ben-hadad.

28 "Concerning Kedar, and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon shall smite, thus saith the LORD; Arise ye, go up to Kedar, and spoil "the men of the east.

29 Their "tents and their flocks shall they take away. they shall take to themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry unto them, "Fear is on every side.

30 "Flee, "get you far off, dwell deep, O ye inhabitants of Hazor, saith the LORD; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath taken counsel against you, and hath conceived a purpose against you.

31 Arise, get you up unto "the "wealthy nation, that dwelleth without care, saith the LORD, which have neither gates nor bars, which dwell alone.

32 And their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their cattle a spoil: and I will "scatter into all winds "them that are "in the utmost corners; and I will bring their calamity from all sides thereof, saith the LORD.

33 And Hazor "shall be a dwelling for dragons, and a desolation for ever: "there shall no man abide there, nor any son of man dwell in it.

34 "The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against "Elam in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, 35 Thus, saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will break "the bow of Elam, the chief of their might.

36 And upon Elam will I bring the four winds from the four quarters of the heaven, and "will scatter them toward all those winds; and there shall be no nation whither the outcasts of Elam shall not come.

37 For I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before them that seek their life; and I will bring evil upon them, even my fierce anger, saith the LORD; "and I will send the sword after them, till I have consumed them;

38 And I will "set my throne in Elam, and will destroy from thence the king and the princes, saith the LORD.

39 ¶ But it shall come to pass "in the latter days, that I will bring again the captivity of Elam, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 50

Judgment of Babylon and redemption of Israel

THE word that the LORD spake "against Babylon and against the land of the Chaldeans "by Jeremiah the prophet.

2 Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and "set up a standard; publish, and conceal not "any, Babylon is taken, "Babel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces, "her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

3 "For out of the north there cometh up "a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast.

4 ¶ In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, "they and the children of Judah together, "going and weeping they shall go, "and seek the LORD their God.

5 They shall ask the way to Zion with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD in "a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.

6 My people hath been "lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away on "the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their "restingplace.

7 All that found them have "devoured them, and "their adversaries said, "We offend not, because they have sinned against the LORD, "the habitation of justice: even the LORD, "the hope of their father.

the Chaldeans, and be as the he goats before the flocks.

9 ¶ For, lo, I will raise and cause to come up against Babylon an assembly of great nations from the north country, and they shall "set themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken, their arrows shall be as of a mighty "expert man; "none shall return in vain.

10 And Chaldaea shall be a spoil, "all that spoil her shall be satisfied, saith the LORD.

11 "Because ye were glad, because ye rejoiced, O ye destroyers of mine heritage, because ye are grown "fat "as the heifer at grass, and "bellow as bulls.

12 Your mother shall be sore "founded; she that have you shall be ashamed: behold, the hindermost of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.

13 Because of the wrath of the LORD, it shall not be inhabited, "but it shall be wholly desolate: "every one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues.

14 "Put yourselves in array against Babylon round about: all ye "that bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows for she hath sinned against the LORD.

15 Shout against her round about: she hath "given her hand, her foundations are fallen, "her walls are thrown down: for "it is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance upon her, as she hath done, do unto her.

16 Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him that handleth the sickle in the time of harvest (for fear of the oppressing sword "they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land).

17 ¶ Israel is "a scattered sheep, "the lions have driven him away: first the king of Assyria hath devoured him, and last this "Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria.

19 "And I will bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon mount Ephraim and Gilead.

20 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, "the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them "whom I reserve.

21 ¶ Go up against the land ¹of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of "Pekod:² waste and utterly destroy after them, saith the LORD, and do ³according to all that I have commanded thee.

22 ⁴A sound of battle ⁵is in the land, and of great destruction.

23 How is ⁶the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations!

24 I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon, ⁷and thou wast not aware: thou art found, and also caught, because thou hast striven against the LORD.

25 The LORD hath opened his armoury, and hath brought forth ⁸the weapons of his indignation: for this ⁹is the work of the Lord GOD of hosts in the land of the Chaldeans.

26 Come against her ¹⁰from the utmost border, open ¹¹her storehouses: ¹²cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly: let nothing of her be left.

27 Slay all her ¹³hullocks; let them go down to the slaughter: woe unto them! for their day is come, the time of ¹⁴their visitation.

28 The voice of them that flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, ¹⁵to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of his temple.

29 Call together the archers against Babylon: ¹⁶all ye that bend the bow, camp against it round about; let none thereof escape: ¹⁷recompense her according to her work; according to all that she hath done, do unto her: ¹⁸for she hath been proud against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel.

30 "Therefore shall her young men fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD.

31 Behold, I ¹⁹am against thee, O thou ²⁰most proud, saith the Lord GOD of hosts: for ²¹thy day is come, the time ²²that I will visit thee

32 And ²³the most proud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up: and ²⁴I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all round about him.

33 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The children of Israel and the children of Judah ²⁵were oppressed together: and all that took them captives held them fast; they refused to let them go.

may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

35 ¶ A sword ¹is upon the Chaldeans, saith the LORD, and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, and upon her princes, and upon ²her wise men.

36 A sword ³is upon the ⁴hairs; and they shall date: a sword ⁵is upon her mighty men; and they shall be dismayed.

37 A sword ⁶is upon their horses, and upon their chariots, and upon all ⁷the mingled people that ⁸are in the midst of her; and ⁹they shall become as women: a sword ¹⁰is upon her treasures; and they shall be robbed.

38 ¹¹A drought ¹²is upon her waters; and they shall be dried up: for it ¹³is the land of ¹⁴graven images, and they are mad upon ¹⁵their idols

39 "Therefore the wild beasts of the desert with the wild beasts of the islands shall dwell ¹⁶there, and the owls shall dwell therein. ¹⁷And it shall be no more inhabited for ever; neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.

40 ¹⁸As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour ¹⁹cities thereof, saith the LORD: so shall no man abide there, neither shall any son of man dwell therein.

41 ²⁰Behold, a people shall come from the north, and a great nation, and many kings shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

42 ²¹They shall hold the bow and the lance: ²²they ²³are cruel, and will not shew mercy: ²⁴their voice shall roar like the sea, and they shall ride upon horses, ²⁵every one put in array, like a man to the battle, against thee, O daughter of Babylon.

43 The king of Babylon hath heard the report of them, and his hands waxed feeble. ²⁶Anguish took hold of him, and pangs as of a woman in travail.

44 ²⁷Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan unto the habitation of the strong: but I will make them suddenly run away from her: and who ²⁸is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who ²⁹is like me? and who will ³⁰appoint me the time? and ³¹who ³²is that shepherd that will stand before me?

45 Therefore hear ye ³³the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Babylon; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely he shall make ³⁴their habitation desolate with them.

CHAPTER 51

(1st against Babylon 50 is the book of this prophecy is into 51 verses)

THIS saith the LORD, Behold, I will rise up against Babylon, and smite them that dwell in the midst of them that rise up against me, a destroying wind.

2 And will send unto Babylon fanners that shall fan her, and shall empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about.

3 Against him that bendeth let the archer bend his bow, and against him that lifteth himself up in his brigandine: and spare ye another young men; destroy ye utterly all her host.

4 Thus, the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans: and they that are thrust through in her streets.

5 For Israel hath not been forsaken, nor Judah of his God, of the LORD of hosts; though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel.

6 Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man his soul: be not cut off in her iniquity; for this is the time of the LORD's vengeance; he will render unto her a recompence.

7 Babylon hath been a golden cup in the LORD's hand, that made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunken of her wine; therefore the nations are mad.

8 Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: howl for her, take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed.

9 We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her,
and let us go every one into his own country: for her judgment reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.

10 The LORD hath brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God.

11 Make bright the arrows; gather the shields: the LORD hath raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes: for his device is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is the vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance of his temple.

12 Set up the standard upon the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong: set up the watchmen, prepare the ambushes: for the LORD hath both devised and done that which he spake against the inhabitants of Babylon.

13 O thou that dwellest upon many waters, abundant in treasures, thine end is come, and the measure of thy covetousness.

14 The LORD of hosts hath sworn by himself, saying, Surely I will fill thee with men, as with caterpillers, and they shall lift up a shout against thee.

15 He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding.

16 When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens; and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth: he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.

17 Every man is brutish by his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

18 They are vanity, the work of errors; in the time of their visitation they shall perish.

19 The portion of Jacob is not like them; for he is the former of all things, and Israel is the rod of his inheritance:
the LORD of hosts is his name.

20 Thou art my battleaxe and weapon of war: for with thee will I break in pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy kingdoms;

21 And with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and his rider;

22 With thee also will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces old and young; and with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the maid.

23 I will also break in pieces with thee the shepherd and his flock, and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oven, and with thee will I break in pieces captains and rulers.

24 And I will render unto Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, saith the LORD.

25 Behold, I am against thee, O destroying mountain, saith the LORD, which destroyest all the earth: and I will stretch out mine hand upon thee and roll thee down from the rocks: and will make thee a burnt mountain.

26 And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but thou shalt be desolate for ever, saith the LORD.

27 ^aSet ye up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, ^bprepare the nations against her, call together against her ^cthe kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashchenaz; appoint a captain against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough caterpillers.

28 Prepare against her the nations with ^athe kings of the Medes, the captains thereof, and all the rulers thereof, and all the land of his dominion.

29 And the land shall tremble and sorrow, for every purpose of the LORD shall be performed against Babylon, ^ato make the land of Babylon a desolation without an inhabitant.

30 The mighty men of Babylon have forborn to fight, they have remained in ^atheir bolds; their might hath failed; ^bthey became as women: they have burned her dwellingplaces; ^cher bars are broken.

31 ^aOne post shall run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to shew the king of Babylon that his city is taken at one end.

32 And that ^athe passages are stopped, and the reeds they have burned with fire, and the men of war are affrighted.

33 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; The daughter of Babylon is ^alike a threshingfloor, ^bit is time to thresh her; yet a little while, ^cand the time of her harvest shall come.

34 Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon hath ^adevoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like a dragon, he hath filled his belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out.

35 ^aThe violence done to me and to my ^bflesh be upon Babylon, shall be the inhabitant of Zion say; and my blood upon the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say.

36 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, ^aI will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; and ^bI will dry up her sea, and make her springs dry.

37 ^aAnd Babylon shall become heaps, a dwellingplace for dragons, ^ban astonishment, and an hissing, without an inhabitant.

38 They shall roar together like lions: they shall ^awell as lions' whelps.

39 In their heat I will make their feasts, and ^aI will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the LORD.

40 I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he goats.

41 How is ^aSheshach taken! and how is ^bthe praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations!

42 ^aThe sea is come up upon Babylon: she is covered with the multitude of the waves thereof.

43 ^aHer cities are a desolation, a dry land, and a wilderness, a land wherein no man dwelleth, neither doth ^bany son of man pass thereby.

44 ^aAnd I will punish Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up: and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him; yea, ^bthe wall of Babylon shall fall.

45 ^aMy people, go ye out of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the fierce anger of the LORD.

46 And ^alest your heart faint, and ye fear ^bfor the rumour that shall be heard in the land; a rumour shall both come one year, and after that in ^canother year shall come a rumour, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler.

47 Therefore, behold, the days come, that ^aI will ^bdo judgment upon the graven images of Babylon: and her whole land shall be confounded, and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her.

48 Then ^athe heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for Babylon: ^bfor the spoilers shall come unto her from the north, saith the LORD.

49 ^aAs Babylon hath caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all ^bthe earth.

50 ^aYe that have escaped the sword, go away, stand not still: remember the LORD afar off, and let Jerusalem come into your mind.

51 ^aWe are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers are come into the sanctuaries of the LORD's house.

52 Wherefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, ^athat I will do judgment upon her graven images, and through all her land the wounded shall groan.

53 ^aThough Babylon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall spoilers come unto her, saith the LORD.

54 ^aA sound of a cry cometh from Babylon, and great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans:

55 Because the LORD hath spoiled

Babylon, and destroyed out of her the great voice; when her waves do roar like great waters, a noise of their voice is uttered:

56 Because the spoiler is come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, every one of their bows is broken: ¹for the LORD God of recompences shall surely requite.

57 ²And I will make drunk her princes, and her wise men, her captains and her rulers, and her mighty men: and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith ³the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

58 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; ⁴The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly broken, and her high gates shall be burned with fire; and ⁵the people shall labour in vain, and the folk in the fire, and they shall be weary.

59 ¶ The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, when he went ⁶with Zedekiah the king of Judah into Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. And this Seraiah was a ⁷quiet prince.

60 So Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written against Babylon.

61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When thou comest to Babylon, and shalt see, and shalt read all these words;

62 Then shalt thou say, O LORD, thou hast spoken against this place, to cut it off, that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be ³desolate for ever.

63 And it shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, ⁴that thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates:

64 And thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her: ⁵and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

4 ¶ And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and built forts against it round about 5 So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

6 And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land.

7 Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were by the city round about:) and they went by the way of the plain.

8 ¶ But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho, and all his army was scattered from him.

9 ¶ Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; where he gave judgment upon him.

10 ¶ And the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Judah in Riblah.

11 Then he put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in chains, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death.

12 ¶ Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzar-adan, captain of the guard, which served the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem.

13 And burned the house of the LORD, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men, burned he with fire:

14 And all the army of the Chaldeans, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down all the walls of Jerusalem round about.

15 ¶ Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive certain of the poor of the people, and the residue of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude.

16 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left certain of the poor of the land for vinedressers and for husbandmen.

17 ^aAlso the ^bpillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brassen sea that was in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans brake, and carried all the brass of them to Babylon.

18 ^cThe caldrons also, and the ^dshovels, and the snuffers and the ^ebowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away.

19 And the basons, and the ^ffire-pans, and the bowls, and the caldrons, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver in silver, took the captain of the guard away.

20 The two pillars, one sea, and twelve brassen bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made in the house of the LORD: ^gthe ^hbrass of all these vessels was without weight.

21 And concerning the ⁱpillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a ^jfillet of twelve cubits did compass it; and the thickness thereof was four fingers: it was hollow.

22 And a chapter of brass was upon it; and the height of one chapter was five cubits, with network and pomegranates upon the chapters round about, all of brass. The second pillar also and the pomegranates were like unto these.

23 And there were ninety and six pomegranates on a side; and ^kall the pomegranates upon the network were an hundred round about.

24 ^l¶ And ^mthe captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, ⁿand Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the ^odoor:

hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up.

15 The LORD hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me: he hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men: ^athe LORD hath trodden ^athe virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a winepress.

16 For these things I weep; ^amine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, because ^athe comforter that should ^arelieve my soul is far from me: my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed.

17 ^aZion spreadeth forth her hands, and ^athere is none to comfort her. the LORD hath commanded concerning Jacob, that his adversaries should be round about him: Jerusalem is as a menstruous woman among them.

18 ^aThe LORD is ^arighteous; for I have ^arebelled against his ^acommandment: hear, I pray you, all people, and behold my sorrow: my virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.

19 I called for my lovers, but ^athey deceived me: my priests and mine elders gave up the ghost in the city, ^awhile they sought their meat to relieve their souls.

20 Behold, O LORD; for I am in distress, my ^abowels are troubled; mine heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled ^aabroad the sword bereaveth, at home there is as death.

21 They have heard that I sigh: ^athere is none to comfort me: all mine enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that thou hast done ^ait: thou wilt bring ^athe day that thou hast ^acalled, and they shall be like unto me.

22 ^aLet all their wickedness come before thee; and do unto them, as thou hast done unto me for all my transgressions: for my sighs are many, and ^amy heart is faint.

CHAPTER 2.

Jeremiah lamenteth the misery of Jerusalem.

HOW hath the LORD covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, ^aand cast down from heaven unto the earth ^athe beauty of Israel, and remembered not ^ahis footstool in the day of his anger!

2 The LORD hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, ^aand hath not pitied: he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah; he hath ^abrought them down to the ground: ^ahe hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof.

3 He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Israel. ^ahe hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, ^band he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about.

4 "He hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew ^call that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he poured out his fury like fire.

5 "The Lord was as an enemy: he hath swallowed up Israel, ^dhe hath swallowed up all her palaces: he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

6 And he hath violently ^etaken away his ^ftabernacle, ^gas if it were of a garden: he hath destroyed his places of the assembly. ^hThe Lord hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest.

7 The Lord hath cast off his altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary, he hath ⁱgiven up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; ^jthey have made a noise in the house of the Lord, as in the day of a solemn feast.

8 The Lord hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion; ^khe hath stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from ^ldestroying: therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languished together.

9 Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and ^mbroken her bars: ⁿher king and her princes are among the Gentiles: ^othe law is no more; her ^pprophets also find no vision from the Lord.

10 The elders of the daughter of Zion ^qsit upon the ground, and keep silence: they have ^rcast up dust upon their heads; they have ^sgirded themselves with sackcloth: the virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

11 "Mine eyes do fail with tears, ^tmy bowels are troubled, ^umy liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people; because ^vthe children and the sucklings ^wswoon in the streets of the city.

12 They say to their mothers, Where is corn and wine? when they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mothers' bosom.

thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion? for thy breach is great like the sea: who can heal thee?

14 Thy ⁿprophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee: and they have not ^odiscovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens and causes of banishment.

15 "All that pass ^pby ^qclap their hands at thee; they hiss ^rand wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call ^s"The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?"

16 "All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee; they hiss and gnash the teeth; they say, ^t"We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, ^uwe have seen it."

17 The Lord hath done that which he had ^vdevised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old: he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied; and he hath caused ^wthine enemy to ^xrejoice over thee, he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries.

18 Their heart cried unto the Lord, O wall of the daughter of Zion, ^ylet tears run down like a river day and night: give thyself no rest; let not the apple of thine eye cease.

19 Arise, ^z"cry out in the night: in the beginning of the watches ^apour out thine heart like water before the face of the Lord: lift up thy hands toward him for the life of thy young children, that faint for hunger ^bin the top of every street.

20 ¶ Behold, O Lord, and consider to whom thou hast done this. ^cShall the women eat their fruit, and children ^dof a span long? ^eshall the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the Lord?

21 "The young and the old lie on the ground in the streets; my virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword; thou hast slain them in the day of thine anger; ^fthou hast killed, and not pitied.

22 Thou hast called as in a solemn day ^gmy terrors round about, so that in the day of the Lord's anger none escaped nor remained ^h"those that I have swaddled and brought up hath mine enemy consumed

CHAPTER 3.

1 The faithful bewail their calamities. 22 By the mercy of God they nourish their hope. 37 They acknowledge God's justice. 66 They pray for deliverance.

I AM the man that hath seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.

2 He hath led me, and brought me into darkness, but not into light.

3 Surely against me is he turned; he turneth his hand against me all the day.

4 My flesh and my skin hath he made old; he hath broken my bones.

5 He hath builded against me, and compassed me with gall and travel.

6 He hath set me in dark places, as they that be dead of old.

7 He hath liedged me about, that I cannot get out: he hath made my chain heavy.

8 Also when I cry and shout, he shutteth out my prayer.

9 He hath enclosed my ways with hewn stone, he hath made my paths crooked.

10 He was unto me as a bear lying in wait, and as a lion in secret places.

11 He hath turned aside my ways, and pulled me in pieces: he hath made me desolate.

12 He hath bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow.

13 He hath caused the arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins.

14 I was a derision to all my people; and their song all the day.

15 He hath filled me with bitterness, he hath made me drunken with wormwood.

16 He hath also broken my teeth with gravel stones, he hath covered me with ashes.

17 And thou hast removed my soul far off from peace: I forgot prosperity.

18 And I said, My strength and my hope is perished from the LORD.

19 Remembering mine affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall.

20 My soul hath them still in remembrance, and is humbled in me.

21 This I recall to my mind, therefore have I hope.

22 It is of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not.

23 They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness.

24 The LORD is my portion, saith my soul, therefore will I hope in him.

25 The LORD is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.

26 It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD.

27 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.

28 He sitteth alone and keepeth silence, because he hath borne upon him.

29 He putteth his mouth in the dust; if so be there may be hope.

30 He giveth his cheek to him that smiteth him: he is filled full with reproach.

31 For the LORD will not cast off for ever.

32 But though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies.

33 For he doth not afflict willingly nor grieve the children of men.

34 To crush under his feet all the prisoners of the earth.

35 To turn aside the right of a man before the face of the most High.

36 To subvert a man in his cause, the LORD approveth not.

37 Who is he that saith, and it cometh to pass, when the LORD commandeth it not?

38 Out of the mouth of the most High proceedeth not evil and good?

39 Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins?

40 Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the LORD.

41 Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens.

42 We have transgressed and have rebelled: thou hast not pardoned.

43 Thou hast covered with anger, and persecuted us: thou hast slain, thou hast not pitied.

44 Thou hast covered thyself with a cloud, that our prayer should not pass through.

45 Thou hast made us as the off-scouring and refuse in the midst of the people.

46 All our enemies have opened their mouths against us.

47 Fear and a snare is come upon us, desolation and destruction.

48 Mine eye runneth down rivers of water for the destruction of the daughter of my people.

49 Mine eye tricketh down, and ceaseth not, without any intermission.

50 Till the LORD look down, and behold from heaven.

51 Mine eye affecteth mine heart, because of all the daughters of my city.

52 Mine enemies chased me sore, like a bird, without cause.

53 They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and cast a stone upon me.

54 Waters flowed over mine head; then I said, I am cut off.

55 I called upon thy name, O LORD, out of the low dungeon.

56 Thou hast heard my voice: hide not thine ear at my breathing, at my cry.

57 Thou drewest near in the day that I called upon thee: thou saidst, Fear not.

58 O Lord, thou hast ^apleaded the causes of my soul; ^athou hast redeemed my life.

59 O LORD, thou hast seen my wrong: ^ajudge thou my cause.

60 Thou hast seen all their vengeance and all their ^aimaginings against me.

61 Thou hast heard their reproach, O LORD, and all their imaginings against me;

62 The lips of those that rose up against me, and their device against me all the day.

63 Behold their ^asitting down, and their rising up; I ^aam their musick.

64 ¶ ^aRender unto them a recompence, O LORD, according to the work of their hands.

65 Give them ^asorrow of heart, thy curse unto them.

66 Persecute and destroy them in anger ^afrom under the ^aheavens of the LORD.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Zion bewaileth her pitiful estate 13 She comforteth her sins. 21 Elom is threatened. 22 Zion is comforted.

HOW is the gold become dim! ^ahow is the most fine gold changed! the stones of the sanctuary are poured out ^ain the top of every street.

2 The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed ^aas earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!

3 Even the ^asea monsters draw out the breast, they give suck to their young ones; the daughter of my people is become cruel, ^alike the ostriches in the wilderness.

4 ^aThe tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst: ^athe young children ask bread, and no man breaketh ^ait unto them.

5 They that did feed delicately are desolate in the streets; they that were brought up in scarlet ^aembrace dung-hills.

6 For the ^apunishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was ^aoverthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her.

7 Her Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was of sapphires:

8 Their visage is ^ablackcr^a than a coal; they are not known in the streets: ^atheir skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.

9 ^aThey that be slain with the sword are better than ^athey that be slain with hunger: for these ^apine away, stricken through for want of the fruits of the field.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET EZEKIEL

CHAPTER 1.

1 Time of Ezekiel's prophecy. 4 Vision of four cherubims, 15 of the four wheels, 26 of God's glory

NOW it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the captives by the river of Chebar, that the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God.

2 In the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity,

3 The word of the LORD came expressly unto Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and the hand of the LORD was there upon him.

4 ¶ And I looked, and, behold, a whirlwind came out of the north, a great cloud, and a fire unfolding itself, and a brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire.

5 Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance; they had the likeness of a man.

6 And every one had four faces, and every one had four wings.

7 And their feet were straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled like the colour of burnished brass.

8 ^aAnd they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides, and they four had their faces and their wings.

9 ^bTheir wings were joined one to another; they turned not when they went; they went every one straight forward.

10 As for the likeness of their faces, they four had the face of a man, and the face of a lion, on the right side; and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; they four also had the face of an eagle.

11 Thus were their faces: and their wings were stretched upward; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and two covered their bodies.

12 And they went every one straight forward: whither the spirit was to go, they went; and they turned not when they went.

13 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, and like the appearance of lamps: it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning.

14 And the living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

15 ¶ Now as I beheld the living creatures, behold ^aone wheel upon the earth by the living creatures, with his four faces.

16 ^aThe appearance of the wheels and their work ^alike unto the colour of a beryl: and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work ^awas as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel.

17 When they went, they went upon their four sides: ^aand they turned not when they went.

18 As for their rings, they were so high that they were dreadful; and their ^arings were full of eyes round about them four.

19 And ^awhen the living creatures went, the wheels went by them: and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up.

20 ^aWhithersoever the spirit was to go, they went, thither ^awas their spirit to go; and the wheels were lifted up over against them: ^afor the spirit ^aof the living creature ^awas in the wheels.

21 ^aWhen those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit ^aof the living creature ^awas in the wheels.

22 ^aAnd the likeness of the firmament upon the heads of the living creature ^awas as the colour of the terrible crystal, stretched forth over their heads above.

23 And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other: every one had two, which covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their bodies.

24 ^aAnd when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, ^alike the noise of great waters, as ^athe voice of the Almighty, the voice of speech, as the noise of an host: when they stood, they let down their wings.

25 And there was a voice from the firmament that ^awas over their heads, when they stood, and had let down their wings.

26 ¶ ^aAnd above the firmament that ^awas over their heads ^awas the likeness of a throne, ^aas the appearance of a sapphire stone: and upon the likeness of the throne ^awas the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it.

27 ^aAnd I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of fire round about within it, from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward,

I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about.

23 ^aAs the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so ^awas the appearance of the brightness round about. ^aThis ^awas the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Ezekiel's commission 6 His instruction. 9 The roll of his heavy prophecy

AND he said unto me, Son of man, ^astand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee.

2 And ^athe spirit entered into me when he spake unto me, and set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious ^anation that hath rebelled against me: ^athey and their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day.

4 ^aFor they are ^aimpudent children and stiffhearted. I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD.

5 ^aAnd they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they ^aare a rebellious house,) yet ^ashall know that there hath been a prophet among them.

6 ¶ And thou, son of man, ^abe not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though ^abriers ^aand thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: ^abe not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, ^athough they ^abe a rebellious house.

7 ^aAnd thou shalt speak my words unto them, ^awhether they will hear, or whether they will forbear: for they ^aare ^amost rebellious.

8 But thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee: Be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy mouth, and eat that I give thee.

9 ¶ And when I looked, behold, ^aan hand ^awas sent unto me; and, lo, ^aa roll of a book was therein:

10 And he spread it before me; and it was written within and without: and there was written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Ezekiel eateth the roll 4 God encourageth him. 15 God sheweth him the rule of prophecy 22 God shutteth and openeth the prophet's mouth.

MOREOVER he said unto me, Son of man, eat that thou findest; ^aeat this roll, and go speak unto the house of Israel.

2 So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that roll.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I eat it, and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness.

4 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them.

5 For thou art not sent to a people of a strange speech and of an hard language, but to the house of Israel;

6 Not to many people of a strange speech and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand. Surely, had I sent thee to them, they would have hearkened unto thee.

7 But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; for they will not hearken unto me: for all the house of Israel are impudent and hard-hearted.

8 Behold, I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.

9 As an adamant harder than flint have I made thy forehead: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

10 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thine heart, and hear with thine ears.

11 And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them. Thus saith the Lord God; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

12 Then the spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the glory of the Lord from his place.

13 I heard also the noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and the noise of the wheels over against them, and a noise of a great rushing.

14 So the spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the hand of the Lord was strong upon me.

15 ¶ Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel-abib, that dwelt by the river of Chebar, and I sat where they sat, and remained there astonished among them seven days.

16 And it came to pass at the end of seven days, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

17 Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.

18 When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

19 Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

20 Again, When a righteous man doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumblingblock before him, he shall die: because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

21 Nevertheless if thou warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he is warned; also thou hast delivered thy soul.

22 ¶ And the hand of the Lord was there upon me; and he said unto me, Arise, go forth into the plain, and I will there talk with thee.

23 Then I arose, and went forth into the plain: and, behold, the glory of the Lord stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river of Chebar: and I fell on my face.

24 Then the spirit entered into me, and set me upon my feet, and spake with me, and said unto me, Go, shut thyself within thine house.

25 But thou, O son of man, behold, they shall put bands upon thee, and shall bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them:

26 And I will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them a reprover: for they are a rebellious house.

27 But when I speak with thee, I will open thy mouth, and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; He that heareth, let him hear; and he that forbeareth, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Under the type of a sieve, showed the time from the destruction of Jerusalem to the captivity, and the hardness of the famine.

THOU also, son of man, take thee a tile, and lay it before thee, and pour tray upon it the city, even Jerusalem.

2 And lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount it; set the camp also against it ¹ battering rams against it about.

Moreover take thou unto thee ² an an, and set it for a wall of iron on thee and the city: and set ³ it against it, and it shall be ⁴ ed, and thou shalt lay siege ⁵ it. This shall be a sign to the of Israel.

⁶ And thou shalt upon thy left side, ⁷ ay the iniquity of the house of upon it: according to the num- the days that thou shalt lie up- ⁸ on it thou shalt bear their iniquity.

⁹ For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: ¹⁰ so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

¹¹ And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee ¹² each day for a year.

¹³ Therefore thou shalt set thy face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and thine arm shall be uncovered, and thou shalt prophesy against it.

¹⁴ And, behold, I will lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee ¹⁵ from one side to another, till thou hast ended the days of thy siege.

¹⁶ ¶ Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, and ¹⁷ fitches, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side, three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof.

¹⁸ And thy meat which thou shalt eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time shalt thou eat it.

¹⁹ Thou shalt drink also water by measure, the sixth part of an hin: from time to time shalt thou drink.

²⁰ And thou shalt eat it as barley cakes, and thou shalt bake it with dung that cometh out of man, in their sight.

²¹ And the LORD said, Even thus ²² shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, whither I will drive them.

²³ Then said I, ²⁴ Ah Lord God! behold, my soul hath not been polluted; for from my youth up even till now have I not eaten of ²⁵ that which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces; neither came there ²⁶ abominable flesh into my mouth.

CHAPTER 5.

¹ Under the type of hair, 5 is shewed the judgment of Jerusalem, 12 by famine, sword, and dispersion.

AND thou, son of man, take thee ² a sharp knife, take thou a barber's razor, ³ and cause it to pass upon thine head and upon thy beard: then take thee balances to weigh, and divide the hair.

⁴ Thou shalt burn with fire a third part in the midst of the city, when ⁵ the days of the siege are fulfilled: and thou shalt take a third part, and smite about it with a knife: and a third part thou shalt scatter in the wind; and I will draw out a sword after them.

⁶ Thou shalt also take thereof a few in number, and bind them in thy ⁷ skirts.

⁸ Then take of them again, and ⁹ cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; for thereof shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel.

¹⁰ ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; This ¹¹ is Jerusalem: I have set it in the midst of the nations and countries that are round about her.

¹² And she hath changed my judgments into wickedness more than the nations, and my statutes more than the countries that are round about her: for they have refused my judgments and my statutes, they have not walked in them.

¹³ Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because ye multiplied more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgments, neither have done according to the judgments of the nations that are round about you, ¹⁴ Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I, even I, am against thee, and will execute judgments in the midst of thee in the sight of the nations.

¹⁵ And I will do in thee that which I have not done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like, because of all thine abominations.

¹⁶ Therefore the fathers ¹⁷ shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I scatter into all the winds.

11 Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord God; Surely, because thou hast defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things, and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also diminish thee, neither shall mine eye spare, neither will I have any pity.

12 ¶ A third part of thee shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee. and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee; and I will scatter a third part into all the winds, and I will draw out a sword after them.

13 Thus shall mine anger be accomplished, and I will cause my fury to rest upon them, and I will be comforted, and they shall know that I the Lord have spoken it in my zeal, when I have accomplished my fury in them.

14 Moreover I will make thee waste, and a reproach among the nations that are round about thee, in the sight of all that pass by.

15 So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment unto the nations that are round about thee, when I shall execute judgments in thee in anger and in fury and in furious rebukes. I the Lord have spoken it.

16 When I shall send upon them the evil arrows of famine, which shall be for their destruction, and which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine upon you, and will break your staff of bread:

17 So will I send upon you famine and evil beasts, and they shall bereave thee; and pestilence and blood shall pass through thee; and I will bring the sword upon thee. I the Lord have spoken it.

CHAPTER 6

1 The judgment of Israel for their idolatry 8 A remnant shall be saved

And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them,

3 And say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God; Thus saith the Lord God to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys; Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places.

and your images shall be broken: and I will cast down your slain men before your idols.

5 And I will lay the dead carcasses of the children of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones round about your altars.

6 In all your dwelling places the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your images may be cut down, and your works may be abolished.

7 And the slain shall fall in the midst of you, and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

8 ¶ Yet will I leave a remnant, that ye may have some that shall escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries.

9 And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations whither they shall be carried captives, because I am broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and with their eyes, which go a whoring after their idols; and they shall loathe themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations.

10 And they shall know that I am the Lord, and that I have not said in vain that I would do this evil unto them.

11 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; Smite with thine hand, and stamp with thy foot, and say, Alas for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence.

12 He that is far off shall die of the pestilence; and he that is near shall fall by the sword; and he that remaineth and is besieged shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish my fury upon them.

13 Then shall ye know that I am the Lord, when their slain men shall be among their idols round about the altars, upon every high hill, in all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the place where they did offer sweet savour to all their idols.

14 So will I stretch out my hand upon them, and make the land desolate, yea, more desolate than the wilderness toward Diblath, in all their habitations, and they shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAPTER 7.

1 The final desolation of Israel 16 The mournful repentance of them that escape 20 The enemies despoil the sanctuary 23 Their miserable captivity

MOREOVER the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
2 Also, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord God unto the land of Israel;
3 "An end, the end is come upon the four corners of the land.

3 Now is the end come upon thee, and I will send mine anger upon thee, and will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense upon thee all thine abominations.
4 And mine eye shall not spare thee, neither will I have pity: but I will recompense thy ways upon thee, and thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee: and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

5 Thus saith the Lord God: An evil, an only evil, behold, is come.

6 An end is come, the end is come: it watcheth for thee; behold, it is come.

7 "The morning is come unto thee, O thou that dwellest in the land: the time is come, the day of trouble is near, and not the sounding again of the mountains.

8 Now will I shortly pour out my fury upon thee, and accomplish mine anger upon thee: and I will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense thee for all thine abominations.

9 And mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will recompense thee according to thy ways and thine abominations that are in the midst of thee; and ye shall know that I am the Lord that smiteth.

10 Behold the day, behold, it is come: the morning is gone forth; the rod hath blossomed, pride hath budded.

11 "Violence is risen up into a rod of wickedness: none of them shall remain, nor of their multitude, nor of any of their's: neither shall there be waiting for them.

12 The time is come, the day draweth near: let not the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn: for wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.

13 For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, although they were yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole multitude thereof, which shall not return; neither shall any strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life.

14 They have blown the trumpet, even to make all ready; but none goeth to the battle: for my wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.

16 ¶ But they that escape of them shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them mourning, every one for his iniquity.

17 All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak as water.

18 They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be upon all faces, and baldness upon all their heads.

19 They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be removed: their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the Lord: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels; because it is the stumblingblock of their iniquity.

20 ¶ As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty: but they made the images of their abominations and of their detestable things therein: therefore have I set it far from them.

21 And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall pollute it.

22 My face will I turn also from them, and they shall pollute my secret place: for the robbers shall enter into it, and defile it.

23 ¶ Make a chain: for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence.

24 Wherefore I will bring the worst of the heathen, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pomp of the strong to cease; and their holy places shall be defiled.

25 Destruction cometh; and they shall seek peace, and there shall be none.

26 Mischief shall come upon mischief, and rumour shall be upon rumour; then shall they seek a vision of the prophet; but the law shall perish from the priest, and counsel from the ancients.

27 The king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled: I will do unto them after their way, and according to their deserts will I judge them; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Ezekiel, in a vision of God at Jerusalem, is showed the image of jealousy, 7 the chambers of imagery, 18 the mourners for Sennacherib, 19 the worshippers towards the sun. 19 God's wrath for their idolatry.

AND it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in mine house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, that the hand of the Lord God fell there upon me.

2 Then I beheld, and lo a likeness as the appearance of fire: from the appearance of his loins even downward, fire; and from his loins even upward, as the appearance of brightness, as the colour of amber.

3 And he put forth the form of an hand, and took me by a lock of mine head; and the spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north; where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provoketh to jealousy.

4 And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I saw in the plain.

5 Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up mine eyes the way toward the north, and behold northward at the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry.

6 He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel committeth here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? but turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations.

7 And he brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold a hole in the wall.

8 Then said he unto me, Son of man, dig now in the wall; and when I had digged in the wall, behold a door.

9 And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here.

10 So I went in and saw; and behold every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, poured upon the wall round about.

11 And there stood before them seventy men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, with every man his censor in his hand; and a thick cloud of incense went up.

12 Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, The Lord seeth us not; the Lord hath forsaken the earth.

13 He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.

14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the Lord's house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz.

15 Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.

16 And he brought me into the inner court of the Lord's house, and, behold, at the door of the temple of the Lord, between the porch and the altar, were about five and twenty men, with their backs toward the temple of the Lord, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped the sun toward the east.

17 Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger: and, lo, they put the branch to their nose.

18 Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

CHAPTER 9.

1 A vision, whereby is showed the preservation of some, and the destruction of the rest. 8 God cannot be intreated for them.

HE cried also in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause them that have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand.

2 And, behold, six men came from the way of the higher gate, which lieth toward the north, and every man a slaughter weapon in his hand; and one man among them was clothed with linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side: and they went in, and stood beside the brazen altar.

3 And the glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, wherupon he was, to the threshold of the house. And he called to the man clothed with linen, which had the writer's inkhorn by his side;

4 And the Lord said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof.

5 And to the others he said in mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite: "let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity:

6 "Slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women: but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and "begin at my sanctuary. "Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house.

7 And he said unto them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go ye forth. And they went forth, and slew in the city.

8 ¶ And it came to pass, while they were slaying them, and I was left, that I fell upon my face, and cried, and said, 'Ah Lord God! wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jerusalem?

9 Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perverseness: for they say, "The Lord hath forsaken the earth, and the Lord seeth not.

10 And as for me also, mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but "I will recompense their way upon their head.

11 And, behold, the man clothed with linen, which had the inkhorn by his side, reported the matter, saying, I have done as thou hast commanded me.

1 Vision of the coals of fire, and of the cherubims.

THEN I looked, and, behold, in the firmament that was above the head of the cherubims there appeared over them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne.

2 "And he spake unto the man clothed with linen, and said, Go in between the wheels, even under the ocherub, and fill thine hand with coals of fire from between the cherubims, and "scatter them over the city. And he went in in my sight.

3 Now the cherubims stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court.

4 "Then the glory of the Lord went up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the Lord's glory.

5 And the sound of the cherubims' wings was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of the Almighty God when he speaketh.

7 And one cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubims unto the fire that was between the cherubims, and took thereof, and put it into the hands of him that was clothed with linen: who took it, and went out.

8 ¶ And there appeared in the cherubims the form of a man's hand under their wings.

9 And when I looked, behold the four wheels by the cherubims, one wheel by one cherub, and another wheel by another cherub: and the appearance of the wheels was as the colour of a beryl stone.

10 And as for their appearances, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel.

11 When they went, they went upon their four sides; they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the head looked they followed it; they turned not as they went.

12 And their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes round about, even the wheels that they four had.

13 As for the wheels, 'it was cried unto them in my hearing, O wheel.

14 And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

15 And the cherubims were lifted up. This is the living creature that I saw by the river of Chebar.

16 And when the cherubims went, the wheels went by them: and when the cherubims lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also turned not from beside them.

17 When they stood, these stood; and when they were lifted up, these lifted up themselves also. for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

18 Then the glory of the Lord departed from off the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubims.

19 And the cherubims lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight: when they went out, the wheels also were beside them, and every one stood at the door of the east gate of the Lord's house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

1 The type of Ezekiel's removing, 8 sheweth the captivity of Zedekiah. 17 Ezekiel's trembling sheweth the Jews' desolation. 21 Their presumptuous proverb

THE word of the LORD also came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of "a rebellious house, which "have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: "for they are a rebellious house.

7 And I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for captivity, and in the even I "dugged through the wall with mine hand; I brought it forth in the twilight, and I bare it upon my shoulder in their sight.

8 ¶ And in the morning came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

15 "And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the countries.

16 "But I will leave "a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the heathen whither they come; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

17 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

18 Son of man, "eat thy bread with quaking, and drink thy water with trembling and with carefulness;

19 And say unto the people of the land, Thus saith the Lord GOD of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and of the land of Israel; They shall eat their bread with carefulness, and drink their water with astonishment, that her land may "be desolate from "all that is therein. "because of the violence of all them that dwell therein.

20 And the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be desolate; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

21 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

22 Son of man, what is that proverb that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, "The days are prolonged, and every vision faileth?

23 Tell them therefore, Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but say unto them, "The days are at hand, and the effect of every vision.

24 For "there shall be no more any "vain vision nor flattering divination within the house of Israel.

25 For I am the LORD: I will speak, and "the word that I shall speak shall come to pass; it shall be no more prolonged: for in your days, O rebellious house, will I say the word, and will perform it, saith the Lord GOD.

26 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

27 "Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, The vision that he seeth is "for many days to come, and he prophesieth of the times that are far off

28 ¶ Therefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; There shall none of my words be prolonged any more, but the word which I have spoken shall be done, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Reproof of lying prophets, 10 and their undigested mortar 17 Of prophesies and their pitious.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
2 Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel that prophesy, and say thou unto them¹ that prophesy out of their own hearts, Hear ye the word of the LORD;

3 Thus saith the Lord God; Woe unto the foolish prophets, that follow their own spirit,² and have seen nothing!

4 O Israel, thy prophets are like the foxes in the deserts.

5 Ye³ have not gone up into the gaps, neither⁴ made up the hedge for the house of Israel to stand in the battle in the day of the LORD.

6 They have seen vanity and lying divination, saying, The LORD saith and the LORD hath not sent them: and they have made others to hope that they would confirm the word.

7 Have ye not seen a vain vision, and have ye not spoken a lying divination, whereas ye say, The LORD saith it, albeit I have not spoken?

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, saith the Lord God.

9 And mine hand shall be upon the prophets that see vanity, and that divine lies: they shall not be in the assembly of my people, neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they enter into the land of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

10 ¶ Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, Peace; and there was no peace; and one built up⁵ a wall, and lo, others daubed it with untempered mortar.

11 Say unto them which daub it with untempered mortar, that it shall fall: there shall be an overflowing shower; and ye, O great hallowers, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall rend it.

12 Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be said unto you, Where is the daubing wherewith ye have daubed it?

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my fury; and there shall be an overflowing shower in mine anger, and great hailstones in my fury to consume it.

14 So will I break down the wall that ye have daubed with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation thereof shall be discovered, and it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

18 And say, Thus saith the Lord God; Woe to the women that sew pillows to all armholes, and make kerchiefs upon the head of every stature to hunt souls! Will ye hunt the souls of my people, and will ye save the souls alive that come unto you?

19 And will ye pollute me among my people for bandfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save the souls alive that should not live, by your lying to my people that hear your lies?

20 Wherefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against your pillows, wherewith ye there hunt the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls that ye hunt to make them fly.

21 Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

22 Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life:

23 Therefore ye shall see no more vanity, nor divine divinations: for I will deliver my people out of your hand: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER 14.

1 God answereth volunteers according to their own heart 6 They are exhorted to repent, by means of reduced prophets. 12 God's irrevocable sentence of famine, 15 of noxious beasts, 17 of the sword, 19 and of pestilence 22 A remnant shall be reserved

THEN came certain of the elders of Israel unto me, and sat before me.

2 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their heart, and put the stumblingblock of their iniquity before their face: should I be enquired of at all by them?

4 Therefore speak unto them, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Every man of the house of Israel that setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to the prophet, I the Lord will answer him that cometh according to the multitude of his idols;

5 That I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols.

6 ¶ Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; Repent, and turn ^{yourself} from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations

7 For every one of the house of Israel, or of the stranger that sojourneth in Israel, which separateth himself from me, and setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to a prophet to enquire of him concerning me; I the Lord will answer him by myself:

8 And I will set my face against that man, and will make him a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

9 And if the prophet be deceived when he hath spoken a thing, I the Lord have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel.

10 And they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity: the punishment of the prophet shall be even as the punishment of him that seeketh unto him;

11 That the house of Israel may go no more astray from me, neither be polluted any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, saith the Lord God.

12 ¶ The word of the Lord came again to me, saying,

13 Son of man, when the land sinneth against me by trespassing grievously, then will I stretch out mine hand upon it, and will break the staff of the bread thereof, and will send famine upon it, and will cut off man and beast from it:

14 ¶ Though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, saith the Lord God.

15 ¶ If I cause noisome beasts to pass through the land, and they spoil it, so that it be desolate, that no man may pass through because of the beasts:

16 ¶ Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord God, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only shall be delivered, but the land shall be desolate.

17 ¶ Or if I bring a sword upon that land, and say, Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off man and beast from it:

18 ¶ Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord God, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only shall be delivered themselves.

19 ¶ Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my fury upon it in blood, to cut off from it man and beast:

20 ¶ Though Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, as I live, saith the Lord God, they shall deliver neither son nor daughter; they shall but deliver their own souls by their righteousness.

21 For thus saith the Lord God; How much more when I send my four sore judgments upon Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the noisome beast, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and beast?

22 ¶ Yet, behold, therein shall be left a remnant that shall be brought forth, both sons and daughters: behold, they shall come forth unto you, and ye shall see their way and their doings: and ye shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought upon it.

23 And they shall comfort you, when ye see their ways and their doings: and ye shall know that I have not done without cause all that I have done in it, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER 15.

The rejection of Jerusalem foreseen

AND the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, What is the vine tree more than any tree, or than a branch which is among the trees of the forest? 3 Shall wood be taken thereof to do any work? or will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel thereon?

4 Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire devoureth both the ends of it, and the midst of it is burned.

Is it meet for any work?

5 Behold, when it was whole, it was meet for no work: how much less shall it be meet yet for any work, when the fire hath devoured it, and it is burned?

6 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord God; As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so will I give the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

7 And 'I will set my face against them; they shall go out from one fire, and another fire shall devour them; and ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I set my face against them.

8 And I will make the land desolate, because they have committed a trespass, saith the LORD God.

CHAPTER 16

1 Under the similitude of a wretched infant is shown the natural state of Jerusalem. 6 God's extraordinary love towards her. 44 Her sin, exceeding that of Judah and Samaria, collect for judgments. 60 Mercy is promised her in the end.

AGAIN the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, 'cause Jerusalem to know her abominations,

3 And say, Thus saith the LORD God unto Jerusalem; Thy birth and thy nativity as of the land of Canaan; thy father was an Amorite, and thy mother an Hittite.

4 And as for thy nativity, in the day thou wast born thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water to supple thee; thou wast not salted at all, nor swaddled at all.

5 None eye pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out in the open field, to the loting of thy person, in the day that thou wast born.

6 ¶ And when I passed by thee, and saw thee polluted in thine own blood, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live; yea, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live.

7 I have caused thee to multiply as the bud of the field, and thou hast increased and waxen great, and thou art come to excellent ornaments: thy breasts are fashioned, and thine hair is grown, whereas thou wast naked and bare.

8 Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I sware unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the LORD God, and thou becamest mine.

9 Then washed I thee with water; yea, I thoroughly washed away thy blood from thee, and I anointed thee with oil.

10 I clothed thee also with brodered work, and shod thee with badgers' skin, and I girded thee about with fine linen, and I covered thee with silk.

11 I decked thee also with ornament, and I put bracelets upon thy hands, and a chain on thy neck.

12 And I put a jewel on thy forehead, and earrings in thine ears, and a beautiful crown upon thine head.

13 Thus wast thou decked with gold and silver; and thy raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and brodered work; thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil; and thou wast exceeding beautiful, and thou didst prosper into a kingdom.

14 And thy renown went forth among the heathen for thy beauty:

for it was perfect through my conscience, which I had put upon thee, saith the LORD God.

15 ¶ But thou didst trust in thine own beauty, and playedst the harlot

because of thy renown, and pouredst out thy fornications on every one that passed by; his it was.

16 And of thy garments thou didst take, and deckedst thy high places with divers colours, and playedst the harlot thereupon: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so.

17 Thou hast also taken thy fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest to thyself images of men, and didst commit whoredom with them,

18 And tookest thy brodered garments, and coveredst them: and thou hast set mine oil and mine incense before them.

19 My meat also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, wherewith I fed thee, thou hast even set it before them for a sweet savour: and thus it was, saith the LORD God.

20 Moreover thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast borne unto me, and these hast thou sacrificed unto them to be devoured. Is this of thy whoredoms a small matter,

21 That thou hast slain my children, and delivered them to cause them to pass through the fire for them?

22 And in all thine abominations and thy whoredoms thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, when thou wast naked and bare,

and wast polluted in thy blood.

23 And it came to pass after all thy wickedness, (woe, woe unto thee, saith the LORD God):

24 That thou hast also built unto thee an eminent place, and hast made thee an high place in every street.

25 Thou hast built thy high place at every head of the way, and hast made thy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy feet to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredoms.

710

26 Thou hast also committed fornication with "the Egyptians thy neighbours, great of flesh; and hast increased thy whoredoms, to provoke me to anger.

27 Behold, therefore I have stretched out my hand over thee, and have diminished thine ordinary food, and delivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, "the daughters of the Philistines, which are ashamed of thy lewd way.

28 "Thou hast played the whore also with the Assyrians, because thou wast unsatiable; yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet couldst not be satisfied.

29 Thou hast moreover multiplied thy fornication in the land of Canaan "unto Chaldea; and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith.

30 How weak is thine heart, saith the Lord God, seeing thou doest all these things, the work of an imperious whorish woman;

31 "In that "thou buildest thine eminent place in the head of every way, and makest thine high place in every street; and hast not been as an harlot, in that thou scornest hire;

32 But as a wife that committeth adultery, which taketh strangers instead of her husband!

33 They give gifts to all whores: but "thou givest thy gifts to all thy lovers, and "hirest them, that they may come unto thee on every side for thy whoredom.

34 And the contrary is in thee from other women in thy whoredoms, whereas none followeth thee to commit whoredoms: and in that thou givest a reward, and no reward is given unto thee, therefore thou art contrary.

35 ¶ Wherefore, O harlot, hear the word of the Lord:

36 Thus saith the Lord God; Because thy filthiness was poured out, and thy nakedness discovered through thy whoredoms with thy lovers, and with all the idols of thy abominations, and by "the blood of thy children, which thou didst give unto them;

37 Behold, therefore "I will gather all thy lovers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loved, with all them that thou hast hated; I will even gather them round about against thee, and will discover thy nakedness unto them, that they may see all thy nakedness.

38 And I will judge thee, "as "women that break wedlock and "shed blood are judged; and I will give thee blood in fury and jealousy.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 2 Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable unto the house of Israel;

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God; 4 A great eagle with great wings, long-winged, full of feathers, which had divers colours, came unto Lebanon, and took the highest branch of the cedar:

5 He cropped off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of traffick; he set it in a city of merchants:

6 He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fruitful field; he placed it by great waters, and set it as a willow tree

7 And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.

8 There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers, and, behold, this vine did bend her roots toward him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation.

9 It was planted in a good soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine.

10 Say thou, Thus saith the Lord God; Shall it prosper? shall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither? it shall wither in all the leaves of her spring, even without great power or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof.

11 Yea, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind toucheth it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew.

12 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

13 Say now to the rebellious house, Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon is come to Jerusalem, and hath taken the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Babylon:

14 And hath taken of the king's seed, and made a covenant with him, and hath taken an oath of him: he hath also taken the mighty of the land:

15 That the kingdom might be "hath, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping of his covenant it might stand.

16 But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt,

"that they might give him horses and much people. "Shall he prosper? shall he escape that doeth such things? or shall he break the covenant, and be delivered?

16 As I live, saith the Lord God, surely "in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he brake, even with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die.

17 Neither shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company make for him in the war, "hy casting up mounts, and building forts, to cut off many persons:

18 Seeing he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, when, lo, he had 'given his hand, and hath done all these things, he shall not escape.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; As I live, surely mine oath that he hath despised, and my covenant that he hath broken, even it will I recompense upon his own head.

20 And I will "spread my net upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and "will plead with him there for his trespass that he hath trespassed against me.

21 And "all his fugitives with all his bands shall fall by the sword, and they that remain shall be scattered toward all winds; and ye shall know that I the LORD have spoken it.

22 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; I will also take of the highest "branch of the high cedar, and will set it. I will crop off from the top of his young twigs "a tender one, and will "plant it upon an high mountain and eminent:

23 "In the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it: and it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and "under it shall dwell all fowl of every wing; in the shadow of the branches thereof shall they dwell.

24 And all the trees of the field shall know that I the LORD "have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish: "I the LORD have spoken and have done it.

saying, The "fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge?

3 As I live, saith the Lord God, ye shall not have occasion any more to use this proverb in Israel

4 Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: "the soul that sinneth, it shall die.

5 ¶ But if a man be just, and do "that which is lawful and right,

6 "And hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither hath "defiled his neighbour's wife, neither hath come near to "a monstrous woman,

7 And hath not "oppressed any, but hath restored to the debtor his "pledge, hath spoiled none by violence, hath "given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment;

8 He that hath not given forth upon "usury, neither hath taken any increase, that hath withdrawn his hand from iniquity, "hath executed true judgment between man and man,

9 Hath walked in my statutes, and hath kept my judgments, to deal truly; he is just, he shall surely "live, saith the Lord God.

10 ¶ If he beget a son that is a "robber, "a shedder of blood, and "that doeth the like to any one of these things,

11 And that doeth not any of those duties, but even hath eaten upon the mountains, and defiled his neighbour's wife,

12 Hath oppressed the poor and needy, hath spoiled by violence, hath not restored the pledge, and hath lifted up his eyes to the idols, hath "committed abomination,

13 Hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase: shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely die; "his "blood shall be upon him

14 ¶ Now, lo, "he beget a son, that seeth all his father's sins which he hath done, and considereth, and doeth not such like,

15 "That hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hath not defiled his neighbour's wife,

16 Neither hath oppressed any, "hath not withhelden the pledge, neither hath spoiled by violence, but hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment,

17 That hath taken off his hand from the poor, that hath not received usury nor increase, hath executed my judgments, hath walked in my statutes, he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live.

18 As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even he shall die in his iniquity.

19 ¶ Yet say ye, Why? doth not the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live.

20 ¶ The soul that sinneth, it shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son. The righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.

21 But if the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

22 All his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be mentioned unto him in his righteousness that he hath done, he shall live.

23 Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord God, and not that he should return from his ways, and live?

24 ¶ But when the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? All his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned in his trespass that he hath transgressed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die.

25 ¶ Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel, is not my way equal? are not your ways unequal?

26 ¶ When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them, for his iniquity that he hath done, shall he die.

27 Again, when the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness, that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive.

28 Because he considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

29 ¶ Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my ways equal? are not your ways unequal?

30 ¶ Therefore I will judge you O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord God. Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin.

31 ¶ Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

32 For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God: wherefore turn yourselves, and live ye.

CHAPTER 19.

1 A lamentation for the princes of Israel under the parable of lions whelp taken in a pit 10 and for Jerusalem, under the parable of a wasted vine

MOREOVER take thou up a lamentation for the princes of Israel.

2 And say, What is thy mother? A lioness: she lay down among lions, she nourished her whelps among young lions.

3 And she brought up one of her whelps: it became a young lion and it learned to catch the prey: it devoured men.

4 The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit, and they brought him with chains unto the land of Egypt.

5 Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her whelps, and made him a young lion.

6 And he went up and down among the lions, he became a young lion, and learned to catch the prey, and devoured men.

7 And he knew their desolate palaces, and he laid waste their cities, and the land was desolate and the fulness thereof, by the noise of his roaring.

8 Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces, and spread their net over him: he was taken in their pit.

9 And they put him in ward in chains, and brought him to the king of Babylon: they brought him into holds, that his voice should no more be heard upon the mountains of Israel.

10 ¶ Thy mother is like a vine in thy blood, planted by the waters: she was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters.

11 And she had strong rods for the polluted my sabbaths: then I said, "I would pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness."

22 "Nevertheless I withdrew mine hand, and "wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted in the sight of the heathen, in whose sight I brought them forth.

23 I lifted up mine hand unto them also in the wilderness, that "I would scatter them among the heathen, and disperse them through the countries;

24 "Because they had not executed my judgments, but had despised my statutes, and had polluted my sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols.

25 Wherefore "I gave them also statutes that were not good, and judgments whereby they should not live;

26 And I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass through the fire all that openeth the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they "might know that I am the LORD.

27 ¶ Therefore, son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: Yet in this your fathers have "blasphemed me, in that they have "committed a trespass against me.

28 For when I had brought them into the land, for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to them, then "they saw every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offerings: there also they made their "sweet savour, and poured out there their drink offerings.

29 Then "I said unto them, What is the high place whereunto ye go? And the name thereof is called Bammah unto this day.

30 Wherefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God: Are ye polluted after the manner of your fathers? and commit ye whoredom after their abominations?

31 For when ye offer "your gifts, when ye make your sons to pass through the fire, ye pollute yourselves with all your idols, even unto this day: and shall I be enquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, saith the Lord God, I will not be enquired of by you.

32 And that "which cometh into your mind shall not be at all, that ye say. We will be as the heathen, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.

33 ¶ As I live, saith the Lord God, surely with a mighty hand, and "with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out, will I rule over you:

34 And I will bring you out from the people, and will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out.

35 And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, and there "I will plead with you face to face.

36 "Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord God.

37 And I will cause you to "pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant.

38 And "I will purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me: I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and "they shall not enter into the land of Israel: "and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

39 As for you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord God: "Grieve ye ye every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me: "but pollute ye my holy name no more with your gifts, and with your idols.

40 For "in mine holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, saith the Lord God, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, serve me: there "will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the "firstfruits of your oblations, with all your holy things.

41 I will accept you with your "sweet savour, when I bring you out from the people, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you before the heathen.

42 "And ye shall know that I am the LORD, "when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to your fathers.

43 And "there shall ye remember your ways, and all your doings, wherein ye have been defiled; and "ye shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that ye have committed.

44 "And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have wrought with you "for my name's sake, notwithstanding to your wicked ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, O ye house of Israel, saith the Lord God.

45 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

46 "Sou of man, set thy face toward the south, and drop thy sword toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the south field;

47 And say to the forest of the south, Hear the word of the Lord: Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will kindle a fire in thee, and it shall devour every green tree in thee, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burned therein.

48 And all flesh shall see that I the Lord have kindled it: it shall not be quenched.

49 Then said I, Ah Lord God! they say of me, Doth he not speak parables?

CHAPTER 21.

1 Ezekiel prophesied against Jerusalem with a sign of a sword. 2 The sharp and bright sword, 12 against Jerusalem, 25 the kingdom, 28 the sword's point.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 "Son of man, set thy face toward Jerusalem, and drop thy sword toward the holy places, and prophesy against the land of Israel,

3 And say to the land of Israel, Thus saith the Lord; Behold, I am against thee, and will draw forth my sword out of his sheath, and will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked.

4 Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of his sheath against all flesh from the south to the north:

5 That all flesh may know that I the Lord have drawn forth my sword out of his sheath: it shall not return any more.

6 "Sigh therefore, thou son of man, with the breaking of thy loins, and with bitterness sigh before their eyes.

7 And it shall be, when they say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou? that thou shalt answer, For the tidings; because it cometh, and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it cometh, and shall be brought to pass, saith the Lord God.

8 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Lord; Say, A sword is sharpened, and also furnished;

10 It is sharpened to make a sore slaughter; it is furnished that it may glitter: should we then make merry? it internereth the rod of my son, as every tree.

12 Cry and howl, son of man, for it shall be upon my people, it shall be upon all the princes of Israel: terror by reason of the sword shall be upon my people: smite therefore upon thy thigh.

13 "Because it is a trial, and what if the sword condemn even the rod: it shall be no more, saith the Lord God.

14 Thou therefore, son of man, prophesy, and smite thine hands together, and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the slay: it is the sword of the great men that are slain, which entereth into their privy chambers.

15 I have set the point of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may faint, and their runs be multiplied: ah! it is made bright, it is wrapped up for the slaughter.

17 I will also smite mine hands together, and I will cause my fury to rest: I the Lord have said it.

18 ¶ The word of the LORD came unto me again, saying,

19 Also, thou son of man, appoint thee two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come: both ways shall come forth out of one land, and choose thou a place, chase it at the head of the way to the city.

20 Appoint a way, that the sword may come to "Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the defended.

21 For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he made his arrows bright, he consulted with images, he looked in the liver.

22 At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort.

23 And it shall be unto them as a false divination in their sight, to them that have sworn oaths: but he will call to remembrance the iniquity, that they may be taken.

24 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because ye have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear; because, I say, that ye are come to re-embury me, ye shall be taken with the hand.

25 ¶ And thou, ^o profane naked prince of Israel, whose day is come, when iniquity shall have an end.

26 Thus saith the Lord God; Remove the diadem, and take off the crown: this shall not be the same. ^o Exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high.

27 ¶ I will overturn, overturn, overturn, it: and it shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him.

28 ¶ And thou, son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord God concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their reproach; even say thou, The sword, the sword is drawn: for the slaughter it is furnished, to consume because of the glittering.

29 Whiles they see vanity unto thee, whiles they divine a lie unto thee, to bring thee upon the necks of them that are slain, of the wicked, whose day is come, when their iniquity shall have an end.

30 Shall I cause it to return into his sheath? I will judge thee in the place where thou wast created, in the land of thy nativity.

31 And I will pour out mine indignation upon thee, I will blow against thee in the fire of my wrath, and deliver thee into the hand of brutish men, and skilful to destroy.

32 Thou shalt be for fuel to the fire; thy blood shall be in the midst of the land; thou shalt be no more remembered: for I the Lord have spoken it.

CHAPTER 22.

1 A catalogue of sins in Jerusalem. 13 God will burn them as dross in his furnace. 23 General corruption of proph in private princes, and people.

MOREOVER the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Now, thou son of man, wilt thou judge, wilt thou judge the bloody city? yea, thou shalt shew her all her abominations.

3 Then say thou, Thus saith the Lord God, The city sheddeth blood in the midst of it, that her time may come, and maketh idols against herself to defile herself.

4 Thou art become guilty in thy blood that thou hast shed; and hast defiled thyself in thine idols which thou hast made; and thou hast caused thy days to draw near, and art come even unto thy years: therefore have I made thee a reproach unto the heathen, and a mocking to all countries.

be far from thee, shall mock thee, which art infamous and much vexed.

6 Behold, the princes of Israel, every one were in thee to their power to shed blood.

7 In thee have they set light by father and mother; in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the stranger: in thee have they vexed the fatherless and the widow.

8 Thou hast despised mine holy things, and hast profaned my sabbaths.

9 In thee are men that carry tales to shed blood: and in thee they eat upon the mountains: in the midst of thee they commit lewdness.

10 In thee have they discovered their fathers' nakedness: in thee have they humbled her that was set apart for pollution.

11 And one hath committed abomination with his neighbour's wife; and another hath lewdly defiled his daughter in law; and another in the hath humbled his sister, his fathers daughter.

12 In thee have they taken gifts to shed blood; thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and hast forgotten me, saith the Lord God.

13 Behold, therefore I have smitten mine hand at thy dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy blood which hath been in the midst of thee.

14 Can thine heart endure, or can thine hands be strong, in the day that I shall deal with thee? I the Lord have spoken it, and will do it.

15 And I will scatter thee among the heathen, and disperse thee in the countries, and will consume thy filthiness out of thee.

16 And thou shalt take thine inheritance in thyself in the sight of the heathen, and thou shalt know that I am the Lord.

17 And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, the house of Israel is to me become dross: all they are brass, and tin, and iron, and lead in the midst of the furnace; they are the dross of silver.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because ye are all become dross, behold, therefore I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.

20 As they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it, so will I gather you in mine anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you.

21 Yea, I will gather you, and "blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and yeshall be melted in the midst thereof.

22 As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I the LORD have "poured out my fury upon you.

23 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, say unto her, Thou art the land that is not cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of indignation.

25 "There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey; they have devoured souls; "they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof.

26 "Her priests have "violated my law, and have "profaned mine holy things: they have put no "difference between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed "difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.

27 Her "princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain.

28 And "her prophets have daubed thom with untempered mortar, "seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, Thussaith the Lord God, when the LORD hath not spoken.

29 "The people of the land have used "oppression, and exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy: yea, they have "oppressed the stranger "wrongfully.

30 "And I sought for a man among them, that should "make up the hedge, and "stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found none.

31 Therefore have I "poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: "their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord God

4 And the names of them were Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her sister: and "they were mine, and they bare sons and daughters. Thus were their names, Samaria is "Aholah, and Jerusalem "Aholibah.

5 And Aholah played the harlot when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on "the Assyrians her neighbours,

6 Which were clothed with blue, captains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses.

7 Thus she "committed her whoredoms with them, with all them that were "the chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom she doted: with all their idols she defiled herself.

8 Neither left she her whoredoms brought "from Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginity, and poured their whoredom upon her.

9 Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the "Assyrians, upon whom she doted.

10 These "discovered her nakedness: they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword: and she became "famous among women; for they had executed judgment upon her.

11 And "when her sister Aholibah saw this, "she" was more corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her whoredoms "more than her sister in her whoredoms.

12 She doted upon the "Assyrians her neighbours, "captains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men.

13 Then I saw that she was defiled, that they took both one way,

14 Am "that she increased her whoredoms: for when she saw men poured upon the wall, the images of the Chaldeans poured away with vermilion,

15 Girded with girdles upon their loins, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity:

16 "And "as soon as she saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into Chaldea.

17 And the "Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom, and she was polluted with them, and "her mind was "alienated from them.

18 So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: then "my mind was alienated from her, like as my mind was alienated from her sister.

19 Yet she multiplied her whoredoms, in calling to remembrance the days of her youth, "wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.

20 For she doted upon their paramours, "whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses.

21 Thus thou calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, in biusing thy teats by the Egyptians for the paps of thy youth.

22 ¶ Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith the Lord God: "Behold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy mind is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side;

23 The Babylonians, and all the Chaldeans, "Pekod, and Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them: "all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them riding upon horses.

24 And they shall come against thee with chariots, wagons, and wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against thee buckler and shield and helmet round about; and I will set judgment before them, and they shall judge thee according to their judgments.

25 And I will set my jealousy against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee; they shall take away thy nose and thine ears; and thy remnant shall fall by the sword: they shall take thy sons and thy daughters; and thy residue shall be devoured by the fire.

26 They shall also strip thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy fair jewels.

27 Thus "will I make thy lewdness to cease from thee, and thy "whoredom brought from the land of Egypt so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more.

28 For thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will deliver thee into the hand of them "whom thou hatest, into the hand of them "from whom thy mind is alienated:

29 And they shall deal with thee hatefully, and shall take away all thy labour, and shall leave thee naked and bare; and the nakedness of thy whoredoms shall be discovered, both thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

30 I will do these things unto thee, because thou hast gone a whoring after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idols.

31 Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister; therefore will I give her "cup into thine hand.

32 Thus saith the Lord God; Thou shalt drink of thy sister's cup deep and large: "thou shalt be laughed to scorn and had in derision; it containeth much.

33 Thou shalt be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of thy sister Samaria.

34 Thou shalt "even drink it and suck it out, and thou shalt break the sherds thereof, and pluck off thine own breasts: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

35 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because thou "hast forgotten me, and "east me behind thy back, therefore bear thou also thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

36 ¶ The Lord said moreover unto me; Son of man, wilt thou "judge¹ Aholah and Aholibah? yea, "declare unto them their abominations;

37 That they have committed adultery, and "blood is in their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery, and have also caused their sons, "whom they bare unto me, to pass for them through the fire, to devour them.

38 Moreover thus they have done unto me; they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and "have profaned my sabbaths.

39 For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and, lo, "thus have they done in the midst of mine house.

40 And furthermore, that ye have sent for men "to come from far, unto whom a messenger was sent; and, lo, they came: for whom thou didst "wash thyself, "paintedst thy eyes, and deckedst thyself with ornaments.

41 And satest upon a "stately² bed, and a table prepared before it, "when upon thou hast set mine incense and mine oil.

42 And a voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with the men "of the common sort were brought "Sabeans from the wilderness, which put bracelets upon their hands, and beautiful crowns upon their heads.

43 Then said I unto her that was old in adulteries, Will they now commit "whoredoms with her, and she with them?

44 Yet they went in unto her, as they go in unto a woman that playeth the harlot: so went they in unto Aholah and unto Aholibah, the lewd women.

45 ¶ And the righteous men, they shall judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and after the manner of women that shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands.

46 For thus saith the Lord God; I will bring up a company upon them, and will give them to be removed and spoiled.

47 And the company shall stone them with stones, and dispatch them with their swords; they shall slay their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire.

48 Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness.

49 And they shall recompense your lewdness upon you, and yeshall bear the sins of your idols: and ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

CHAPTER 24.

1 By the parable of a boiling pot, &c. 11 shewn the destruction of Jerusalem. 15 By the sign of Ezekiel not mourning the death of his wife, 19 the calamity of the Jews is shewn to be beyond all sorrow.

AGAIN in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, write thee the name of the day, even of this same day: the king of Babylon set himself against Jerusalem this same day.

3 And utter a parable unto the rebellious house, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Set on a pot, set it on, and also pour water into it:

4 Gather the pieces thereof into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones.

5 Take the choice of the flock, and burn also the bones under it, and make it boil well, and let them seethe the bones of it therein.

6 ¶ Wherefore thus saith the Lord God; Woe to the bloody city, to the pot whose scum is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it! bring it out piece by piece; let no lot fall upon it.

7 For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the top of a rock; she poured it not upon the ground, to cover it with dust;

8 That it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance; I have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered.

9 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Woe to the bloody city! I will even make the pile for fire great.

sume the flesh, and spice it well, and let the bones be burned.

11 Then set it empty upon the coals thereof, that the brass of it may be hot, and may burn, and that the filthiness of it may be molten in it, that the scum of it may be consumed.

12 She hath wearied herself with hes, and her great scum went not forth, out of her: her scum shall be in the fire.

13 In thy filthiness is lewdness, because I have purged thee, and thou wast not purged, thou shalt not be purged from thy filthiness any more, till I have caused my fury to rest upon thee.

14 I the Lord have spoken it, it shall come to pass, and I will do it, I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent, according to thy ways, and according to thy doings, shall they judge thee, saith the Lord God.

15 Also the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

16 Son of man, behold, I take away from thee the desire of thine eyes with a stroke: yet neither shalt thou mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears run down.

17 Forbear to cry, make no mourning for the dead, bind the tire of thine head upon thee, and put on thy shoes upon thy feet, and cover not thy lips, and eat not the bread of men.

18 So I spake unto the people in the morning; and at even my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded.

19 And the people said unto me, Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou dost so?

20 Then I answered them, The word of the Lord came unto me, saying, 21 Speak unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the excellency of your strength, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pitieth; and your sons and your daughters whom ye have left shall fall by the sword.

22 And ye shall do as I have done: ye shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men.

23 And your tires shall be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet: ye shall not mourn nor weep; but ye shall pine away for your iniquities, and mourn one toward another.

24 Thus Ezekiel is unto you a sign: according to all that he hath done shall ye do: and when this cometh, ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

6 And her daughters which are in the field shall be slain by the sword; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

7 ¶ For thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will bring upon Tyrus Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, a king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and companies, and much people.

8 He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field: and he shall make a fort against thee, and cast a mount against thee, and lift up the buckler against thee.

9 And he shall set engines of war against thy walls, and with his axes he shall break down thy towers.

10 By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover thee: thy walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wheels, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, as men enter into a city wherein is made a breach.

11 With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all thy streets, he shall slay thy people by the sword, and thy strong garrisons shall go down to the ground.

12 And they shall make a spoil of thy riches, and make a prey of thy merchandise: and they shall break down thy walls, and destroy thy pleasant houses: and they shall lay thy stones, and thy timber and thy dust in the midst of the water.

13 And I will cause the noise of thy songs to cease; and the sound of thy harps shall be no more heard.

14 And I will make thee like the top of a rock: thou shalt be a place to spread nets upon; thou shalt be built no more: for I the Lord have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

15 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God to Tyrus; Shall not the isles shake at the sound of thy fall, when the wounded cry, when the slaughter is made in the midst of thee?

16 Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay away their robes, and put off their brodered garments: they shall clothe themselves with trembling; they shall sit upon the ground, and shall tremble at every moment, and be astonished at thee.

17 And they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and say to thee, How art thou destroyed, that wast inhabited of seafaring man, the renowned city, which wast strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, which cause their terror to be on all that haunt it!

18 Now shall the isles tremble in the day of thy fall; yea, the isles that are in the sea shall be troubled at thy departure.

19 For thus saith the Lord God; When I shall make thee a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I shall bring up the deep upon thee, and great waters shall cover thee;

20 When I shall bring thee down with them that descend into the pit, with the people of old time, and shall set thee in the low parts of the earth, in places desolate of old, with them that go down to the pit, that thou be not inhabited; and I shall set glory in the land of the living;

21 I will make thee a terror, and thou shalt be no more: though thou be sought for, yet shalt thou never be found again, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER 27.

1 The riches of Tyrus. 2 Her irrecoverable fall. THE word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,

2 Now, thou son of man, take up a lamentation for Tyrus;

3 And say unto Tyrus, O thou that art situate at the entry of the sea, which art a merchant of the people for many isles, Thus saith the Lord God; O Tyrus, thou hast said, I am of perfect beauty.

4 Thy borders are in the midst of the sea, thy builders have perfected thy beauty.

5 They have made all thy ship boards of fir trees of Senir: they have taken cedars from Lebanon to make masts for thee.

6 Of the oaks of Bashan have they made thine oars; the company of the Ashurites have made thy benches of ivory, brought out of the isles of Chittim.

7 Fine linen with brodered work from Egypt was that which thou spreadest forth to be thy sail; blue and purple from the isles of Elishah was that which covered thee.

8 The inhabitants of Zidon and Arvad were thy mariners: thy wise men, O Tyrus, that were in thee, were thy pilots.

9 The ancients of Gubal and the wise men thereof were in thee thy calkers: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in thee to occupy thy merchandise.

10 They of Persia and of Lud and of Phut were in thine army, thy men of war, they hanged the shield and helmet in thee; they set forth thy comeliness.

11 The men of Arvad with thine army were upon thy walls round about, and the Gammadims were in thy towers they hanged their shields upon thy walls round about: they have made thy beauty perfect.

12 Tarshish was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches, with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded in thy fairs.

13 Javan, Tubal and Meshech, they were thy merchants: they traded the persons of men and vessels of brass in thy market.

14 They of the house of Togarmah traded in thy fairs with horses and horsemen and mules.

15 The men of Dedan were thy merchants; many isles were the merchandise of thine hand: they brought thee for a present horns of ivory and ebony.

16 Syria was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of the wares of thy making they occupied in thy fairs with emeralds, purple, and brodered work, and fine linen, and coral, and agate.

17 Judah, and the land of Israel, they were thy merchants they traded in thy market wheat of Minnith and Pannag, and honey, and oil, and balm.

18 Damaseus was thy merchant in the multitude of the wares of thy making, for the multitude of all riches, in the wine of Helbon, and white wool.

19 Dan also and Javan going to and fro occupied in thy fairs: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were in thy market.

20 Dedan was thy merchant in precious clothes for chariot.

21 Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar, they occupied with thee in lambs, and rams, and goats: in these were they thy merchants.

22 The merchants of Sheba and Raamah, they were thy merchants, they occupied in thy fairs with chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold.

23 Harun, and Canneh, and Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Arabian, and Chilmad, were thy merchant.

24 These were thy merchants in all sorts of things, in blue clothes, and brodered work, and in chests of rich apparel, bound with cords, and made of cedar, a strong thy merchandise.

25 The ships of Tarshish did sing of thee in thy market: and thou wast replenished, and made very glorious in the midst of the seas.

into great waters: the east wind hath broken thee in the midst of the seas.

27 Thy riches, and thy fairs, thy merchandise, thy mariners, and thy pilots, thy callers, and the occupiers of thy merchandise, and all thy men of war, that are in thee, and in all thy company which is in the midst of thee, shall fall into the midst of the seas in the day of thy ruin.

28 The suburbs shall shake at the sound of the cry of thy pilots.

29 And all that handle the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships, they shall stand upon the land.

30 And shall cause their voice to be heard against thee, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast up dust upon their heads, they shall wallow themselves in the ashes:

31 And they shall make themselves utterly bald for thee, and gird them with sackcloth, and they shall weep for thee with bitterness of heart and bitter wailing.

32 And in their wailing they shall take up a lamentation for thee and lament over thee, saying, What city is like Tyrrus like the destroyed in the midst of the sea?

33 When thy wares went forth out of the seas, thou fillest many people, thou didst enrich the kings of the earth with the multitude of thy riches and of thy merchandise.

34 In the time when thou shalt be broken by the seas in the depths of the waters thy merchandise and all thy company in the midst of thee shall fall.

35 All the inhabitants of the isles shall be astonished at thee, and their kings shall be sore afraid, they shall be troubled in their countenance.

36 The merchants among the people shall hiss at thee; thou shalt be a terror, and never shalt be any more.

CHAPTER 28

1 God's judgment upon the prince of Tyrrus for his sacrilegious pride. 11 A lamentation of his pride at glory corrupted by sin. 24 Restoration of Tyrrus.

THE word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, say unto the prince of Tyrrus, Thus saith the Lord God: Because thine heart is lifted up, and thou hast said, I am a God, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas, yet thou art a man, and not God, though thou set thine heart as the heart of God.

3 Behold, thou art wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that they can hide from thee:

4 With thy wisdom and with thine understanding thou hast gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures:

5 By¹ thy great wisdom and by thy traffick hast thou increased thy riches, and thine heart is lifted up because of thy riches:

6 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God;

7 Behold, therefore I will bring strangers upon thee, the terrible of the nations: and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness.

8 They shall bring thee down to the pit, and thou shalt die the deaths of them that are slain in the midst of the seas.

9 Wilt thou yet² say before him that slayeth thee, I am God? but thou shalt be a man, and no God, in the hand of him that slayeth thee.

10 Thou shalt die the deaths of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

11 Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

12 Son of man, take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord God, Thou sealest up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty.

13 Thou hast been in Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, the sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created.

14 Thou art the anointed cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.

15 Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee.

16 By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God, and I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.

17 Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee.

26 And they shall dwell safely therein, and shall build houses, and plant vineyards; yea, they shall dwell with confidence, when I have executed judgments upon all those that despise them round about them; and they shall know that I am the Lord their God.

CHAPTER 29.

1 The judgment of Pharaoh for his treachery. 2 The desolation of Egypt. 3 The restoration thereof.

IN the tenth year, in the tenth month, in the twelfth day of the month, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and against all Egypt:

3 Speak, and say, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers.

"which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself.

4 But I will put hooks in thy jaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy scales, and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, and all the fish of thy rivers shall stick unto thy scales.

5 And I will leave thee thrown into the wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the open fields; thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered. I have given thee for meat to the beasts of the field and to the fowls of the heaven.

6 And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the LORD, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel.

7 When they took hold of thee by thy hand, thou didst break, and rend all their shoulder: and when they leaned upon thee, thou brakest, and madest all their loins to be at a stand.

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will bring a sword upon thee, and cut off man and beast out of thee.

9 And the land of Egypt shall be desolate and waste; and they shall know that I am the LORD; because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it.

10 Behold, therefore I am against thee, and against thy rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt utterly waste and desolate, from the tower of Syene even unto the border of Ethiopia.

11 No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years.

12 And I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be desolate forty years; and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

13 Yet thus saith the Lord God; At the end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the people whither they were scattered:

14 And I will bring again the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their habitation; and they shall be there a base kingdom.

15 It shall be the basest of the kingdoms; neither shall it exalt itself any more above the nations: for I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations.

16 And it shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, which bringeth their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall look after them: but they shall know that I am the Lord God.

17 And it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyrus: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled: yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Tyrus, for the service that he had served against it:

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army.

20 I have given him the land of Egypt for his labour wherewith he served against it, because they wrought for me, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER 30.

1 The desolation of Egypt. 20 The arm of Babylon shall be strengthened to break the arm of Egypt

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord God; Howl ye, Woe worth the day!

3 For the day is near, even the day of the LORD is near, a cloudy day; it shall be the time of the heathen.

4 And the sword shall come upon Egypt, and great pain shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt, and they shall take away her multitude, and her foundations shall be broken down.

5 Ethiopia, and Libya, and Lydia, and all the mingled people, and Chub, and the men of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.

6 Thus saith the LORD; They also that uphold Egypt shall fall; and the pride of her power shall come down from the tower of Syene shall they fall in it by the sword, saith the Lord God.

7 And they shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted.

8 And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have set a fire in Egypt, and when all her helpers shall be destroyed.

9 In that day shall messengers go forth from me in ships to make the careless Ethiopians afraid, and great pain shall come upon them, as in the day of Egypt. for, lo, it cometh.

10 Thus saith the LORD God; 'I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease by the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon.

11 He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, shall be brought to destroy the land: and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.

12 And I will make the rivers dry, and sell the land into the hand of the wicked: and I will make the land waste, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I the LORD have spoken it.

13 Thus saith the LORD God; I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause their images to cease out of Noph; and there shall be no more a prince of the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt.

14 And I will make Pathros desolate, and will set fire in Zoan, and will execute judgments in No.

15 And I will pour my fury upon Sin, the strength of Egypt; and I will cut off the multitude of No.

16 And I will set fire in Egypt: Sin shall have great pain, and No shall be rent asunder, and Noph shall have distresses daily.

17 The young men of Aven and of Pri-beseth shall fall by the sword: and these cities shall go into captivity.

18 At Tehaphnehes also the day shall be darkened, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt: and the pomp of her strength shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity.

19 Thus will I execute judgments in Egypt: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

20 ¶ And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 21 Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and, lo, it shall not be bound up to be healed, to put a roller to bind it, to make it strong to hold the sword.

CHAPTER 31.

3 The glory of Assyria 10 Its great fall

AND it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude; Whom art thou like in thy greatness?

3 Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with fair branches, and with a shadowing shroud, and of an high stature; and his top was among the thick boughs.

4 The waters made him great, the deep set him up on high with her rivers running round about his plants, and sent out her little rivers unto all the trees of the field.

5 Therefore his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long because of the multitude of waters, when he shot forth.

6 All the fowl of heaven made her nests in his boughs, and under his branches dwelt all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations.

7 Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches: for his root was by great waters.

8 The cedars in the garden of God could not hide him: the fir trees were not like his boughs, and the chesnut trees were not like his branches; nor any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty.

9 I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him.

10 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because thou hast lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height, 11 I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen; he shall surely deal with him; I have driven him out for his wickedness.

12 And strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him.

13 Upon his ruin shall all the fowls of the heaven remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches.

14 To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees stand up in their height, all that drink water; for they are all delivered unto death, to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit.

15 Thus saith the Lord God; In the day when he went down to the grave I caused a mourning. I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed, and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him.

16 I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit: and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, shall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth.

17 They also went down into hell with him unto them that be slain with the sword, and they that were his arm, that dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the heathen.

18 ¶ To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden unto the nether parts of the earth: thou shalt lie in the midst of the unremembered with them that be slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER 32.

A lamentation for the fearful fall of Egypt

AND it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying

2 Son of man, take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say unto him, Thou art like a young lion of the nations, and thou art as a whale in the seas. and thou camest forth with thy rivers, and troubledst the waters with thy feet, and fouledst their rivers.

3 Thus saith the Lord God; I will therefore spread out mynet over thee with a company of many people, and they shall bring thee up in my net.

4 Then will I leave thee upon the land, I will cast thee forth upon the open field, and will cause all the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee.

5 And I will lay thy flesh upon the mountains, and fill the valleys with thy height.

6 I will also water with thy blood the land wherein thou swinnest, even to the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of thee.

7 And when I shall put thee out, I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light.

8 All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over thee, and darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord God.

9 I will also vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which thou hast not known.

10 Yea, I will make many people amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall.

11 ¶ For thus saith the Lord God; The sword of the King of Babylon shall come upon thee.

12 By the swords of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall, the terrible of the nations, all of them, and they shall spoil the pomp of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof shall be destroyed.

13 I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside the great waters, neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of beasts trouble them.

14 Then will I make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run like oil, saith the Lord God.

15 When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate, and the country shall be ¹desolate of that wherof it was full, when I shall smite all them that dwell therein, ²then shall they know that I am the Lord.

16 This is the ¹lamentation wherewith they shall lament her, the daughters of the nations shall lament her: they shall lament for her, even for Egypt, and for all her multitude, saith the Lord God.

17 ¶ It came to pass also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and ¹cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, unto the nether parts of the earth, with them that go down into the pit.

19 ¶ Whom dost thou pass in beauty? ²go down, and be thou laid with the uncircumcised.

20 They shall fall in the midst of them that are slain by the sword: ⁴she is delivered to the sword: draw her and all her multitudes.

21 ¶ The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of hell with them that help him: they are ¹gone down, they lie uncircumcised, slain by the sword.

22 ¶ Asshur is there and all her company: his graves are about him: all of them slain, fallen by the sword:

23 ¶ Whose graves are set in the sides of the pit, and her company is round about her grave: all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which ²caused ³terror in the land of the living.

24 There is ¹Elam and all her multitude round about her grave, all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which are ²gone down uncircumcised into the nether parts of the earth, ³which caused their terror in the land of the living; yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit.

25 They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude: her graves are round about him: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword: though their terror was caused in the land of the living, yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of them that be slain.

26 There is ¹Meshech, Tubal, and all her multitude: her graves are round

CHAPTER 33.

¹ According to the duty of a watchman, in warning the people, ² Ezekiel is admonished of his duty ³ God sheweth the justities of his ways towards the penitent: ⁴ Upon the news of the taking of Jerusalem Ezekiel prophesieth the destruction of the land. ⁵ God's judgment on the mockers of the prophets.

AGAIN the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak to ¹the children of thy people, and say unto them,

²When ³I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their ⁴watchman:

3 If when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people,

4 Then ⁵whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come, and take him away, ⁶his blood shall be upon his own head.

5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him. But he that taketh warning shall deliver his soul.

6 But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned, if the sword come, and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.

7 ¶ So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me.

8 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die, if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

9 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou shalt deliver thy soul.

10 Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel; Thus ye speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we pine away in them, how should we then live?

11 Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways, for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

12 Therefore, thou son of man say unto the children of thy people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression, as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sinneth.

13 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered, but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it.

14 Again, when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do that which is lawful and right.

15 If the wicked restore the pledge, give again that he had robbed, walk in the statutes of life, without committing iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die.

16 None of his sins that he hath committed shall be mentioned unto him: he hath done that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live.

17 ¶ Yet the children of thy people say, The way of the Lord is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal.

18 When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even die thereby.

19 But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby.

20 ¶ Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. O ye house of Israel, I will judge you every one after his ways.

21 And it came to pass in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one that had escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, The city is smitten.

22 Now the hand of the Lord was upon me in the evening, afore he that was escaped came; and had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning, and my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb.

23 Then the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, they that inhabit those wastes of the land of Israel speak, saying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance.

25 Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Ye eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes toward your idols, and shed blood, and shall ye possess the land?

26 Ye stand upon your sword, ye work abomination, and ye defile every one his neighbour's wife: and shall ye possess the land?

27 Say thou thus unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; As I live, surely they that are in the wastes shall fall by the sword, and him that is in the open field will I give to the beasts to be devoured, and they that be in the forts and in the caves shall die of the pestilence.

28 For I will lay the land most desolate, and the pomp of her strength shall cease; and the mountain of Israel shall be desolate, that none shall pass through.

29 Then shall they know that I am the Lord, when I have laid the land most desolate because of all their abominations which they have committed.

30 ¶ Also, thou son of man, the children of thy people shall be talking against thee by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word that cometh forth from the LORD.

31 And ¹they come unto thee ¹as the people cometh, and ²they ²'at before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: ³'for with their mouth ³they shew much love, but ⁴'their heart goeth after their covetousness.

32 And, lo, thou art unto them as ^aa very lovely song of one that hath a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument: for they hear thy words, but they do them not.

33 ^aAnd when this cometh to pass, (lo, it will come,) then ^a'shall they know that a prophet hath been among them.

CHAPTER 34.

1 ^aA reproof of the shepherds. 7 God's judgment against them. 11 His providence. 20 Kingdom of Christ

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD unto the shepherds; ^a'Woe be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the flocks?

3 ^a'Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ^a'ye kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock.

4 ^a'The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye sought that which was lost; but with force and with cruelty have ye ruled them.

5 ^a'And they were scattered, ^a'because there is no shepherd: ^a'and they became meat to all the beasts of the field, when they were scattered.

6 My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after them.

7 ^a'Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

8 ^a'As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely because my flock became a prey, and my flock became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my flock, ^a'but the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my flock;

9 Therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

10 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against the shepherds; and ^a'I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them.

11 ^a'For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out.

12 ^a'As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered: so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in ^a'the cloudy and dark day.

13 And ^a'I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon the mountains of Israel by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country.

14 ^a'I will feed them in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie in a good fold, and in a fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Israel.

15 I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord GOD.

16 ^a'I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy the fat and the strong; I will feed them with judgment.

17 And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I judge between cattle and cattle, between the rams and the goats.

18 ^a'Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have eaten up the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pastures, and to have drunk of the deep waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet?

19 And as for my flock, they eat that which ye have trodden with your feet; and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet.

20 ^a'Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD unto them; Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle and between the lean cattle.

21 Because ye have thrust with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad;

22 Therefore will I save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and ^a'I will judge between cattle and cattle.

23 And I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd.

24 And ¹I the LORD will be their God, and my servant David ²a prince among them, I the LORD have spoken ³it.

25 And ⁴I will make with them ⁵a covenant of peace, and ⁶will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land, and they ⁷shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods.

26 And I will make them and the places round about ¹my hill ²a blessing, and I will ³cause the shower to come down in his season, there shall be ⁴showers of blessing.

27 And ¹the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that ²I am the LORD, when I have ³broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that ⁴served themselves of them.

28 And they shall no more be a prey to the heathen, neither shall the beast of the land devour them; but ²they shall dwell safely, and none shall make them afraid.

29 And I will raise up for them ¹a plant ²of renown, and they shall be no more ³consumed with hunger in the land, neither bear the shame of the heathen any more.

30 Thus shall they know that ¹I the LORD their God ²am with them, and that they, ³even the house of Israel, ⁴are my people, saith the Lord God.

31 And ye ¹my flock, the flock of my pasture, ²are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord God.

desolate, and cut off from it ¹him that passeth out and him that returneth.

8 And I will fill his mountains with his slain men in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers, shall they fall that are slain with the sword.

9 I will make thee perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not return: ²and ye shall know that ³I am the LORD.

10 Because thou hast said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and ye will ²possess it, whereas ³the LORD was there.

11 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord God, I will even do ²according to thine anger, and according to thine envy which thou hast used out of thy hatred against them, and I will make myself known among them, when I have judged thee.

12 And thou shalt know that ¹I am the LORD, and that I have heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us ²to consume.

13 Thus ²with your mouth ye have boasted against me, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard them.

14 Thus saith the Lord God; ²When the whole earth rejoiceth, I will make thee desolate.

15 As thou didst rejoice at the heritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do unto thee: thou shalt be desolate, O mount Seir, and all Idumea, ²even all of it: and they shall know that ³I am the LORD.

CHAPTER 36

¹The land of Israel is comforted ²The blessings of God promised unto it ³Israel was rejected for their sin ⁴The blessings of Christ a Kingdom.

ALSO, thou son of man, prophesy unto the ¹mountains of Israel, and say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD.

2 Thus saith the Lord God; Because ¹the enemy hath said against you, Aha, ²even the ancient high places ³are ours in possession.

3 Therefore prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord God; ²Because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the heathen, ³and ye are taken up in the lips of talkers, and are an iniquity of the people.

4 Therefore, ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God; Thus saith the Lord God to the mountains, and to the hills, to the ²rivers, and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes and to the cities that are forsaken, which "became a prey and ^dderision to the residue of the heathen that are round about;

5 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; ^eSurely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the heathen, and against all Idumea, ^fwhich have appointed my land into their possession with the joy of all their heart, with despiteful minds, to cast it out for a prey.

6 Prophecy therefore concerning the land of Israel, and say unto the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury, because ye have ^gborne the shame of the heathen:

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; I have ^hlifted up mine hand, Surely the heathen that are about you, they shall bear their shame

8 ¶ But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people of Israel, for they are at hand to come.

9 For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye shall be tilled and sown:

10 And I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, ⁱeven all of it: and the cities shall be inhabited, and ^jthe wastes shall be builded:

11 And ¶ I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and bring fruit; and I will settle you after your old estates, and will do better unto you than at your beginnings: ^kand ye shall know that I am the Lord.

12 Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, ^leven my people Israel; ^mand they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth ⁿbereave them of men.

13 Thus saith the Lord God; Because they say unto you, ¶Thou land devourest up men, and hast bereaved thy nations;

14 Therefore thou shalt devour men no more, neither ^obereave thy nations any more, saith the Lord God.

15 ¶Neither will I cause men to hear in thee the shame of the heathen any more, neither shalt thou bear the reproach of the people any more, neither shalt thou cause thy nations to fall any more, saith the Lord God.

16 ¶Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

17 Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, ^pthey defiled it by their own way and by their doings: their way was before me as ^cthe uncleanness of a removed woman.

18 Wherefore I poured my fury upon them ^dfor the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their idols ^ewherewith they had polluted it:

19 And I ^fscattered them among the heathen, and they were dispersed through the countries: ^gaccording to their way and according to their doings I judged them.

20 And when they entered unto the heathen, whither they went, they ^hprofaned my holy name, when they said to them, These are the people of the Lord, and are gone forth out of his land.

21 ¶ But I had pity ⁱfor mine holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the heathen, whither they went 22 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; I do not ^jthis for your sakes, O house of Israel, ^kbut for mine holy name's sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went.

23 And I will sanctify my great name, which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, saith the Lord God, when I shall be sanctified in you before ^ltheir eyes

24 For ¶ I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land.

25 ¶ Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: ^mfrom all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you.

26 A ⁿnew heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.

27 And I will put my ^ospirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them.

28 ¶And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; ^pand ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

29 I will also ^qsave you from all your uncleannesses, and ¶ I will call for the corn, and will increase it, and ^rlay no famine upon you.

30 ¶And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye shall receive no more reproach of famine among the heathen.

31 Then ^sshall ye remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and ^ashall lothe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations.

32 ^aNot for thy sakes do I this, saith the Lord GOD, be it known unto you. be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel.

33 Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities I will also cause you to dwell in the cities, ^dand the wastes shall be builded.

34 And the desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that passed by.

35 And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden of ^eEden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are become fenced, and are inhabited.

36 Then the heathen that are left round about you shall know that I the LORD build the ruined places, and plant that that was desolate: ^fI the LORD have spoken it, and I will do it.

37 Thus saith the Lord GOD; ^gI will yet for this be enquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them; I will ^hincrease them with men like a flock.

38 As the ⁱholy flock, as the flock of Jerusalem in her solemn feasts; so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men ^jand they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER 37.

1 By the resurrection of dry bones, 11 the dead hope of Israel is revived. 20 Of Christ's kingdom.

THE ^khand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out ^lin the spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones.

2 And caused me to pass by them round about; and, behold, there were very many in the open ^mvalley; and, lo, they were very dry.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord GOD, ⁿthou knowest.

4 Again he said unto me, Prophecy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD.

5 Thus saith the Lord GOD unto these bones; Behold, I will ^ocause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live.

6 And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; ^pand ye shall know that I am the LORD.

7 So I prophesied as I was commanded; and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.

8 And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above; but there was no breath in them.

9 Then said he unto me, Prophecy unto the ^awind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; ^bCome from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.

10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, ^cand the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.

11 ^dThen he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel; behold, they say, ^eOur bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts.

12 Therefore prophecy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, ^fO my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and ^gbring you into the land of Israel.

13 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves.

14 And ^hI shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD.

15 ⁱThen the word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

16 Moreover, thou son of man, ^jtake thee one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for ^kthe children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions:

17 And ^ljoin them one to another into one stick; and they shall become one in thine hand.

18 ^mThen when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, ⁿWilt thou not shew us what thou meanest by these?

19 ^oSay unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will take ^pthe stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellows, and will put them with him, ^qeven with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in mine hand.

20 ^rThen And the sticks whereon thou writest shall be in thine hand ^sbefore their eyes.

21 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, ^tI will take the children of Israel from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land:

22 And ¹I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel; and ²one king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all:

23 Neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions: but ¹I will save them out of all their dwelling-places, wherein they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God.

24 And ¹David my servant shall be king over them; and ²they all shall have one shepherd: ³they shall also walk in my judgments, and observe my statutes, and do them.

25 And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jacob my servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, even they, and their children, and their children's children ¹for ever: and ²my servant David shall be their prince for ever.

26 Moreover I will make a ¹covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them: and I will place them, and ²multiply them, and will set my ³sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore.

27 My tabernacle also shall be with them: yea, I will be ¹their God, and they shall be my people.

28 And the heathen shall know that I the LORD do ¹sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore.

7 Be thou prepared, and prepare for thyself, thou, and all thy company that are assembled unto thee, and be thou a guard unto them.

8 ¶ After many days ¹thou shalt be visited: in the latter years thou shalt come into the land ²that is brought back from the sword, ³and is gathered out of many people, against ⁴the mountains of Israel, which have been always waste: but it is brought forth out of the nations, and they shall ⁵dwell safely all of them.

9 Thou shalt ascend and come ¹like a storm, thou shalt be ²like a cloud to cover the land, thou, and all thy bands, and many people with thee.

10 Thus saith the Lord God: It shall also come to pass, ¹that at the same time shall things come into thy mind, and thou shalt ²think an evil thought:

11 And thou shalt say, I will go up to the land of unwallled villages; I will ¹go to them that are at rest, ²that dwell ³safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates.

12 To take a spoil, and to take a prey: to turn thine hand upon ¹the desolate places that are now inhabited, ²and upon the people that are gathered out of the nations, which have gotten cattle and goods, that dwell in the ³midst of the land.

13 Sheba, and ¹Derlau, and the merchants ²of Tarshish, with all ³the young lions thereof, shall say unto thee, Art thou come to take a spoil? hast thou gathered thy company to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take a great spoil?

14 ¶ Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gog, Thus saith the Lord God: ¹In that day when my people of Israel ²dwell safely, shalt thou not know it?

15 And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts, thou, and many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army.

16 And thou shalt come up against my people of Israel, as a cloud to cover the land: ¹it shall be in the latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, ²that the heathen may know me, when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes.

17 Thus saith the Lord God: Art thou he of whom I have spoken in old time ¹by my servants the prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those days many years that I would bring these against them.

18 And it shall come to pass at the same time when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, with the Lord God, that my fury shall come up in my face.

19 For ¹in my jealousy, ²and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, ³Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel;

20 So that ¹the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence, ²and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the ³steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground.

21 And I will ¹call for ²a sword against him throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord God: ³every man's sword shall be against his brother.

22 And I will ¹plead against him with ²pestilence and with blood; and ³I will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and ⁴great hailstones, fire, and brimstone.

23 Thus will I magnify myself, and ¹sanctify myself, ²and I will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they shall know that I am the Lord.

THEREFORE, ¹thou son of man, ²prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal:

2 And I will turn thee back, and ¹leave but the sixth part of thee, ²and will cause thee to come up from ³the north parts, and will bring thee upon the mountains of Israel:

3 And I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand.

4 ¹Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou, and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee. ²I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every ³sort, and ⁴to the beasts of the field ⁵to be devoured.

7 ¹So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let them ²pollute my holy name any more: ³and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, the Holy One in Israel.

8 ¹Behold, it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord God; this is the day ²whereof I have spoken.

9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall ¹not on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the ²handstaves and the spears, and they shall ³burn them with fire seven years.

10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire: ²and they shall spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord God.

11 ¹And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea: and it shall stop the ²mouths of the passengers and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude, and they shall call it The valley of ³Hamon-gog.

12 And seven months shall the house of Israel be hurrying of them, ²that they may cleanse the land.

13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them, and it shall be to them a renown the day that ¹I shall be glorified, saith the Lord God.

14 And they shall sever out ¹men of continual employment, passing through the land to bury with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, ²to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search.

15 And the passengers that pass through the land, when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he ¹set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-gog.

16 And also the name of the city shall be ¹Hamonah. Thus shall they cleanse the land.

17 ¹And, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord God; ²Speak ³unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, ⁴Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my ⁵sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice ⁶upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood.

18 ¹Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of ¹goats, of bullocks, all of them ²fattings of Bashan.

19 And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you.

20 ³Thus ye shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, ⁴with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord God.

21 ⁵And I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see my judgment that I have executed, and ⁶my hand that I have laid upon them.

22 ⁷So the house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God from that day and forward.

23 ¶ ⁸And the heathen shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity: because they trespassed against me, therefore ⁹I hid my face from them, and ¹⁰I gave them into the hand of their enemies: so fell they all by the sword.

24 ¹¹According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions have I done unto them, and hid my face from them.

25 Therefore thus saith the Lord God: ¹²Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the ¹³whole house of Israel, and will be jealous for my holy name;

26 ¹⁴After that they have borne their shame, and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, when they ¹⁵dwelt safely in their land, and none made them afraid.

27 ¹⁶When I have brought them again from the people, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and ¹⁷am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations:

28 ¹⁸Then shall they know that I am the LORD their God, ¹⁹which caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen: but I have gathered them unto their own land, and have left none of them any more there.

29 ²⁰Neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have ²¹poured out my spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord God.

⁴⁴ the hand of the LORD was upon me, and brought me thither.

2 ⁴⁵In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and ⁴⁶set me upon a very high mountain, ⁴⁷by which was as the frame of a city on the south.

3 And he brought me thither, and, behold, ⁴⁸there was a man, whose appearance was ⁴⁹like the appearance of brass, ⁵⁰with a line of flax in his hand, ⁵¹and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate.

4 And the man said unto me, ⁵²Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and set thine heart upon all that I shall shew thee; for to the intent that I might shew ⁵³them unto thee art thou brought hither: ⁵⁴declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel.

5 And behold ⁵⁵a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring reed of six cubits long by the cubit and an hand breadth: so he measured the breadth of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed.

6 ¶ ⁵⁶Then came he unto the gate ⁵⁷which looketh toward the east, and went up the stairs thereof, and measured the threshold of the gate, ⁵⁸which was one reed broad; and the other threshold of the gate, ⁵⁹which was one reed broad.

7 And ⁶⁰every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers ⁶¹were five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate within was one reed.

8 He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed.

9 Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was inward.

10 And the little chambers of the gate eastward ⁶²were three on this side, and three on that side; they three ⁶³were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side.

11 And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; ⁶⁴and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

12 The ⁶⁵space also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side; and the little chambers ⁶⁶were six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side.

13 He measured then the gate from the roof of ⁶⁷one little chamber to the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door.

14 He made also posts of threescore cubits, even unto the post of the court round about the gate.

15 And from the face of the gate of the entrance unto the face of the porch of the inner gate were fifty cubits.

16 And there were "narrow" windows to the little chambers, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the arches: and windows were round about inward: and upon each post were palm trees.

17 Then brought he me into the outward court, and, lo, there were chambers, and a pavement made for the court round about: thirty chambers were upon the pavement.

18 And the pavement by the side of the gates over against the length of the gates was the lower pavement.

19 Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate unto the forefront of the inner court without, an hundred cubits eastward and northward.

20 ¶ And the gate of the outward court that looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof.

21 And the little chambers thereof were three on this side and three on that side; and the posts thereof and the arches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

22 And their windows, and their arches, and their palm trees, were after the measure of the gate that looketh toward the east; and they went up unto it by seven steps; and the arches thereof were before them.

23 And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate toward the north, and toward the east; and he measured from gate to gate an hundred cubits.

24 ¶ After that he brought me toward the south, and behold a gate toward the south: and he measured the posts thereof and the arches thereof according to these measures.

25 And there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

26 And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them; and it had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof.

27 And there was a gate in the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south an hundred cubits

29 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

30 And the arches round about were five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits broad.

31 And the arches thereof were toward the utter court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof: and the going up to it had eight steps.

32 ¶ And he brought me into the inner court toward the east; and he measured the gate according to these measures.

33 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were according to these measures: and there were windows therein and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

34 And the arches thereof were toward the outward court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side; and the going up to it had eight steps.

35 ¶ And he brought me to the north gate, and measured it according to these measures;

36 The little chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, and the windows to it round about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

37 And the posts thereof were toward the utter court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

38 And the chambers and the entries thereof were by the posts of the gates, where they washed the burnt offering.

39 ¶ And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon the burnt offering and the sin offering and the trespass offering.

40 And at the side without, as one goeth up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables.

41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew their sacrifices.

42 And the four tables were of hewn stone for the burnt offering, of a cubit and an half long, and a cubit and an half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the burnt offering and the sacrifice.

43 And within were ¹hooks, an hand broad, fastened round about: and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering.

44 ¶ And without the inner gate were the chambers of ²the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south: one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north.

45 And he said unto me, This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, ³the keepers of the charge of the house.

46 And the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, ⁴the keepers of the charge of the altar: these are the sons of ⁵Zadok among the sons of Levi, which come near to the LORD to minister unto him.

47 So he measured the court, an hundred cubits long, and an hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar that was before the house.

48 ¶ And he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side.

49 ⁶The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; and he brought me by the steps whereby they went up to it: and there were ⁷pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

CHAPTER 41.

Measures, parts, and ornaments of the temple.

AFTERWARD he brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the tabernacle.

2 And the breadth of the ¹door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof, forty cubits; and the breadth, twenty cubits.

3 Then went he inward, and measured the post of the door, two cubits; and the door, six cubits; and the breadth of the door, seven cubits.

4 So he measured the length thereof, twenty cubits; and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple:

and he said unto me, This is the most holy place.

5 After he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every side chamber, four cubits, round about the house on every side.

6 ² And the side chambers were three, ³one over another, and ⁴thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which was of the house for the side chambers round about, that they might ⁵have hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house.

7 And ⁶there was an enlarging, and a winding about still upward, to the side chambers: for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so increased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the midst.

8 I saw also the height of the house round about: the foundations of the side chambers were ⁷a full reed of six great cubits.

9 The thickness of the wall, which was for the side chamber without, was five cubits: and that which was left was the place of the side chambers that were within.

10 And between the chambers was the wideness of twenty cubits round about the house on every side.

11 And the doors of the side chambers were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about.

12 Now the building that was before the separate place at the end toward the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits.

13 So he measured the house, an hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, an hundred cubits long;

14 Also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, an hundred cubits.

15 And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place which was behind it, and the ⁸galleries thereof on the one side and on the other side, an hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court;

19 ⁷So that the face of a man ⁸was toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the otherside: ⁹it was made through all the house round about.

20 From the ground unto above the door ¹⁰were cherubims and palm trees made, and on the wall of the temple.

21 The ¹¹posts of the temple ¹²were squared, and the face of the sanctuary; the appearance of the one as the appearance of the other.

22 ¹³The altar of wood was three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, ¹⁴were of wood; and he said unto me, This ¹⁵is the table that ¹⁶is before the LORD.

23 ¹⁷And the temple and the sanctuary had two doors.

24 And the doors had two leaves ¹⁸apiece, two turning leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other door.

25 And ¹⁹there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubims and palm trees, like as ²⁰were made upon the walls; and ²¹there were thick planks upon the face of the porch without.

26 And ²²there were ²³narrow windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch, and ²⁴upon the side chambers of the house, and thick planks.

³⁸ 7 And the wall that ³⁹was without over against the chambers, toward the utter court on the forepart of the chambers, the length thereof ⁴⁰was fifty cubits.

⁴¹ 8 For the length of the chambers that ⁴²were in the utter court ⁴³was fifty cubits; and, lo, before the temple ⁴⁴were an hundred cubits.

⁴⁵ 9 And ⁴⁶from under these chambers ⁴⁷was ⁴⁸the entry on the east side, ⁴⁹as one goeth into them from the utter court.

⁵⁰ 10 The chambers ⁵¹were in the thick- ness of the wall of the court toward the east, over against the separate place, and over against the building.

⁵² 11 And ⁵³the way before them ⁵⁴was like the appearance of the chambers which ⁵⁵were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they; and all their goings out ⁵⁶were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.

11 Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having charge at the gates of the house, and ministering to the house, they shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister unto them

12 Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity, therefore have I lifted up mine hand against them, saith the Lord GOD, and they shall bear their iniquity

13 And they shall not come near unto me, to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, in the most holy place, but they shall bear their shame and their abominations which they have committed

14 But I will make them keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein

15 ¶ But the priests the Levites, the sons of Zadok, that kept the charge of my sanctuary, when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister unto me, and they shall stand before me to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord GOD

16 They shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table, to minister unto me, and they shall keep my charge

17 ¶ And it shall come to pass that when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments, and no wool shall come upon them, whilst they minister in the gates of the inner court and within

18 They shall have linen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with any thing that causeth sweat

19 And when they go forth into the utter court, even into the utter court to the people, "they shall put off their garments wherein they ministered, and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shall put on other garments; and they shall not sanctify the people with their garments.

20 "Neither shall they shave their heads, nor suffer their locks to grow long; they shall only poll their heads.

21 "Neither shall any priest drink wine, when they enter into the inner court.

22 Neither shall they take for their wives a "widow, nor her that is "put away; but they shall take maidens of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow "that had a priest before.

23 And "they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean.

24 And "in controversy they shall stand in judgment; and they shall judge it according to my judgments: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all mine assemblies; "and they shall hallow my sabbaths.

25 And they shall come at no "dead person to defile themselves: but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister that hath had no husband, they may defile themselves.

26 And "after he is cleansed, they shall reckon unto him seven days.

27 And in the day that he goeth into the sanctuary, "unto the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, "he shall offer his sin offering, saith the Lord God.

28 And it shall be unto them for an inheritance: I "am their inheritance; and ye shall give them no possession in Israel: I am their possession.

29 "They shall eat the meat offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; and "every "dedicated thing in Israel shall be theirs.

30 And the "first of all the firstfruits of all things, and every oblation of all, of every sort of your oblations, shall be the priests': ye "shall also give unto the priest the first of your dough, "that he may cause the blessing to rest in thine house.

31 The priests shall not eat of any thing that is "dead of itself, or torn, whether it be fowl or beast.

the Lord, "an holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about.

2 Of this there shall be for the sanctuary "five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits round about for the "suburbs thereof.

3 And of this measure shalt thou measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: "and in it shall be the sanctuary and the most holy place.

4 "The holy portion of the land shall be for the priests the ministers of the sanctuary, which shall come near to minister unto the Lord: and it shall be a place for their houses, and an holy place for the sanctuary.

5 "And the five and twenty thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth, shall also the Levites, the ministers of the house, have for themselves, for a possession for "twenty chambers.

6 ¶ And ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, over against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.

7 ¶ And a portion shall be for the prince on the one side and on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the west side westward, and from the east side eastward: and the length shall be over against one of the portions, from the west border unto the east border.

8 In the land shall be his possession in Israel: and "my princes shall no more oppress my people; and the rest of the land shall they give to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

9 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God: "Let it suffice you, O princes of Israel: "Remove violence and spoil, and execute judgment and justice, take away your "exactions from my people, saith the Lord God.

10 Ye shall have just "balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath.

11 The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of an homer, and the ephah the tenth part of an homer: the measure thereof shall be after the homer.

12 And the "shekel shall be twenty gerahs: twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels, shall be your maneh.

13 This is the oblation that ye shall offer; the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of wheat, and ye shall give the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of barley.

14 Concerning the ordinance of oil, the bath of oil, ye shall offer the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is an homer of ten baths, for ten baths are an homer.

15 And one lamb out of the flock, out of two hundred, out of the fat pastures of Israel; for a meat offering, and for a burnt offering, and for peace offerings, to make reconciliation for them, saith the Lord God.

16 All the people of the land shall give this oblation for the prince in Israel.

17 And it shall be the prince's part to give burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and drink offerings, in the feasts, and in the new moons, and in the sabbaths, in all solemnities of the house of Israel: he shall prepare the sin offering, and the meat offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings, to make reconciliation for the house of Israel.

18 Thus saith the Lord God: In the first month, in the first day of the month, thou shalt take a young bullock without blemish, and cleanse the sanctuary;

19 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and put it upon the posts of the house, and upon the four corners of the settle of the altar, and upon the posts of the gate of the inner court.

20 And so thou shalt do the seventh day of the month for every one that erreth, and for him that is simple: so shall ye reconcile the house.

21 In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, ye shall have the passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten.

22 And upon that day shall the prince prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bullock for a sin offering.

23 And seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to the Lord, seven bullocks and seven rams without blemish daily the seven days; and a kid of the goats daily for a sin offering.

CHAPTER 46.

Ordinances for the prince in his worship

THUS saith the Lord God: The gate of the inner court that looketh toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the new moon it shall be opened.

2 And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate; then he shall go forth; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening.

3 Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the door of this gate before the Lord in the sabbaths and in the new moons.

4 And the burnt offering that the prince shall offer unto the Lord in the sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish.

5 And the meat offering shall be an ephah for a ram, and the meat offering for the lambs as he shall be able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

6 And in the day of the new moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram: they shall be without blemish.

7 And he shall prepare a meat offering, an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs according as his hand shall attain unto, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

8 And when the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of that gate, and be shall go forth by the way thereof.

9 ¶ But when the people of the land shall come before the Lord in the solemn feasts, be that entereth in by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and be that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth over against it.

10 And the prince in the midst of them, when they go in, shall go in; and when they go forth, shall go forth.

11 And in the feasts and in the solemnities the meat offering shall be an ephah to a bullock, and an ephah to a ram, and to the lambs as he is able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

12 Now when the prince shall prepare a voluntary burnt offering or peace offerings voluntarily unto the LORD, ^aone shall then open him the gate that looketh toward the east, and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he did on the sabbath day; then he shall go forth; and after his going forth ^aone shall shut the gate.

13 ^cThou shalt daily prepare a burnt offering unto the LORD ^aof a lamb ¹of the first year without blemish. thou shalt prepare it ²every morning.

14 And thou shalt prepare a meat offering for it every morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of an hin of oil, to temper with the fine flour; a meat offering continually by a perpetual ordinance unto the LORD.

15 Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meat offering, and the oil, every morning for a continual burnt offering.

16 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; If the prince give a gift unto any of his sons, the inheritance thereof shall be his sons'; it shall be their possession by inheritance.

17 But if he give a gift of his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall be his to ^athe year of liberty; after it shall return to the prince: but his inheritance shall be his sons' for them.

18 Moreover ^athe prince shall not take of the people's inheritance by oppression, to thrust them out of their possession; but he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own possession: that my people be not scattered every man from his possession.

19 ¶ After he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the priests, which looked toward the north: and, behold, there was a place on the two sides westward.

20 Then said he unto me, This ^ais the place where the priests shall ^aboil the trespass offering and the sin offering, where they shall ^abake the meat offering; that they bear them not out into the utter court, ^ato sanctify the people.

21 Then he brought me forth into the inner court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and, behold, ^ain every corner of the court there was a court.

22 In the four corners of the court there were courts ^ajoined of forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four ^acorners were of one measure.

CHAPTER 47.

1 Vision of the holy waters. 2 The virtue of them. 3 Borders of the land. 4 Division of it by lot.

AFTERWARD he brought me again unto the door of the house; and, behold, ^awaters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward; for the forefront of the house stood toward the east, and the waters came down from under from the right side of the house, at the south side of the altar.

2 Then brought he me out of the way of the gate northward, and led me about the way without unto the utter gate by the way that looketh eastward; and, behold, there ran out waters on the right side.

3 And when ^athe man that had the line in his hand went forth eastward, he measured a thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; the ^awaters were to the ancles.

4 Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters; the waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through; the waters were to the loins.

5 Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass over: for the waters were risen, ^awaters to swim in, a river that could not be passed over.

6 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the brink of the river.

7 Now when I had returned, behold, at the ^abank of the river were very many ^atrees on the one side and on the other.

8 Then said he unto me, These waters issue out toward the east country, and go down into the ^adesert, and go into the sea: ^awhich being brought forth into the sea, the waters shall be healed.

9 And it shall come to pass, that every thing that liveth, which moveth, whithersoever the ^arivers shall come, shall live: and there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed; and every thing shall live whither the river cometh.

10 And it shall come to pass, that the fishers shall stand upon it from En-gedi even unto En-eglain; they shall be a place to spread forth nets; their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish ^{of} the great sea, exceeding many.

11 But the miry places thereof and the marshes thereof ^{shall} not be healed; they shall be given to salt.

12 And ^{by} the river upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, ^{shall} grow all trees for meat, ^{whose} leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed: it shall bring forth ^{new} fruit according to his months, because their waters they issued out of the sanctuary: and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof ^{for} ^{medicine}.

13 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; This shall be the border, whereby ye shall inherit the land according to the twelve tribes of Israel: ^{Joseph shall have two portions}.

14 And ye shall inherit it, one as well as another: concerning the which I ^{lifted} up mine hand to give it unto your fathers: and this land shall ^{fall} unto you for inheritance.

15 And this shall be the border of the land toward the north side, from the great sea, ^{the way of} Hethlon, as men go to ^{Zedad};

16 ^{Hamath}, ^{Berothab}, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; ^{Hazar-hatticon}, which is by the coast of Hauran.

17 And the border from the sea shall be ^{Hazar-enan}, the border of Damascus, and the north northward, and the border of Hamath. And this is the north side.

18 And the east side ye shall measure ^{from} Hauran, and from Damascus, and from Gilead, and from the land of Israel by Jordan, from the border unto the east sea. And this is the east side.

19 And the south side southward, from Tamar even to ^{the} waters of ^{strife} in Kadesh, the ^{river} to the great sea. And this is ^{the} south side southward.

20 The west side also shall be the great sea from the border, till a man come over against Hamath. This is the west side.

21 So shall ye divide this land unto you according to the tribes of Israel.

22 ¶ And it shall come to pass, that ye shall divide it by lot for an inheritance unto you, ^{and} to the strangers that sojourn among you, which shall beget children among you: ^{and} they shall be unto you as born in the country among the children of Israel: they shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel.

CHAPTER 48.

1, 23 The portions of the twelve tribes, 8 of the sanctuary, 15 of the city. 30 Dimensions of the city

NOW these are the names of the tribes. ^{From} the north end to the coast of the way of Hethlon, as one goeth to Hamath, Hazar-enan, the border of Damascus northward, to the coast of Hamath; for these are his sides east and west; ^{a portion for} Dan.

2 And by the border of Dan, from the east side unto the west side, ^{a portion for} Asher.

3 And by the border of Asher, from the east side even unto the west side, ^{a portion for} Naphtali.

4 And by the border of Naphtali, from the east side unto the west side, ^{a portion for} Manasseh.

5 And by the border of Manasseh, from the east side unto the west side, ^{a portion for} Ephraim.

6 And by the border of Ephraim, from the east side even unto the west side, ^{a portion for} Reuben.

7 And by the border of Reuben, from the east side unto the west side, ^{a portion for} Judah.

8 ¶ And by the border of Judah, from the east side unto the west side, shall be ^{the offering} which ye shall offer of five and twenty thousand reeds in breadth, and in length as one of the other parts, from the east side unto the west side: and the sanctuary shall be in the midst of it.

9 The oblation that ye shall offer unto the LORD shall be of five and twenty thousand in length, and of ten thousand in breadth.

10 And for them, even for the priests, shall be this holy oblation; toward the north five and twenty thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in breadth, and toward the east ten thousand in breadth, and toward the south five and twenty thousand in length: and the sanctuary of the LORD shall be in the midst thereof.

11 ^{It} shall be for the priests that are sanctified of the sons of Zadok; which have kept my ^{charge}, which went not astray when the children of Israel went astray, ^{as} the Levites went astray.

12 And this oblation of the land that is offered shall be unto them a thing most holy by the border of the Levites.

13 And over against the border of the priests the Levites shall have five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the breadth ten thousand.

14 ^a And they shall not sell of it, neither exchange, nor alienate the firstfruits of the land: for it is holy unto the Lord.

15 ^b And the five thousand, that are left in the breadth over against the five and twenty thousand, shall be ^c a profane place for the city, for dwelling, and for suburbs: and the city shall be in the midst thereof.

16 And these shall be the measures thereof; the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred.

17 And the suburbs of the city shall be toward the north two hundred and fifty, and toward the south two hundred and fifty, and toward the east two hundred and fifty, and toward the west two hundred and fifty.

18 And the residue in length over against the oblation of the holy portion shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward: and it shall be over against the oblation of the holy portion; and the increase thereof shall be for food unto them that serve the city.

19 ^a And they that serve the city shall serve it out of all the tribes of Israel.

20 All the oblation shall be five and twenty thousand by five and twenty thousand: ye shall offer the holy oblation foursquare, with the possession of the city.

21 ^b And the residue shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation, and of the possession of the city, over against the five and twenty thousand of the oblation toward the east border, and westward over against the five and twenty thousand toward the west border, over against the portions for the prince: and it shall be the holy oblation; and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the midst thereof.

26 And by the border of Issachar, from the east side unto the west side, Zebulun a portion.

27 And by the border of Zebulun, from the east side unto the west side, Gad a portion.

28 And by the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from Tamar unto ^a the waters of ^b strife in Kadesh, and to the river toward the great sea.

29 ^c This is the land which ye shall divide by lot unto the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their portions, saith the Lord God.

30 ^d And these are the goings out of the city on the north side, four thousand and five hundred measures.

31 ^e And the gates of the city shall be after the names of the tribes of Israel: three gates northward; one gate of Reuben, one gate of Judah, one gate of Levi.

32 And at the east side four thousand and five hundred: and three gates; and one gate of Joseph, one gate of Benjamin, one gate of Dan.

33 And at the south side four thousand and five hundred measures: and three gates; one gate of Simeon, one gate of Issachar, one gate of Zebulun.

34 At the west side four thousand and five hundred, with their three gates; one gate of Gad, one gate of Asher, one gate of Naphtali.

35 ^f It was round about eighteen thousand measures: ^g and the name of the city from that day shall be, ^h The Lord is there.

3 ¶ And the king spake unto Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring ^{certain} of the children of Israel, and of the king's seed, and of the princes;

4 Children ⁱⁿ whom was no blemish, but well favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and ^{whom} they might teach the learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans.

5 And the king appointed them a daily provision of the king's meat, and of ^{the} wine which he drank, so nourishing them three years, that at the end thereof they might stand before the king.

6 Now among these were of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah:

7 ¶ Unto whom the prince of the eunuchs gave names: ^{for} he gave unto Daniel the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abednego.

8 ¶ But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

9 Now ^{God} had brought Daniel into favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs.

10 And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drink for why should he see your faces ^{worse} looking than the children which are of your sort? then shall ye make me endanger my head to the king.

11 Then said Daniel to Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah,

12 Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us ^{pulse} to eat, and water to drink

13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king's meat: and as thou seest, deal with thy servants.

14 So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

15 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat.

16 Thus Melzar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink; and gave them pulse.

17 ¶ As for these four children, ^{God} gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams.

18 Now at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.

19 And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore stood they before the king.

20 ¶ And in all matters of wisdom and understanding, that the king enquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers that were in all his realm.

21 ¶ And Daniel continued even unto the first year of king Cyrus.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Nebuchadnezzar, forgetting his dream, requireth it of the Chaldeans. 10 They are judged to die. 14 Daniel findeth the dream. 21 The dream. 33 The interpretation. 46 Daniel's advancement.

AND in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, ^{where}with his spirit was troubled, and ^{his} sleep brake from him.

2 ¶ Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to shew the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream.

4 Then saith the Chaldeans to the king in Syriack, O king, live for ever. tell thy servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation.

5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be cut ⁱⁿ pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill.

6 ¶ But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honour: therefore shew me the dream, and the interpretation thereof.

7 They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it.

8 The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me.

9 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, ¹there is but one decree for you: for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof.

10 ¶ The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king's matter: therefore ²there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean.

11 And ³it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is none other that can shew it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

12 For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

13 And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain.

14 ¶ Then Daniel answered with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon:

15 He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel.

16 Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would shew the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions:

18 That they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

19 ¶ Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

20 Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever, for wisdom and might are his:

21 And he changeth the times and the seasons: he removeth kings, and setteth up kings: he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding:

22 He revealeth the deep and secret things: he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with him.

23 I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what we ⁴desued of thee: for thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter.

24 ¶ Therefore Daniel went in unto Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon: he went and said thus unto him; Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will shew unto the king the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, I have found a man of the ⁵captives of Judah, that will make known unto the king the interpretation.

26 The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof?

27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded cannot the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, shew unto the king;

28 But there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these;

29 As for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter: and he that revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass.

30 But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart.

31 ¶ Thou, O king, sawest, and behold a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the form thereof was terrible.

32 This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass, 33 His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay.

34 Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces.

35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing-floors; and the wind carried them away, that "no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image" became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.

36 ¶ This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.

37 "Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

38 And whosoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. "Thou art this head of gold.

39 And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth.

40 And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise.

41 And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay.

42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken.

43 And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

44 And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.

45 Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

46 ¶ Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation and sweet odours unto him.

47 The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret.

43 Then the king made Daniel a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon.

49 Then Daniel requested of the king, and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel sat in the gate of the king.

CHAPTER 3.

1 The golden image 21 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego cast into a furnace 26 God saveth them

NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king made an image of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

2 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

3 Then the princes, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

4 Then an herald cried aloud, To you it is commanded, "O people, nations, and languages,

5 That at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up:

6 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

7 Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of music, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

8 ¶ Wherefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and accused the Jews.

9 They spake and said to the king Nebuchadnezzar, "O king, live for ever.

10 Thou, O king, hast made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, shall fall down and worship the golden image:

11 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, that he should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

12 ^bThere are certain Jews whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego; these men, O king, have not regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

13 ¶ Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they brought these men before the king.

14 Nebuchadnezzar spake and said unto them, Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, do not ye serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up?

15 Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made; well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands?

16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we are not careful to answer thee in this matter.

17 If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king.

18 But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

19 ¶ Then was Nebuchadnezzar ¹full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heated.

20 And he commanded the ²most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

21 Then these men were bound in their coats, their hosen, and their

22 Therefore because the king's ²commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the ³flame of the fire slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego.

23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste, and spake, and said unto his ⁴counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king.

25 He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, ⁵walking in the midst of the fire, and ⁶they have no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like ⁷the Son of God.

26 ¶ Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the ⁸mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ye servants of the most high God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, came forth of the midst of the fire.

27 And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, ⁹upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them.

28 Then Nebuchadnezzar spake, and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that ¹⁰trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God.

29 Therefore ¹¹I make a decree, That every people, nation, and language, which speak ¹²any thing amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, shall be ¹³cut^s in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill: ¹⁴because there is no other God that can deliver as this sort.

30 Then the king ¹⁵promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, in the province of Babylon.

his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth."

16 Let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him; and let seven times pass over him."

17 This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living may know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men."

18 Thus dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen. Now thou, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof, forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation: but thou art able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee."

19 "Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was astonished for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spake, and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies."

20 "The tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth;

21 Whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation:

22 "It is thou, O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth."

23 "And whereas the king saw a watcher and an holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him;

24 This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the most High, which is come upon my lord the king:

25 That they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee ^bto eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, till thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and ^cgiveth it to whomsoever he will.

26 And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou shalt have known that the heavens do rule.

27 Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor: ^dif it may be ^ea lengthening of thy tranquillity.

28 ¶ All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar.

29 At the end of twelve months he walked ^fin the palace of the kingdom of Babylon.

30 The king ^gspake, and said, Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty?

31 ^hWhile the word ⁱwas in the king's mouth, there fell ^ja voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee.

32 And they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling ^kshall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

33 The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

34 And ^lat the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the most High, and I praised and honoured him ^mthat liveth for ever, whose dominion ⁿis an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom ^ois from generation to generation:

35 And ^pall the inhabitants of the earth ^qare reputed as nothing; and ^rhe doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and ^samong the inhabitants of the earth: and ^tnone can stay his hand, or say unto him, ^uWhat doest thou?

CHAPTER 5.

1 Belshazzar's impious feast. 5 A handwriting troubleth the King. 10 At the commendation of the queen Daniel is brought. 17 He, representing the King of pride, 28 reddeneth and interpreteth the writing. 30 The monarchy is translated to the Medes.

BELSHAZZAR the king ^mmade a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.

2 Belshazzar, whiles he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels ⁿwhich his ^ofather Nebuchadnezzar had ^ptaken out of the temple which ^qwas in Jerusalem; that the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, might drink therein.

3 Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which ^rwas at Jerusalem; and the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, drank in them.

4 They drank wine, ^sand praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

5 ¶ In the same hour came forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaster of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

6 Then the king's ^tcountenance ^uwas changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the ^v7th joints of his loins were loosed, and his ^wknees smote one against another.

7 ^xThe king cried ^yaloud to bring in ^zthe astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. ^{aa}And the king spake, and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and shew me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with ^{ab}scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, ^{ac}and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.

8 Then came in all the king's wise men ^{ad}but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof.

9 Then was king Belshazzar ^{ae}greatly

^atroubled, and his ¹countenance was changed in him, and his lords were astounded.

10 ¶ Now the queen by reason of the words of the king and his lords came into the banquet house: and the queen spake and said, "O king, live for ever: let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed:

11 "There is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of thy ²father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nebuchadnezzar thy ³father, the king, I say, thy father, made ⁴master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers;

12 "Forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, ⁵interpreting of dreams, and shewing of hard sentences, and ⁶dissolving of ⁷doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and he will shew the interpretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought in before the king. And the king spake and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, which art of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my ¹father brought out of Jewry?

14 I have even heard of thee, that ^athe spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in thee.

15 And now ^bthe wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not shew the interpretation of the thing:

16 And I have heard of thee, that thou canst ^cmake interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

17 ¶ Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy ³rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

18 O thou king, the most high God gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour:

19 And for the majesty that he gave him, ^aall people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew; and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he set up; and whom he would he put down.

20 ^aBut when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened ^bin pride, he was ^cdeposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him:

21 And he was ^ddriven from the sons of men; and ^ehis heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; ^ftill he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth over it whomsoever he will.

22 And thou his son, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this;

23 ^aBut hast lifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, ^bwhich see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, ^cand whose ears all thy ways, hast thou not glorified:

24 Then was the part of the hand sent from him; and this writing was written.

25 ¶ And this is the writing that was written, MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN.

26 This is the interpretation of the thing; MENE; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it.

27 TEKEL; ^aThou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting.

28 PERES; Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the ^bMedes and ^cPersians.

29 Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, ^dthat he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

30 ¶ In that night was Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans slain.

31 ^aAnd Darius the Median took the kingdom, ^bbeing ^cabout threescore and two years old.

CHAPTER 6.

¹ Daniel is made chief of the presidents. ⁴ They obtain an edict from Darius. ¹⁰ Daniel is cast into the lions' den. ¹⁸ He is saved, ²⁸ and God is magnified.

¶ It pleased Darius to set ^aover the kingdom an hundred and twenty princes, which should be over the whole kingdom;

2 And over these three presidents; of whom Daniel ^{ver 1}first: that the princes might give account unto them, and the king should have no damage.

3 Then thus Daniel was preferred above the presidents and princes, ^bbecause an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.

4 ¶ Then the presidents and princes sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could find none occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him.

5 Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God.

6 Then these presidents and princes ¹assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, King Darius, live for ever.

7 All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the counsellors, and the captains, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm ²decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any God or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions.

8 Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the ⁴law of the Medes and Persians, which ^aaltereth not.

9 Wherefore king Darius signed the writing and the decree.

10 ¶ Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and his windows being open in his chamber ^mtoward Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees ²three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime.

11 Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God.

12 ¶ Then they came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's decree; ³Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask a petition of any God or man within thirty days, save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

13 Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, ²which is of the children of the captivity of Judah, regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a day.

14 Then the king, when he heard ^{these} words, ^awas sore displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him: and he laboured till the going down of the sun to deliver him.

15 Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that ^athe law of the Medes and Persians is, That no decree nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed.

16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, Thy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee.

17 And a stoue was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel.

18 ¶ Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting: neither were ¹instruments of music brought before him: ²and his sleep went from him.

19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions.

20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel: and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, ³is thy God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions?

21 Then said Daniel unto the king, O king, live for ever.

22 My God hath sent his angel, and hath ⁴shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him my innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt.

23 Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, ⁵because he believed in his God.

24 ¶ And the king commanded, and they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, ⁶their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces or ever they came at the bottom of the den.

25 ¶ Then king Darius wrote unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you.

26 ¹Make a decree, That in every dominion of my kingdom men ²tremble and fear before the God of Daniel: ³for he is the living God, and stedfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall not be ⁴destroyed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end.

27 He delivereth and rescueth, ²and he worketh signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who hath delivered Daniel from the ¹power of the lions.

28 So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, ²and in the reign of ³Cyrus the Persian.

CHAPTER 7.

Daniel's vision of four beasts, &c.

IN the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon ²Daniel ³had a dream and ⁴visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, ⁵and told the sum of the ⁶matters.

2 Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea.

3 And four great beasts ⁴came up from the sea, diverse one from another.

4 The first was ¹like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, ²and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

5 ¹And behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and ²it raised up itself on one side, and ³it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.

6 After this I beheld, and lo another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also ²four heads; and dominion was given to it.

7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold ²a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; ³and it had ten horns.

8 I considered the horns, and behold, ²there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes ³of man, ⁴and a mouth speaking great things.

9 ¹I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and ²the Ancient of days did sit, ³whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, ⁴and his wheels as burning fire.

10 ¹A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him. ²Thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: ³the judgment was set, and the books were opened.

11 I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake: ²"I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet ²their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

13 I saw in the night visions, and, behold, ²one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.

14 ¹And there was given him dominion and glory, and a kingdom, that all ²people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is ³an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

15 ¹I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of ²my ³body, and the visions of my head troubled me.

16 I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.

17 These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth.

18 But ²the saints of the ³most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

19 Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse ²from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet;

20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows.

21 I beheld, ²and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;

22 Until the Ancient of days came,¹ and judgment was given to the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom

23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.

24 And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise; and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.

25 And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws; and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time.

26 But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end.

27 And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.

28 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my cogitations much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me; but I kept the matter in my heart.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Daniel's vision of the ram and he goat 15 Gabriel comforteth Daniel, and interpreteth the vision

IN the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first.

2 And I saw in a vision; and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai.

3 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns; and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last.

4 I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and became great.

5 And as I was considering, behold, an he goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground; and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes

6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power.

7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns: and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand

8 Therefore the he goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones toward the four winds of heaven.

9 And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land.

10 And it waxed great even to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them.

11 Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.

12 And an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered.

13 Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed.

15 And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man.

16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision.

17 So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the end shall be the vision.

18 "Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground: ^abut he touched me, and ^bset me upright.

19 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation. ^afor at the time appointed the end shall be 20 The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the kings of Media and Persia.

21 And the rough goat is the king of Grecia: and the great horn that is between his eyes ^ais the first king.

22 "Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power.

23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors ^aare come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up.

24 And his power shall be mighty, ^abut not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, ^aand shall prosper, and practise, ^aand shall destroy the mighty and the ^aholy people.

25 And ^athrough his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; ^aand he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by ^apeace shall destroy many: ^ahe shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be ^abroken without hand.

26 And the vision of the evening and the morning which was told ^ais true: ^awherefore shut thou up the vision, for it shall be for many days.

27 "And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days; afterward I rose up, and did the king's business; and I was astonished at the vision, but none understood it.

God, keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments;

5 "We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments.

6 "Neither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 O Lord, ^arighteousness ^bbelongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee.

8 O Lord, to us ^abelongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

9 "To the Lord our God ^abelong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him;

10 Neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

11 Yea, ^aall Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the ^alaw of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

12 And he hath ^aconfirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: ^afor under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

13 "As it is written in the law of Moses, ^aall this evil is come upon us: yet ^amade we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.

14 Therefore hath the LORD ^awatched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: ^afor the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: ^afor we obeyed not his voice.

15 And now, O Lord our God, ^athat hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast ^agotten thee renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

16 "O Lord, ^aaccording to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, ^bthy holy mountain: because for our sins, ^cand for the iniquities of our fathers, ^dJerusalem and thy people ^eare become a reproach to all ^fthat are about us.

17 Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, ^aand cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary ^bthat is desolate, ^cfor the Lord's sake.

18 ^aO my God, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, ^band behold our desolations, and the city ^cwhich is called by thy name: for we do not ^dpresent our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies.

19 O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken and do; defer not, for thine own sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name.

20 ¶ And whiles I ^awas speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God;

21 Yea, whiles I ^awas speaking in prayer, even the man ^bGabriel, whom I had seen in the vision ^cat the beginning, being caused to fly ^dswiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation.

22 And he informed ^ame, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth ^bto give thee skill and understanding.

23 At the beginning of thy supplications the ^acommandment came forth, and I am come to shew ^bthee, for thou art ^cgreatly beloved: therefore ^dunderstand the matter, and consider the vision.

24 Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, ^ato finish the transgression, and ^bto make an end of sins, ^cand to make reconciliation for iniquity, ^dand to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and ^eprophecy, ^fand to anoint the most Holy.

25 Know therefore and understand, ^athat from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto ^bthe Messiah ^cthe Prince ^dshall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.

CHAPTER 10.

Daniel having humbled himself seeth a vision.

IN the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing ^awas true, but the time appointed ^bwas long; and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

2 In those days I Daniel was mourning three ^afull weeks

3 I ate no ^apleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel;

5 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold ^aa certain man clothed in linen, whose loins ^bwere girded with fine gold of Uphaz:

6 His body also ^awas like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, ^band the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my ^auncleanliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength.

9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground.

10 ¶ And, behold, an hand touched me, which ^aset me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands.

11 And he said unto me, O Daniel, ^aa man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and ^bstand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling.

12 Then said he unto me, "Fear not, Daniel, for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

13 "But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days.

15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb.

16 And, behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

17 For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

18 Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me.

19 "And said, O man greatly beloved, fear not: peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grecia shall come.

21 But I will shew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that holdeth with me in these things, but Michael your prince.

kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven; and not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others beside those.

5 ¶ And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion.

6 And in the end of years they shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in these times.

7 But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail:

8 And shall also carry captives into Egypt their gods, with their princes, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the north.

9 So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land.

10 But his sons shall be stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly come, and overflow, and pass through: then shall he return, and be stirred up, even to his fortress.

11 And the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into his hand.

12 And when he hath taken away the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down many ten thousands: but he shall not be strengthened by it.

13 For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and with much riches.

14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall.

15 So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take ² the most fenced cities: and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither ³ his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand.

16 But he that cometh against him ⁴ shall do according to his own will, and ⁵ none shall stand before him: and he shall stand in ⁶ the glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed.

17 He shall also ⁷ set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and ⁸ upright ones with him; thus shall he do; and he shall give him the daughter of women, ⁹ corrupting her; but she shall not stand on ¹⁰ his side, neither be for him.

18 After this shall he turn his face unto the isles, and shall take many: but a prince ¹¹ for his own behalf shall cause ¹² the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause ¹³ it to turn upon him.

19 Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land; but he shall stumble and fall, ¹⁴ and not be found.

20 Then shall stand up ¹⁵ in his estate ¹⁶ a raiser of taxes ¹⁷ in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in ¹⁸ anger, nor in battle.

21 And ¹⁹ in his estate ²⁰ shall stand up a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries.

22 And with the arms of a flood shall they be overflowed from before him, and shall be broken; ²¹ yea, also the prince of the covenant.

23 And after the league ²² made with him ²³ he shall work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people.

24 He shall enter ²⁴ peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do ²⁵ that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: ²⁶ yea, and he shall ²⁷ forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time.

25 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him.

26 Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow: and many shall fall down slain.

39 Thus shall he do in the ¹⁸ most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge ¹⁹ and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for ²gaul.

40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him ¹like a whirlwind, with chariots, ²and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over.

41 He shall enter also into the ³glorious land, and many ⁴countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, ⁵even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon.

42 He shall ⁶stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape.

43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be ⁷at his steps.

44 But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many.

45 And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas, in ⁸the glorious holy mountain; ⁹yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Michael shall deliver Israel from their troubles
2 Daniel is informed of the times

AND at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: ³and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation ⁴even to that same time; and at that time thy people ⁵shall be delivered, every one that shall be found ⁶written in the book.

2 And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, ⁷some to everlasting life, and some to shame ⁸and everlasting contempt.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Hosea sheweth God's judgment for spiritual whoredom. 10 The restoration of Judah and Israel.

THE word of the LORD that came unto Hosea, the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

LORD by Hosea. And the LORD said to Hosea, ¹Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms and children of whoredoms: for ²the land hath committed great whoredom, ³departing from the LORD.

3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; which conceived, and bare him a son.

4 And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, "and I will ¹avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, ²and will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel.

5 "And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.

6 ¶ And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name ⁴Lo-ruhamah: ⁵for ⁵I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel; ⁶but I will utterly take them away.

7 ⁷But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and ⁸I will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

8 ¶ Now when she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived, and bare a son.

9 Then said God, Call his name ³Lo-ammi: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.

10 ¶ Yet ¹⁰the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass, that ¹¹in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are ¹²the sons of the living God.

11 ¶ Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

SAY ye unto your brethren, ⁵Ammi; and to your sisters, ⁶Ruhamah

2 Plead with your mother, plead: for ³she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: let her therefore put away her ⁴whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts;

3 Lest ¹I strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was ²born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst.

4 And I will not have mercy upon her children; for they be the ⁵children of whoredoms.

5 ¶ For their mother hath played the harlot: she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, I will go after my lovers, ⁶that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my ⁷drink.

6 ¶ Therefore, behold, ¹I will hedge up thy way with thorns, and ²make a wall, that she shall not find her paths.

23 And "I will sow her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God.

CHAPTER 3.

1 By the expiation of an adulteress, it is showed the desolation of Israel before their restoration.

THE LORD said the LORD unto me, "Go yet, love a woman beloved of her friend, yet an adulteress, according to the love of the LORD toward the children of Israel, who look to other gods, and love flagons of wine.

2 So I bought her to me for fifteen pieces of silver, and for an homer of barley, and an half homer of barley;

3 And I said unto her, Thou shalt abide for me many days; thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be for another man: so will I also be for thee.

4 For the children of Israel shall abide many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ephod, and without teraphim:

5 Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the LORD their God, and David their king; and shall fear the LORD and his goodness in the latter days.

CHAPTER 4.

1 God's judgments against the people 6 and the priests. 10 Judah is exhorted to take warning.

HEAR the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel: for the LORD hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land.

2 By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and blood toucheth blood.

3 Therefore shall the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.

4 Yet let no man strive, nor reprove another: for they people are as they that strive with the priest.

7 As they were increased, so they sinned against me: therefore will I change their glory unto shame.

8 They eat up the sin of my people, and they set their heart on their iniquity.

9 And there shall be, like people, like priest: and I will punish them for their ways, and reward them their doings.

10 For they shall eat, and not have enough: they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase: because they have left off to take heed to the LORD.

11 Whoredom and wine and new wine take away the heart.

12 ¶ My people ask counsel at their stocks, and their staff declaieth unto them: for the spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God.

13 They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks and poplars and elms, because the shadow thereof is good: therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery.

14 ¶ I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery: for themselves are separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people that doth not understand shall fall.

15 ¶ Though thou, Israel, play the harlot, yet let not Judah offend; and come not ye unto Gilgal, neither ye up to Beth-aven, nor swear, The LORD liveth.

16 For Israel slideth back as a backsliding heifer: now the LORD will feed them as a lamb in a large place.

17 Ephraim is joined to idols: let him alone.

18 Their drink is sour: they have committed whoredom continually: her rulers with shame do love, Give ye.

19 ¶ The wind hath bound her up in her wings, and they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

CHAPTER 5.

God's judgments against the priests, the people, and the princes of Israel, for their manifold sins.

HEAR ye this, O priests; and hearken, ye house of Israel; and give ye ear, O house of the king; for judgment is toward you, because ye have been a snare on Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor.

2 And the revolvers are "profound to make slaughter, though I have been a rebuker of them all.

3 I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me: for now, O Ephraim, thou committest whoredom, and Israel is defiled.

4 They will not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for "the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they have not known the LORD

5 And the pride of Israel doth testify to his face: therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity; Judah also shall fall with them.

6 They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD, but they shall not find him; he hath withdrawn himself from them.

7 They have dealt treacherously against the LORD: for they have begotten strange children: now shall a month devour them with their portions.

8 Blow ye the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah: "cry aloud at Beth-aven, after thee, O Benjamin.

9 Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall surely be.

10 The princes of Judah were like them that remove the bound: therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water.

11 Ephraim is "oppressed and broken in judgment, because he willingly walked after "the commandment.

12 Therefore will I be unto Ephraim as a moth, and to the house of Judah "as rottenness.

13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim "to the Assyrian, and sent to king Jareb: yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound.

14 For "I will be unto Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: "I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

15 ¶ I will go and return to my place, till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me early.

CHAPTER 6.

1 An exhortation to repentance 4 A complaint of their unrepentance and iniquity

COME, and let us return unto the LORD: for "he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

2 After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.

3 Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared "as the morning; and he shall come unto us "as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

4 ¶ O Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your "goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away.

5 Therefore have I hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by "the words of my mouth: "and thy judgments are as the light that goeth forth.

6 For I desired "mercy, and "not sacrifice; and the "knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.

7 But they "like men have transgressed the covenant: there have they dealt treacherously against me.

8 Gilead is a city of them that work iniquity, and is "polluted with blood.

9 And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way "by consent, for they commit "lewdness.

10 I have seen an horrible thing in the house of Israel: there is the whoredom of Ephraim, Israel is defiled.

11 Also, O Judah, he hath set an harvest for thee, when I returned the captivity of my people.

CHAPTER 7.

1 A reproof of manifold sins 11 God's wrath against them for their hypocrisy

WHEN I would have healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was discovered, and the "wickedness of Samaria: for "they commit falsehood; and the thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers "spoleth without

2 And they "consider not in their hearts that I "remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; they are before my face.

3 They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes "with their lies.

4 They are all adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker, "who ceaseth from raising after he hath kneaded the dough, until it be leavened.

5 In the day of our king the princes have made him sick with bottles of wine; he stretched out his hand with soorners.

6 For they have made ready their heart like an oven, whilst they lie in wait: their baker seepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire.

7 They are all hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges: all their kings are fallen: there is none among them that calleth unto me.

8 Ephraim, he hath loved himself among the people, Ephraim is a cake not turned.

9 Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not: yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him, yet he knoweth not.

10 And the pride of Israel testifieth to his face: and they do not return to the Lord their God, nor seek him for all this.

11 ¶ Ephraim also is like a silly dove without heart: they call to Egypt, they go to Assyria.

12 When they shall go, I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; I will chastise them, as their congregation hath loved.

13 Woe unto them! for they have fled from me: destruction unto them! because they have transgressed against me: though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against me.

14 And they have not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds: they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.

15 Though I have bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me.

16 They return, but not to the most High: they are like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue: this shall be their derision in the land of Egypt.

CHAPTER 8

Destruction is threatened for iniquity and idolatry
SET the trumpet to thy mouth. He shall come as an eagle against the house of the Lord, because they have transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my law.

2 Israel shall cry unto me, My God, we know thee.

3 Israel hath cast off the thing that is good: the enemy shall pursue him.

4 They have set up kings, but not by me: they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they made idols, that they may be cut off.

Isaiah

5 ¶ Thy calf, O Samaria, hath cast thee off; mine anger is kindled against them: how long will it be ere they attain to innocency?

6 For from Israel was it also: the workman made it; therefore it is not God: but the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

7 For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no stalk: the bud shall yield no meal: if so be it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up.

8 Israel is swallowed up: now shall they be among the Gentiles as a vessel wherein is no pleasure.

9 For they are gone up to Assyria, a wild ass alone by himself, Ephraim hath hired lovers.

10 Yea, though they have lurked among the nations, now will I gather them, and they shall sorrow a little for the burden of the king of princes.

11 Because Ephraim hath made many altars to sin, altars shall be unto him to sin.

12 I have written to him the great things of my law, but they were counted as a strange thing.

13 They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine offerings, and eat it, but the Lord accepteth them not: now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins: they shall return to Egypt.

14 For Israel hath forgotten his Maker, and buildeth temples; and Judah hath multiplied fenced cities: but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the palaces thereof.

CHAPTER 9.

The distress and captivity of Israel for their sins
REJOICE not, O Israel, for joy, as other people: for thou hast gone a whoring from thy God, thou hast loved a reward upon every corner.

2 The floor and the winepress shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail in her.

3 They shall not dwell in the Lord's land; but Ephraim shall return to Egypt, and they shall eat unclean things in Assyria.

4 They shall not offer wine offerings to the Lord, neither shall they be pleasing unto him: their sacrifices shall be unto them as the bread of mourners: all that eat thereof shall be polluted for then bread for their soul shall not come into the house of the Lord.

5 What will ye do in the solemn day, and in the day of the feast of the Lord?

6 For, lo, they are gone because of ¹destruction. Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them: ²the pleasant places for their silver, nettles shall possess them: thorns shall be in their tabernacles.

⁷The days of visitation are come, tho days of recompence are come; Israel shall know it: the prophet is a fool, ⁸the spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred.

⁸The watchman of Ephraim was with my God: but the prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred ⁹in the house of his God.

⁹They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of Gibeah: therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.

¹⁰I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the firstripe in the fig tree at her first time: but they went to Baal-peor, and separated themselves unto that shamo; and their abominations were according as they loved.

¹¹As for Ephraim, their glory shall fly away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception.

¹²Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them, that there shall not be a man left. yea, woe also to them when I depart from them!

¹³Ephraim, as I saw Tyrus, is planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shall bring forth his children to the murderer.

¹⁴Give them, O Lord: what wilt thou give? give them a muscarraying womb and dry breasts.

¹⁵All their wickedness is in Gilgal: for there I hated them: for the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of mine house, I will love them no more: ¹⁶all their princes are revolvers.

¹⁶Ephraim is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit: yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even ¹⁷the beloved fruit of their womb.

¹⁷My God will cast them away, because they did not hearken unto him: and they shall be wanderers among the nations.

CHAPTER 10.

they be found faulty: he shall break down their altars, he shall spoil their images.

³For now they shall say, We have no king, because we feared not the Lord; what then should a king do to us?

⁴They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus judgment springeth up ⁵as hemlock in the furrows of the field.

⁵The inhabitants of Samaria shall fear because of the calves of Beth-aven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and ⁶the priests thereof that rejoiced on it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.

⁶It shall be also carried unto Assyria for a present to king Jareb: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel.

⁷As for Samaria, her king is cut off as the foam upon ⁸the water.

⁸The high places also of Aven, ⁹the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; ¹⁰and they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us.

⁹O Israel, thou hast sinned from the days of Gibeah: there they stood: the battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

¹⁰It is in my desire that I should chastise them; and ¹¹the people shall be gathered against thou, ¹²when they shall bind themselves in their two furrows.

¹¹And Ephraim is as ¹²an heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon ¹³her fair neck: I will make Ephraim to ride; Judah shall plow, and Jacob shall break his clods.

¹²Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; ¹³break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the Lord, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

¹³Ye have plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men.

¹⁴Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, and all thy fortresses shall be spoiled, as Shalman spoiled Beth-arbel in the day of battle: the mother was dashed in pieces upon her children.

¹⁵So shall Beth-el do unto you because of ¹⁶your great wickedness: in a morning shall the king of Israel utterly be cut off.

CHAPTER 11.

The ingratitude of Israel unto God for his benefits.

WHEN Israel was a child, then I loved him, and ^acalled my ^bson out of Egypt.

² As they called them, so they went from them: they sacrificed unto Baalim, and burned incense to graven images.

³ I taught Ephraim also to go, taking them by their arms; but they knew not that ^cI healed them.

⁴ I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love, and ^dI was to them as they that ^etake off the yoke on their jaws, and ^fI had meat unto them.

⁵ ¶ He shall not return into the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian shall be his king, because they refused to return.

⁶ And the sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, because of their own counsels.

⁷ And my people are bent to ^gbacksliding from me: though they called them to the most High, ^hnone at all would exalt him.

⁸ How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as ⁱAdmah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? ^jmine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

⁹ I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return to destroy Ephraim: ^kfor I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of thee: and I will not enter into the city.

¹⁰ They shall walk after the LORD: ^lhe shall roar like a lion: when he shall roar, then the children shall tremble from the west.

¹¹ They shall tremble as a bird out of Egypt, ^mand as a dove out of the land of Assyria: ⁿand I will place them in their houses, saith the LORD.

¹² Ephraim compasseth me about with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit: but Judah yet saith with God, and is faithful with the saints.

CHAPTER 12.

A reproof of Ephraim, Judah, and Jacob.

EPHRAIM feedeth on wind, and followeth after the east wind: he daily increaseth lies and desolation; ^aand they do make a covenant with the Assyrians, and ^boil is carried into Egypt.

² The LORD hath also a controversy with Judah, and will ^cpunish Jacob according to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him.

⁴ Yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed: he wept, and made supplication unto him: he found him in Beth-el, and there he spake with us;

⁶ Therefore turn thou to thy God: keep mercy and judgment, and wait on thy God continually.

⁷ ¶ He is ^aa merchant, ^bthe balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to oppress.

⁸ And Ephraim said, ^cYet I am become rich, I have found me out substance: ^din all my labours they shall find none iniquity in me: ^ethat were sin.

⁹ And I ^fthat am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt ^gwill yet make thee to dwell in tabernacles, as in the days of the solemn feast.

¹⁰ I have also spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions, and used similitudes, ^hby the ministry of the prophets.

¹¹ Is there iniquity in Gilgal? surely they are vanity: they sacrifice bullocks in Gilgal; yea, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields.

¹² And Jacob fled into the country of Syria, and Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep.

¹³ And by a prophet the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt; and by a prophet was he preserved.

¹ Ephraim's glory vaniseth: ² God's anger for their unkindness. ³ A promise of God's mercy.

WHEN Ephraim spake trembling, he exalted himself in Israel; but when he offended in Baal, he died.

² And now ^athey sin more and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let ^bthe men that sacrifice kiss the calves.

³ Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the early dew that passeth away, ^cas the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney.

O ISRAEL, ^areturn unto the LORD thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity.

2 Take with you words, and turn to the LORD: say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and ^areceive us graciously: so will we render the calves of our lips.

3 Asshur shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses: neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods: for in thee the fatherless findeth mercy.

4 ¶ I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him.

5 I will be as ^atho dow unto Israel: he shall ^agrow as the lily, and ^acast forth his roots as Lebanon.

6 His branches ^ashall spread, and ^ahis beauty shall be as the olive tree, and ^ahis smell as Lebanon.

7 ^aThey that dwell under his shadow shall return; they shall revive as the corn, and ^agrow as the vine: the scent thereof ^ashall be as the wine of Lebanon.

8 Ephraim shall say, What have I to do any more with idols? I have heard him, and observed him: I am like a green fir tree. From me is thy fruit found.

9 Who is wise, and he shall understand these things; prudent, and he shall know them: for ^athe ways of the LORD are right, and the just shall walk in them: but the transgressors shall fall therein.

7 They shall run like mighty men they shall climb the wall like men of war, and they shall march every one on his ways and they shall not break their ranks

9 They shall run to and fro in the city, they shall run upon the wall they shall climb up upon the house, they shall enter in at the windows like a thief

10 The earth shall quake before them, the heavens shall tremble the sun and the moon shall be dark and the stars shall withdraw their shining

11 And the LORD shall utter his voice before his army for his camp is very great for he is strong that executeth his word for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible, and who can abide it?

12 Therefore also now, saith the LORD, turn ye even to me with all your heart and with fasting and with weeping, and with mourning

13 And rend your heart, and not your garments and turn unto the LORD your God for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?

18 ¶ Then will the LORD be jealous for his land, and pity his people

19 Yea, the LORD will answer and say unto his people, Behold, I will send you corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith: and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen:

20 But I will remove far off from you the northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face toward the east sea, and his hinder part toward the utmost sea, and his stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because he hath done great things.

22 Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig tree and the vine do yield their strength.

23 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month.

24 And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the fats shall overflow with wine and oil.

25 And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpillar, and the palmworm, my great army which I sent among you

26 And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed.

27 And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed.

28 ¶ And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:

29 And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.

30 And I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.

31 ¶ The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood,

CHAPTER 3.

1 God's judgments against the enemies of his people.
18 His blessing upon the church.

FOR, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem,

2 I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

3 And they have cast lots for my people; and have given a boy for an harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they might drink.

4 Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O Tyre, and Zidon, and all the coasts of Palestine? will ye render me a recompence? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I return your recompence upon your own head:

5 Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly pleasant things.

6 The children also of Judah and the children of Jerusalem have ye sold unto the Grecians, that ye might remove them far from their border.

7 Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompence upon your own head:

8 And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the Sabeans, to a people far off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

9 ¶ Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles; Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up:

10 Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruninghooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong.

11 Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about: thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O LORD.

12 Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat:

for there will I sit to "judge all the heathen round about.

13 "Put ye in the sickle, for "the harvest is ripe: come, get ye down, for the "press is full, the fats overflow; for their wickedness is great.

14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of "decision: for "the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.

15 The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining.

16 The LORD also shall roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake. "But the LORD will be the "hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel.

17 So shall ye know that I am the LORD your God dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem

19 Egypt shall be a desolation, and Edom shall be a desolate wilderness, for the violence against the children of Judah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land.

20 But Judah shall "dwell for ever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation.

21 For I will "cleanse their blood that I have not cleansed; "for the LORD dwelleth in Zion.

God's judgment upon Syria, the Philistines, &c.

THE words of Amos, who was among the herdmen of "Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of "Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the "earthquake.

2 And he said, The LORD will "roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of "Carmel shall wither.

3 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of "Damascus, "and for four, I will not "turn away the punishment thereof; because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron:

4 "But I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, which shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad.

5 I will break also the "bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from "the plain of Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from "the house of Eden: and the people of Syria shall go into captivity unto Kir, saith the LORD.

6 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of "Gaza, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they "carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up to Edom:

CHAPTER 2.

1 God's wrath against Moab 4 Judah, 8 and Israel 9 God's punishment of their transgressions

THUS saith the LORD; For three transgressions of ¹Moab, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he ²burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime.

2 But I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of ³Kirioth; and Moab shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet;

3 And I will cut off ⁴the judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have despised the law of the LORD, and have not kept his commandments, and their lies caused them to err, ⁵after the which their fathers have walked:

5 ⁶But I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.

6 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because ⁷they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of shoes;

11 And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for Nazarites. ¹⁷Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 3.

The necessity of God's judgment against Israel

HEAR this word that the LORD hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt saying,

2 You only have I known of all the families of the earth: ³therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities.

3 Can two walk together, except they be agreed?

4 Will a lion roar in the forest, when he hath no prey? will a young lion cry out of his den, if he have taken nothing?

5 Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth, where no gin is for him? shall one take up a snare from the earth, and have taken nothing at all?

6 Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people ⁷not be afraid? shall there be evil in a city, ⁸and the LORD hath not done it?

7 Surely the LORD God will do nothing, but ⁹he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.

8 The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the LORD God hath spoken, who can but prophesy?

9 ¶ Publish in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Samaria, and behold the great tumults in the midst thereof, and the ¹⁰oppressed in the midst thereof.

10 For they ¹¹know not to do right, saith the LORD, who store up violence and robbery in their palaces.

11 Therefore thus saith the LORD God: An adversary ¹²there shall be even round about the land; and he shall bring down thy strength from thee, and thy palaces shall be spoiled.

12 Thus saith the LORD; As the shepherd ¹³taketh out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; so shall the children of Israel be taken out that dwell in Samaria in the corner of a bed, and ¹⁴in Damascus in a couch.

13 Hear ye, and testify in the house of Jacob, saith the LORD God, the God of hosts.

14 That in the day that I shall visit the transgressions of Israel upon him I will also visit the altars of Beth-el: and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground.

15 And I will smite the winter house with the summer house, and the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall have an end, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 4.

1 He reproverth Israel for oppression 4 for idolatry, 6 and for their incorrigibleness

HEAR this word, ye ¹Kings of Basshan, that are in the mountain of Samaria, which oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.

2 The Lord God hath sworn by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that he will take you away with hooks, and your posterity with fishhooks.

3 And ye shall go out at the breaches, every cow at that which is before her; and ye shall cast them into the palace, saith the LORD.

4 Come to Beth-el, and transgress; at Gilgal multiply transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes after three years:

5 And offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and proclaim and publish the free offerings: for this liketh you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord God.

6 And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

7 And also I have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered.

8 So two or three cities wandered unto one city, to drink water; but they were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

9 I have smitten you with blasting and mildew: when your gardens and your vineyards and your fig trees and your olive trees increased, the palmerworm devoured them: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

10 I have sent among you the pestilence after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses; and I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your 13 For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The LORD, The God of hosts, is his name.

CHAPTER 5.

1 A lamentation 4 An exhortation to repentance

HEAR ye this word which I take up against you, even a lamentation, O house of Israel.

2 The virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up.

3 For thus saith the Lord God: The city that went out by a thousand shall leave an hundred, and that which went forth by an hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Israel.

4 For thus saith the Lord unto the house of Israel, Seek ye me, and ye shall live.

5 But seek not Beth-el, nor enter into Gilgal, and pass not to Beer-sheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Beth-el shall come to nought.

6 Seek the Lord, and ye shall live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Beth-el.

7 Ye who turn judgment to wormwood, and leave off righteousness in the earth,

8 Seek him that maketh the seven stars and Orion, and turneth the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night: that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The LORD is his name.

9 That strengtheneth the spoiled against the strong, so that the spoiled shall come against the fortress.

10 They hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they abhor him that speaketh uprightly.

11 Forasmuch therefore as your treading is upon the pool, and ye take from him burdens of wheat, ye have built houses of heavn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them.

12 For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins, ^athey afflict the just, they take ^aa bribe, and they ^aturn aside the poor in the gate from their right.

13 Therefore ^athe prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is an evil time.

14 Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live: and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, ^aas ye have spoken.

15 ^aHate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: ^ait may be that the LORD God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph.

16 Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the LORD, saith thus: Wailing ^ashall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and ^asuch as are skilful of lamentation to wailing.

17 And in all vineyards ^ashall be wailing: for ^aI will pass through thee, saith the LORD.

18 ^aWoe unto you that desire the day of the LORD! to what end is it for you? ^athe day of the LORD is darkness, and not light.

19 ^aAs if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

20 ^aShall not the day of the LORD be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?

21 ^aI hate, I despise your feast days, and ^aI will not ^asmell in your solemn assemblies.

22 ^aThough ye offer me burnt offerings, and your meat offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regard the ^apeace offerings of your fat beasts.

23 Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy viols.

24 ^aBut let judgment ^arun down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.

25 ^aHave ye offered unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel?

26 But ye have borne ^athe tabernacle ^aof your Moloch and Chim, your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves.

27 Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity ^abeyond Damascus, saith the LORD, ^awhose name is The God of hosts.

14 But, behold, ^aI will raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel, saith the LORD the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from the ^aentering in of Hamath unto the ^ariver of the wilderness.

CHAPTER 7.

1 The judgments of the reapers, 4 and of the fire are shewed by the sign of Amos. 7 By the wall of a plumbline. 10 Amos the rejection of Israel. 10 Amos the complaint of Amos. 14 Amos the sign of Amos, 16 and Amos the judgment.

THUS hath the Lord God shewed unto me, and, behold, he formed grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth, and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowing.

2 And it came to pass, that when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord God, forgive, I beseech thee, by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.

3 The Lord repented for this. It shall not be, saith the Lord.

4 Thus hath the Lord God shewed unto me; and, behold, the Lord God called to contend by fire, and it devoured the great deep, and did eat up a part.

5 Then said I, O Lord God, cease, I beseech thee: by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.

6 The Lord repented for this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord God.

7 Thus he shewed me, and, behold, the Lord stood upon a wall made by a plumbline, with a plumbline in his hand.

8 And the Lord said unto me, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumbline. Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a plumbline in the midst of my people Israel: I will not again pass by them any more.

9 And the high places of Isaac shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.

10 Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words.

11 For thus Amos saith, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of their own land.

12 Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou seer, go, flee thee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there:

13 But prophesy not again any more at Bethel: for it is the king's chapel, and it is the king's court.

14 Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was an herdsman, and a gatherer of sycamore fruit:

15 And the Lord took me as I followed the flock, and the Lord said unto me, Go, prophesy unto my people Israel.

16 Now therefore hear thou the word of the Lord. Thou sayest, Prophesy not against Israel, and "drop not thy word against the house of Isaac.

17 Therefore thus saith the Lord; Thy wife shall be an harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and thou shalt die in a polluted land: and Israel shall surely go into captivity for the sake of his land.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Israel's end. 11 A famine of the word. THUS hath the Lord God shewed unto me: and behold a basket of summer fruit.

2 And he said, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said the Lord unto me, The end is come upon my people of Israel; I will not again pass by them any more.

3 And the songs of the temple shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord God. there shall be many dead bodies in every place; they shall cast them forth with silence. 4 Hear this, O ye that swallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fail.

5 Saying, When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and the sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and falsifying the balances by deceit?

6 That we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat?

7 The Lord hath sworn by the excellency of Jacob, Surely I will never forget any of their works.

8 Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.

9 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord God, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day:

10 And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

11 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord God, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD.

12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it.

13 In that day shall the fair virgins and young men faint for thirst.

14 They that swear by the sin of Samaria, and say, Thy god, O Dan, liveth; and, The manner of Beersheba liveth; even they shall fall, and never rise up again.

CHAPTER 9.

1 The certainty of the desolation. 11 The restoring of the tabernacle of David.

I SAW the Lord standing upon the altar: and he said, Smite the lintel of the door, that the posts may shake: and cut them in the head, all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: he that fleeth of them shall not flee away, and he that escapeth of them shall not be delivered.

2 Though they dig into hell, thence shall mine hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down:

3 And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them.

4 And though they go into captivity before their enemies, thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them: and I will set mine eyes upon them for evil, and not for good.

5 And the Lord God of hosts is he that toucheth the land, and it shall melt, and all that dwell therein shall mourn: and it shall rise up wholly like a flood; and shall be drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.

8 Behold, the eyes of the Lord God are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saving that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, saith the LORD

9 For, lo, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth.

10 All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, which say, The evil shall not overtake nor prevent us.

11 In that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof; and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old.

12 That they may possess the remnant of Edom, and of all the heathen, which are called by my name, saith the LORD that doeth this.

13 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed, and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt.

14 And I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

15 And I will plant them upon their land, and they shall no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them, saith the LORD thy God.

6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, ²call upon thy God, ³if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us ⁴cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil ⁵is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.

8 Then said they unto him, ⁶Tell us, we pray thee for whose cause this evil ⁷is upon us; What ⁸is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what ⁹is thy country? and of what people ¹⁰art thou?

9 And he said unto them, I ¹¹am an Hebrew; and I fear ¹²the LORD, the God of heaven, ¹³which hath made the sea and the dry land.

10 Then were the men ¹⁴exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

11 ¶ Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea ¹⁵may be calm unto us? for the sea ¹⁶was wrought, and was tempestuous.

12 And he said unto them, ¹⁷Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest ¹⁸is upon you.

13 Nevertheless the men ¹⁹rowed hard to bring ²⁰it to the land; but they could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish, for this man's life, and ²¹lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, ²²hast done as it pleased thee.

15 So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea: ²³and the sea ²⁴ceased from her raging.

16 Then the men ²⁵feared the LORD exceedingly, and ²⁶offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made vows.

4 ⁴Then I said, I am cast out of thy sight; yet I will look again ⁵toward thy holy temple.

1 ¹Jonah, sent again, preacheth to the Ninevites.

AND the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying, 2 Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.

3 So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an ⁴exceeding great city of three days' journey.

4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and ⁵he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.

5 ¶ So the people of Nineveh ⁶believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

6 For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered ⁷him with sackcloth, ⁸and sat in ashes.

7 ⁹And he caused ¹⁰it to be proclaimed and ¹¹published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his ¹²nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water:

8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, ¹³let them turn every one from his evil way, and from ^athe violence that is in their hands.

9 ^aWho can tell ^y God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

10 ¶ ^aAnd God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

CHAPTER 4.

BUT it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry.

2 And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, ^awas not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I ^afled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a ^agracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.

1 Against oppression. 12 A promise of restoration. WOE to them that devise iniquity, and work evil upon their beds: when the morning is light, they practise it, because it is in the power of their hand.

2 And they covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away: so they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.

3 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, against this family do I devise an evil, from which ye shall not remove your necks; neither shall ye go haughtily: for this time is evil.

4 In that day shall one take up a parable against you, and lament with a doleful lamentation, and say, We be utterly spoiled: he hath changed the portion of my people; how hath he removed it from me! turning away he hath divided our fields.

5 Therefore thou shalt have none that shall cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD.

6 Prophesy ye not, say they to them that prophesy. they shall not prophesy to them, that they shall not take shame.

7 O thou that art named the house of Jacob, is the spirit of the LORD straitened? are these his doings? do not my words do good to him that walketh uprightly?

8 Even of late my people is risen up as an enemy: ye pull off the robe with the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from war.

9 The women of my people have ye east out from their pleasant houses; from their children have ye taken away my glory for ever.

10 Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your rest: because it is polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a sore destruction.

11 If a man walking in the spirit and falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto thee of wine and of strong drink; he shall even be the prophet of this people.

12 I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee; I will surely gather the remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah, as the flock in the midst of their fold: they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men.

13 The breaker is come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it: and their king shall pass before them, and the LORD on the head of them.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Cruelty of the princes. 5 Of the false prophets. AND I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob, and ye princes of the house of Israel; Is it not for you to know judgment?

2 Who hate the good, and love the evil; who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones;

3 Who also eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them; and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron.

4 Then shall they cry unto the LORD, but he will not hear them: he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

5 Thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that make my people err, that bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace; and he that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him.

6 Therefore night shall be unto you, that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them.

7 Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded: yea, they shall all cover their lips; for there is no answer of God.

8 But truly I am full of power by the spirit of the LORD, and of judgment, and of might, to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.

9 Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, that abhor judgment, and pervert all equity.

10 ^aThey build up Zion with ^ablood,¹ and Jerusalem with might.

11 ^aThe heads thereof judge for reward and ^athe priests thereof teach for hire and the prophets thereof divine for money ^ayet will they lean upon the LORD, ^aand say, Is not the LORD among us? none evil can come upon us.

12 Therefore shall Zion for your sake be ^aplowed as a field ^aand Jerusalem shall become heaps and ^athe mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

CHAPTER 4

The glory, peace, and victory of the church.

BUT ^ain the last days it shall come to pass, ^athat the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills, and people shall flow unto it.

2 And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob, and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

3 ^aAnd he shall judge among many people, and he rebuke strong nations afar off: and they shall beat their swords into ^aplowshares and their spears into ^apruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war anymore.

4 But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree, and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.

5 For ^aall people will walk every one in the name of his god, and ^awe will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

6 In that day, saith the LORD, ^aI will assemble her that hatheth, ^aand I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted, 7 And I will make her that halted ^aa remnant, and her that was cast far off ^aa strong nation, and the LORD ^ashall reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth even for ever.

8 ^aAnd thou O tower of ^athe flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come even the first dominion, the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem.

9 No ^awhy dost thou cry out aloud? ^ais there no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for ^aprinces have taken thee as a woman in travail.

forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail: for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Babylon, there shalt thou be delivered, there the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.

11 ^aNow also many nations are gathered against thee, that say: Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zion.

12 But they know not ^athe thoughts of the LORD: neither understand they his counsel: for he shall gather them ^aas the sheaves into the floor.

13 ^aArise and thresh O daughter of Zion: for I will make thee horn of iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass, and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: ^aand I will consecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto ^athe Lord of the whole earth.

CHAPTER 5

1 The birth of Christ. 4 The kingdom. 8 His conquest.

NOW gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us, they shall smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.

2 But thou, Beth lehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto us, that is to be ruler in Israel, ^awhose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting.

3 Therefore will he give them up until the time that ^ashe which travaileth hath brought forth: then the remnant of his brethren shall return unto the children of Israel.

4 ^aAnd he shall stand and ^afeed ^ain the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God, and they shall abide for now: ^ashall he be great unto the ends of the earth.

5 And this man ^ashall be the peace when the Assyrian shall come into our land, and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we rise against him seven shepherds, and eight ^aprincipal men.

6 And they shall waste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod ^ain the entrances thereof: thus shall he deliver us from the Assyrian, when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our borders.

7 And ^athe remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many people, as a dew from the LORD, as the showers upon the grass, that tarmeth not for man, nor waiteth for the sons of men.

8 ¶ And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst of many people as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of ³sheep: who, if he go through, both treadeth down, and tear-eth in pieces, and none can deliver.

9 Thine hand shall be lifted up upon thine adversaries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots;

11 And I will cut off the cities of thy land, and throw down all thy strong holds:

12 And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thine hand; and thou shalt have no more ³soothsayers.

13 Thy graven images also will I cut off, and thy ³standing images out of the midst of thee; and thou shalt ³no more worship the work of thine hands.

14 And I will pluck up thy groves out of the midst of thee: so will I destroy thy ³cities.

15 And I will ³execute vengeance in anger and fury upon the heathen, such as they have not heard.

1 God's controversy for unkindness, 6 for ignorance, 10 for injustice, 16 and for idolatry

HEAR ye now what the LORD saith; Arise, contend thou ¹before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice.

2 ¶ Hear ye, O mountains, ⁴the LORD's controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for ⁴the LORD hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel.

3 O my people, ⁴what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me.

4 ¶ For I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of servants; and I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

5 O my people, remember now what ²Balak king of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from ²Sittim unto Gilgal; that ye may know ⁴the righteousness of the LORD.

6 ¶ Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves ⁴of a year old?

7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of ⁴ivers of oil? ⁴shall I give my first-

CHAPTER 7.

1 The church, complaining of her small number, 2 and the general corruption, 5 putteth her confidence in God 8 She triumpheth over her enemies.

WOE is me! for I am as ⁴when they have gathered the summer fruits, as ⁴the grape gleanings of the vintage: ⁴there is no cluster to eat:

2 The ³good ³man is perished out of the earth; and ⁴there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; ⁴they hunt every man his brother with a net.

3 ¶ That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the prince asketh, and the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man, he uttereth ⁴this mischievous desire: so they wrap it up.

4 The best of them ⁴is as a brier: the most upright ⁴is sharper than a thorn hedge: the day of thy watch-and thy visitation cometh; now shall be their perplexity.

¶ Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide: keep the doors of thy mouth from her that hath in thy bosom.

6 For ^{the} son dishonoureth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter in law against her mother in law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house.

7 Therefore I will look unto the LORD; I will wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me.

8 ¶ Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy: when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the LORD shall be a light unto me.

9 I will bear the indignation of the LORD, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgement for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness.

10 ¶ Then she that is mine enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her which said unto me, "Where is the LORD thy God? mine eyes shall behold her: now shall she be trodden down as the mire of the streets."

11 In the day that thy walls are to be built, in that day shall the decree be far removed.

16 ¶ The Nations "shall see and be confounded at all their might: they shall lay their hand upon their mouth, their ears shall be deaf."

17 They shall be like the "dust like a serpent, they shall move out of their holes like worms of the earth: they shall be afraid of the LORD our God, and shall fear because of thee."

18 ¶ Who is a God like unto thee, that "pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy."

19 He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

CHAPTER I.

The majesty of God in goodness to his people, and severity against his enemies.

THE burden of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite

2 God is jealous, and the LORD revengeth; the LORD revengeth, and is furious; the LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.

3 The LORD is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: the LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

4 He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: Bashan languisheth, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languisheth.

at his presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein.

6 Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

7 The LORD is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him.

8 But with an overrunning flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies.

9 What do ye imagine against the LORD? he will make an utter end: affliction shall not rise up the second time.

10 For while they be folded together "as thorns," and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

11 There is one come out of thee, that imagineth evil against the LORD,

a wicked counsellor.

12 Thus saith the LORD; ³Though they be quiet, and likewise many, yet thus shall they be cut down, when he shall pass through. Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more.

13 For now will I break his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder.

14 And the LORD hath given a commandment concerning thee, that no more of thy name be sown: out of the house of thy rulers will I cut off the graven image and the molten image I will make thy grave; for thou art vile.

15 Behold upon the mountains the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace! O Judah, keep thy solemn feasts, perform thy vows, for the wicked shall no more pass through thee; he is utterly cut off.

CHAPTER 2

The fearful and victorious armies of God against Nineveh

HE ¹that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: keep the munition, watch the way, make thy lions strong, fortify thy power mightily.

2 For the LORD hath turned away ¹the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel: for the emptiers have emptied them out, and marred their vine branches.

3 The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are ⁴in scarlet: the chariots shall be with ⁴flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the fir trees shall be terribly shaken.

4 The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall jostle one against another in the broad ways, ⁵they shall seem like torches, they shall run like the lightnings.

5 He shall recount his ⁶worthies: they shall stumble in their walk; they shall make haste to the wall thereof, and the ⁷defence shall be prepared.

6 The gates of the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be ⁸dissolved.

7 And ⁹Huzzah shall be led away captive, she shall be brought up, and her maids shall lead her as with the voice of doves, taberning upon their breasts.

8 But Nineveh is ⁴of old like a pool of water: yet they shall flee away. Stand, stand, shall they cry, but none shall look back.

10 She is empty, and void, and waste: and the heart melteth, and the knees smite together, and much pain is in all loins, and the faces of them all gather blackness.

11 Where is the dwelling of the lions, and the feedingplace of the young lions, where the lion, even the old lion, walked, and the lion's whelp, and none made them afraid?

12 The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his holes with prey, and his dens with ravin.

13 Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy young lions: and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and the voice of thy messengers shall no more be heard.

CHAPTER 3.

The miserable ruin of Nineveh

WOE to the bloody city! it is all full of lies and robbery; the prey departeth not;

2 The noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of the prancing horses, and of the jumping chariots.

3 The horseman lifteth up both ²the bright sword and the glittering spear; and there is a multitude of slain, and a great number of carcases; and there is none end of their corpses; they stumble upon their corpses.

4 Because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the wellfavoured harlot, the mistress of witchcrafts, that selleth nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts.

5 Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts; and I will discover thy skirts upon thy face, and I will shew the nations thy nakedness, and the kingdoms thy shame.

6 And I will cast abominable filth upon thee, and make thee vile, and will set thee as ⁷a gazingstock.

7 And it shall come to pass, that all they that look upon thee shall flee from thee, and say, Nineveh is laid waste: who will bemoan her? whence shall I seek comforters for thee?

8 Art thou better than ²³populous? No, that was situate among the rivers, that had the waters round about it, whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was from the sea?

9 Ethiopia and Egypt were her strength, and it was infinite; but and Lubim were ⁶thy helpers.

10 Yet was she carried away, she went into captivity: ¹her young children also were dashed in pieces ²at the top of all the streets, and they ³cast lots for her honourable men, and all her great men were bound in chains.

11 Thou also shalt be ¹drunken, thou shalt be hid, thou also shalt seek strength because of the enemy.

12 All thy strong holds shall be like ¹fig trees with the ²figs: if they be shaken, they shall even fall into the mouth of the eater.

13 Behold, ¹thy people in the midst of thee are women: the gates of thy land ²shall be set wide open unto thine enemies: the fire shall devour thy ³mans.

14 Draw thee waters for the siege, ¹fortify thy strong holds: go into clay, and tread the mortar, make strong the brickkiln.

HABAKKUK.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Unto Habakkuk, complainant of the iniquity of the land: 5 He sheweth the fearful vengeance by the Chaldeans. 12 His complaint to God.

THE burden which Habakkuk the prophet did see.

2 O LORD, how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear? even cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save!

3 Why dost thou shew me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for spoiling and violence are before me, and there are that raise up strife and contention.

4 Therefore the law is slack, and judgment doth never go forth for the wicked: doth compass about the righteous; therefore ¹wrong judgment proceedeth.

5 ¶ Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvellously: for I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe, though it be told you.

6 For, lo, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and crafty nation, which shall march through the ¹breadth of the land, to possess the dwelling-places that are not their's.

7 They are terrible and dreadful: their judgment and their dignity shall proceed of themselves.

8 Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more ¹fierce than the evening wolves, and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far, they shall fly as the eagle that hatheth to eat.

9 They shall come all for violence: their faces shall sup up as the east wind, and they shall gather the captivity as the sand.

10 And they shall scoff at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them: they shall deride every strong hold, for they shall heap dust, and take it.

11 Then shall his mind change, and he shall pass over, and offend, ¹imputing this his power unto his god.

12 ¶ Art thou not from everlasting, O LORD my God, mine Holy One? we shall not die. O LORD, thou hast ordained them for judgment, and, O ¹mighty God, thou hast ²established them for correction.

13 Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on ¹iniquity: wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he?

14 And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the ¹creeping things, that have no ruler over them?

15 They take up all of them with the angle, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their ¹drag: therefore they rejoice and are glad.

16 Therefore ²they sacrifice unto their net, and burn incense unto their drag; because by meat ³their portion is fat, and their meat ⁴plenteous.

17 Shall they therefore empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations?

CHAPTER 2.

1 Unto Habakkuk is shewed that he must wait by faith. 5 The judgment upon the Chaldean for uncharitableness, 9 for covetousness, 12 for cruelty, 13 for drunkenness, 13 and for idolatry

I WILL ¹stand upon my watch, and I set me upon the ²tower, and will watch to see what he will say ³unto me, and what I shall answer ⁴when I am reproved.

2 And the LORD answered me, and said, ⁵Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.

3 For ⁶the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will ⁷surely come, it will not tarry.

4 Behold, his soul ⁸which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the ⁹just shall live by his faith.

5 ¹⁰Yea also, because he transgresseth by wine, ¹¹he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people:

6 Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, ¹²Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and to him that ladeth himself with thick clay!

7 Shall they not rise up suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them?

8 ¹³Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee; because of men's ¹⁴blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

9 ¹⁵Woe to him that ¹⁶coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may ¹⁷set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the ¹⁸power of evil!

10 Thou hast consulted shame to thy house by cutting off many people, and hast sinned against thy soul.

11 For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the ¹⁹beam out of the timber shall ²⁰answer it.

13 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves ⁴for very vanity?

14 For the earth shall be filled ⁵with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

15 ⁶Woe unto him that giveth his neighbour drink, that putteth thy ⁷bottle to him, and makest him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness!

18 Thou art filled ⁸with shame for glory: drink thou also, and let thy forehead be uncovered: the cup of the LORD's right hand shall be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shall be on thy glory.

17 For the violence of Lebanon shall cover thee, and the spoil of beasts, which made them afraid, because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

18 ⁹What profiteth the graven image that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a teacher of lies, that ¹⁰the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make dumb idols?

19 Woe unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.

20 But the LORD is in his holy temple: let all the earth keep silence before him.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Habakkuk in his prayer from birth at God's majesty.

17 The confidence of his faith

PRAYER of Habakkuk the prophet upon Shigionoth

2 O LORD, I have heard ²thy speech, and was afraid: O LORD, revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy.

3 God came from Teman, and the Holy One from mount Paran. Selah. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise.

4 And his brightness was as the light; he had ³horns coming out of his land; and there was the hiding of his power.

5 Before him went the pestilence, and burning coals went forth at his feet.

6 He stood, and measured the earth; he beheld, and drove asunder the nations; ⁴and the everlasting mountains were scattered, the perpetual hills did bow: his ways are everlasting

7 I saw the tents of ¹Oushan ²in affliction: and the curtains of the land of Midian did tremble

8 Was the LORD displeased against the rivers? was thine anger against the rivers? was thy wrath against the sea, that thou didst ride upon thine horses and ³thy chariots of salvation?

9 Thy bow was made quite naked, according to the oaths of the tribes even thy word. Selah. ⁴Thou didst cleave the earth with rivers.

10 The mountains saw thee, and they trembled: the overflowing of the water passed by: the deep uttered his voice, and ⁵lifted up his hands on high.

11 The sun and moon stood still in their habitation: ⁶at the light of thine arrows they went, and at the shining of thy glittering spear.

12 Thou didst march through the land in indignation, thou didst thresh the heathen in anger.

13 Thou ventest forth for the salvation of thy people, even for salvation with thine anointed; thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked, ⁷by discovering the foundation unto the neck. Selah.

8 ¶ I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the revilings of the children of Ammon, whereby they have reproached my people, and ²magnified themselves against their border.

11 The LORD will be terrible unto them: for he will ²famish all the gods of the earth; ³and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen.

1 A sharp reproof of Jerusalem for sins ²an exhortation to wait for the restoration of Israel, 14 and to rejoice for their salvation

WOE to ²her that is filthy and polluted, to the oppressing city ³

2 She ²obeyed not the voice; she ³received not ⁴correction; she trusted not in the LORD; she drew not near to her God.

3 Her princes within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves; they gnaw not the bones till the morrow.

4 Her prophets are light and treacherous persons: her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law.

5 The just LORD is in the midst thereof: he will not do iniquity: ²every morning doth he bring his judgment to light, he faileth not; but the unjust knoweth no shame

8 I have cut off the nations, their towers are desolate; I made their streets waste, that none passeth by their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, that there is none inhabitant

9 I said, Surely thou wilt fear me, thou wilt receive instruction, so then dwelling should not be cut off, howsoever I punished them but they rose early, and corrupted all their doings

10 Therefore wait ye upon me, saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger for all the earth shall be devoted with the fire of my jealousy

11 For then will I turn to the people a pure language, that they may all call upon the name of the LORD, to serve him with one consent

12 From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia, my supplicants, even the daughter of my despondency, shall bring mine offering

13 In that day shalt thou not be ashamed for all thy doings, wherein thou hast transgressed against me for then I will take away out of the midst of thee them that rejoice in thy pride, and thou shalt no more be haughty because of my holy mountain

14 I will also leave in the midst of thee an afflicted and poor people, and they shall trust in the name of the LORD

15 The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth for they shall feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid

16 Sing, O daughter of Zion; shout, O Israel, be glad and rejoice with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem

17 The LORD hath taken away thy judgments, he hath cast out thine enemy the king of Israel, even the LORD, in the midst of thee thou shalt not see evil any more

18 In that day it shall be said to Jerusalem, Fear thou not and to Zion, Let not thine hands be slack

19 The LORD thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy, he will rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing

20 I will gather them that are sorrowful for the solemn assembly, who are of thee, to whom the reproach of it was a burden

21 Behold, at that time I will undo all that afflict thee and I will save her that halteth, and gather her that was driven out, and I will get them praise and fame in every land where they have been put to shame

22 At that time will I bring you again even in the time that I gather you for I will make you a name and a praise among all people of the earth, when I turn back your captivity be fore your eyes, saith the LORD

11 And I called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and upon all the labour of the hands.

12 ¶ Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him, and the people did fear before the LORD.

13 Then spake Haggai the LORD's messenger in the LORD's message unto the people, saying, "I am with you, saith the LORD.

14 And "the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, "governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; "and they came and did work in the house of the LORD of hosts, their God.

ZECHARIAH

CHAPTER 1

1 Zechariah rebuketh to repentance 7 Vision of the horses 12 Comfortable promises to Jerusalem 18 Vision of the four horns and the four carpenters

IN the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the Lord unto Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying,

2 The Lord hath been sore displeased with your fathers.

3 Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord of hosts; Turn ye unto me, saith the Lord of hosts, and I will turn unto you, saith the Lord of hosts.

4 Be ye not as your fathers, unto whom the former prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings, but they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the Lord.

5 Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever?

6 But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not take hold of your fathers? and they returned and said, Like as the Lord of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

7 Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sebat, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the Lord unto Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying,

8 I saw by night, and behold, a man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in the bottom, and behind him were there red horses, speckled, and white.

9 Then said I, O my lord, what are these? And the angel that talked with me said unto me, I will shew thee what these be.

10 And the man that stood among the myrtle trees answered and said,

These are they whom the Lord hath sent to walk to and fro through the earth.

11 And they answered the angel of the Lord that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and behold, all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest.

12 Then the angel of the Lord answered and said, O Lord of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these threescore and ten years?

13 And the Lord answered the angel that talked with me with good words, and comfortable words.

14 So the angel that communed with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts; I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy.

15 And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.

16 Therefore thus saith the Lord; I am returned to Jerusalem with mercies, my house shall be built in it, saith the Lord of hosts, and a line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem.

17 Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts; My cities through prosperity shall yet be spread abroad, and the Lord shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet choose Jerusalem.

18 Then lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, and behold four horns.

19 And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What be these? And he answered me, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.

20 And the Lord shewed me four carpenters.

21 Then said I, What come these to do? And he spake, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head:

but these are come to fray them, to cast out the horns of the Gentiles, which ¹lifted up their horn over the land of Judah to scatter it.

¹ By the golden candlestick is foretold the good success of Zerubbabel's foundation. ² By the two olive trees the two anointed ones.

AND ¹the angel that talked with me came again, and walked me, ²as a man that is wakened out of his sleep, ⁴ So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What ⁵are these, my lord?

5 Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

6 Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Who art thou, O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth the headstone thereof with shoutings, saying, Grace, grace unto it.

8 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also finish it; and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you.

10 For who hath despised the day of small things? for they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven; they are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole earth.

11 ¶ Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these? two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof?

12 And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive branches which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves?

3 And in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot grised and bay horses.

4 Then I answered and said unto the angel that talked with me, What are these, my lord?

5 And the angel answered and said unto me, These are the four spirits of the heavens, which go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth.

6 The black horses which are therein go forth into the north country; and the white go forth after them; and the grised go forth toward the south country.

7 And the bay went forth, and sought to go that they might walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get

"and seventh month, ^{even} those seventy years, did ye at all fast ^{unto} me, ^{even} to me?

6 And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, ^{did} not ye eat ^{for} yourselves, and drink ^{for} yourselves?

7 ^{Should} ye not hear the words which the LORD hath cried ^{by} the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, when men inhabited ^{the} south and the plain?

8 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah, saying,

9 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, ^I Execute ^{true} judgment, and shew mercy and compassions every man to his brother:

10 And ^{oppress} not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; ^{and} let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.

11 But they refused to hearken, and ^{pulled} away the shoulder, and ^{stopped} their ears, that they should not hear.

12 Yea, they made their ^{hearts} as an adamant stone, ^{lest} they should hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts hath sent in his spirit ^{by} the former prophets: ^{therefore} came a great wrath from the LORD of hosts.

13 Therefore it is come to pass, that as he cried, and they would not hear; so ^{they} cried, and I would not hear, saith the LORD of hosts:

14 But ^I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they knew not. Thus the land was desolate after them, that no man passed through nor returned: for they laid ^{the} pleasant land desolate.

CHAPTER 8.

1 The restoration of Jerusalem. 9 They are encouraged to build by God's favour 16 Good works enjoined 18 Joy and enlargement are promised.

AGAIN the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^I was jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury.

3 Thus saith the LORD; I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: ^{and} Jerusalem shall be called a city of truth; and ^{the} mountain of the LORD of hosts ^{the} holy mountain.

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^{There} shall yet old men and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand ^{for} very age.

5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof

6 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, If it be marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, should it also be marvellous in mine eyes? saith the LORD of hosts

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country

8 And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem, and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words, by the mouth of the prophets, which were in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built

10 For before these days there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast, neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the affliction for I set all men every one against his neighbour

11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts

12 ¶ For the seed shall be prosperous, the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew, and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things

13 And it shall come to pass that as ye were a curse among the heathen O house of Judah, and house of Israel, so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing fear not, but let your hands be strong

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, and I repented not

15 So again have I thought in these days to do well unto Jerusalem and to the house of Judah fear ye not

16 ¶ These are the things that we shall do; Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour, execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates

17 And let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour, and love no false oath for all these are things that I hate, saith the LORD

18 ¶ And the word of the LORD of hosts came unto me, saying,

20 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; It shall yet come to pass, that there shall come people, and the inhabitants of many cities

21 And the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go speedily to pray before the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts; I will go also

22 Yea, many people and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before the LORD

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you for we have heard that God is with you

CHAPTER 9

1 God asunder his church 2 Zion is exalted to rejoice for the coming of Christ and his peaceable kingdom 12 God's promises of victory and defence

THE burden of the word of the LORD in the land of Hadrach, and Damascus shall be the rest thereof when the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Israel, shall be toward the LORD

2 And Hamath also shall border thereby, Tyrus, and Sidon, though it be very wise

3 And Tyrus did build herself a strong hold, and heaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets

4 Behold, the LORD will cast her out, and he will smite her power in the sea, and she shall be devoured with fire

5 Ashkelon shall see it, and fear; Gaza also shall see it, and be very sorrowful, and Ekron; for her expectation shall be ashamed; and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited

6 And a bastard shall dwell in the Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines

7 And I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his rhommations from between his teeth, but he that remaineth, even he, shall be for our God, and he shall be as a governor in Judah, and Ekron as a Jebusite

8 And I will encamp about mine house because of the army, because of him that passeth by, and because of him that returneth: and no oppressor shall pass through them any more: for now have I seen with mine eyes.

9 ¶ Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem. behold, thy King cometh unto thee: he is just, and having salvation, lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

10 And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem, and the battle bow shall be cut off. and he shall speak peace unto the heathen: and his dominion shall be from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth.

11 As for thee also, ^{hy} the blood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.

12 ¶ Turn you to the strong hold, ye prisoners of hope: even day do I declare that I will render double unto thee;

13 When I have bent Judah for me, filled the bow with Ephraim, and raised up thy sons, O Zion, against thy sons, O Greece, and made thee as the sword of a mighty man.

14 And the LORD shall be seen over them, and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the LORD GOD shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with whirlwinds of the south.

15 The LORD of hosts shall defend them; and they shall devour, and subdue with sling stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine; and they shall be filled like bowls, and as the corners of the altar.

16 And the LORD their God shall save them in that day as the flock of his people: for they shall be as the stones of a crown, lifted up as an ensign upon his land.

17 For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty! corn shall make the young men cheerful, and new wine the maids.

CHAPTER 10.

1 God is to be sought unto. 5 As he visited his flock for sin, so he will save and restore them.

ASK ye of the LORD rain in the time of the latter rain; so the LORD shall make bright clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field.

2 For the idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreams; they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they were troubled, because there was no shepherd.

the shepherds, and I punished the goats: for the LORD of hosts hath visited his flock the house of Judah, and hath made them as his goodly horse in the battle.

4 Out of him came forth the corner, out of him the nail, out of him the battle bow, out of him every oppressor together.

5 ¶ And they shall be as mighty men, which tread down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle: and they shall fight, because the LORD is with them, and the riders on horses shall be confounded.

6 And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and I will bring them again to place them; for I have mercy upon them: and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for I am the LORD their God, and will hear them.

7 And they of Ephraim shall be like a mighty man, and their heart shall rejoice as through wine; yea, their children shall see it, and be glad; their heart shall rejoice in the LORD.

8 I will hush for them, and gather them; for I have redeemed them: and they shall increase as they have increased.

9 And I will sow them among the people; and they shall remember me in far countries; and they shall live with their children, and turn again.

10 I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria; and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon; and place shall not be found for them.

11 And he shall pass through the sea with affliction, and shall smite the waves in the sea, and all the deeps of the river shall dry up: and the pride of Assyria shall be brought down, and the sceptre of Egypt shall depart away.

12 And I will strengthen them in the LORD; and they shall walk up and down in his name, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 11.

1 The destruction of Jerusalem. 10 The slaves of Beauty and David broken by the rejection of Christ. 15 The type and curse of a foolish shepherd.

OPEN thy doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour thy cedars.

2 Howl, fir tree; for the cedar is fallen; because the mighty are spoiled: howl, O ye oaks of Bashan; for the forest of the vintage is come down.

3 ¶ There is a voice of the howling of the shepherds; for their glory is spoiled: a voice of the roaring of young lions; for the pride of Jordan is spoiled.

4 Thus saith the LORD my God, Feed the flock unto the slaughter;

5 Whose possessors slay them, and hold themselves not guilty; and they that sell them say, Blessed be the LORD; for I am rich: and then own shepherds pity them not.

6 For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: but, lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king: and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.

7 And I will feed the flock of slaughter, even you, O pour out the flock. And I took unto me two staves; the one I called Beauty and the other I called Bands; and I fed the flock.

8 Three shepherds also I cut off in one month, and my soul loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me.

9 Then said I, I will not feed you that that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat every one the flesh of another.

10 And I took my staff, even Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people.

11 And it was broken in that day, and so the poor of the flock that waited upon me knew that it was the word of the LORD.

12 And I said unto them, If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, forbear. So they weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver.

13 And the LORD said unto me, Cast it unto the potter, a goodly price that I was priced at of them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD.

14 Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

15 And the LORD said unto me, Take unto thee yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd.

16 For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, which shall not visit those that be cut off, neither shall seek the young one nor heal that that is broken, nor feed that that standeth still: but he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and tear their claws in pieces.

17 Woe to the idol shepherd that leaveth the flock! the sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Jerusalem a cup of trembling to herself 3 and a burdensome stone to her adversaries 6 Victorious restoring of Judah 8 Repentance of Jerusalem

THE burden of the word of the LORD for Israel, saith the LORD, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him.

2 Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem.

3 And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

4 In that day, saith the LORD, I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness: and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.

5 And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.

6 In that day will I make the governors of Judah like an hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shall devour all the people round about, on the right hand and on the left: and Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Jerusalem.

7 The LORD also shall save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem do not magnify themselves against Judah.

8 In that day shall the LORD defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and he that is feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as God, as the angel of the LORD before them.

9 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

10 And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look up on me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn.

11 In that day shall there be a great mourning in Jerusalem, as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon.

12 And the land shall mourn, every family apart; and the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart;

13 The family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of Shimei apart, and their wives apart;

14 All the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

CHAPTER 13.

1 The fountain of purgation for Jerusalem, 2 from idolatry, and false prophecy 7 The death of Christ, and the trial of a third part

IN that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and for uncleanness.

2 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered: and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land.

3 And it shall come to pass, that when any shall yet prophesy, then his father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the name of the LORD: and his father and his mother that begat him shall thrust him through when he prophesieth.

4 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied: neither shall they wear a rough garment to deceive: 5 But he shall say, I am no prophet, I am an husbandman; for man taught me to keep cattle from my youth.

6 And one shall say unto him, What are these wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.

7 ¶ Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the LORD of hosts: smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered: and I will turn mine hand upon the little ones.

8 And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith the LORD, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left therein.

9 And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call

CHAPTER 14.

1 The destruction of Jerusalem destroyed, 4 The coming of Christ, and the plague of his kingdom, 12 The plague of Jerusalem's enemies 16 The remnant shall turn to the Lord, 20 and their spoils shall be holy BEHOLD, the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.

2 For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

3 Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.

4 ¶ And his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

5 And ye shall flee to the valley of the mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azai: yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. And the LORD my God shall come, and all the saints with thee.

6 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the light shall not be clear, nor dark:

7 But it shall be one day which shall be known to the LORD, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that at evening time it shall be light.

8 And it shall be in that day, that living waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.

9 And the LORD shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one LORD, and his name one.

10 All the land shall be turned as a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem: and it shall be lifted up, and inhabited in her place, from Benjamin's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananeel unto the king's winepresses.

11 And men shall dwell in it, and there shall be no more utter destruction; "but Jerusalem shall be safely inhabited.

12 ¶ And this shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people that have fought against Jerusalem; Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great tumult from the LORD shall be among them; and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour.

14 And Judah also shall fight with Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance.

15 And as shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in these tents, as this plague.

16 ¶ And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles.

17 And it shall be, that whoso will not come up of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, even upon them shall be no rain.

18 And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, that hath no rain there shall be the plague, wherewith the LORD will smite the heathen that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

19 This shall be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all nations that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

20 ¶ In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD; and the pots in the LORD's house shall be like the bowls before the altar.

21 Yea, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holiness unto the LORD of hosts; and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and see the therein: and in that day there shall be no more the Canaanite in the house of the LORD of hosts.

MALACHI.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Malachi complaineth of Israel's unkindness 6 Of their irreverence 12 and of their sins

THE burden of the word of the LORD to Israel by Malachi.

2 ¶ I have loved you, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? Was not Esau Jacob's brother? saith the LORD: yet I loved Jacob.

3 And I hated Esau, and laid his mountains, and his heritage waste for the dragons of the wilderness.

4 Whereas Edom saith, We are unpoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places; thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the LORD hath indignation for ever.

5 And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, The LORD will be magnified from the border of Israel.

6 ¶ A son honoureth his father, and a servant his master: if then I be a father, where is mine honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the LORD of hosts unto you, O priests, that despise my name. And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name?

7 Ye offer polluted bread upon mine altar; and ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? In that ye say, The table of the LORD is contemptible.

8 And if ye offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? offer it now unto thy governor; will he be pleased with thee, or accept thy person? saith the LORD of hosts.

9 And now, I pray you, beseech God that he be gracious unto us: this hath been by your means: will he regard your persons? saith the LORD of hosts.

10 Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for night? neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought. I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your hand.

11 For from the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same my name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 ¶ But ye have profaned it, in that ye say, "The table of the LORD is polluted; and the fruit thereof, even his meat, is contemptible.

13 Ye said also, Behold, what a weariness is it! and ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts; and ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering: should I accept thus of your hand? saith the LORD.

14 But cursed be the deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a corrupt thing: for I am a great King, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathen.

CHAPTER 2.

1 He sharply reproacheth the priests for neglecting their covenant, 11 and the people for idolatry, 14 for adultery, 17 and for infidelity.

AND now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you.

2 If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

3 Behold, I will corrupt your seed, and spread upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts; and one shall take you away with it.

4 And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my covenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

5 My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my name.

6 The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did turn many away from iniquity.

7 For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.

8 But ye are departed out of the way; ye have caused many to stumble at the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my laws, but have been partial in the law.

against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?

11 ¶ Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD which he loved, and hath married the daughter of a strange god.

12 The LORD will cut off the man that doeth this, the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Jacob, and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts.

13 And this have ye done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand.

14 ¶ Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.

15 And did not he make one? Yet had he the residue of the spirit, And wherefore one? That he might seek a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth.

16 For the LORD, the God of Israel, saith that he hateth putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

17 ¶ Ye have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment?

CHAPTER 3

1 Of the messenger, majesty, and grace of Christ, 7 Of the rebellion, 8 scripture, 13 and infidelity of the people 16 The promise of blessing to them that fear God

BEHOLD, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the LORD, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts.

2 But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' sope:

3 And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may ^{offer} unto the LORD an offering in righteousness.

4 Then ^{shall} the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in ^{former} years.

5 And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts.

6 For I am the LORD, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.

7 ¶ Even from the days of ^{your} fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. But ye said, Wherein shall we return?

8 ¶ Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings.

9 Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.

10 Bring ye all the tithes into ^{the} storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open ^{you} the windows of heaven, and ^{pour} you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

11 And I will rebuke ^{the} devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be ^a delight unto some land, saith the LORD of hosts.

13 ¶ ^{Your} words have been stout against me, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, What have we spoken so much against thee?

14 Ye have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that we have kept ^{his} ordinance, and that we have walked

the LORD of hosts?

15 And now we call the proud happy;

yea, they that work wickedness are set up; yea, they that tempt God are even delivered.

16 Then they that feared the LORD spake often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name.

17 And they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

18 Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth

God and him that serveth him not.

CHAPTER 4.

1 God's judgment on the wicked 2 and his blessing on the good 4 He exhorteth to the study of the law, 5 and testify of Elijah's coming and office.

FOR, behold, ^{the} day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all ^{the} proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be ^{stubble}. and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

2 ¶ But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.

3 And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 ¶ Remember ye the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for all Israel, with ^{the} statutes and judgments.

5 ¶ Behold, I will send you ^{Elijah} the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD:

6 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

CHAPTER 1.

¹ Genealogy of Christ 18 He was conceived by the Holy Ghost and born of the Virgin Mary

THE book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham

2 Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob, and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren;

3 And Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar; and Phares begat Esrom; and Esrom begat Aram;

4 And Aram begat Aminadab, and Aminadab begat Naasson; and Naasson begat Salmon;

5 And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab, and Booz begat Obed of Ruth, and Obed begat Jesse;

6 And Jesse begat David the king; and David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias;

7 And Solomon begat Roboam; and Roboam begat Abia; and Abia begat Asa;

8 And Asa begat Josaphat; and Josaphat begat Joram, and Joram begat Ozzias;

9 And Ozzias begat Joatham; and Joatham begat Achaz; and Achaz begat Ezekias;

10 And Ezekias begat Manasses; and Manasses begat Amon, and Amon begat Josias;

11 And Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon.

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat Zorobabel, 13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor;

14 And Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim, and Achim begat Eliud, 15 And Eliud begat Eleazar, and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob;

16 And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations.

18 ¶ Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother

Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost.

19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

21 And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS for he shall save his people from their sins.

22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

24 Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife.

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son, and he called his name JESUS.

CHAPTER 2.

¹ The wise men are directed to Christ by a star 14 Joseph fleeth 16 Herod slayeth the children

NOW when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem,

2 Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judaea: for thus it is written by the prophet,

6 And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

7 Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 ¶ And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

12 And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed unto their own country another way.

13 And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.

14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt:

15 And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, 'Out of Egypt have I called my son.

16 ¶ Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by ¶ Jeremy the prophet, saying, 18 In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

19 ¶ But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, 20 Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel, for they are dead which sought the young child's life.

21 And he arose, and took the young

CHAPTER 3.

1 John preacheth his office, life, and baptism. 13 He baptizeth Christ in Jordan

IN those days came ¶ John the Baptist, preaching "in the wilderness of Judaea,

2 And saying, Repent ye: for "the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

3 For thus is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, "The voice of one crying in the wilderness, "Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 And "the same John "had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was "locusts and "wild honey.

5 "Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judaea, and all the region round about Jordan, 6 "And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins.

7 ¶ But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, "O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from "the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits "meet for repentance:

9 And think not to say within yourselves, "We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

10 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: "therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

11 ¶ I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: "he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire:

12 "Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will "burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

13 ¶ "Then cometh Jesus "from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him.

14 But John forbade him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?

15 And Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him.

16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him:

17 And lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Christ fasteth, and is tempted. 17 He beginneth to preach, 18 calleth Peter and Andrew, 21 James and John, 23 and healeth all the diseased

THEN was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil.

2 And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungred.

3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.

4 But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

5 Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple,

6 And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

7 Jesus said unto him, It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

8 Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them;

9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

10 Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

11 Then the devil leaveth him, and behold, angels came and ministered unto him.

12 ¶ Now when Jesus had heard that John was cast into prison, he departed into Galilee;

13 And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zabulon and Nephthaim.

14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

15 The land of Zabulon, and the land of Nephthaim, by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles;

16 The people which sat in darkness saw great light; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death light is sprung up.

17 ¶ From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

18 ¶ And Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishers.

19 And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.

20 And they straightway left their nets, and followed him.

21 And going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.

22 And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him.

23 ¶ And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people.

24 And his fame went throughout all Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judæa, and from beyond Jordan.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Christ denounceth his sermon in the mount. 3 declaring who are blessed, 12 who are the salt of the earth, 14 the light of the world, the city on an hill 15 the candle 17 that he came to fulfil the law. 21 What it is to kill, 27 to commit adultery, 33 to swear 38 exhorteth to suffer wrong, 44 to love even our enemies, 48 and to labour after perfection.

AND seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him: 2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 Blessed are the poor in spirit: for their's is the kingdom of heaven.

4 Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 "Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 "Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 "Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for their's is the kingdom of heaven.

11 "Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

12 "Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

13 ¶ Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

14 "Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick, and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

17 ¶ "Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

18 For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

19 "Whoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, "Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment:

22 But I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, "Raca,¹ shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire.

23 Therefore "if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee;

24 "Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

25 "Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

26 Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

27 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, "Thou shalt not commit adultery:

28 But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

29 "And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

30 And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee, for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

31 It hath been said, "Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement:

32 But I say unto you, That whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery.

33 ¶ Again, ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, "Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths.

34 But I say unto you, "Swear not at all; neither by heaven; for it is God's throne:

35 Nor by the earth; for it is his footstool: neither by Jerusalem; for it is the city of the great King.

36 Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black.

37 But let your communication be, Yea, yea, Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil.

38 ¶ Ye have heard that it hath been said, "An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth."

39 But I say unto you, "That ye resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also."

40 And if any man will sue thee at the law, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloke also.

41 And whosoever shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain.

42 Give to him that asketh thee, and from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away.

43 ¶ Ye have heard that it hath been said, "Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy."

44 But I say unto you, "Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;

45 That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven. for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

46 ¶ For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?

47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so?

48 Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Christ continueth his sermon in the mount, speaking of alms, 5 prayer, 14 forgiving our brethren, 18 fasting, 19 where our treasure is to be laid up 24 of serving God, and manna 25 exhorteth not to be careful for worldly things.

TAKE heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them. otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven. 2 Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:

4 That thine alms may be in secret and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly.

5 ¶ And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are, for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

6 But thou, when thou prayest, "enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy doo, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly."

7 But when ye pray, "use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking."

8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

9 After this manner therefore pray ye "Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name."

10 Thy kingdom come. "Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven."

11 Give us this day our "daily bread."

12 And "forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors."

13 "And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil." For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

14 ¶ For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

15 But "if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses."

16 ¶ Moreover "when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward."

17 But thou, when thou fastest, "anoint thine head, and wash thy face;

18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly."

19 ¶ Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

20 ¶ Put lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 ¶ The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

24 ¶ "No man can serve two mas-and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other.

25 ¶ Ye cannot serve God and mammon.
26 Therefore I say unto you, 'I like no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?'

27 Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

28 And why take ye thought for meat? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

29 And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

30 Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

32 (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek.) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

33 But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

34 Take therefore no thought for the morrow, for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself: sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

CHAPTER 7

1 Christ ending his sermon in the mount, reproveth rash judgment, & forbiddeth to set holy things to days, 7 sheweth us how to enter in at the strait gate, 15 to beware of false prophets, 21 to be doers of the word, 24 his houses divided on a rock, 26 and not on the sand.

JUDGE not, that ye be not judged.
2 For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

3 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

4 Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye?

5 Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye

6 ¶ Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you

7 ¶ Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you

8 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

9 Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?

10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

11 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

12 I therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.

13 ¶ Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereto:

14 Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it

15 ¶ Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

16 Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?

17 Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit, but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit

18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit

19 Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

21 ¶ Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven

22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have we cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: "depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

24 ¶ Therefore "whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock: 25 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock

26 And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand: 27 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.

28 And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine:

29 ¶ For he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

CHAPTER 8.

2 Christ cleanseth the leper, 5 healeth the centurion's servant, 14 Peter's mother-in-law, 16 and many other diseased. 18 sheweth how he is to be followed. 23 stilleth the tempest on the sea, 28 driveth the devils out of two men possessed, 31 and suffereth them to go into the Galilee

WHEN he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

2^m And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

3 And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

4 And Jesus saith unto him, "See thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

5 ¶ And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him,

6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

7 And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, "I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.

9 For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

10 When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

11 And I say unto you, That "many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven.

12 But "the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

13 And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour.

14 ¶ And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw "his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever.

15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered unto them.

16 ¶ "When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, "Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

18 ¶ Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart unto the other side.

19 "And a certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

21 "And another of his disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

22 But Jesus said unto him, Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead.

23 ¶ And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him.

24 "And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, inasmuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.

25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish.

26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then "he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm 27 But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him!

28 ¶ And when he was come to the other side into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way.

29 And, behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time?

30 And there was a good way off from them an herd of many swine feeding.

31 So the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine.

32 And he said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine. and, behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters.

33 And they that kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the possessed of the devils.

34 And, behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart out of their coasts.

CHAPTER 9

2 Christ cureth him of the palsy, 9 calleth him the 10 cureth with publicans at dinner, 14 defendeth his disciples for not fasting, 20 cureth the bloody issue, 23 receiveth Jairus daughter, 27 giveth sight to two blind men.

AND he entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into his own city.

2 ¶ And, behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy; Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee.

3 And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth.

4 And Jesus, knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?

5 For whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee, or to say, Arise, and walk?

6 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.

7 And he arose, and departed to his house.

8 But when the multitudes saw it, they marvelled and glorified God, which had given such power unto men.

9 ¶ And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

10 ¶ And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples.

11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why catcheth your Master with publicans and sinners?

12 But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

13 But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

14 ¶ Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not?

15 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast.

16 No man putteth a piece of new cloth unto an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse.

17 Neither do men put new wine into old bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

18 ¶ While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead, but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live.

19 And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples.

20 ¶ And, behold, a woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment.

21 For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.

22 But Jesus turned him about and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.

23 And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw "the minstrels and the people making a noise, 24 He said unto them, 'Give place. for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn.

25 But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose.

26 And ¹the fame hereof went abroad unto all that land.

27 ¶ And when Jesus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, 'Thou son of David, have mercy on us.

28 And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord.

29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you.

30 And their eyes were opened; and Jesus straitly charged them, saying, 'See that no man know it.

31 But they, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in all that country.

32 ¶ 'As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil.

33 And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel.

34 But the Pharisees said, 'He casteth out devils through the prince of the devils.

35 "And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.

36 ¶ 'But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they ⁴fainted, and were scattered abroad, ⁵as sheep having no shepherd.

37 Then saith he unto his disciples, 'The harvest truly is plentiful, but the labourers are few;

38 'Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

apostles are these; The first, Simon, ¹who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother;

3 Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the publican; James, the son of Alphaeus, and Lebbaeus, whose surname was Thaddaeus, 4 "Simon the Canaanite, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

5 These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, 'Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of ^athe Samaritans enter ye not:

6 'But go rather to the ^blost sheep of the house of Israel.

7 'And as ye go, preach, saying, ^c'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.

8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: ^d'freely ye have received, freely give.

9 'Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor ^ebrass in your purses,

10 Nor scrip for ^fyour journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor ^gstaves: ^h'for the workman is worthy of his meat.

11 "And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, enquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go thence.

12 And when ye come into an house, salute it.

13 "And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it. ⁱ'but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you.

14 "And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, ^j'shake off the dust of your feet.

15 Verily I say unto you, ^k'It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city.

16 ¶ Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves. ^l'be ye therefore wise as serpents, and ^m'harmless as doves.

17 But beware of men: for ⁿ'they will deliver you up to the council, and ^o'they will scourge you in their synagogues;

18 And ^p'ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles.

19 "But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak: for ^q'it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.

20 'For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.

21 "And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child, and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.

22 "And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake. But he that endureth to the end shall be saved.

23 But when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come.

24 "The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord.

25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beezebub, how much more shall they call them of his household?

26 Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered that shall not be revealed, and hid, that shall not be known.

27 What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light, and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the housetops.

28 "And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

29 Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father's will.

30 "But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.

31 Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows.

32 "Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, I will confess him before my Father which is in heaven.

33 "But whosoever shall deny me before men, I will also deny before my Father which is in heaven.

34 "Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword.

35 For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

36 "And a man's foes shall be they of his own household.

37 "He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.

38 "And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me.

CHAPTER 11

A John sendeth his disciples to Christ: 7 Christ's testimony concerning John: 18 His opinion of the Jews: 20 Christ's rebuke of the unthankfulness and impotence of Chorazin, Bethsaida, and Capernaum: 22 and praising his Father's wisdom in revealing the gospel to the simple: 23 His call to him all such as feel the burden of sin: 24

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 "Now when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,

3 And said unto him, Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?

4 Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see.

5 "The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them.

6 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

7 "And as they departed Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? I hold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.

9 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? yea, I say unto you, and more than a prophet.

10 For this is he, of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist, notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

12 ^a And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

13 ^a For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John.

14 And if ye will receive it, this is ^a Elias, which was for to come 15 ^a He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

16 ¶ But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows, 17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil.

19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a winebibber, ^a a friend of publicans and sinners. ^b But wisdom is justified of her children.

20 ¶ Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not:

21 Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago ^a in sackcloth and ashes.

22 But I say unto you, "It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you."

23 And thou, Capernaum, ^a which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

24 But I say unto you, "That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee."

25 ¶ At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because ^a thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.

26 Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight.

27 ^a All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; ^a neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and ^a he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him.

bour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Christ reproveth the blindness of the Pharisees concerning the sabbath. 22 He healeth the man possessed that was blind and dumb. 31 Of blasphemy against the Holy Ghost, 36 and of idle words. 38 He rebuketh the unfaithful, &c.

AT that time ^a Jesus went on the sabbath day through the corn; and his disciples were an hungred, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat.

2 But when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the sabbath day.

3 But he said unto them, Have ye not read ^a what David did, when he was an hungred, and they that were with him;

4 How he entered into the house of God, and did eat ^a the shewbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, ^a but only for the priests?

5 Or have ye not read in the ^a law, how that on the sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless?

6 But I say unto you, That in this place is ^a one greater than the temple.

7 But if ye had known what ^a this meaneth, ^a I will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

8 For the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath day.

9 ^a And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue:

10 ¶ And, behold, there was a man which had ^a his band withered. And they asked him, saying, ^a Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath days? that they might accuse him.

11 And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and ^a if it fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath days.

13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other.

14 ¶ Then ^a the Pharisees went out, and ^a held a council against him, how they might destroy him.

15 But when Jesus knew it, ^ahe withdrew himself from thence ^band great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all,

16 And ^ccharged them that they should not make him known

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

18 Behold my servant, whom I have chosen, my beloved ^din whom my soul is well pleased I will put my spirit upon him and he shall shew judgment to the Gentiles

19 He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets

20 A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory.

21 And in his name shall the Gentiles trust

22 ¶ ^eThen was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind, and dumb, and he healed him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw

23 And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of David?

24 ¶ But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by ^fBeelzebub the prince of the devils

25 And Jesus ^gknew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand

26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself, how shall then his kingdom stand?

27 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges

28 But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then ^hthe kingdom of God is come unto you

29 Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house

30 He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad

31 ¶ Wherefore I say unto you, ⁱAll manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven ^junto men ^kbut the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men

32 And whosoever ^lspeaketh a word against the Son of man, ^mit shall be forgiven him, but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world neither in the world to come

33 Either make the tree good, and ⁿhis fruit good, or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt, for the tree is known by ^ohis fruit

34 O ^pgeneration of vipers, how can ye, being evil, ^qspeaking good things, ^rfor out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh

35 A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things; and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things

36 But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment

37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned

38 ¶ Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee

39 But he answered and said unto them, An evil and ^sadulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas

40 For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly, so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth

41 ¶ The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it ^tbecause they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here

42 ¶ The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here

43 ¶ When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, ^uhe walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none

44 Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished

45 Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: ^vand the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation

46 ¶ While he yet talked to the people, ^wbehold, ^xhis mother and ^yhis

20 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest. and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

31 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field.

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 ¶ Another parable spake he unto them, The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

34 All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them.

35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables, I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house, and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man.

38 The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom, but the tares are the children of the wicked one.

39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity.

42 And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

43 Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

44 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field, the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

45 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls:

46 Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind.

48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

49 So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just.

50 And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

51 Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.

52 Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

53 ¶ And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence.

54 ¶ And when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works?

55 Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas?

56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things?

57 And they were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.

58 And he did not many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

CHAPTER 14

1 Herod's opinion of Christ. 3 H. 1. 1. Baptist was beheaded. 15 Christ feedeth the 12. 22 He walketh on the sea. 34 He healeth the sick by the touch of the hem of his garment.

AT that time Herod the tetrarch heard of the fame of Jesus,

2 And said unto his servants, This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do show forth themselves in him.

3 ¶ "For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife.

4 For John said unto him, "It is not lawful for thee to have her.

5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.

6 But when Herod's birthday was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod.

7 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she would ask.

8 And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here John Baptist's head in a charger.

9 And the king was sorry: nevertheless for the oath's sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her.

10 And he sent, and beheaded John in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.

12 And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jesus.

13 ¶ "When Jesus heard of it, he departed thence by ship into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.

14 And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.

15 ¶ "And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.

16 But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart; give ye them to eat.

17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.

18 He said, Bring them hither to me.

19 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, "he blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

20 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children.

22 ¶ And straightway Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.

23 And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone

24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.

25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea.

26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear.

27 But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid.

28 And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.

29 And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.

30 But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me.

31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?

32 And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased.

33 Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God.

34 ¶ "And when they were gone over, they came into the land of Genesaret.

35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased;

36 And besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment: and many as touched were made perfectly whole.

CHAPTER 15.

8 Christ reproveth the scribes and Pharisees 11 teacheth how that which goeth into the mouth doth not defile a man 21 He healeth the daughter of the woman of Canaan, 30 and other great multitudes: 32 feedeth four thousand men, besides women and children

¶ WHEN came to Jesus scribes and Pharisees, which were of Jerusalem, saying,

2 ¶ Why do thy disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread

3 But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?

4 For God commanded, saying, "Honour thy father and mother and," He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death

5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, "It is a gift by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me,

6 And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition

7 Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying,

8 "This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me

9 But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men

10 ¶ And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand

11 "Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man, but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man

12 Then came his disciples and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying?

13 But he answered and said, "Every plant which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up

14 Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch

15 Then answered Peter and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable

16 And Jesus said, "Are ye also yet without understanding?

17 Do not ye yet understand that whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?"

18 But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart, and they defile the man
